TALON 2001

Dedication

The yearbook is dedicated every year to someone who has either been at Colleton Prep for a substantial amount of time, or has contributed greatly to the CPA family. This year's Talon is dedicated to someone who has fulfilled both of these requirements, Mrs. Belle Morehead. She has been involved with our school since 1982, and although she has left us several times, she has always returned with the same Hawk spirit and desire to help and teach. Mrs. Morehead has been involved with both Lower and Middle school teaching. She has coached volleyball and been the Talon supervisor. The CPA family wishes to recognize Mrs. Morehead to show our appreciation to such a wonderful lady.

The Class of 2001

Years from now, No one will ever have to ask how
The Class of 2001, Always had so much fun.

There were Kristy and Ansley's weekend stories, And you knew to find Allyn Anne at Cory's.
You would always see Stacey in Abercrombie & Fitch, Ashley thought she was the "Baddest Witch".

Amber would be asking what was going down, Deana would be parked uptown.

Vishal would tell anyone why he was the best, Shellie was asleep in her desk.

Michael, Adam and Will would be playing a card game, Kevin D., Sam and Lucas knew Hawk Football was destined for fame.

Jack would be off playing in his band, Dwayne and Joel were the funniest in the land.

JR would tell everyone about his dream, While Smith and Tyler debated who was the best on the team.

All while Kevin M. was out hunting, The Class of 2001 would never be caught fronting.

The bond between these twenty-two people is so great, The fact they all ended up together could be fate.

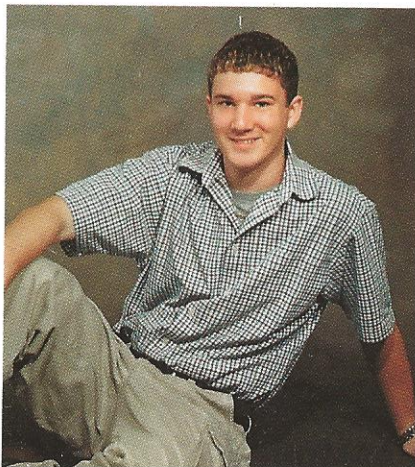

So this poem ends, As their lifelong friendship just begins.

... When Tyler thought he was the real Michael Jordan.

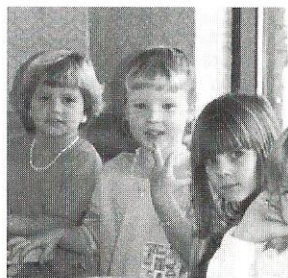

...How Ashley and Stacey were so very cool!

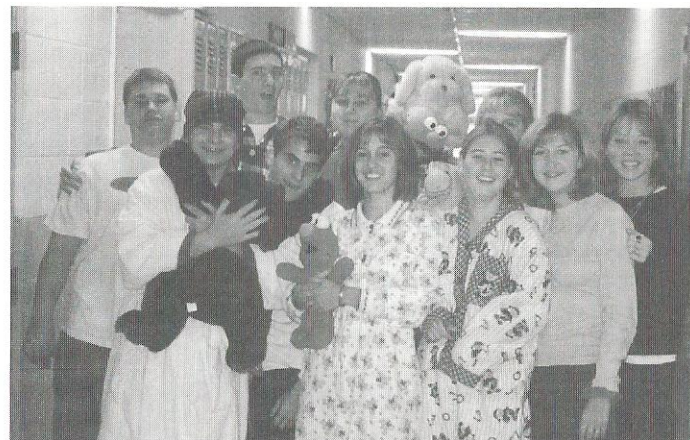

... When JR and Jack were the Two-Headed Man.

...Smith's NC State Obsession.

● ● ● ●
...How Ashley and Allyn Anne were friends before they knew each other!

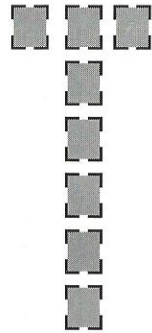

... How The Class of 2001 was always stylin'!

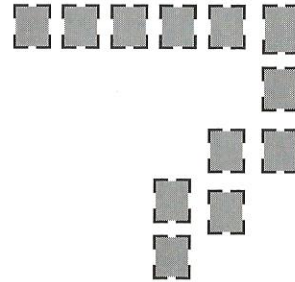

Oh, The Times We've Shared!

Like the time Ansley had that Homecoming Party!

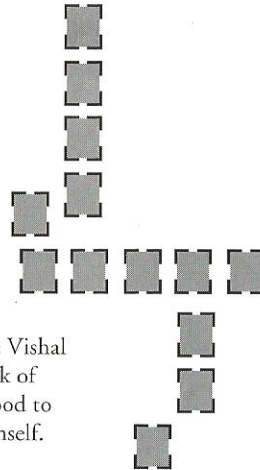

Like the time Dwayne bleached every hair on his head!

Like the time Deana was here everyday out of the week!

Like the time Vishal couldn't think of something good to say about himself.

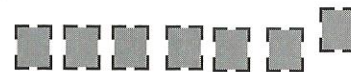

Like the time Joel wasn't sarcastic!

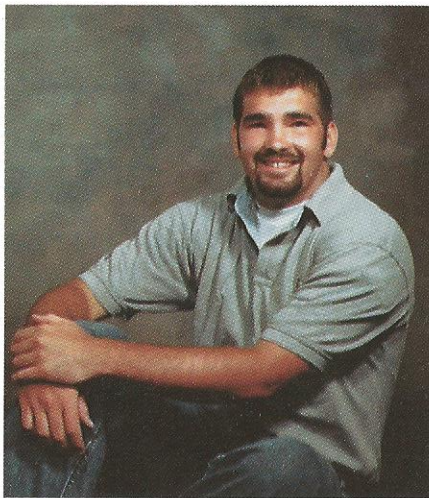

Like the time Doc Holiday ran rampant!

Like the time Jack stayed awake through an entire class!

The Seniors, led by Mrs. Werntz, start the day on The Battery.

Ansley, Deana, and Kristy enjoy this break in the walking by striking a pose.

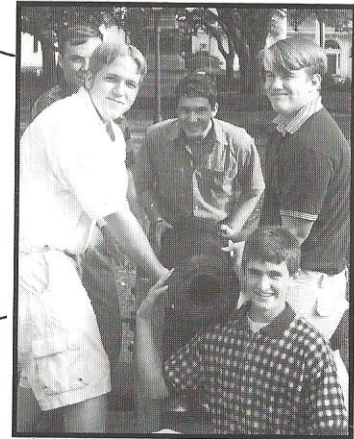

Michael takes time to check out the view.

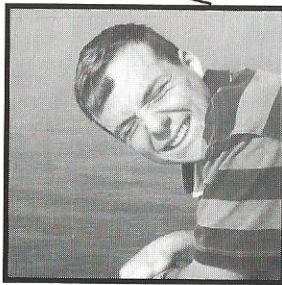

On September 20, 2000, the Seniors went on their Senior Day Trip to Downtown Charleston. The day was packed full of memories as they toured the Battery, Waterfront Park, and Abercrombie & Fitch. With all of the walking this entailed the bunch feasted at Applebee's -- and we do mean feasted! Mrs. Werntz, the Senior Sponsor, along with the class, are never going to forget this day!

