Varsity Football

The stadium lights came on, and the crowd grew louder and louder. It was a typical Friday night football game at the Cougar Stadium! The boys started out pre-season with a bang! Junior Lee Riley (92) said, "I love football season because I just love Friday nights and the atmosphere. It gets more fun each week." While the regular season was not as successful, the Cougars showed their dedication and hard work as well as they could. Junior Dar'rell Rows (38) said, "I just brush it off; there's always the next game. I know we played our best, and sometimes we just have a tough team to beat." The varsity football team had the endurance and spirit to keep their heads up even when they were down.

Senior Kevin Dantzler (83) runs the ball, getting ready to face an oncoming block. KJ said, "I love football season because I love to play in the games and the feeling of making a great play. I love hearing the crowd, too."

Sophomore Peyton Pryor (55) waits for the kick off during the James Island game. Peyton said, "My favorite part about football season is being able to play in the games."

Senior Jarrett Ritter (43) kicks a field goal as fellow senior, Davaun Taylor (12), holds the ball for him. Davaun said, "My favorite thing about football season is being with the team. We're a really big family. Just hearing everyone yelling for us is cool. I'm really going to miss it."
