

[ball-in]

or causing awe

J.V. Girls Basketball

Who runs the world? Girls! The JV Lady Cougars expressed that quote by Beyonce through every game on the court. For their age range, these girls presented themselves with a lot of strength and school pride. The players of the basketball team were well known around the school for their skills, mind-sets, and their love for playing the sport. From the coaches to the players, basketball brought out the best within them. It showed a major commitment of being in decency and order. Basketball was more than just a game, it was who they were as a team, and as individuals.

Above Sophomore Shantavia Holmes states, "Leadership is very important in this sport, because true leadership defines a cooperative basketball player." Swish! Shantavia goes in for a lay up.

Upper Right Sophomore Sade' Stokes says, "At first, it was something that I just did, but now basketball is my passion, and pretty much my life." Her height gives her great impact on stealing the ball from opponents.

Lower Right Sophomore Alicia Williams, says "Dribbling with my left hand was a big challenge, but through my practicing, and hard work, I managed to get better at it." Alicia put her all in each basketball game.

Bottom Right Freshman Tia Chisolm made a passageway to gain a steal against Battery Creek. says "Basketball is really something that I do for fun. I look up to my older cousins and sister when it comes to this sport."

Bottom Left The Junior Varsity Lady Cougars basketball team was not just a team, but one big happy family.