Celebrating 40 Years of Quality Education

PREPARING FOR COLLEGE

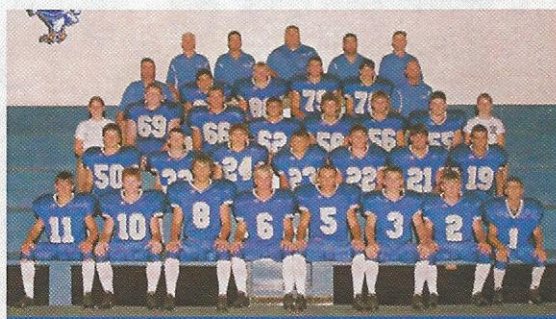

This year marks the 40th year that Colleton Preparatory Academy has been preparing students for life's challenges. Its primary goal has always been to educate the whole student, with emphasis on academics, athletics, leadership and a well-rounded educational experience. As Colleton County celebrates its 300th anniversary this year, Colleton Prep continues to be an integral part of the community.

Located in picturesque Walterboro, South Carolina, Colleton Prep is an Advanced Placement (AP) Honors and college preparatory school for grades K5-12. Thirty-nine of its 475 students will graduate this year, with most earning college scholarships, both academic and athletic. Of these graduates, 97 percent will go on to college. Headmaster Arthur L. Ellis Jr. says, "We are very proud of our secure family environment created by our involved, caring faculty. We have a 15:1 student/teacher ratio, and our faculty averages 16 years of teaching experience."

The school has been recognized many times for its academics. It consistently achieves Advanced Accreditation from the South Carolina Independent School Association (SCISA), the highest level awarded. The Palmetto Association of Independent Schools (PAIS) also recognizes Colleton Prep as one of the top private schools in the state.

The outstanding athletic program, consisting of 24 athletic teams, has its own achievements including the President's Cup from SCISA, awarded to the top 2AA athletic program in South Carolina for four consecutive years. Colleton Prep has won eleven state championships in football, baseball, softball and cheerleading in the past five years.

The student body is very active in community service projects. The school's student council has raised money for the National Heart Association, Muscular Dystrophy Association, Hurricane Katrina relief and the American Cancer Society, among others.

2005 COLLETON PREP WARHAWKS

Ellis calls Colleton Prep "the best value in private education in the Lowcountry of South Carolina, because our tuition is comparatively low, but our standards are indisputably high." His plan for the school is to "continue to develop leadership in our students through all the programs we offer, from the very young all the way through seniors."

Colleton Preparatory Academy is currently accepting applications for the 2006-2007 school year, and need-based scholarships are available. Please contact the school for more information on scholarship opportunities. Colleton Preparatory Academy admits students without regard to race, creed, nationality or ethnic origin.

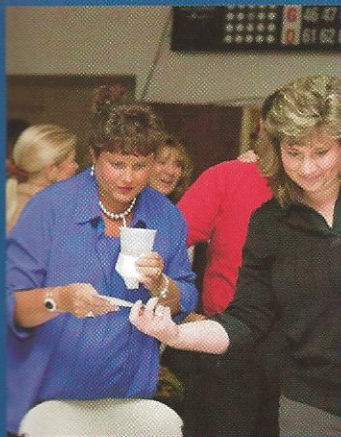

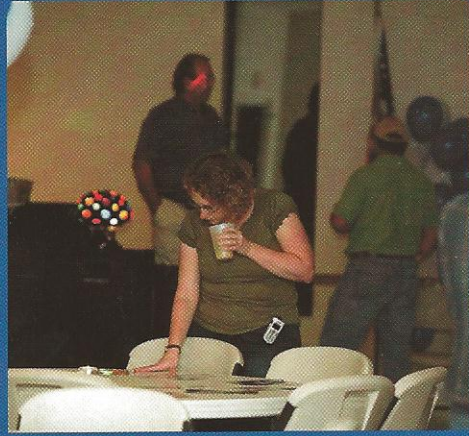

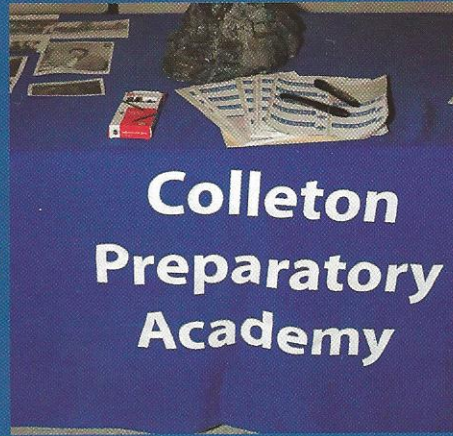

Headmaster Arthur Ellis is seen receiving the President's Cup from Mike Fanning, Athletic Secretary of the South Carolina Independent School Association.

