

LADIES OF EXCELLENCE

All of the members of the Ladies of Excellence gather back stage to prepare for the annual Black History Program at CCHS, which is partnered with Men of Distinction.

The Ladies of Excellence is an organization with a mission to help multicultural young ladies create their own definition of what it means to be a woman as they visualize their bright futures. The Ladies of Excellence have bi-weekly workshops from self worth to financial and educational empowerment. While maintaining academic excellence during development into adulthood. These ladies go by the saying: "Never look down on a sister unless your looking to pick her up."

Autumn Nesbitt (12) and Mrs. Wade (Advisor) are practicing for the Black History Program.

On March 3, 2018, the Ladies of Excellence and Men of Distinction hosted a carwash, a bake sale, and yard sale all in one at the Palmetto Rural Telephone Cooperative parking lot.

Ladies of Excellence have meetings on the 2nd and 4th Wednesday of each month. On December 13, 2017, Mrs. Bright spoke the ladies on the subject "23 Qualities That Make A Girl Stand Out".

The Ladies of Excellence host an annual Christmas Dinner for foster kids and their alternative parents. People from around the community and the school donate presents. The purpose is to provide gifts for the kids every year and feed them a nice, home-cooked meal with some food to take home. The dinner this year served 150 people.

Top: Autumn Nesbitt (12), Essence Wright (10), Brionna James (11), Kyia Brown (11), Mrs. Wade, Mrs. Brooks, Tiara Garrett (11).
Bottom: The Ladies of Excellence (CCHS) and Sisters in Action (CCMS) come together to serve food at the Christmas Dinner.

