

Ah, this is the life. Sharing good times together is what friendship is all about. Griffin Warren, Buck Howell, and Josh White spend a lot of time together at Edisto Beach.

Shelley White and Kristie Smith, friends since kindergarten, have spent thirteen years together, including cheer-leading since the 8th grade. A hug in the hall reaffirms their friendship.

Mike Padgett gives his friend, Dori Futch, a birthday hug during her 15th birthday celebration. The closeness of the seniors carries to activities and special events outside of school.