The 2007 Talon is Dedicated to Mrs. Christi Langdale

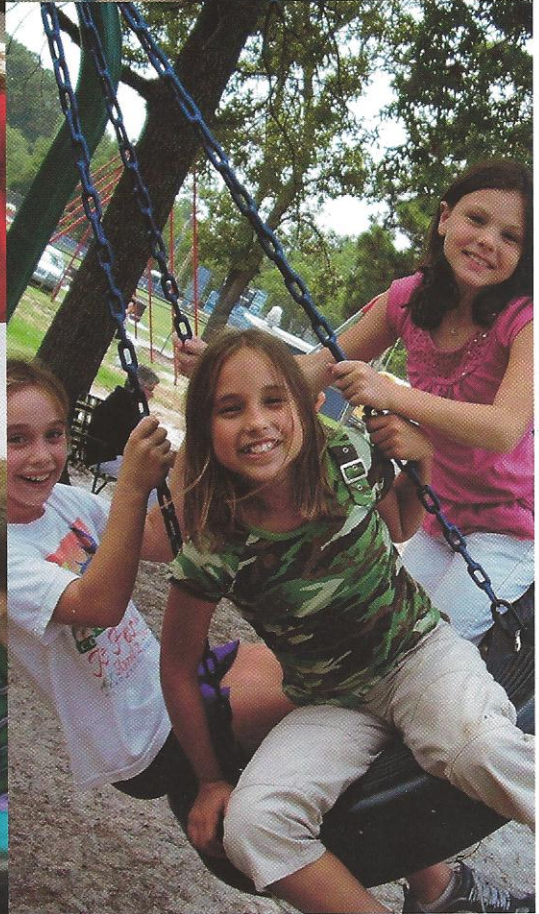

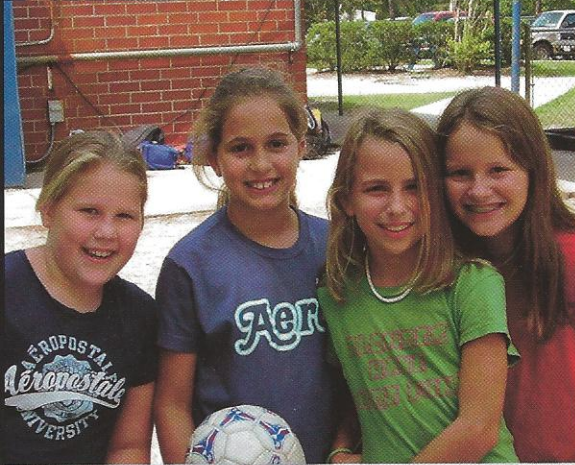

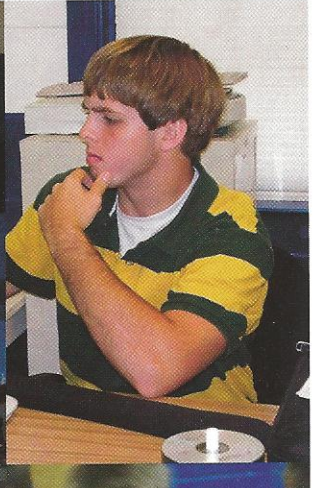

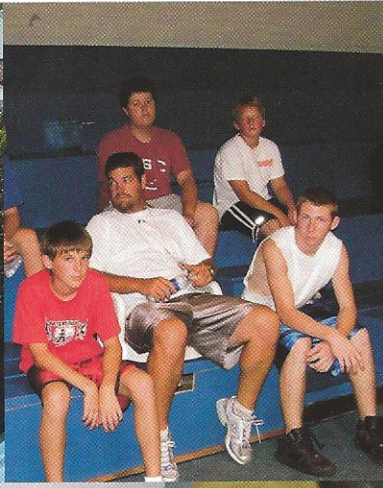

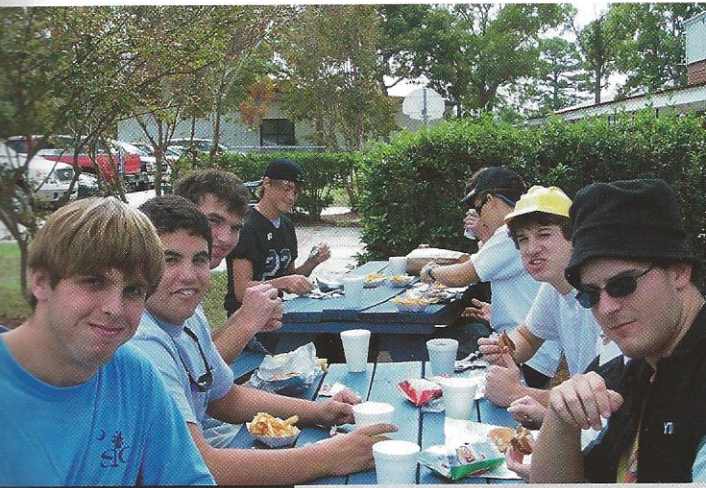

The 2007 Talon Staff and the graduating class have chosen someone very special and dear to whom to dedicate the 2007 Talon. She is more than just a teacher and a staff member; she is a friend to all of us. We can tell her any and everything concerning school or our personal life and she always understands and cares. She always tries her best to help us in any way she can. Mrs. Christi Langdale graduated from Bamberg-Ehrhardt High School. She received a Bachelors degree in Mechanical Engineering Technology from Orangeburg-Calhoun Tech. She has worked with CCX Fiberglass Products as a Quality Assurance Manager, ISO Coordinator, and a Lead Auditor from 1997-2003. She has been employed at Colleton Prep for four years. She has been a Jr. Class Sponsor and a Student Council Advisor. She is married to Brent Langdale and has three children-- Tyler, Andrew, and Sam. Tyler and Andrew attend Colleton Prep. Mrs. Langdale means so much to us. We are so happy that she has been here the past four years to help us and teach us as much as she has. We thank you for everything you have done and especially for putting up with us! We love you Mrs. Langdizzle, and we will miss you very, very much.

"I'm Not Gonna Cry"

Sunday shoes, cap and gown, the whole town gathered around Waited eighteen years now it's all coming down to this. Scanned the crowd, it fills my soul, my best friends all here in rows
No turning back now it's time to walk that line.

This tassel is gonna turn, but when the moment passes by,
We'll just walk away, then slowly grow apart.

But I'm not gonna cry, no, not one sad or happy tear.
I've waited my whole life, now I'm gonna fly right out of here.
It's a bittersweet goodbye,
But I'm not gonna cry.

Friday nights, football games, first loves and first heartbreaks
