As We Go On...

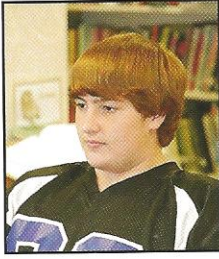

...we will remember our mentor, our teacher, and our friend, Mrs. Janet Buckner. She has taught us so many different life lessons that we will carry with us as we journey down our own paths. She has raised us like we were her own. Thanks for making our years at CPA the most memorable years of our lives. Like you always told us, "go get jiggy with it, sonny!" We proudly dedicate the 2008 Talon to you.

Love,

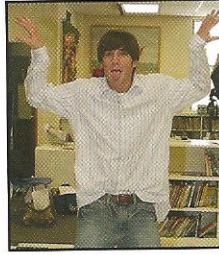

The Class of 2008!!!

Our Fans

our friends

CHARLESTON, SC

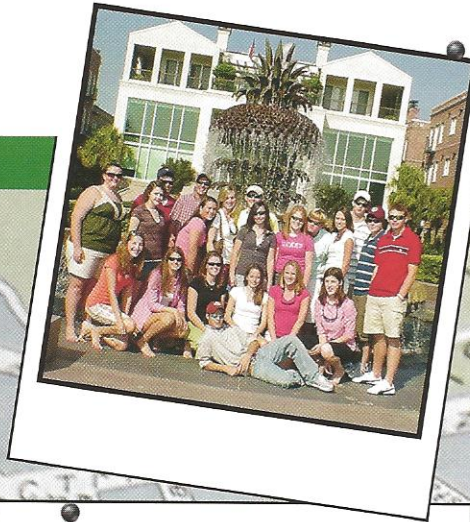

We've all been there thousands of times, yet this trip was different. We've all ridden on the CPA bus together, but on September 8, 2007, it was an event, not just a destination. For the last time, the Class of 2008 took a bus ride to a place that they can all call their own—a home away from home.

So CLOSE

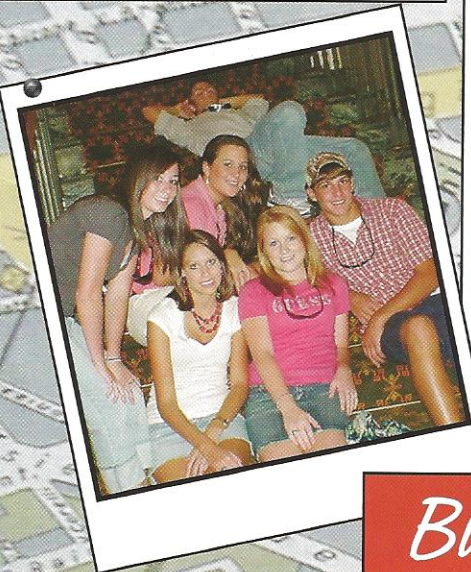

Are we there yet?

Good Times!

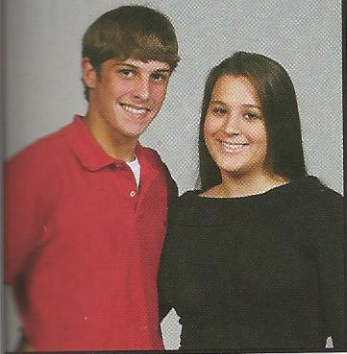

Remember this?

