

Christina,

For eighteen years, you have been preparing for graduation day. Now the time has come to send you off into the world. We have no doubt that you will succeed in making all your dreams come true. Dad and I are so proud of you and your determination to achieve your goals.

“This road is your freedom, the highway to your dreams; remember where it came from no matter where it leads.” Any time you’re out there feeling all alone, remember the road on which you leave home will always bring you back.

With Love,
Mom, Dad,
Sarah, Nicole

Congratulations,
Lindsay:

We’re so proud of you. You’ve always been the M.V.P. in our lives! Let your competitive spirit and enthusiasm work for you and you can accomplish anything.

We Wish you the best of everything in the future!

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Holly

Bud,

No other parents could be more proud of their son than we are of you. Your senior year has been a tough one, but together we have fought the fight and kept the faith. As you graduate and “undertake” new beginnings, always remember: “It ain’t nothing but a thing!”

We love you with all our hearts.

Mom and Dad

P. S. Still driving that same tractor after 17 years! At least now your foot reaches the gas pedal.
