

Nicole Robertson and Jennifer Housand go over notes with the class to make sure they have all that they need for the upcoming test. The seventh grade had to make many changes so they could adapt to the harder work assignments.

This group of seventh graders, Ellen Herndon, Scott Carter, Brandon Fralix and Christy Fargnoli, stand around after lunch talking about what has happened earlier in the day. After lunch they get to go to Mrs. Speaks' class and then they head over to P.E. with Coach Parnell.