Senior Day

Some of the Senior guys show off their artillery.

As the tide goes out, Joel catches the foul stench of the marsh.

Will just can't express his joy for missing this day of school.

Smith does a little pole dance for the ladies!

Ashley and Jack demonstrate that two heads really are better than one.

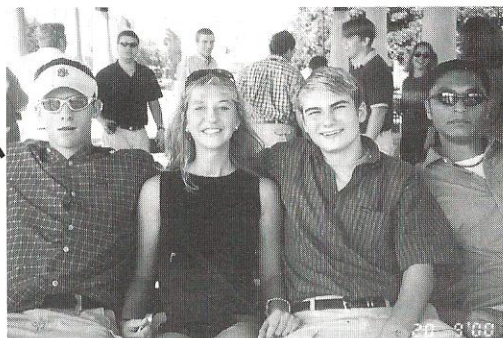

Ashley and Allyn Anne show that they are the true works of art.

Deana and Sam show their excitement to be Seniors.

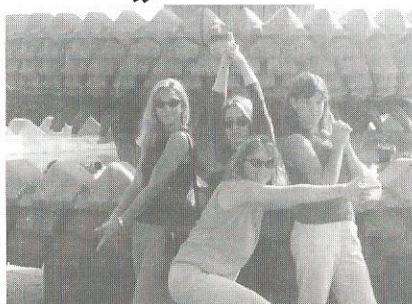

Tyler, Stacey, Smith and Vishal enjoyed themselves on the swing.

Some friendships were made to last a lifetime.

Super Seniors!

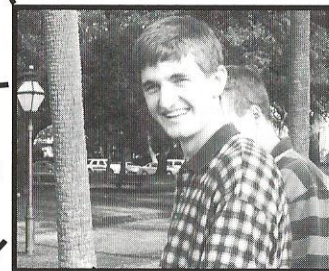

Deana reloads the camera, ensuring she will be able to remember the day forever!

Tyler relaxes after eating too much!

Lucas takes a break before the class goes home.

Kevin smiles, remembering the good times the class has shared.

Who knew Britney Spears went to Colleton Prep!

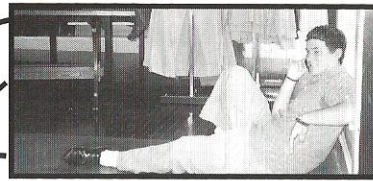

Kristy waits for her server to come at Applebee's.

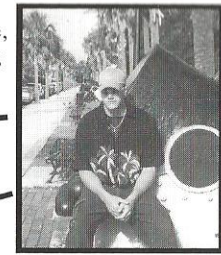

Ashley can't go anywhere without basketball recruiters calling her!

These six have thoroughly enjoyed themselves on this memorable day!

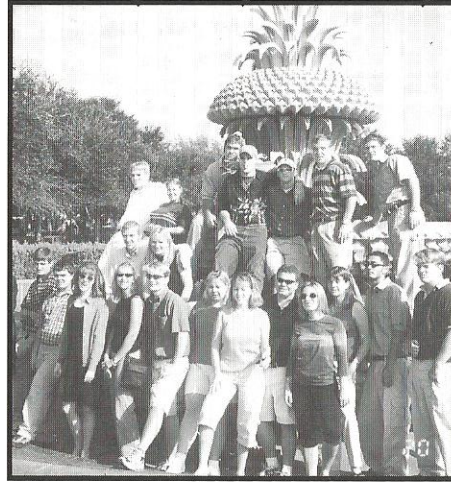

Jack chills in Abercrombie, demonstrating that style is about attitude!

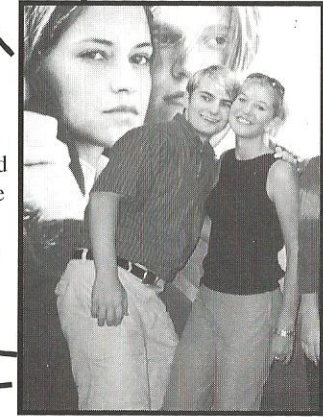

Kevin patiently waits for the group to decide where to go next.

Memories to Last a Lifetime!

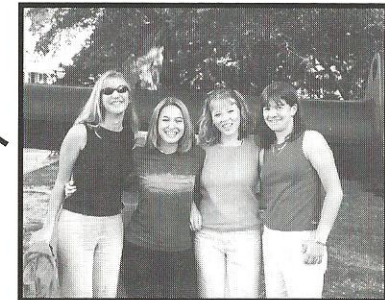

The Seniors take a moment to reflect on the good times they have shared!

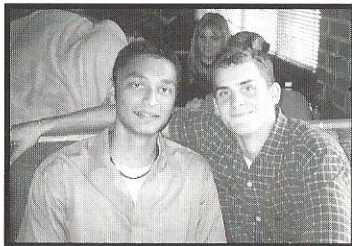

We all know that Smith and Stacey are the REAL Abercrombie models.

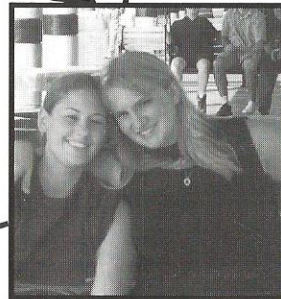

With these ladies, the Battery never looked so good.

These girls will be friends forever!

JR smiles in anticipation of the trip to Waterfront Park.

JR BEACH AND ASHLEY SMITH

Biggest Case of Senioritis

THE CLASS OF 2001

JR Beach, son of Roger and Christy Beach, has attended CPA since Kindergarten. While attending CPA, JR has played on, and been a manager for, the football team. JR has been the president of his class for three years and serves on the Board of Directors for Youth Leadership Colleton. During the summer of 2000, JR attended school at Princeton University, taking courses in government and communication.

Ashley Smith, daughter of Shannon and Karen Smith, has also attended CPA since Kindergarten. She has been very involved in athletics throughout her schooling. She has cheered, played volleyball, basketball, and softball. Ashley is this year's Senior Class Representative to the Student Council. Over the summer of 2000, she attended Palmetto Girls State.

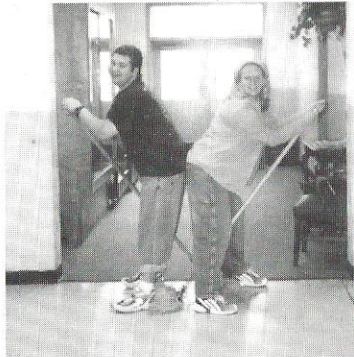

Both JR and Ashley, are planning to attend Winthrop University in the Fall. JR plans to major in Mass Communications. While Ashley is looking to go into Psychology.

