

ZAP!

Senior Ashlyn Rawls says, "Being the vice president of NHS has given me great opportunities in and out of the organization!"
2. Robert Dent (Member) states that "NHS has allowed me to meet people I would have never met."

NHS members gather for a group photo in their new club shirts outside of the library in the courtyard. Their shirts identify them as academic and service oriented for CCHS.

Seniors Tejas Patel, Jared Bailey and Alexis Farish take a hay ride during the Blackstreet Elementary's Fall Festival.

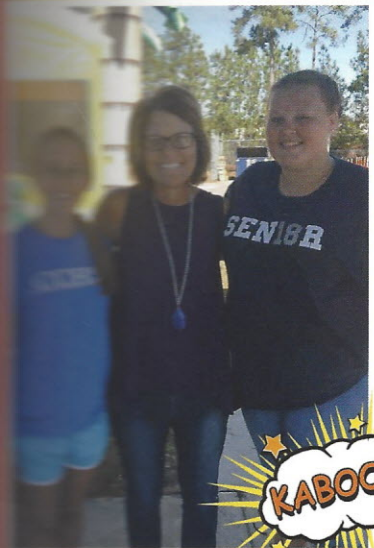

Members take group photo while eagerly waiting to start their beach sweep for a seasonal community service project located on Edisto Island.

Cami Crook (Secretary) and Anni Crook (Member) Come to agreement on how NHS has given them the opportunity to help many people and encourage others to participate in volunteer work themselves.

1. Makayla Robertson and Taylor Fussel hold conversation with one of their elementary teachers, Kelly Wiers, at a Northside's PBIS event. 2. Nick Fanchette spreads out hay for the hay game where children at Northside had to dig through to find prizes! 3. Abigail Branch signs off one of the kids at Northside's PBIS event.

KABOOM