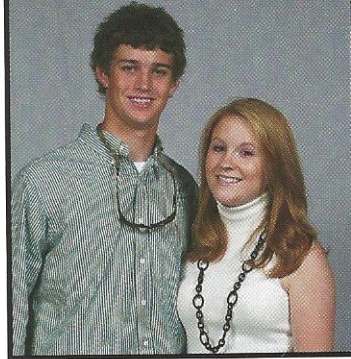

But yet, so FAR AWAY

The Five Days of Spirit and Fun

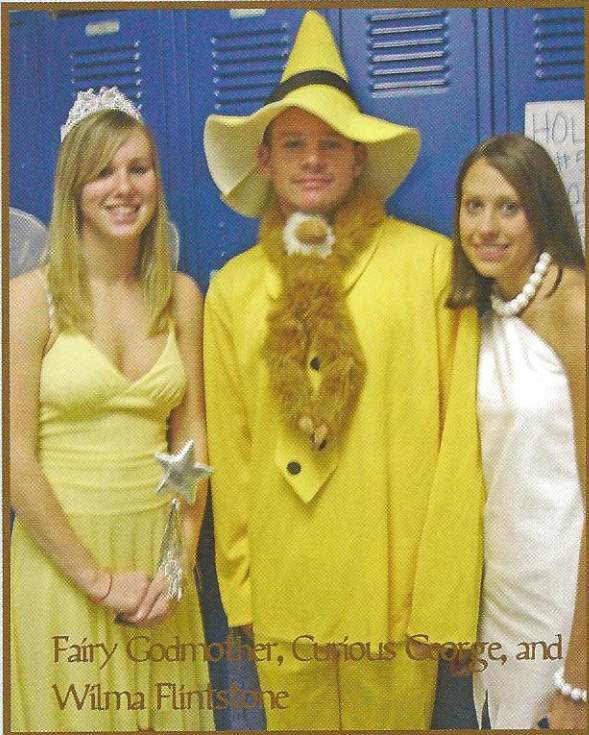

The days leading up to the BIG HOMECOMING game are filled with enthusiasm and school pride. Students and teachers enjoyed a break from the usual routine. Each day is a different theme. This year we had "nerd day" which was a big hit. We also had a special appearance from Britney and Jamie Spears... you never know who will show up at CPA.

Seniors

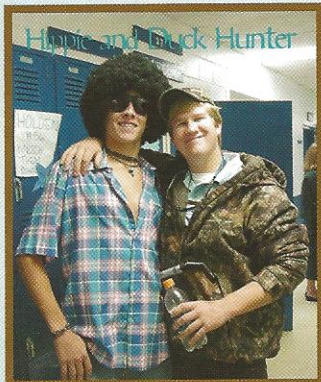

Each member of the Senior Class pulls out his best Halloween costume ever for this spooky day. This is one of the traditions at Colleton Prep that our seniors look forward to every year. Many sixth graders are already planning on what to wear when it's their turn. The highlight of the event is when the entire class parades through each classroom showing off their creative designs.

We cannot believe that our baby girl is a Senior. Time has passed too quickly. Looking back it seems like only yesterday we were worried you might take your pacifier to school with you in your book bag on your first day of kindergarten. And now you have grown into a beautiful, sweet young lady, a daughter we are thankful for every day and very proud of. You truly are a gift from God and have brought much joy to our lives with the warmth of your smile, and your kind, gentle, loving heart.

From infancy you have been determined, independent and you knew what you wanted. It drove us crazy at times, but now that you have become a young adult, these qualities will help you achieve any goals that you set for yourself.

As this chapter in your life closes a new one begins. you will have many chapters in your lifetime, embrace each one and live them to the fullest. Know that you can achieve anything that your heart desires because you have only just begun. Continue to have faith and trust in God for he knows what is best for you. You will never be alone if you always seek his guidance.

