ECOGNIZING EXCELLENCE

Standing strong and proud, seniors receive deserved recognition for outstanding devotion.

The tradition of Homecoming includes alumni, friends, and family, sharing their pride in the school. Before the game, senior football players and cheerleaders were escorted onto the field by their parents. The Warhawks fought diligently for a 38-20 victory over Country Day. During halftime festivities, Amy Godley was crowned Homecoming Queen. The other Homecoming candidates were Jennifer Mixson and Laurel Anne Oswald.

Amy Godley, Jennifer Mixson, and Lolly Oswald anxiously await the announcement to determine the Homecoming Queen.

Jennifer Mixson, Laurel Anne Oswald and Amy Godley were nominated by the senior class as the 1994 Homecoming candidates.

Amy Godley, the 1994 Homecoming Queen, is student body president, co-editor of the yearbook, and a cheerleader.
