

my melodious story

1

2

1

Seniors Amber Futrell-Patterson and Laquetta Wilson show freshman Hunter Moss how tacky day is done at a fun-loving Spirit Week practice.

2

Freshman Kathryn Hudson focuses on the drum major's instructions prior to the start of one of their first performances at a home football game.

Photo By: Eric Bjorkun

3

4

3

Sophomore Makayla Woods sports her flamboyant color guard outfit, complimented with a proud smile. Synchronization is key when it comes to hitting home in a performance.

4

Freshman Lauren Arabis is a member of the color guard and was in the feature rifle group. Having prior dancing experience, the choreography seemed to be a breeze for her.

5

5

Senior Thomas Finigan and sophomore Hannah Gamble unload the front ensemble equipment. With extremely heavy cargo, the "Loading Crew" was a vital aid for competitions.

"Becoming a drum major has made me more responsible and mature."
-senior Alexis Keen