It didn't matter who won or lost, only how it played.
Memories, good as gold, tearing up those mountain roads
"Racin' down seventeen to old Charleston."

Sure we've made a little trouble, but learned from every mistake, so there's no regretting.
We've done the best we could.

So I'm not gonna cry, no, not one sad or happy tear.
I've waited my whole life, now I'm gonna fly right out of here.
These have been the best years of my life,
So I'm not gonna cry.

It's been a long and winding journey; we've lost a few along the way
Still we've hung in there through the tribulations now it's time to celebrate,
It's our GRADUATION day.

So I'm not gonna cry, no, not one sad or happy tear.
I've waited my whole life, now I'm gonna fly right out of here.
This has been the best day of my life,
So I'm not gonna cry.

It's a bittersweet goodbye,
I'm not gonna cry!!

Beena Thomas

Dearest Beena,

It seems like yesterday when you said, "It's the 'big kids' Daddy, the 'Kindergarteners'." Look at you now, graduating high school. We are so proud of all your hard work and accomplishments. You are a wonderful, beautiful, caring, loving daughter and we are blessed you are ours. Be grateful for every blessing in your life. Be honest and respect everyone. Always pray and let the good Lord guide your every step.

Love always,
Daddy and Mommy

Hey Beena,

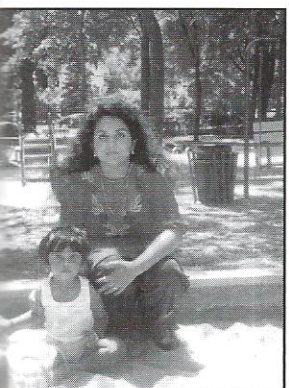

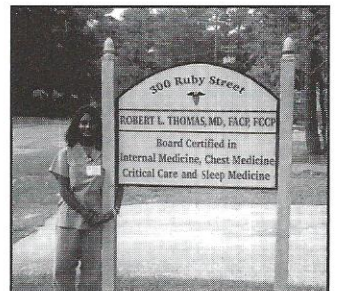

You've always been there for me. The four years more you have experienced life helps you tell me what do do. You've helped me from projects to life. Now you are going off to college and I am going to miss you. Even though you are going to be gone, I know you'll be there for me and me for you. I want to be just like you. I love you, big sis.

Love,
Your little sis, Tina

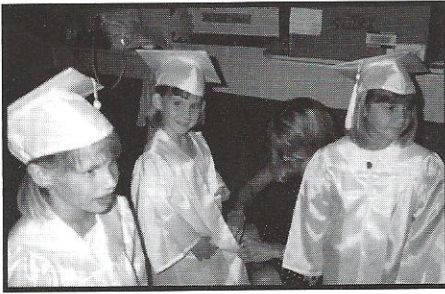

Hey Beena,

Love ya. You are the best!
Love,

Courtney (aka CJ, BooBoo, Baby Girl)
 To the daughter I am so thankful for, the happiness and joy that you have always brought to me. May you always believe in yourself and accomplish the goals and dreams you set.