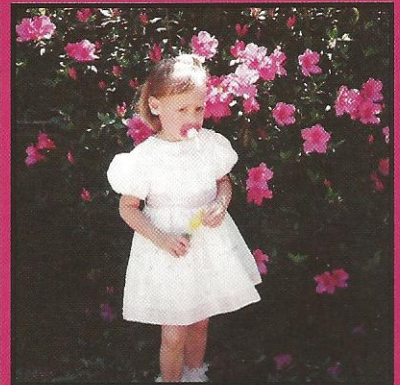

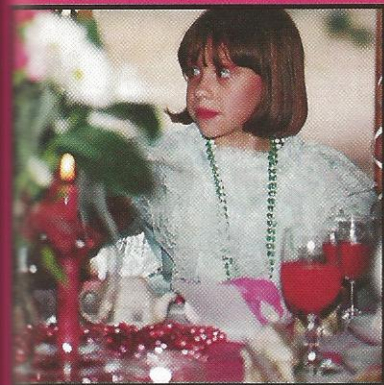

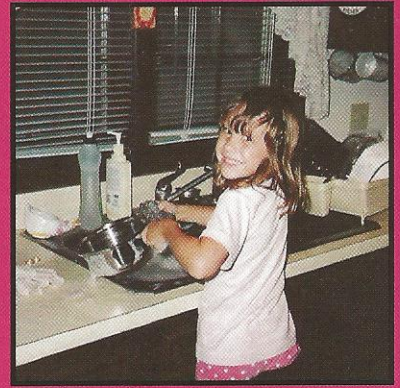

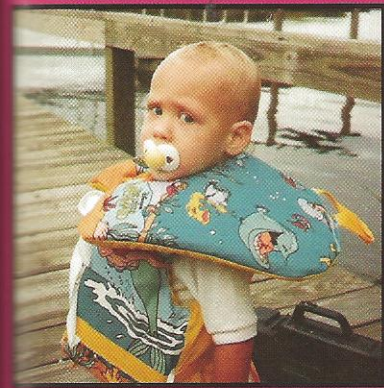

Remember your family loves you very much and we will always be there for you. In good times and bad times, all roads lead to home no matter where you are. You are and always will be your Daddy's squirrel girl and your Moma's baby girl.

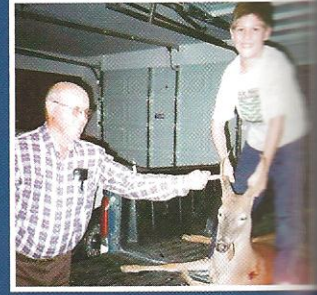

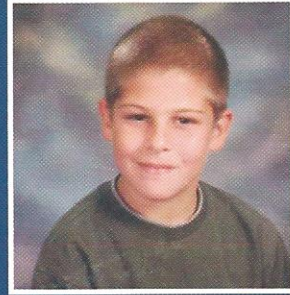

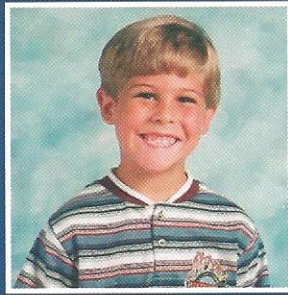

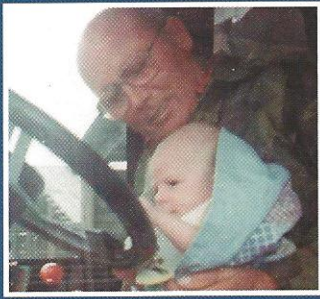

We'll love you forever,
We'll like you for always,
As long as we're living
Our baby you'll be

We love you with
all of our hearts,
Daddy and Moma

Kallie,
I am happy that I am your big brother. We have had fun in our years growing up together. Remember that no matter what happens in the future, we'll stick together through it all. As you go off to college, remember I just left there. If you need help all you have to do is call me.

Love,
Lehe

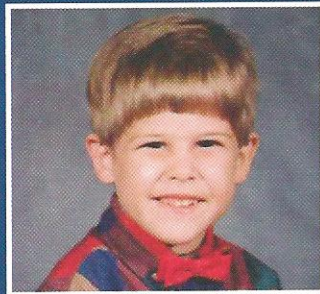

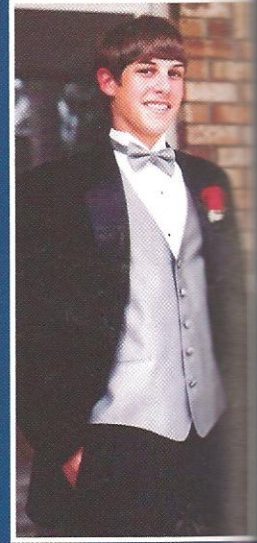

Garrett,

Each picture holds a special memory for us. It seems like only yesterday when you rode the tractor for the first time, enjoyed your first Halloween, caught your first fish and killed your first deer. Time goes so fast. We know you can do anything you set your mind to. We are very proud of you. Always follow your heart, trust in God, and do your best. We Love You!

