

Adam Kellam

My Dear Adam,

Where do I begin? These past 18 years have been filled with so much. You are a special young man, filled with compassion and kindness, the dedication to give 100% to life. There is no doubt in my mind that you will go very far in life. You can do anything you want to and I know that whatever you choose to do, you will give it your all. Just a little advice. Look deep into your heart for guidance and always follow your dreams. Live life to the fullest and enjoy the little things that this world has to offer. The roads you choose may not always be easy, but I am sure that you will travel each one with the greatest degree of determination and skill and that you will accomplish all you set out to do. I am so proud of you and the accomplishments you have made in these short years. You have always been a shining light in my life and always will be. It is with great pride and joy that I have the wonderful job of being not just your Mom, but your best friend and biggest fan. So, go forward and begin the journey that will take you into the next stage of your life, knowing that you have the love and support of me, your brother, your sister-in-law, and your Nana. May you find a wealth of love, happiness, joy, and laughter, because you deserve this so much. Look for the bright side and keep smiling. Mom, Nana, Frankie & Leigh Ann
