

Showtime: Student Council and the PTO

Santa Sees a Shrink

For the first time in many years, the CPA stage provided the setting for a theatrical production by students on December 7, 1995. Entitled Santa Sees a Shrink (Yule Never Know the Troubles I've Seen), the play followed a depressed Santa Claus who had lost his enjoyment for Christmas.

A joint effort by the Student Council, the PTO, and the senior Advanced Placement Composition class, the play was directed by Mrs. Debra Snyder.

The small crowd in attendance generously applauded the efforts of the production crew, indicating that this rare "showtime" was appreciated.

Carnation Accolades. Mrs. Debra Snyder prepares to reward her actors and actresses with carnations following the production of Santa Sees A Shrink.
