Varsity Cheerleading

When it comes to cheerleading, it's not whether you win or lose, it's the friendships and memories you make along the way that will be remembered forever. Cheerleading requires a lot of enthusiasm, hard work, spirit, patience, and dedication. You spend many hours practicing cheers, stunts, and dances to prepare for games and pep rallies. Cheerleading is a lot of fun and hard work. Co-Captain MaHallie Martin says, "Being a cheerleader means being an inspiration and a leader not only to your squad but also in your school." The cheerleaders have shown their school spirit at every game to support our Cougars!

Top Left Freshman Khallia Montroy showed off her dedication to the Cougar football team by cheering her favorite cheer called watch out. Khallia says, "Cheerleading is a lot of fun, I made so many friends. Oh and I really loved our uniforms, they make us look cute!"

Bottom Left While making memories that will last a lifetime, seniors Brandi Clayton, Rebecca Siegler, Kayla Simmons, and junior Monique Thomas cheer their hearts out to support the Cougars. Rebecca Siegler says, "my favorite thing about cheering is getting to bond with all the girls."

Right Sophomore Lindsey Williams cheers for the Cougars while they make a good play. She says "One way I would improve school spirit at CCHS is to have more pep rallies on game day to encourage the students to show more spirit."

Far Left While in a stunt sophomore Zaria Garcia prepares to hold the run through sign for the football players as they enter the field hoping for a win. Zaria explains "the hardest part about cheerleading is doing my stunts because with me being a flyer its a lot of work."

Left Before the James Island game, the varsity cheerleaders get ready for the Cougars to bust through the sign in all hopes to trample the Trojans! Sophomore Mogan Seabrook says, "I enjoy cheering for football season because I get to be outside, stand up, and be wild."
