

Colleton Middle School Band

"The Junior Band", is a group of musically inclined students who through years of experience have learned how to make enjoyable music.

Music is not the only thing stressed in band. The ability to get along with others, to cultivate loyalty to one another or to an organization.

The band participates in the Christmas parade, concerts, assemblies and festivals during the school year. The band is under the direction of Mr. Keith James.

