

Mrs. Folk cheerfully discusses the date of the next dance for the sixth, seventh, and eighth graders.

Mrs. Folk carefully explains the next YAB project to the group members.

Kimberly Smith paints tears of death on Lolly Oswald who was figuratively "killed" by a drunk driver.

This year the YAB gave the entire school a scare by showing how many people died from alcohol-related accidents.

