

Members of the senior class celebrate their big win of the Spirit Stick on homecoming night.

Every year, student council makes goodie bags for our school staff. These bags went to our cafeteria staff.

Seniors Elizabeth Frank and Kaitlyn Ramey lead student council members in "enerigizers." Each meeting started with these energizers to get the students excited for the meeting.

The student council members meet to celebrate their annual ugly Christmas sweater party.

The freshmen class officers wear fishing gear to show their ability to not only be serious but also relax and have fun.
