

"The game is the best part of homecoming because it's a great time to hangout." - Junior Tanner Massey

The week of Homecoming is always a time where students get to show their outstanding school spirit while cheering on their football team. From Spirit Week to the Homecoming Game, the Cougars set out to show off the pride in their school. The homecoming court dressed to the nines and fans went all out in blue and white for the game. As halftime rolled around, the homecoming court awed the crowd. Even though the Cougars came up short, they still played their hearts out and made us proud to be apart of the Cougar experience. Despite the efforts of the other classes, the seniors came and conquered to win the coveted spirit stick, making this the second consecutive year that the Class of 2014 has reigned.

"I think the best part is seeing the girls come out in the pretty dresses."

Everyone held their breath as Mr. Warren announced the winner of the spirit stick. The classes put in tons of hard work and dedication, but the seniors were victorious. Homecoming was a great time to come together and show their Cougar Pride, but there will always be a rivalry between the classes for the desired spirit stick.

The crown was passed to Breon Grant as this year's Miss Senior. "I was so happy. It made me feel well respected, and it made me feel like everyone saw me as a well rounded person," proclaimed Breon. Even though she was crowned, she still remained humble; "I didn't even know I was going to win. I felt like someone else was going to."

Kashaira Givens was honored with the title of Homecoming Queen. "It means a lot to me because it means my classmates look up to me and respect me," explained "Shay." Decked out in sparkles and a charming pair of Converse sneakers, this year's Homecoming Queen really showed her individuality.
