

JV Baseball

ju baseball

As all sports players know, it's more than just a game. For the CCHS ju baseball players in particular, baseball is a way of life. Most of these boys have been playing the game throughout their entire lives. Under Coach Connor, the Cougars gained more knowledge of the game and honed in on new skills to be applied in future seasons. From the beginning of conditioning in the early fall, the ju baseball team was determined to be in their best physical and mental shape for the season. Through countless hours of practice, players still managed to keep their grades high and their determination to be the very best never faltered. The ju Cougar baseball players are a perfect example of hard work and dedication paying off.

Sophomore Jared Bonner shares that his goals are to, "show good leadership to my team and go about my best to win."

Sophomore Parker Seabrook stated "I play baseball to have fun and to keep my GPA 3.5"

Photo Credit: Cindy Crosby

In the final moments of the game teammates get to the feet to watch the team with pride as they players show the opponent what they're capable of.

"My goals for the season are just to try my best every time." commented freshman Joshua Kinard.

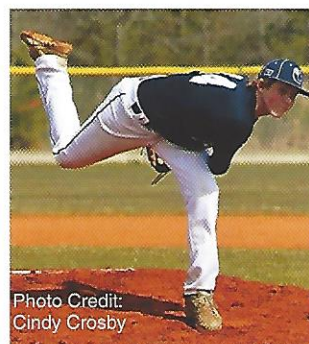

Photo Credit: Cindy Crosby

"There may be people that have more talent than you but there's no excuse for anyone to work harder than you do" says sophomore Reese Penfield.

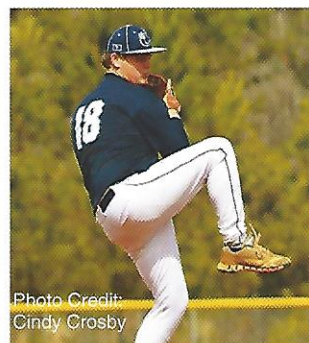

Photo Credit: Cindy Crosby

This season, sophomore Clay Lockerman feels that not only has he improved as a player, but as a teammate as well.

Photo Credit: Cindy Crosby

Sophomore Kaleb Gibson keeps his eyes focused on the catcher's mit to make sure that he throws the perfect pitch. When he gets frustrated, he motivates himself with a popular quote from Yogi Berra; "The game isn't over until it's over."