Honor Societies

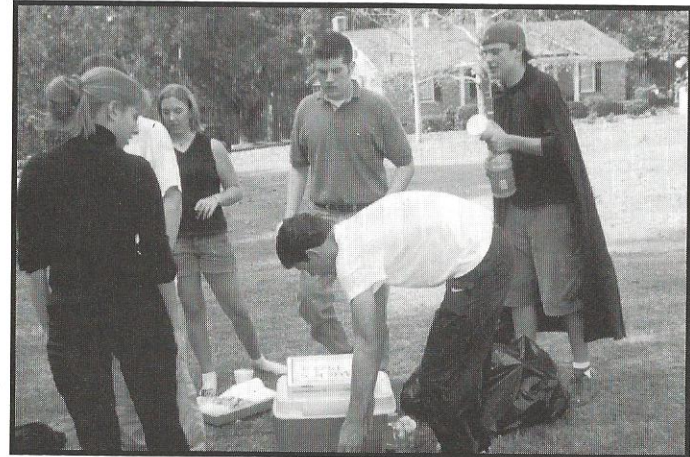

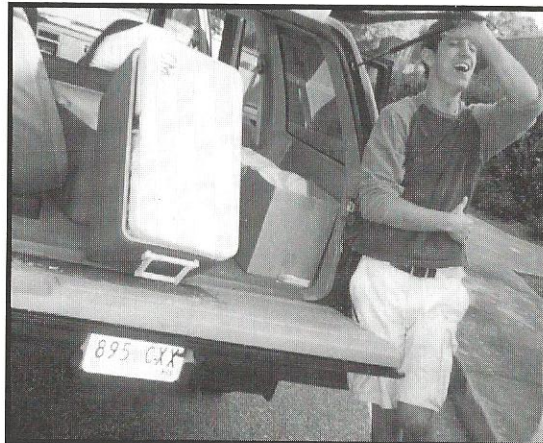

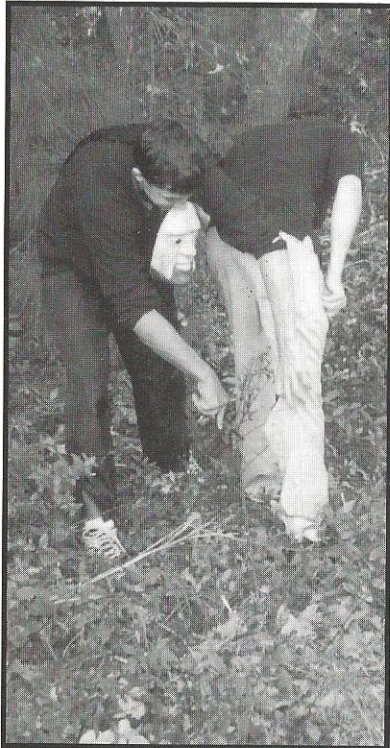

Senior and Junior

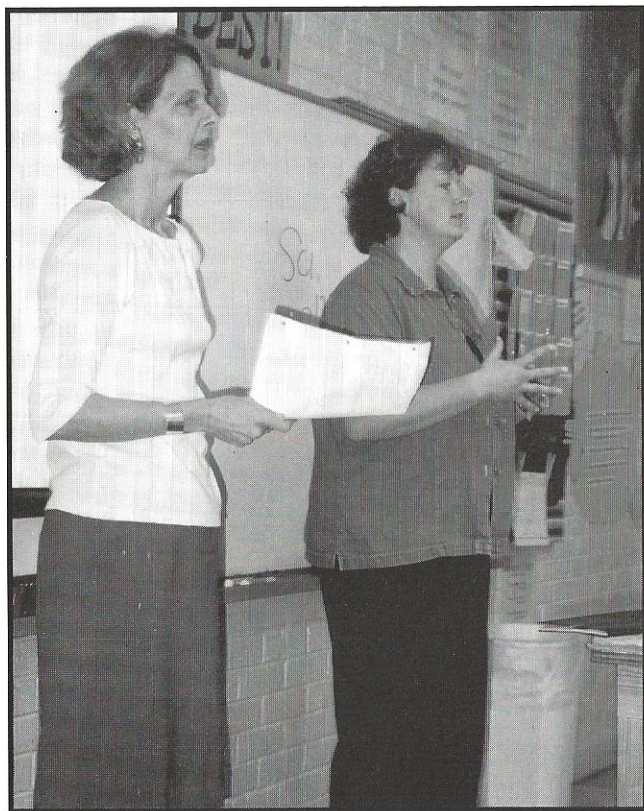

The National and Junior National Honor Societies strike a pose in the CPA library. Students are selected based on their academic performance and leadership capabilities. National Honor Society members have to serve 20 hours of volunteer community service. Projects include Camp Happy Days, Race the Ace Triathlon, lunch orders for the lower school, and Asthma Awareness Day. The following members are not pictured: Stewart Benton, Wesley Henderson, Sarah DeGraw, Chris Hutto, Daniel Lewis, Samantha Ospitale, Rachel Parchini, Sarah Catherine Tuten, Michael Upchurch, Eileen Campbell, Amber Bennett, Adam Kellam, Kevin Murdaugh, Dwayne Hawk, and Jeremy White.

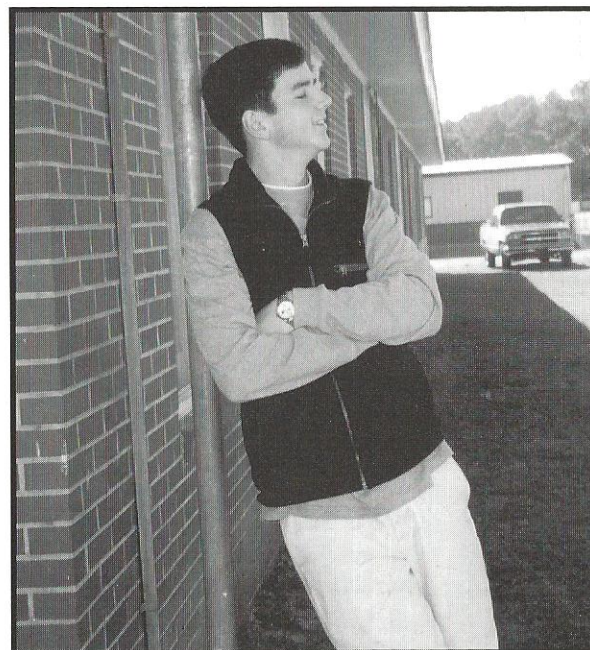

Happy Days and Special Times

Wendy Strickland and Janet Buckner, the Junior class sponsors, explain new fund raising plans.

John Roddey pauses in a moment of deep thought.

The Juniors discuss their plans for this year's fund raisers.

LIFE

Making Magic ...

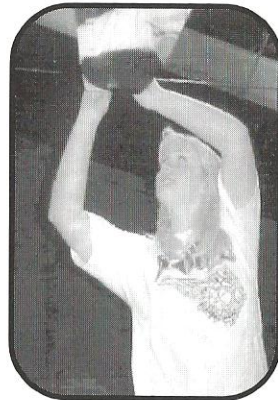

Through hard labor, teamwork, and dedication, the class of 2001 created a prom that was truly "Millenium Magic". Everyone decided that the prom of 2000 was one of the best in years. Last year's junior class demonstrated their capabilities and friendship through many fundraisers.

Jack's fantasy of sitting inside a giant zero was fulfilled before last year's prom.

Ansley helps to put the roof over the prom, carrying on the family tradition.

