

Ladies of Excellence

INSPIRING THE LADIES

Ladies of Excellence is a non-profit organization that provides mentoring to CCHS young ladies. The Ladies of Excellence has a goal or a mission to support, inspire, and nurture young ladies as they navigate through their teenage, emotional, and educational journey. The goal for them is to assist these young ladies with recognizing and reaching their full potentials while helping them to cultivate their vision for their future endeavors. The Ladies of Excellence conduct several workshops and sessions throughout the year. These workshop sessions include a wide range of topics such as post-secondary education, career development, financial management, cultural exploration, and community service activities. Ladies of Excellence is a wonderful group of beautiful young ladies who strives more and more every year.

THE LADIES' PURPOSE

Ladies of excellence has helped so many lives. With time spent together, you are sure to gain confidence in yourself, your future and in your social life or interactions. "As a part of CCHS I look forward to another year of Ladies of Excellence."

FUN OH FUN

All smiles from the Christmas act! Ladies of Excellence has an objective for young ladies to respect themselves and to be positive role models for others in many ways.

LEADERSHIP

"We support the collective advance to reaching our young people by providing a two-way dialogue to learning and growing," stated Ms. Miller.

HELPING THE COMMUNITY

Sophmores Jada Wright and Na'ajah Pinckney (right) and Senior Brionna James with Ms. Thomason (left) was a part of the coat drive, which was such a generous act of kindness from their hearts to those in need in the community.

L.O.E TRAVELING AND EXPLORING ACROSS THE CITY TO HELP OTHERS

