I have never found the words to say
How I feel for you
Perhaps I'll see you far away
But now our time is through
Somewhere down the Road
Our paths will cross again
Wherever you roam
You'll have a home
In my arms my friend.
If you begin to give in
Or break down under the bad
You know I care
I'll see you there
Somewhere down the Road
I know you must be going now
I call out your name
I don't know why, I don't know how
Goodbye Always Feels the Same