Bryan,

The night we brought you home from the hospital we talked about the gleam in your eyes. We knew right then that you were going to have a friendly and wonderful personality. We were right.

The joy that you've brought to us is priceless. Your respect and love for us makes us so proud to be your parents. Your energy, fun-loving ways, and your sense of humor impact everyone around you.

Continue to be true to yourself in life. We know you will succeed in whatever you choose to do because you have what it takes. Keep your dreams big and believe in yourself. Remember, we will always be here for you. Thank you for being such a blessing.

We love you,

Whitlee,

You are definitely our sunshine and our shining star. These past seventeen years have been quite an adventure watching you grow into the special person you are today. Although we are sad to see this part end, we are very excited about what your future holds. Your honesty and integrity will carry you far in life. You can accomplish whatever you set your mind to do, you always have. Your outer beauty is only overshadowed by your inner beauty. Now it is time to go forward and make the world as special for others as you have for us. Always know that our love for you is unconditional and unending. Whenever you need us, we will be there, along with the angels that God has put on your shoulder.

Love forever,

Lauren McKenzie Breland

On August 9, 1990, God blessed us with a baby girl. Little did we know we would also be the parents of a dancer, gymnast, tennis, volleyball, and basketball player and an avid sportsman. Our lives have been richly blessed by having you as a daughter. Your laughter and smile light up our lives. We love you and are so proud of the young woman you have become. We look forward to the rest of your life. We know we will be as equally blessed and as proud.

We love U;

McKenzie Remember-

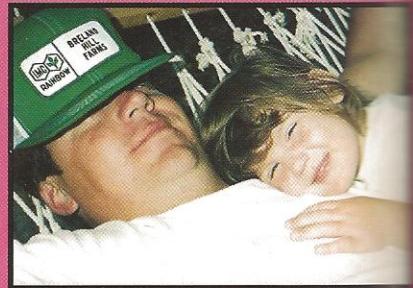

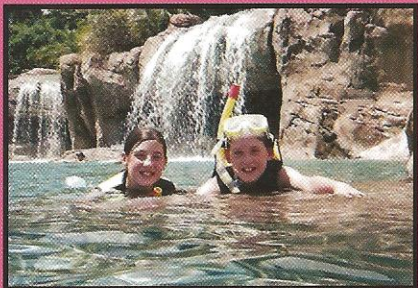

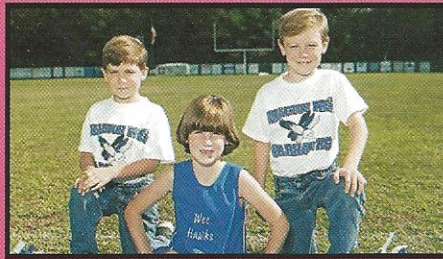

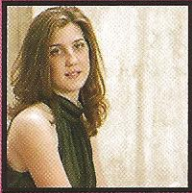

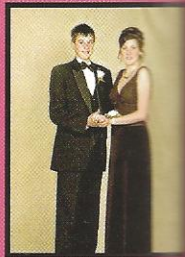

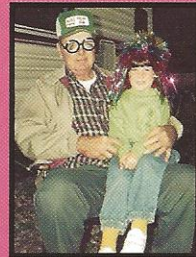

They may see the good you do
As self serving.

They may see your generosity
As Grandstanding.

