

Hannah

There are so many things I want for you--strength to face life's challenges, satisfaction of achieving your goals, a world of adventure, and peace that comes from being yourself. But most of all I want you to know how proud I am to have you as a daughter. Always do your best, never compromise your values. Keep God in your heart. I love you with my heart and soul.

Mom

High School graduation is a major milestone you will always remember. Parents remember some of the small ones--baby's first step, first day at kindergarten, winning, and losing. You and your classmates have grown into adults during your twelve years of school. To you it seems an eternity. It is just the start of your life, the years from here forward will pass quickly. Cherish each year, give every day your best, and support those around you. Thank you for being who you are.
Love you--Daddy

To My Sister
Time has flown by so fast and I don't know what to do without you. You are always there for me when I need a ride or anything. I love you and wish you the best. You deserve it.
Love,
Forrest
