

New Faces

Michael Herndon and Bubba Brown, former Walterboro High students, fit right into the Colleton Prep scene. They found time to not only study, but to be involved in extracurricular activities.

Charlie Pierce is the newest edition to the class of 1997. He was a transfer from Walterboro High and became a member of both the football and baseball teams.

Eighth grader Smith Richardson has enjoyed his first year at Colleton Prep. Smith has made a great impression on the school and is liked by everyone.

Mrs. Adelman and her daughter Cara have made many new friends this year. Cara is a member of the graduating kindergarten class of 1997.