I am so proud of you. I wish we could set the clock back and live most things once again, b/c you have grown up so quickly. Make your Mom and me proud!
 Most importantly, make yourself proud and things will then come to you
 LOVE YOU!
 Your Dad, Mike

It is so hard to believe my little sister is graduating! I am confident that you can achieve anything you wish in life. I am honored to call you my sister and my best friend!
 Love ya!
 Nicole

I thank God for you. You are loving, honest, beautiful, principled, determined, independent, and intelligent. I pray you always keep the wonderful qualities you have now, and I am positive that you will be successful in all life's endeavors. Find happiness in everything you do. Be strong and decisive, but remain sensitive. You will always be my baby girl, even though you are now an incredible young lady. I am preparing myself to watch you spread your wings and fly. I thank you, Courtney, for always making me beam with pride!! I love you always, Mom

Travis Grant Crosby

You have been smiling since you were born, and have grown into a very caring and loving young man. Follow your dreams in life and you will go far. We are very proud of you and love you very much.

Mom and Dad

Since you were born, I've seen you grow and mature into a wonderful person. You have a big heart, always willing to help others you don't even know. Too often people forget how to do that, but I know that won't be the case with you. This quality will take you far in the world, and I'm looking forward to seeing how far you go. I am, and always will be proud to be you brother, I love you Travis.