They may see your warm and
Caring nature as a weakness.
Continue to be warm and caring

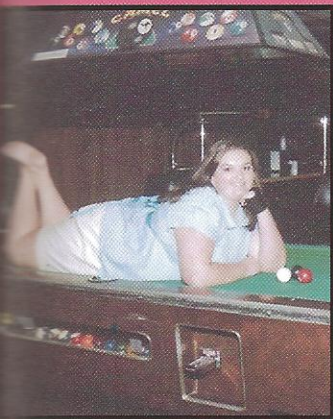

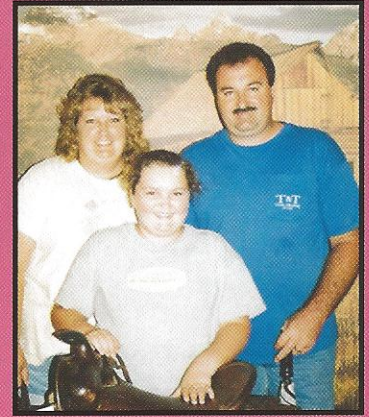

For you see, in the end,
It is between you and God.
It never was between you and
Them anyway.

Diggy,

We love you more than you will know. We'll miss you when you leave for college. We wish you much success in all you do.

With all the love in the world!
Jordan & Jake

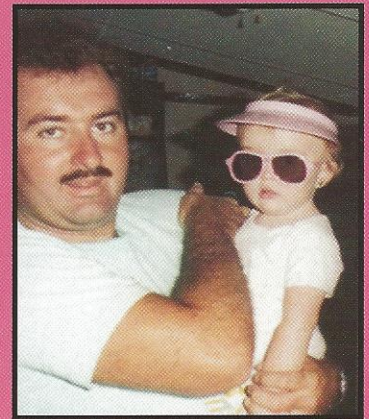

Holly,
 It's been 17 years since you were born. Where has time gone? You were a bundle of joy and a very happy baby. As a toddler you were always on the go.

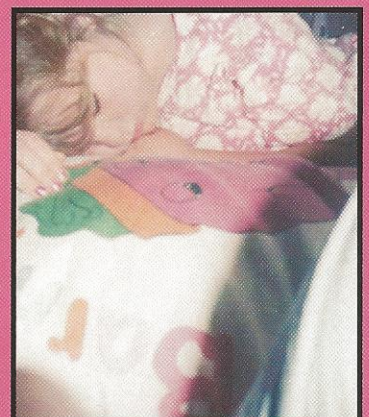

When you turned 5, we took you to CPA to take the entrance exam for Kindergarten. When Mrs. Howell took you to take the test, we were nervous waiting in the office. She brought you back and said you passed. We were very happy. Now you are 17 and graduating.

