

Playful Pals. Students in the lower school enjoy not only meeting their secret pals, but also the time to wrestle and play on the football field.

remember the time

Secret Pals and Halloween Sandwiches and Ghouls

Each fall, the Student Council sponsors Secret Pal Week. During that time, students from the middle and high schools secretly provide small gifts or surprises for their younger, lower school "pals." On Friday, a big picnic is held at War Hawk Stadium where the younger students meet their secret pals.

Halloween is another special day. Many students and teachers dress up as their favorite monsters or characters; however, the seniors tend to have the most fun, as they parade around campus and "model" their costumes.

This year, the outfits ranged from the Cat in the Hat and Hans and Frans (from "Saturday Night Live" fame), to a jack-o-lantern and Spot from the 7-Up "un-cola" commercials. Not surprisingly, Halloween was a time to remember for the students, staff, and faculty.

Let's Do Lunch. The newest member of the sophomore class, Heather Bradley, shares lunch with her secret pal.

Search and Rescue. Senior Bud Herndon looks around the football field trying to find his secret pal.

