

Poem

Shane Roberts

This year is gone by, way to fast
So lets remember the times in the past.
There were times when we were glad,
And times when we were really sad.
The times that we were together,
And the memories that will live forever.
But now its time and we must go
To a different grade with more to show,
With lots more wisdom and lots more brains,
And to put away those childish games.
So I write this poem with love and sincere,
And I hope you have had a really great year!!!
