

Farewell, But Not Goodbye

You and I have shared a bond for all these many years.

As friends we've walked, sharing laughter, joy and tears.

Though time may pass and things may change, one thing I know is true. I have a very special friend as long as I have you.

No other words can clearly express my feelings for you, my classmates.

I love you all!

Dori Futch,
Senior Class Editor 1992

The "Awesome L's", Landis, Lee and Laurie, know how to dress to impress. Cotillion always presents an opportunity for friends to play Cinderella.