

Sponsors, voting for queen, and the dance make Homecoming special

Homecoming

Lee McConnell was chosen by her class as a candidate for Homecoming Queen. Her parents are Tuck and Earle McConnell.

Kristie Smith, was crowned the 1991 Queen.

Laurie Steele, daughter of John and Barbara Steele, was chosen by her classmates as a Homecoming Queen candidate.

Homecoming 1992 was a special time in the lives of all CPA students, families, and graduates. Homecoming serves as an opportunity for everyone to focus on the school that was once theirs. Memories of their alma mater will stay with them forever.

Before the big game, the nine senior football players and managers were escorted onto the field by their sponsors. During the half-time festivities, the three Homecoming Queen candidates were driven across the field, where 10 former Homecoming Queens joined them. Candidates, Laurie Steele, Lee McConnell, and Kristie Smith, anxiously awaited the announcement of the one voted Queen by her peers. Reigning Queen, Michelle Jones, crowned Kristie and presented her with roses as the crowd cheered.

After the victorious game against Country Day, congratulations were given to the players and coaches, the students in grades 8-12 headed to the gym for the big dance.

The Junior class put on the dance, where everyone danced and had a great time.

Along with being candidates for the Homecoming Queen, these three girls play an important part in each other's lives. Lee, Kristie, and Laurie are all Varsity Cheerleaders. Their friendship has grown through the years, and this will definitely be added to the long list of memories.
