

zealous-[zel-uhs]

- full of, characterized by, ardently active, devoted, or diligent.

Top Left Freshman Teagan Crosby gives off a happy air as she supports the triumphant football team. "I can't wait to cheer again next year because it's great to get out there every Thursday night and team." Teagan

Top Right Freshman Tristen Douglas anticipates the win of her JV Boys Basketball game. "I loved cheering because it got me into the habit of exercising again." Tristen hoped to be on the varsity squad the coming year because "cheering is awesome."

Bottom Right The JV girls cheer and encourage the basketball team to dominate. Among the crowd, they felt very excited to take part in cheering on the Cougars in their future years.

Left Freshman Hailey Haynes and fellow cheerleaders yell their hearts out! "I like cheerleading a lot, and I hope to get a scholarship!" said Hailey. She thought it was very competitive and couldn't wait to be part of the squad the following year.

Top Left Freshman Timeya Hudson leads her squad in a cheer. "I'm planning on being on the squad next year because I liked cheering and meeting new people." Timeya said that cheering could be best described as 'challenging'.

JV Cheerleading

"Let's take it to the limit! Let's take it to the top! We're the mighty Cougars, and we can't be stopped!" The JV cheerleading squad worked intensively to encourage the very successful JV football and basketball team! Their confidence and optimism surely paid off. Yelling from the sidelines, the JV cheering squad supported their teams in hopes for another victory. The JV cheerleading program prepared the girls for the years that lead up to Varsity. They loved this ground-breaking year of cheering and most of them planned on returning!