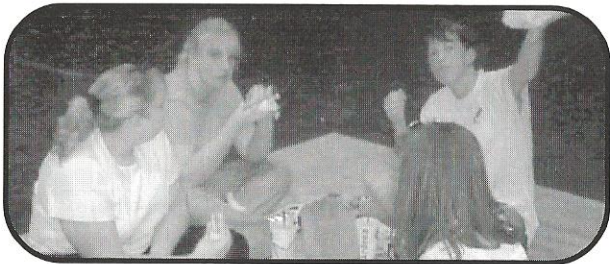

Smith and Ashley; good thing they weren't the real DJ's for the prom.

Jack and Tyler prove that duct tape can be used for anything.

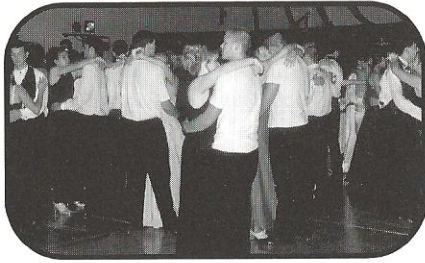

Some of last year's junior ladies enjoy a snack while building the prom.

Ashley assists Amber after getting herself stuck in a column.

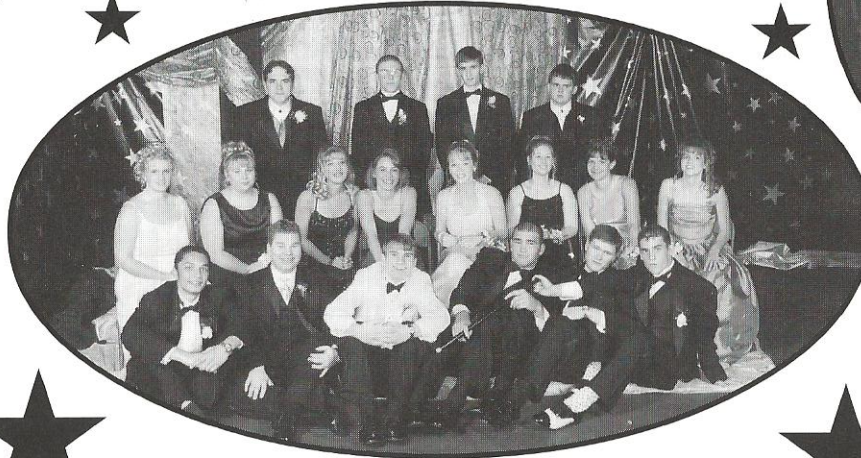

Everyone had to slow it down to get some personal time with their dates.

The crowd cheers as Tyler has just been named prom prince.

The chaperones proved that they were experienced at having a "Good Time!"

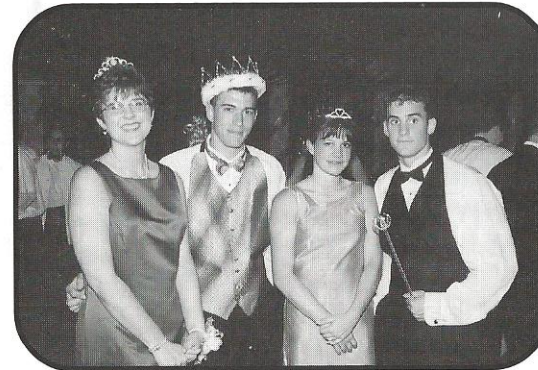

Jared Fralix and Tina Ferguson were chosen to be this year's prom king and queen. Tyler White and Ashley Smith were chosen as prince and princess.

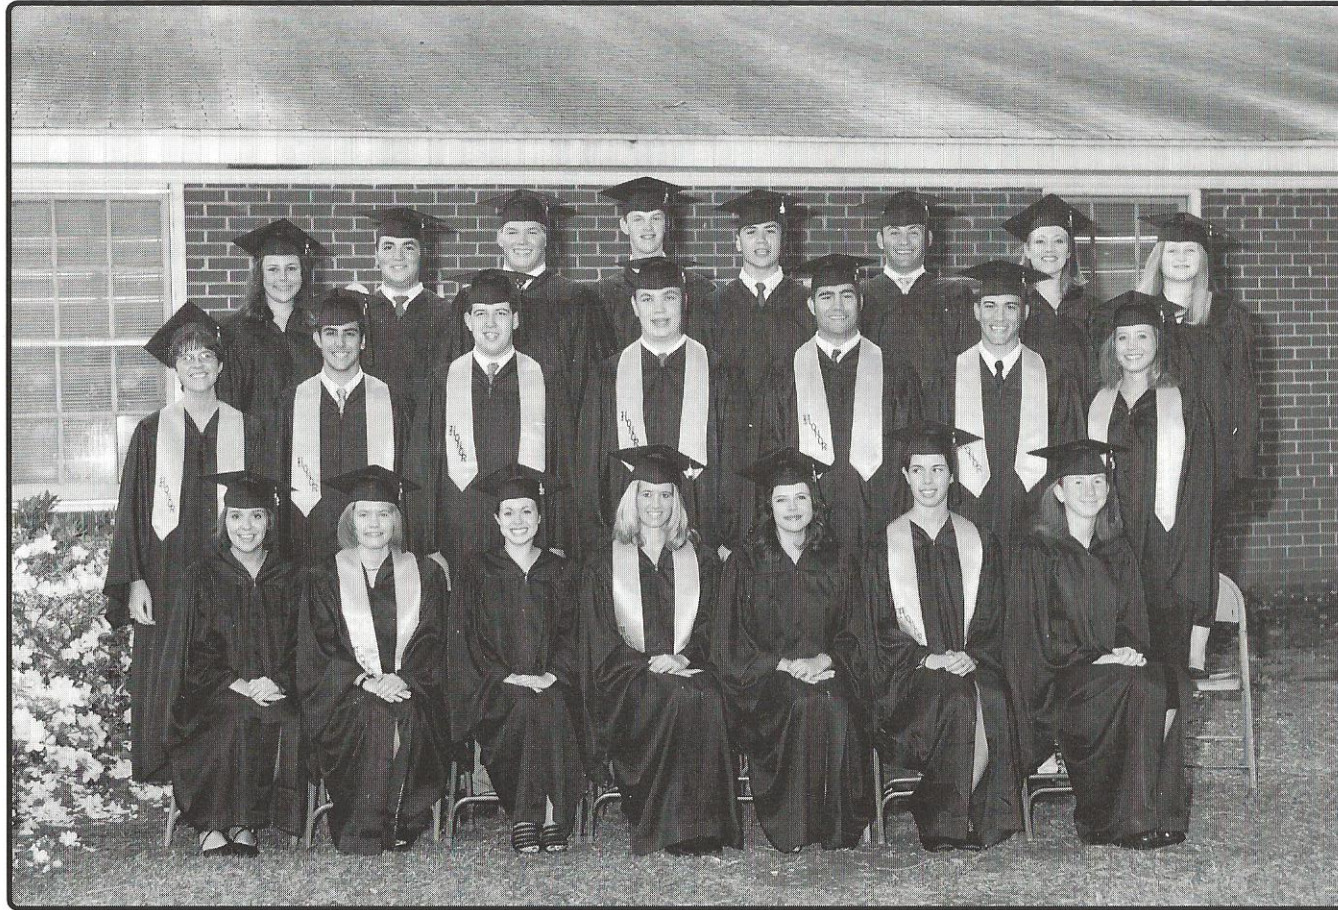

Class of 2001

Graham Buckner, Ricky Patel, Brent Gresham, and Viral Patel were chosen to serve as ushers for the prom.

