

Alexandra Morningstar Avant

We are so proud of your accomplishments. You've worked so hard and made us so proud. You've made everyone's lives brighter with your wit and your smile. We wish you much success on whatever path you choose to take. You have worked so hard to achieve your goals and we know you will be a success in whatever you do. From the time you were a little kid, you always wanted to try everything. May you always find the extraordinary in the ordinary and live everyday to its fullest. You've come so far. Never let go of your dreams. You've earned all of these amazing things that are happening to you with hard work and determination. It's your choice to do whatever your mind can think up. Life is a blank page...an empty photograph just waiting to be filled with the things you love. You have always been a very happy, enthusiastic, positive attitude kind of girl, and we are so looking forward to seeing you continue your journey through life. You make us proud everyday.

We love you,
Mom, Dad, & Brett
