

Cheering wildly, the JV Hawks begin a knee-slapping cheer to encourage the JV boys to "rebound that basketball." These cheerleaders are always ready with a cheer or chant during all events of the game.

Before halftime, the JV practice their pyramid while Kelly Smith makes the final corrections.

The JV cheerleaders, led by Cara Valentine, work diligently during their weekly after-school practice to prepare for the football season. They believe that "practice makes perfect."

During halftime, Coach Corinne Brittle and Co-Captain Kelly Smith discuss cheers and share a joke before returning to the sidelines.
