

The Colleton Middle School Chorus

The Chorus of Colleton Middle School, Campus A, presents two main programs during the school year — one at Christmas and one in the spring.

Out students participate in choral clinics during the school year where they sing music that is prepared in advance with other students and also by themselves.

The chorus is under the direction of Mrs. Janice Young.