The Class of 2000!

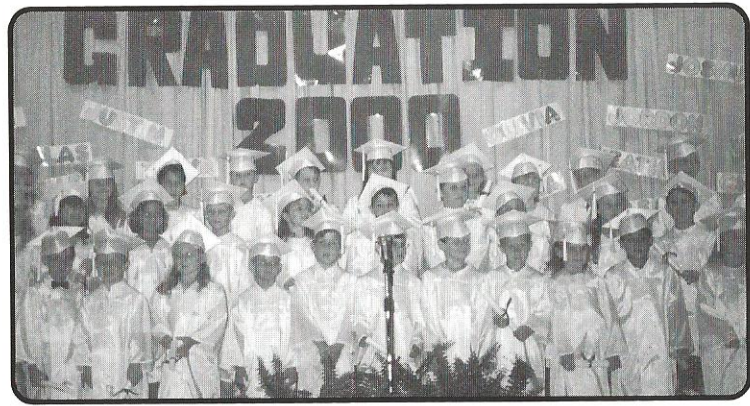

Moving on Up

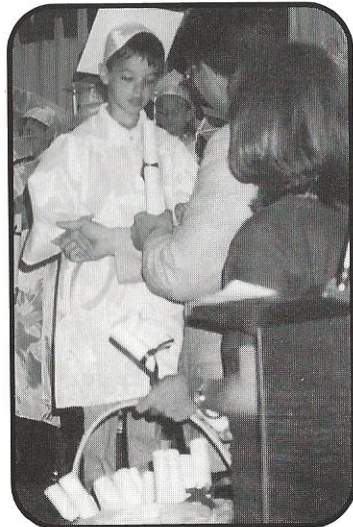

Shauna Gerard, Chrissy Fenn, and Lainey Fenn happily pose after their first year at CPA.

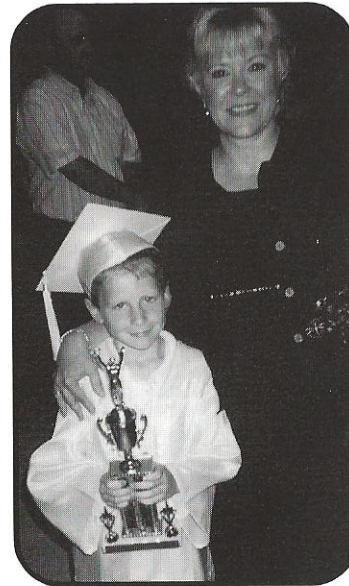

Max Mitchell, Scott Frazier, and Forrest Morgan are ready for the first grade.

The Kindergarten class of 2000 excitedly displays their diplomas. Only twelve more years to go.

Mrs. Smoak and Justin Colson shows off his trophy after graduation.

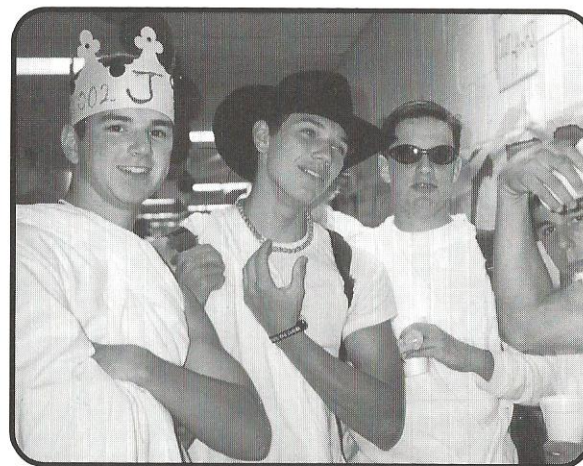

Even with all the excitement Joshua and Jordan stand still long enough to take a picture.

These are the two hotties of the school Brentina and Bubba.

These boys had no clean clothes so they decided to wear sheets on Crazy Hat Day.

Rusty shows off his super freak style on Retro Day.

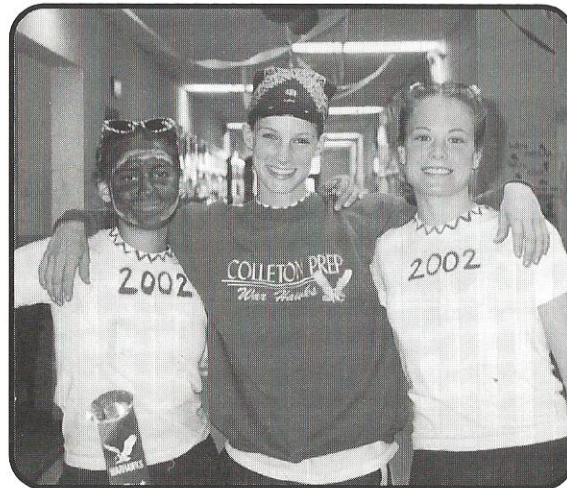

The senior guys are tough and rough and we like their make up.

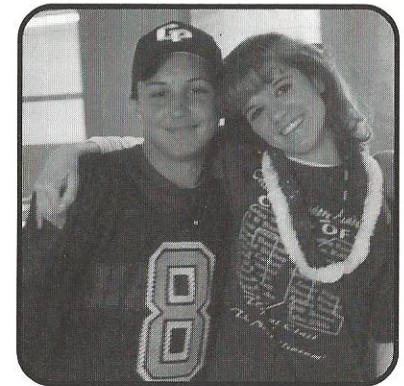

Even the lower school shows off their spirit.

Scarlett, Sloane, and Haley definitely have school spirit.

Shellie and Chad look cute on Blue and White Day.

A Queen and Her Court

The Homecoming Queen for 2000-2001 is Stacey Melinda Rogers.

Alynn Anne Martin and Ashley Smith were happy to be candidates for Homecoming Queen.

These two were this year's King and Queen of Hearts.

Andrea Gooding and Mallory Hogan represent 9th grade.

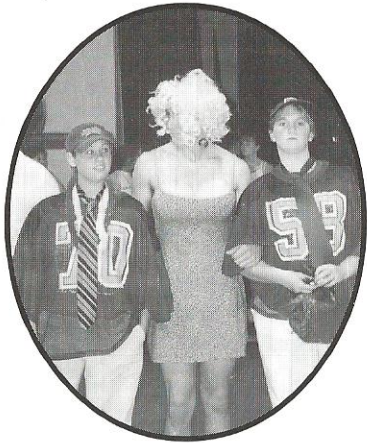

Rachael Parchini and Ashley Thomas represent 10th grade.

Scarlett Herndon and Haley Hogan represent 11th grade.

