

NATIONAL HONORS SOCIETY

National Honor Society held its annual induction ceremony on October 18, 2017 in the Performing Arts Center for all new inductee members.

National Honor Society (NHS) is an organization based around outstanding students who maintain a 4.0 GPA and are willing to volunteer to numerous school and community activities. Under the authority of Mr. Louis Gluek and Ms. Madeline Brawley, members further their academic success as a group, and within the community to guide them in their journey to adulthood. Each inductee must complete 40 volunteer hours--10 group and 30 individual--before the end of the school year. One of the major group events for this year took NHS to Northside Elementary.

As Northside Elementary held their PBIS Event, Laura Lucas helped children carefully slide down the inflatable slide.

At the Northside Fall Festival on November 17, 2017, Juniors Jackson Moore and Wesley Bryan helped fourth graders shoot hoops during their time outdoors.

Juniors Abigail Branch, Elizabeth McLaughlin and Kensley Danzler cool off in the shade on the inflatable slide at Northside's PBIS Event.

Bottom R: Senior Alexis Farish congratulates a Northside student with a sticker on her goody bag for the cup toss at their fall festival.

NHS volunteers were able to be role models for the younger students while learning organizational skills of a large event.
