

Middle School

Stuck In

The Middle

"Middle school is fun because we are a part of everything. We have classes in the high school building and we also get to participate in sports." — Michelle Hoats

During orientation, Mrs. Speaks welcomes Kerry Tripp to the C.P.A. family.

Finally, as part of the big picture, middle school students become more involved in school activities. Everyday they change classes and share the latest gossip about what happened last weekend or the identity of the newest couple. They go through a big change from lower school to middle school, and they may even be a little nervous at first. But when it comes down to it, these might be the best times of their lives.