Jason

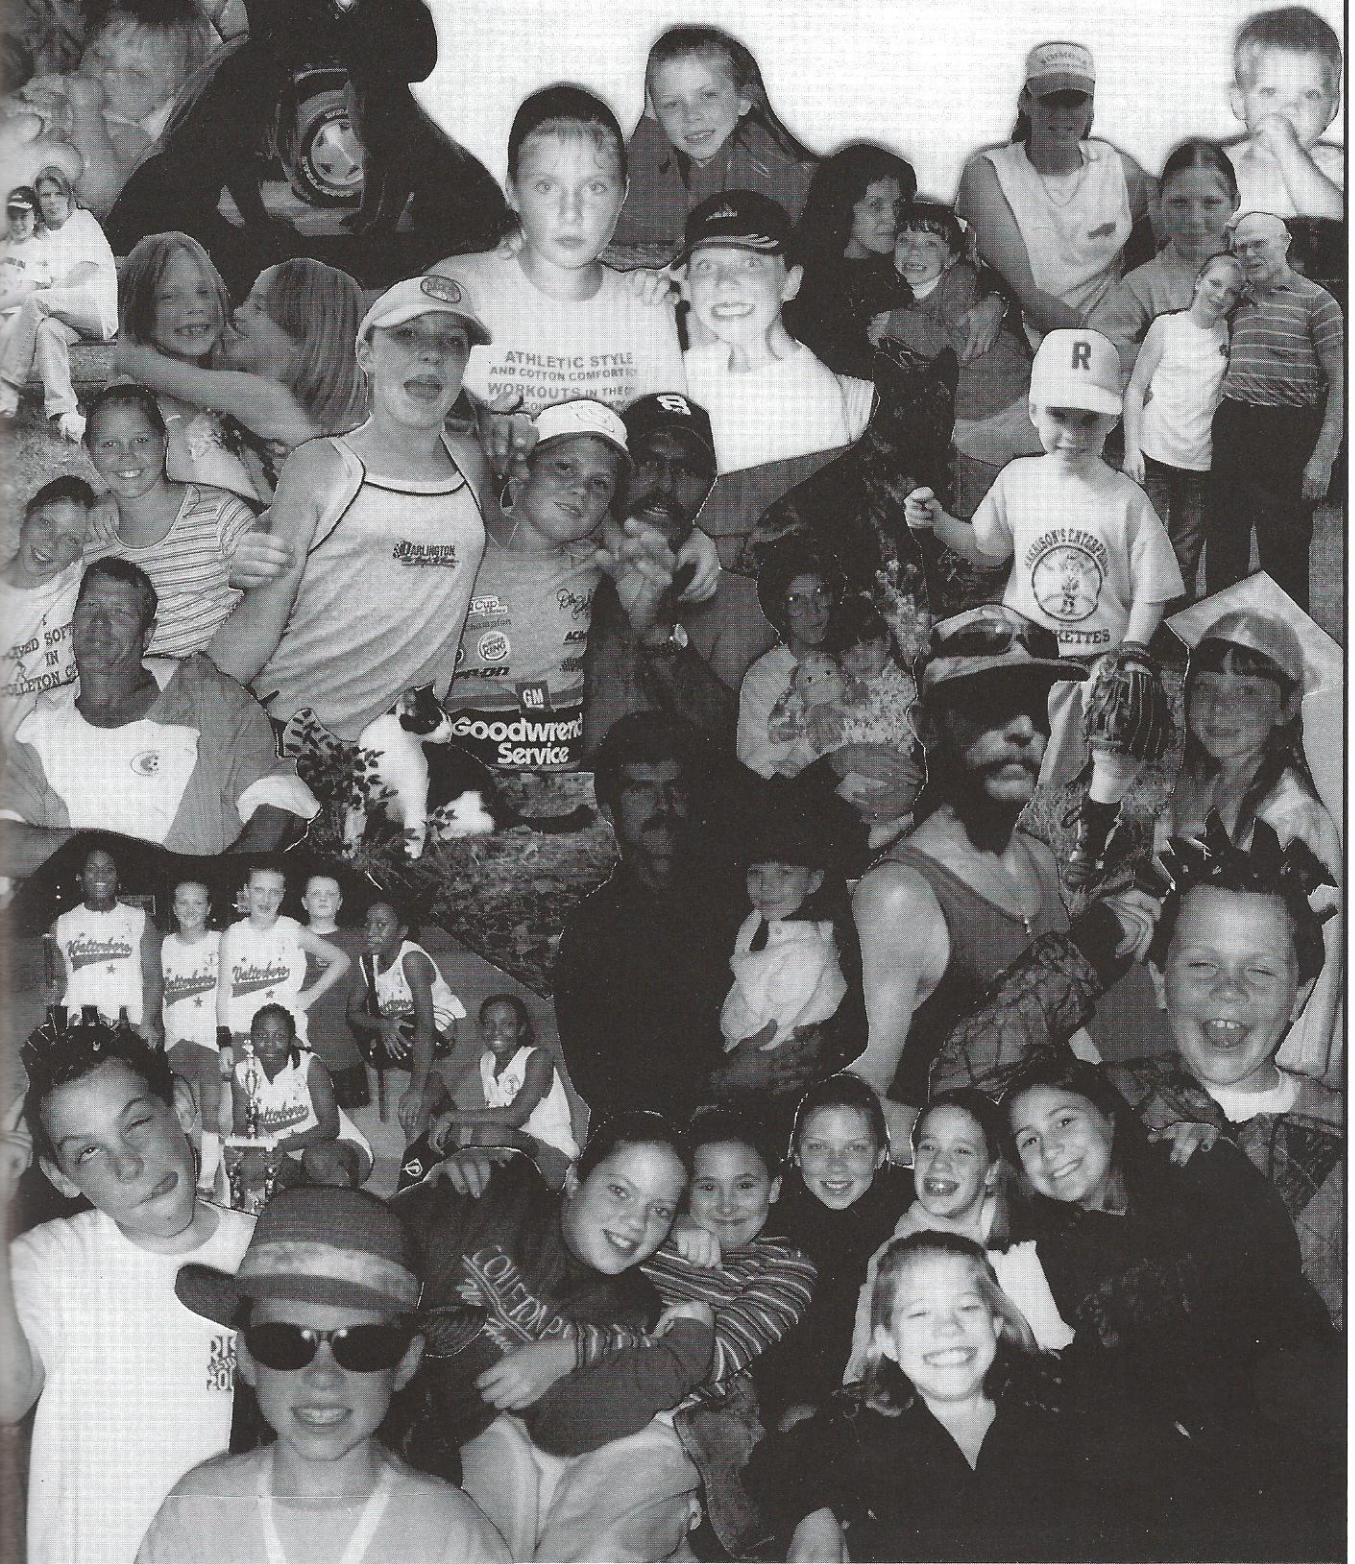

You are truly my best friend, and I know that you are going to do special things in your life. I will always be there for you, and let me know if you ever need anything at all. I love you and I'm proud of you. Good luck with everything and hold your head high.

Cory

God made our world from a great shining star. But he needed something special.
Something special to pick flowers, sing songs, be dainty and sweet,
Something special to giggle, wink, dance and play softball,
so God made the world LITTLE GIRLS.....
We were blessed the day God gave us you to love, care for, and be very proud of!
We love you with all our hearts, forever and ever...Dadoo and Mommy

Michelle,
Wow!!

Time has flown and I can't believe my Baby Girl is graduating. You have always made me so proud. I thank God everyday for blessing me with a beautiful loving daughter like you. You are blessed with so many gifts. You always have accomplished anything you set your mind to do. Being independent and always accomplishing the goals you set gives me peace that the decisions you make about college and your future will be the right ones. You are not only beautiful on the outside but that smile shows that inner beauty you have within you. You went from my little beauty queen starting pageants at 6 months old to a very determined athlete at age 9. You always give 100% in whatever you do and you never accept failure. This is why I know you will be successful in whatever you choose to do with your future. Hold your head up high and let God lead you down the right path and I am sure your dreams will come true. Your Mom will always be here for you whatever the need may be. I thank you so much for being my daughter, my friend, and always being there for your little brother Michael. Congratulations on your accomplishments.

