

Junior Steven Crosby has been wrestling for 3 years now and has won a total of about 35 matches. Steven says, his weight sometimes affects how he wrestles people bigger or smaller than him.

Freshman Kevin Stevenson has been wrestling for 2 years and says that it is tiring but he enjoys it. Kevin said when he's in a hard match he is motivated by his coaches because they push him more.

During a match, Freshman Timothy Pressley is determined to win, which is apparent in his 13-6 record. "I have to win in order to show I'm an important part of the team"

" We always get in a huddle, and I try to encourage the guys to give 110%
-Junior Dakota Snyder **"

During the average match, coaches can be seen yelling instructions to players on the mat. Junior Caleb O'Quinn actually finds it to be very helpful. When on the mat, O'Quinn is in his happy place, describing it as his "second home."

Lone senior, Anthony Coniglio began wrestling his freshman year to lose weight and get into shape. When on the mat, Coniglio feels completely at ease. "It's like all my work has paid off and its just me and the other guy."