

We enjoyed being “adopted” by the football team, and Homecoming Week was really fun. Friday was blue and white day; at 2:00 we had a pep rally with skits.

Seven Fives. (Back to front) Fifth graders Bryan, Terri-Lyn, Boone, Jimmie Leigh, Brandon, and Sarah understand the meaning of demanding, yet rewarding, work.

Constructive Congestion. A class photograph is a good excuse for Mrs. Dianne Tuten to allow her students to crowd the hallway of the middle school building.