DAVE JOHNSON

We are so very proud of you. You went from a petite, loving child, playing with your ropes and guns to quite a young man, yet still needing a hug from Mom (which I love). Your humorous disposition just shows how much you enjoy life! Though, there is a lot to learn about patience, you are still eager to move ahead with the greatest ambition of success. We cherish you being in our lives and would not ask you to change a thing...well, maybe a haircut every now and then. Your family will be here to love and cheer you on always.

Faith Ponds

To my only beautiful daughter, Faith who has truly been a gift sent from God. Through overcoming the obstacles associated with a terrible automobile accident in 1990, Faith, you have given me the inspiration to keep looking ahead and going forward. I've watched you perform in gymnastics, piano, swimming, and dance striving to do your very best. I also watched you overcome battles in tennis. At first, it seemed so difficult, but in the long run you became an outstanding player. Overall, you have given your best even in your subjects at school resulting in straight A's.

I want you to always remember wherever you go that I love you. And Faith, always remember that God loves you. Give Him your best in whatever tasks and goals you set before yourself remembering always that I'm with you in prayer.

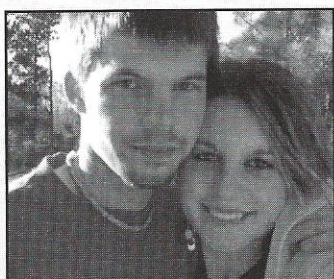

I love you!

Most of all we are proud of the man you are becoming. We admire the qualities you have developed--love and loyalty for family and friends, honesty, and respect for yourself and others. Stay true to yourself and you'll go far in life. We will always be there for you! Love, Mom and Dad

Gus--We are very proud of you. We know that God will be with you down every road you travel. Keep your eyes focused on Him. We love you!
Granddaddy and Grandmama

I love you Uncle Gus! Love, Char Char

Congratulations Gus, we are all very proud of you. Be positive and confident in your coming life changes! Love, You bro-in-law, Keith

As you begin your new journey in life, remember you will always have a family that loves and supports you wherever your journey takes you. Love, Your sister, Michelle

Gus,
Since you're going to my old college, I thought I would leave you with some things to look forward to at the College of Knowledge:

1. Hippies' drum circles on the Cistern.
2. Annoying bricks that stick up--NOT good for Rainbows!
3. Cars splashing you on your walk to class when it's raining.
4. Gilroy's Pizza--Open till 4 am 937-9200.
5. The smell of incense.
6. Dorm elevators after a Friday night.
7. Random fire alarms. (Someone thought it might be funny!)
8. Tourists.
9. Occasional movie stars filming on campus.
10. The beaches.

Have fun during the best time of your life. If you have time, take in a few classes! I love you, Christy

Cam Taylor

Cameron,

It just seems like it was yesterday, I was taking you to your first day of school. But now it's your last day of high school. Cameron, you have made me so proud of you. I can remember when the doctor told me I was going to have twins. I thought to myself, "how am I going to make it with two babies?" Now I look back on these eighteen years of good times and some bad and say to myself, "how would I have made it without two babies?" Cameron, you are the best. Just follow your dreams and make them come true. I love you with all my heart.

Mom

Cam,

You know you're my favorite... cuz you so cute! We've been through a lot in the past few years; you've become a young man that I can be proud of and that was my intention all along. You've been a permanent part of my life for so long I can't remember what life was like before you guys came along. It wasn't God's plan for me to be your mother, but I hope that I have been a good "stand in" when you've needed me. I know you're unsure about the future, but God has it all planned out...let it happen His way! Your Daddy and I love you so much,

Mrs. Jodi

Chris Taylor

Christopher,

I can't believe this time has come. You are not Moma's little boy anymore. Time has flown by these past eighteen years. Christopher you have made me so proud of you. I remember when you were a baby, you and Cam would talk back and forth to each other in a language only you and him understood. We used to laugh and wonder what you were saying to each other. Just follow your dreams and make them come true. I love you with all my heart.

