

Varsity Volleyball

The Lady Cougars were led this year by Coach Lindsey Milo. The captains were Seniors Emily Eaves and Casey Kinard, as well as Junior Hailey Felder. Senior players were Emily Eaves, Chyna Robinson, and Casey Kinard.

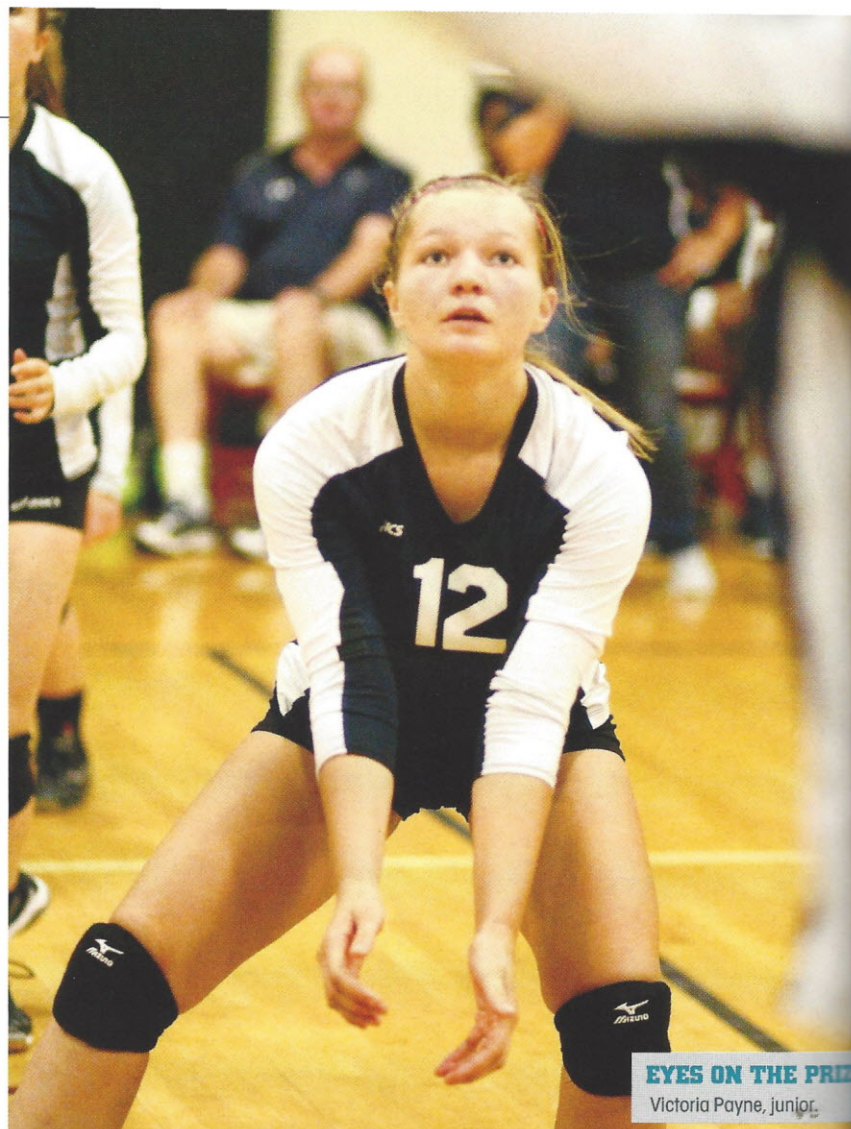

Arreyon Koger was a staple on the court this season. She was often seen towards the front of the floor due to her height.

Gabrielle Milo is a first year student at CCHS. She is the daughter of head coach, Lindsey Milo.

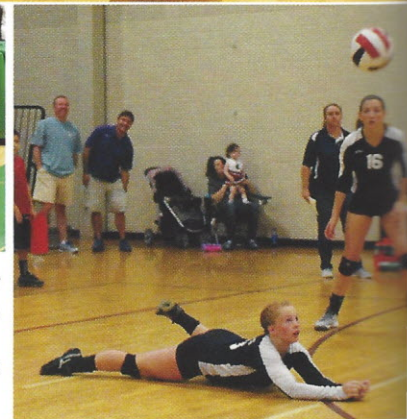

Emily Eaves, Senior, was selected as The Colletonian "Athlete of the Week" for September 3rd, 2015. In ten years, you can find Emily in scrubs as an occupational therapist.

EYES ON THE PRIZE
Victoria Payne, junior.

RIGHT: Brittany Risher, junior, is known for her abilities to meet the most difficult physical challenges. She can also be seen in the cutout at the top of pg. 51.

ABOVE: The Lady Cougars cheer on their teammates while they are on the court.

"All the talent in the world won't get you anywhere unless you have great teammates."

iAM INTENSE//

1. Michele Holmes, sophomore, is a front line.
2. Following a game win at Summerville, the ladies give the congratulatory run by.
3. "I think my teammates would say I'm goofy but I live with passion." Haley Felder, junior.
4. No one person can win a game. With great teamwork, comes great achievements. In a frequent move, players can be seen literally having each others backs.

