XPECT THE UNEXPECTED

School-wide participation and creative imaginations produce "out-of-this-world" spirit.

Lounging in their favorite evening wear, Jon Baggett, Wes Pye, Whitney Holmes, Lolly Oswald, Kimberly Smith, and teddy bear "snuggle" during Spirit Week.

From October 17-21, CPA students exercises their imaginations by dressing up for Spirit Week. Pajama Day, Tacky Day, and Redneck Day produced costumes that made people wonder, who would buy these clothes? The outrageousness ended on Friday when middle and high school students performed skits ranging from games to impersonations. Students participated in Hush Button day during which girls were not allowed to talk to the boys. Throughout the week, grades K-12 worked together to show that everyone has the spirit necessary to support the Mighty Hawks.

These 9th graders showed their spirit during Redneck Day. Camouflage, boots, and cowboy hats were the basic attire throughout the school day.