Mom

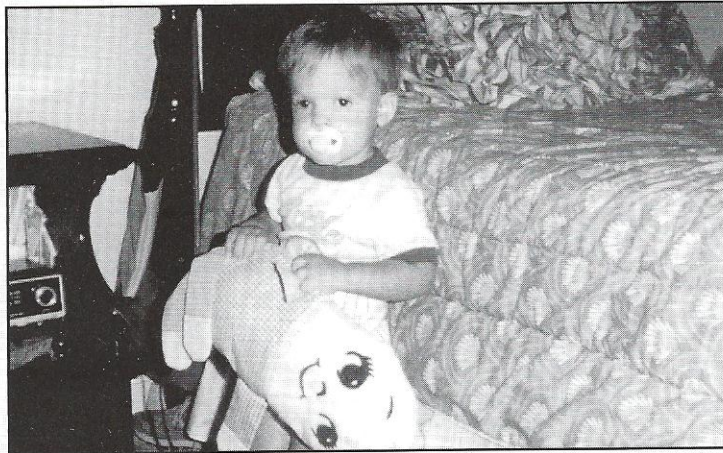

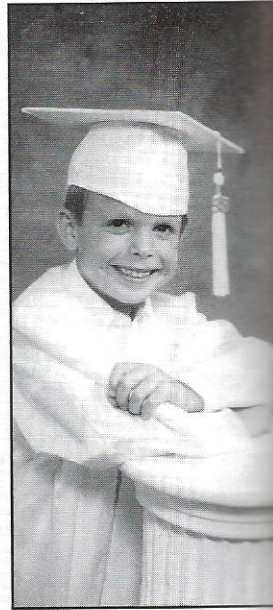

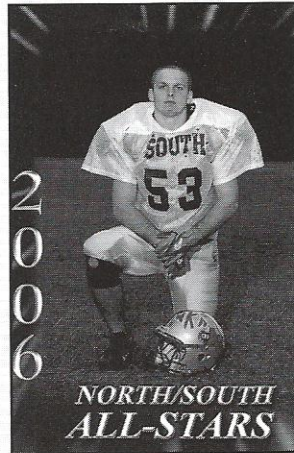

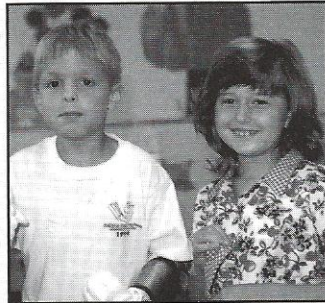

Chris,
You know you're my favorite...cuz you so sweet! I know I complain a lot about all the work I have to do and what it takes to take care of all of you, but sometimes I wonder what it would be like if I didn't have it all to do....BORING! You've always been different than all the rest; that makes you who you are. Don't ever change that. You've scared us a few times, but it's always worked out for the best. Keep God first in your life, he knows your heart better than anyone. Daddy and I love you very much,

Mrs. Jodi

Nicholas Smoak

Nicholas,

As a little boy you brought such joy and laughter into our lives. We watched with wonderment as you spread your wings and used your talents and abilities. Your cheerful outlook, your love for sports and respect for others combined to make for a full and rich school experience.

You've grown into a fine young man who has made us proud and we look forward to seeing you venture out and help make the world a better place.

The spiritual meaning of your name is "conqueror of people." I believe when you set your mind to it, you can conquer anything. You meet no stranger--you have a quality about you that draws people to you.

