

Men of Distinction all started in the 2011-12 school year. Organizer Mr. Shon Johnson was mentored by former principal Mr. Cliff Warren to realize the goals of young men to prepare them for their future, to explore new horizons. But most importantly, Warren charged Johnson with thinking outside the box in order to build these young men into strong, intelligent gentlemen and prepare them for the real world. The young men who are a part of Men of Distinction volunteered for the position, hoping to be guided into greatness. So, moving forward we would like to honor the 2018-19 MoD: Armond Bright, Brandon Wilkey, Calloway Arkez, Ian Shark, James Eshburne, Timothy Wright, Damontre Williams, Alston Sherrill, Temoj Butler, Thomas Brown, Jahill Ellison.

Men of Distinction

2018-2019 YOUNG ACHIEVERS

BATTLE OF THE BADGERS

Pitting Dorchester County against Charleston County, the Battle of The Badgers was a football event with the sheriff's department and the fire department going head to head. The Men of Distinction had the honor of running the concession stand for the day.

MENTORING THE KIDS

Men of Distinction participated in the mentoring program with North Side Elementary students throughout the year.

ALL ABOUT THE MOTHERS

The annual Mothers Day Appreciation banquet is hosted by MoD in the CCHS auxiliary gym.

SUPPLY GIVE AWAY

Men of Distinction went to all the elementary schools to give away school supplies as a generous act of kindness and to show the children how to become leaders by making someone happy in many ways possible maybe even becoming a part of Men of Distinction one day.

BLACK HISTORY PROGRAM, HOSTED BY THE MEN OF DISTINCTION

