

Pep rallies are a time to show school spirit for the first graders.

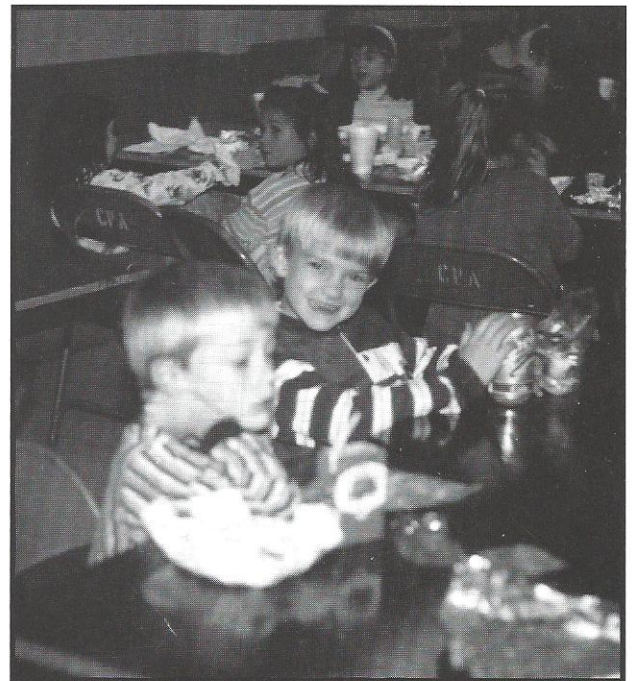

Students must get prepared for their day by sharpening their pencils in the morning.

Computer is one of many activities that the first grade participates in at school.

Lunchtime is always a favorite with the first grade because they get to talk with their friends.

Coloring is one of the first grader's favorite activities.