Dude Looks Like A Lady

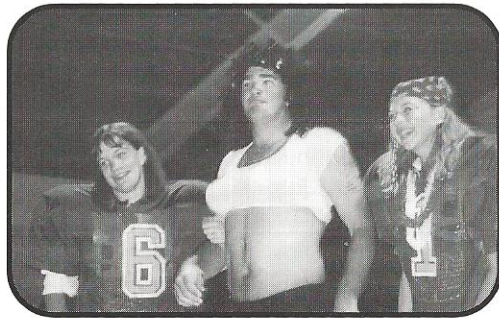

Madam Adam was all glitter and glamour proving one can have fun on and off the field.

After winning the title of Mock Homecoming Queen, Smith bathes in his glory assisted by his pals Chip and Dale.

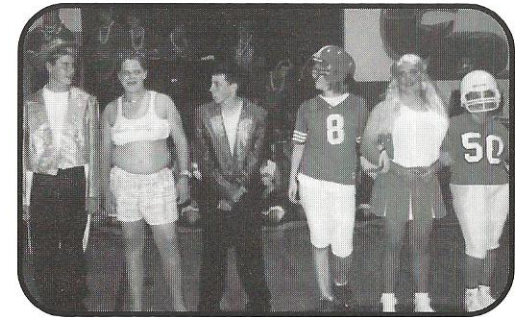

Brent seems to be enjoying his new wardrobe a little too much!

Sam Harriott clearly defines the notion that beauty is only skin deep.

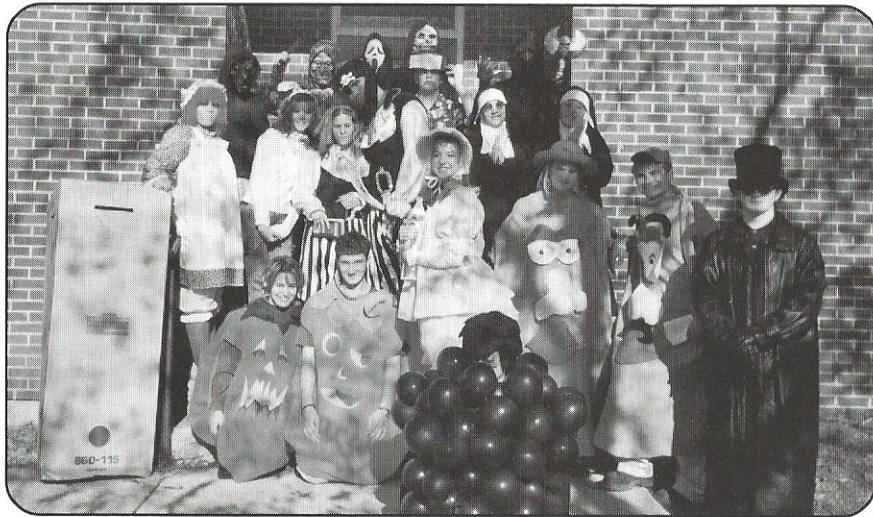

Chris demonstrates that knee socks are back in style.

These beauties wait while the crowd determines their fate.

TRICK OR TREAT

The class of 2001 was very creative with their costumes this year. They had everything from a furniture box to Johnny Appleseed.

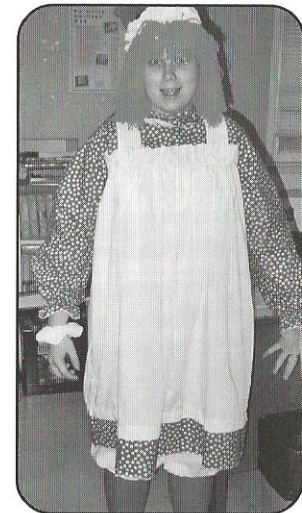

Halloween was a fun day for the Seniors. They dressed as their favorite monsters or characters. The seniors paraded around the classes to show off their true identities.

Jack and Amber obviously think alike.

Baby Got BACK!!!

Raggedy Deana misses her Andy.

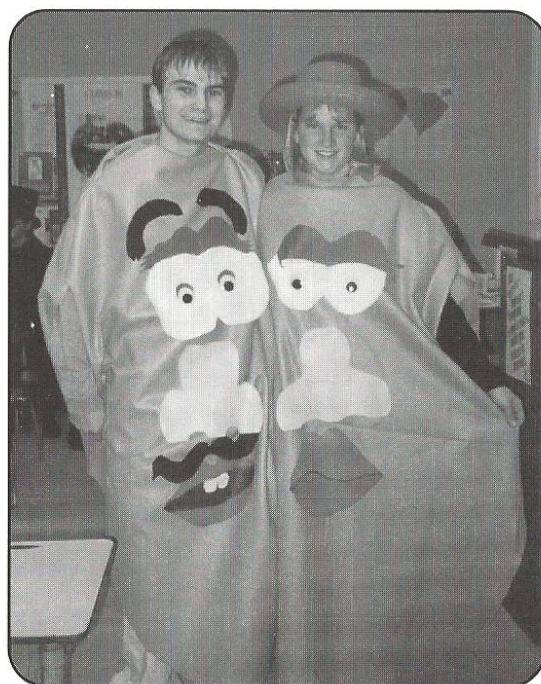

ARRRGH!

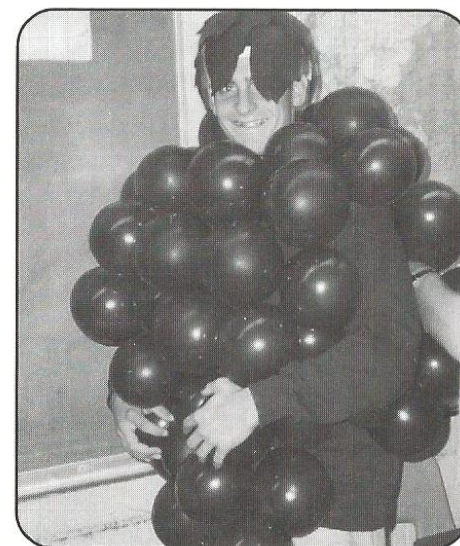

The nuns also showed up on Halloween to ward off any evil spirits.

Shellie bounced her way through school all day long.

Mr. and Mrs. Potato Head look like a match made in Heaven. Hopefully their tatertots will not come until later.

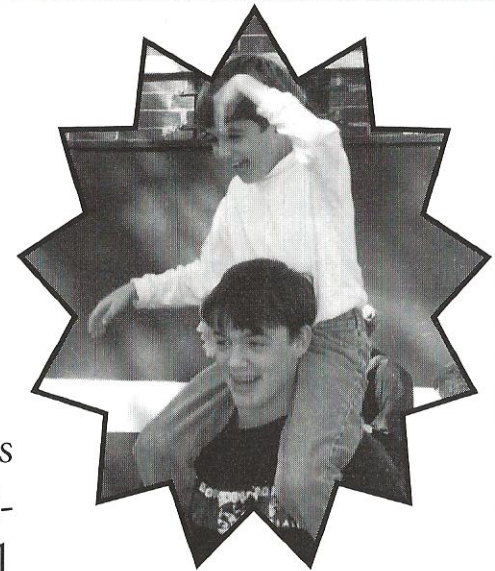

Tyler heard about his idea for his costume through the grapevine.