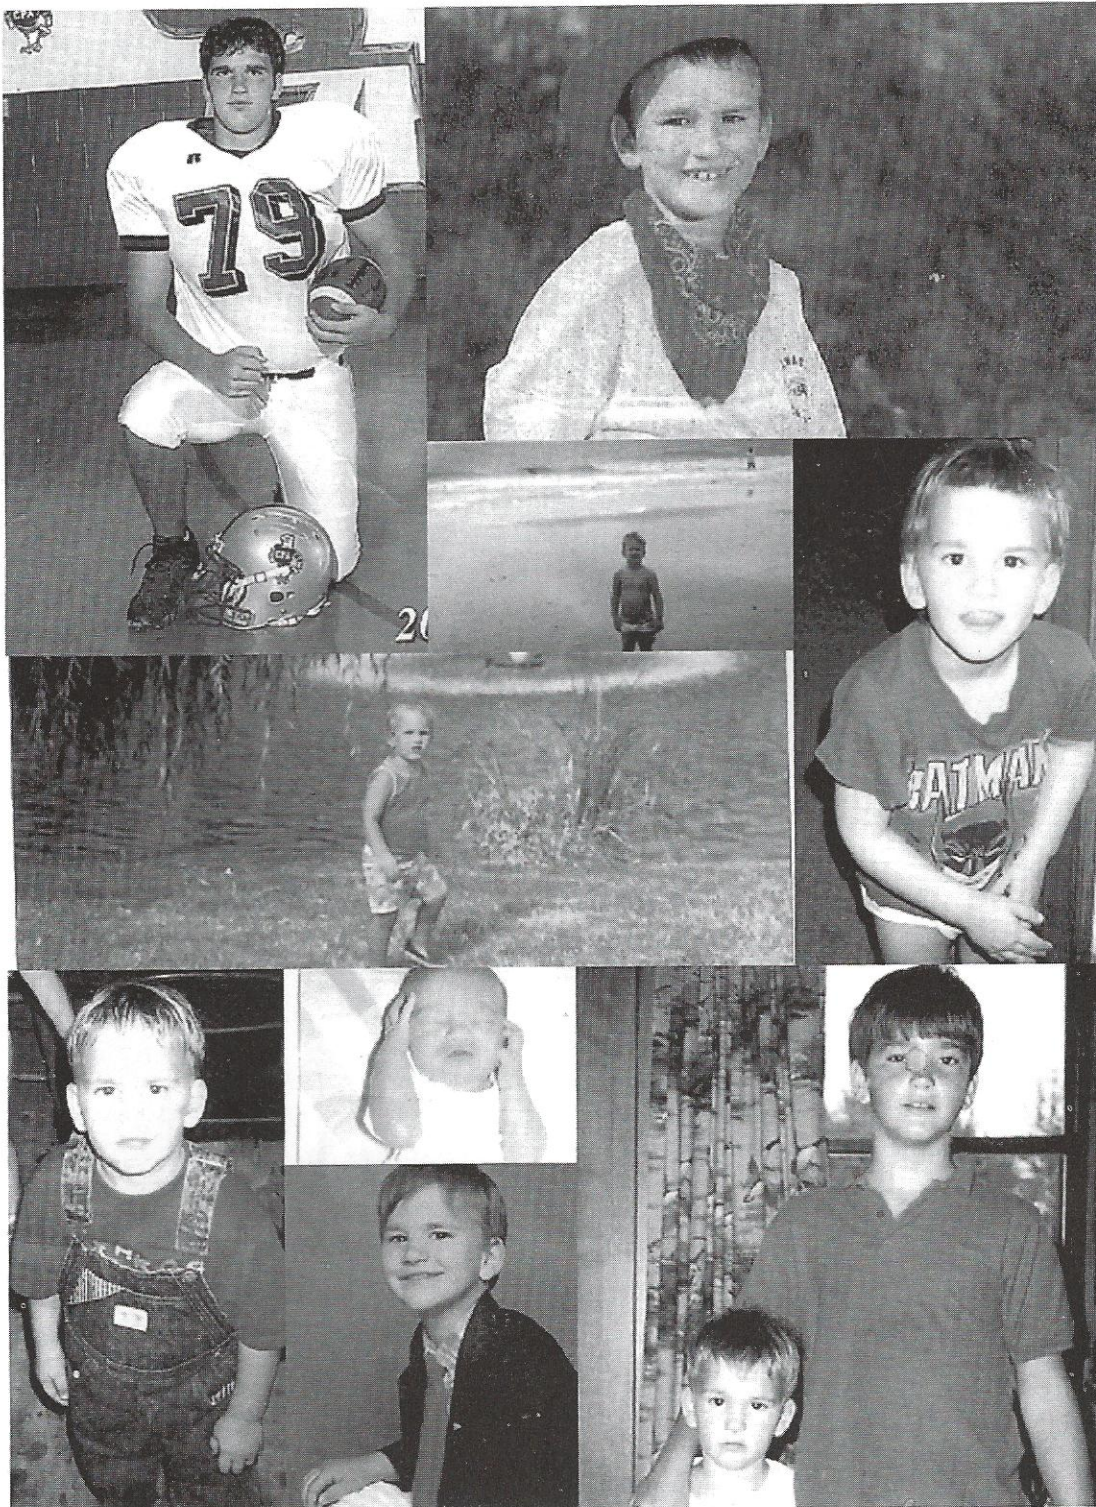

Trust in the Lord with all your heart. In all your ways acknowledge Him and He will make your paths straight.

We love you,
Mom and Dad

We Love You Nick- Mom, Dad, Samuel & Jackson

Teachers of the Year

Mr. Ellis began an exciting and new tradition this school year. Three very special and deserving teachers were selected by their peers for "Teacher of the Year" awards. One teacher from each of our Lower, Middle and Upper schools was selected. Mr. Ellis announced the winners and presented them with a plaque at the awards ceremony in the gym on March 2, 2007. They will represent Colleton Prep in the SCISA "Teacher of the Year" competition. Each recipient was showered with roses, gifts and congratulatory words. We appreciate the hard work and dedication of all our faculty and feel so fortunate to have such compassionate and inspiring teachers.

Above: (Left to right) Mrs. Eleanor Carmical (High School), Mrs. Betty Fischer (Middle School), and Mrs. Donna Rizer (Lower School) are named teachers of the year for 2006-2007. We salute these women for their outstanding accomplishment.

Donna Rizer teaches fifth grade language arts and social studies. She is also the lower school lead teacher and has 2 children at CPA, Emma and Donald.

Betty Fischer teaches eighth grade literature. She also serves as the advisor for the National Honor Society and the Junior National Honor Society. Her 3 children, Mary Ellen, Karen and Richard are all CPA graduates.

Eleanor Carmical teaches English to ninth and eleventh graders. She is known for her love of books and sharing it with her students just as she did with her own two sons.
