

VARSITY FOOTBALL

As halftime comes to an end, the team huddles up to discuss the next play. Throughout October, the boys incorporate pink into their uniforms to support Breast Cancer Awareness Month.

The Colleton County High School football team adapted throughout the year to new many changes in the program. With a new coaching staff, the cougars rebuilt their program and went to the first round of the Class AAAA football playoffs. They earned this success by team building activities and events and by learning that winning a game takes the whole team, not an individual. The Cougars finished their 2017-2018 football season 4-7 overall and 2-3 in the region. Way to go, Team! What a terrific new start!

Senior Jameson Butler (#9) transitions off of the field as the special team comes on for a punt return against Stall.

Senior middle line backer Jalen Lawton (#21), with his arms wide open, runs and celebrates with Senior Legrier Bodison-Cooper (#7) after a sack against Ashley Ridge.

Senior Campbell Pryor (#49) gets ready to kick an extra point against Ashley Ridge while Junior Lance Calcutt (#22) holds the ball in place.

1. Senior quarterback Craig Grant (#4) jumps up to celebrate the touchdown against Ashley Ridge with one of his teammates.

2. Senior Javaree Salley (#57) and juniors Malcolm Greene (#71) and Troy Allen (#47) gather together to discuss their strategies for the next play against West Ashley.