SHHH ...It's A Secret

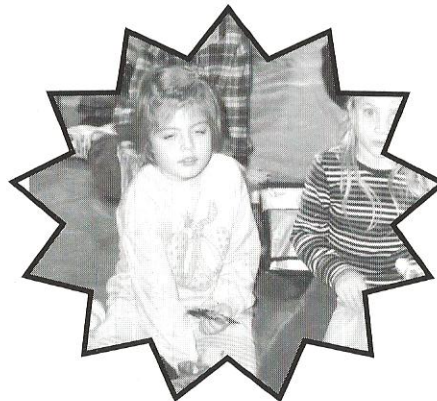

Lindsey and Danielle carry a box full off secret pal bags to Ms. McConnell classroom.

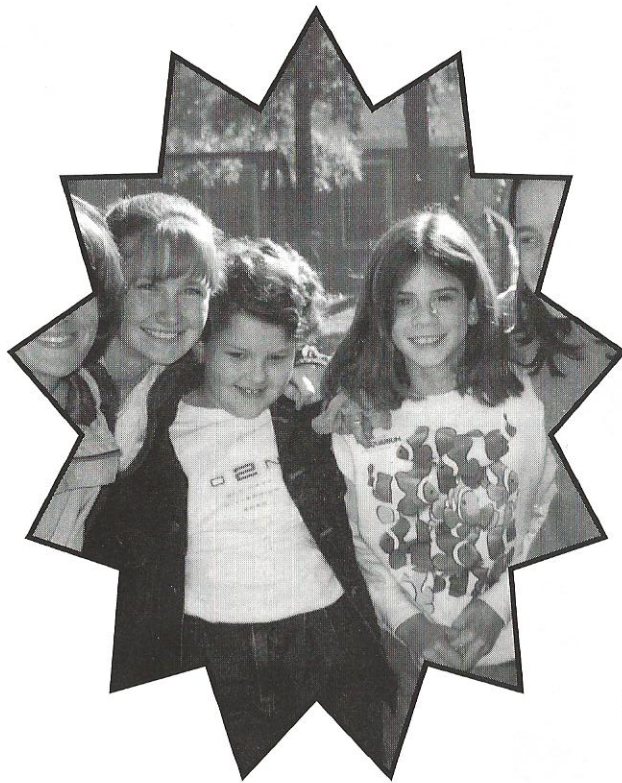

Every year Student Council sponsors Secret Pal Week. This has become a beloved tradition at CPA. Secret Pal Week is unique in how it unites lower school students with those in the middle and high school.

Michael and his secret pal enjoy their picnic out on the playground.

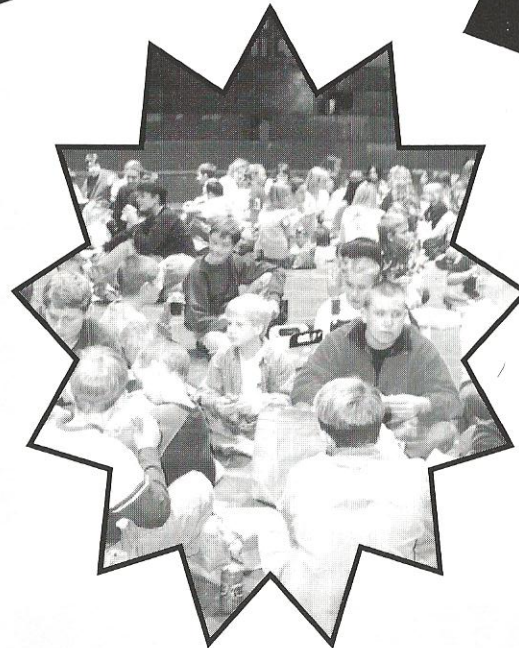

These two secret pals are excited about their surprise.

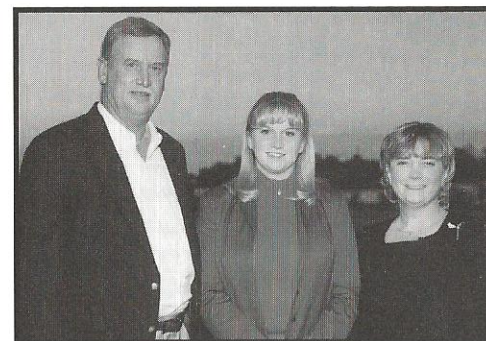

Scarlett, Emily, Ashley, Abigail, and Rilee Ann smile for a picture while playing after they have eaten their lunch

The Hawks become hogs during secret pal lunch!

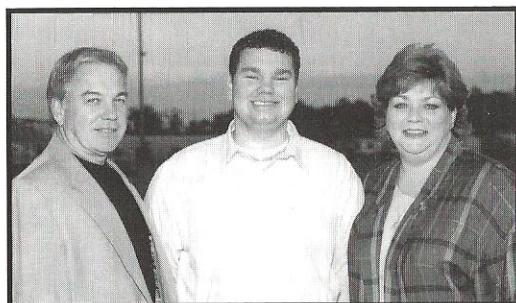

Wesley helps out the student council by bringing his classmates bags to Ms. McConnell's room every morning.

Bringing Books to Life

Tina and Nicholas reenact Disney's Pocahontas.

Morgan McCaskill dresses as a princess from her favorite book.

The library at CPA sponsors a storybook parade for grades K-5. Every year the kids dress up as a character from their favorite book and show off their costumes on the football field. After the kids are judged and have received their prizes, they parade through the halls showing the older students their costumes. The storybook parade encourages reading for all ages.

Madison Utsey shows us that not all pirates have to be scary.

Bailey Stone is an angel in disguise.

Before we go on...

This year the Warhawk Athletic Program was excited to have Brock Miller as the new Athletic Director. Coach Miller joins the CPA family after coaching at Roy Hudgens Academy for the past five years. Along with coaching and being the Athletic Director, he also teaches Consumer Math. The effects of Coach Miller's presence can be seen all over the school - from the newly redone locker rooms, to study hall(which is mandatory for all athletes), right down to the repainted bleachers in the gym. School officials and students are thrilled with all that Coach Miller is doing to constantly raise the standards of the Athletic Program at CPA.

Coach Miller can always be seen doing something at the school!

Congratulations Seniors

I have watched some of you grow from Kindergarten to young adults - some of you have left and returned, some have you started in the first grade, some of you have joined the class in later years, but each of you have a special place in my heart. I am very proud of you. Thank you for letting me be a part of your school days. I have enjoyed every minute of it. I love you.

If we could give a gift to you
That your heart could always hold
It wouldn't be made of precious jewels
Or formed from purest gold.
We'd always pray God's best for you
And do everything we could
To make your life a blessing
And to seek your highest good.
Thank you for all the years of love and joy
smiles and talks you brought into our lives.
May all your hopes and dreams come true.

My Little B,

You are not only my little brother, you are my best friend. We have been through tears, laughs, heart-aches, and loves. And, through it all, we stood by each other. You have become a strong and caring young man. Remember that wherever life may take you, I will always be by your side! I am very proud of you and all of your hard earned accomplishments!

