

National Honors Society, or NHS, is an organization that is solely based on academic excellence and voluntary services. This is a unique opportunity only given to students who maintain a 4.0 GPA and has the ambition to lead others. This year, NHS is under the new leadership of Ms. Kelly Villwock and they have managed to thrive! Throughout the year, they have worked in different areas in order to establish a strong community status. The organization has added several new members and have completed many projects that involves lending a helping hand. When it comes to working further with your academic goals, NHS will always be here

NATIONAL HONORS SOCIETY

SERVING WITH HONOR

The National Honors Society elects two members each year to become the officers of the club. President Rachel Williams (12) says, "Serving as both a member and president of National Honors Society has been an amazing experience. Transitioning from just completing hours to attending important ceremonies and meetings has really been a fulfilling journey."

A CHANCE TO CHANGE

Vice President, Karrington Reed (12) says, "Aside from having the honor of being inducted, I was also given the chance to volunteer and serve as Vice President."

INDUCTED INTO SUCCESS

William Finigan (11), Logan Bailey (11), Nicholas Jackson (12), Megan Gooding (11), and Ethan Thurston (11) were ecstatic to be inducted into the National Honors Society.

DREAMING IS BELIEVING!

The National Honors Society hosted a major event of the year called: Winter Dreams! Senior Kensley Dantzer (left) is seen reading a Dr. Seuss book to children. Mr. Warner (right) dressed up as Santa to bring joy into the winter season!