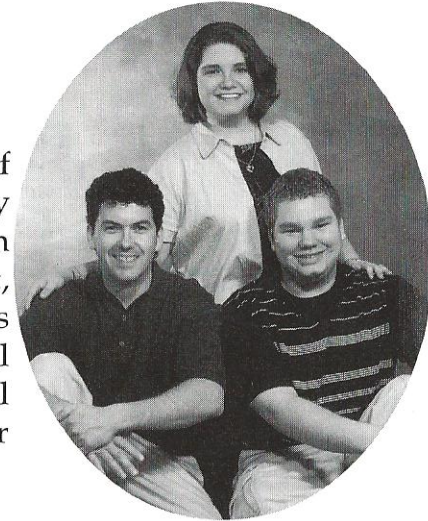

Much love,

J.R. Beach

Book,

Words can not express how very proud we are of you. You have grown into such a caring and funny young man. Your hard work and wonderful laugh will take you far. Remember if your mind can think it, your heart can feel it, your hands can achieve it. As you start a new chapter of your life, know we will always be here. Keep your faith in God as He will never leave you alone. Always serve Him in whatever situation life places you.

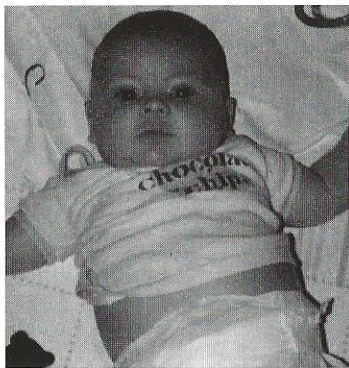

We Love You Very Much,
Mom & Dad

JR,

Separated by 17 years and many miles, we have had few opportunities to share many of the brotherly moments that others have. Those barriers, however, have not prevented me from sharing the joy of your many accomplishments. You are truly an individual...an intelligent, caring person with a strong work ethic and an excellent moral compass. I am sure the best is yet to come.

Love,
Jimmy

Adam Kellam

My Dear Adam,

Where do I begin? These past 18 years have been filled with so much. You are a special young man, filled with compassion and kindness, the dedication to give 100% to life. There is no doubt in my mind that you will go very far in life. You can do anything you want to and I know that whatever you choose to do, you will give it your all. Just a little advice. Look deep into your heart for guidance and always follow your dreams. Live life to the fullest and enjoy the little things that this world has to offer. The roads you choose may not always be easy, but I am sure that you will travel each one with the greatest degree of determination and skill and that you will accomplish all you set out to do. I am so proud of you and the accomplishments you have made in these short years. You have always been a shining light in my life and always will be. It is with great pride and joy that I have the wonderful job of being not just your Mom, but your best friend and biggest fan. So, go forward and begin the journey that will take you into the next stage of your life, knowing that you have the love and support of me, your brother, your sister-in-law, and your Nana. May you find a wealth of love, happiness, joy, and laughter, because you deserve this so much. Look for the bright side and keep smiling. Mom, Nana, Frankie & Leigh Ann

Deana Carter

I remember that tiny person for the
First time in my arms - home filled
With joy and love and pride I felt.
The thoughts that flooded through me
Were the same as any prayer - so much
The same I might as well have knelt.

This is my child, my little girl, so
Beautiful to me. She held my heart
In those two tiny hands.
She'll need me for awhile, then begin
To pull away - It's pain that every Parent understands.

My fervent wish that joyous day,
For the strength to do it right.
For wisdom to prepare her to be free.
Free to live her life...
Free to choose her path...
Free to strive to be all she can be.

Letting go is never easy, but I know
I have no choice. She must decide
The path that she will trod.
So I'll stand and watch and worry...
But let her make her way - this child -
This lovely girl... my gift from God.

I can't believe it's that time already! The years have passed so quickly. You are truly a blessing and such a precious gift. We couldn't be more proud of who you've become. Stay strong in the Lord and always remember "You can do all things through Christ who strengthens you." (Philippians 4:13)

May God bless you. We love you very, very much.

Our Dear Michael,

We want to tell you again how proud we are of you, academically and most of all for the fine young man you are. You are the joy of our life. Thank you for keeping two old grandparents young at heart. We love you!

Continue to keep your faith and trust in God and everything in life will fall in place. You have been and will always be our "sunshine".

Deana Carter

Deana,

How elated we were when you were born and we found out we had a grand daughter. You have brought much joy to our lives since that day.

We pray God's richest blessings on you as you continue your education and prepare for your future.

We love you very much,

Ansley Bailey

To see you happy - laughing and dancing, smiling and content, striving towards goals of your own, accomplishing what you set out to do, having fun with your friends, capable of loving and being loved is what I always wished for you. Today I thought of your beautiful face and felt your excitement for life and your genuine happiness and I, as your parent, burst with pride as I realized that my dreams for you came true. What an extraordinary person you have become and as you continue to grow please remember always, how very much I love you.

Mom

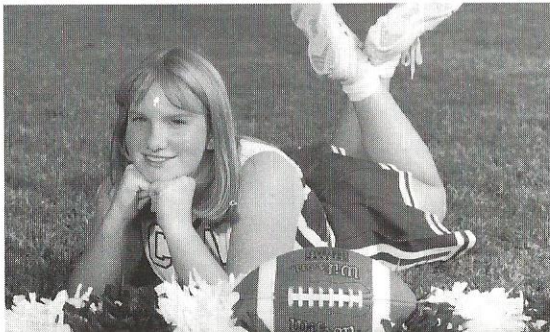

You have always made me proud. You can do anything you want with your life. Trust in yourself and create the kind of self that you can be happy to live with all your life. Take the tiny, inner sparks of possibility and fan them into flames of achievement . . . large or small. Many small flames set the framework to greater goals. Remember you are always loved by your family.

Dad

It is hard to believe that you are where I was at just four years ago. I know that it is hard to get ready to leave home, even if you want to act like you are SO glad to be out of there. There is a saying in my sorority that probably will suit this situation more than others:

With trust in the strength of your character, which was established long before we met you, With the pureness of heart that we all have in common in some point in our lives, With faith in your scholarship, for in knowledge there is freedom. We guide you as you inspire us, We are your support, your big sisters, your solace, your cheering section, You stand at the doorway of the best years of your life, And this occasion is for you alone. Alone is a scary thing, but I will be there for you.

I love you,
Stephanie

Shellie Anne Kearse

I know why!
Babies cry,
Birds fly,
Rivers run deep,
And mountains are high.
Why the sun doth shine
And why stars are bright
And boats do sail
And why we can't fail.
Let me pause
To give Him thanks, Knowing
He will walk with you
Hold your hand,
Then like me
You shall know why!

Dakota,

You are our sunshine; our life and always the love of our lives!

Love you always, Mom & Billy

"the direction in which education
starts a man will determine
his future life..."
PLATO 347 B.C.

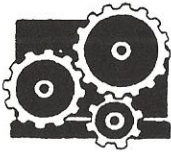

These words spoken over 2,000 years ago are still true. An education is an investment in the future, its importance cannot be over estimated.

We at First National salute you who graduate this year and wish you all possible success in your endeavors.