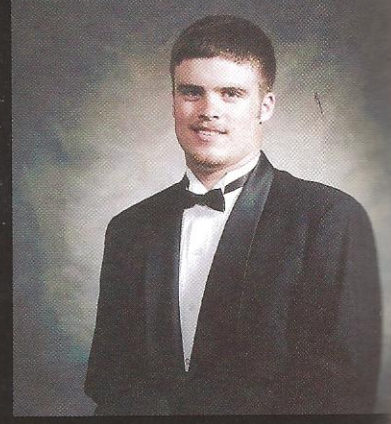

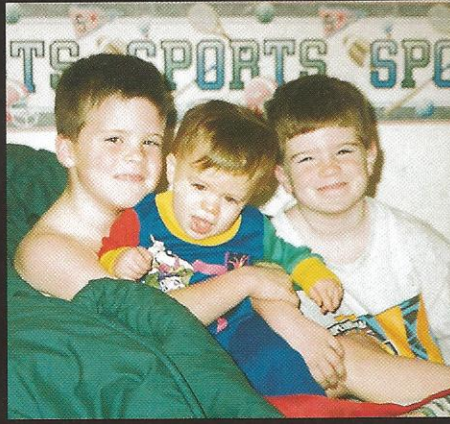

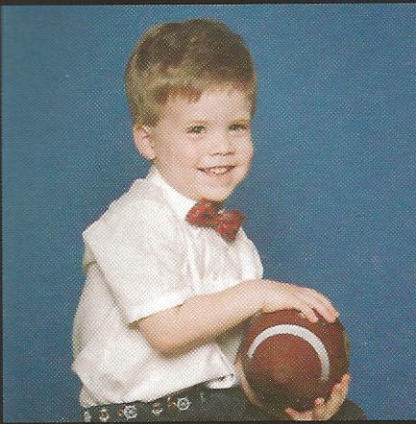

You are still on the go with basketball, billiards, school activities, friends, and family.

You have always been a sweet and loving child. Now you have become a beautiful young woman. We are very proud of you. We wish you all the happiness in whatever you do with your life. We hope that all your plans and dreams come true. We love you very much and will always be here for you.

Love Always,
 Mom and Daddy

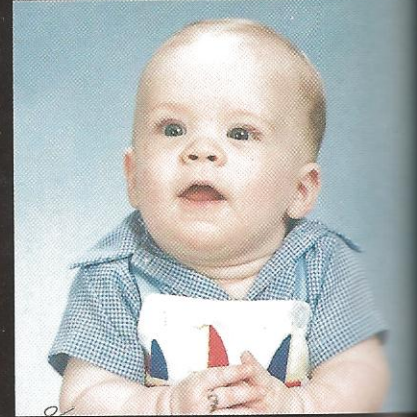

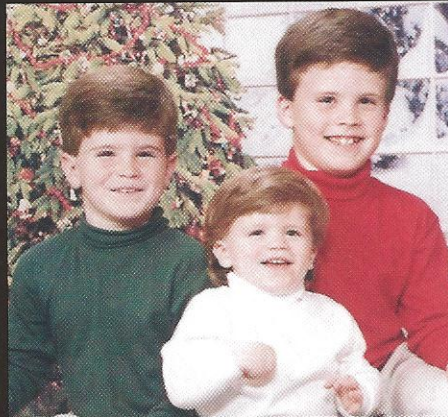

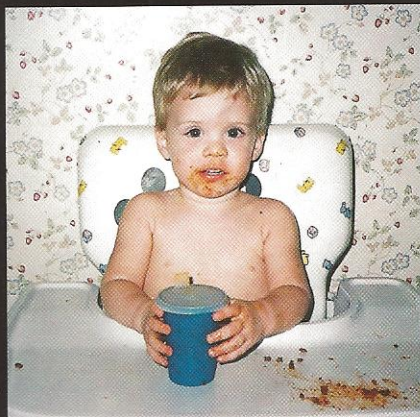

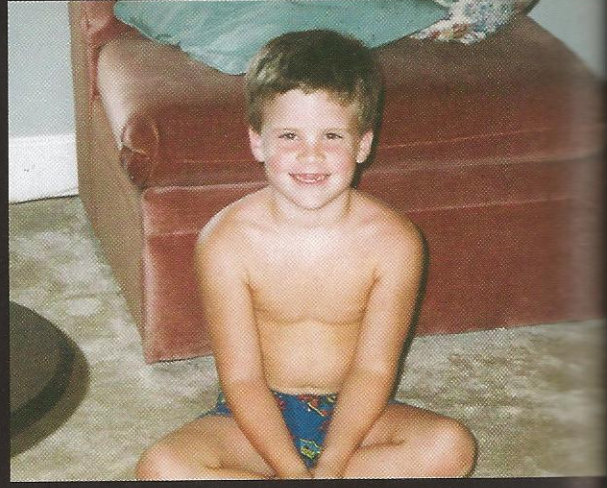

Hunter,

We love you and are very proud of you. You've done an excellent job. One chapter of your life is accomplished, with many more to come. Always remember, that we will always be there for you. Let God be your guide in every decision you make. You'll always be our "Punkin Man."

Love,

Dad, Mom, Holden, & Hayden

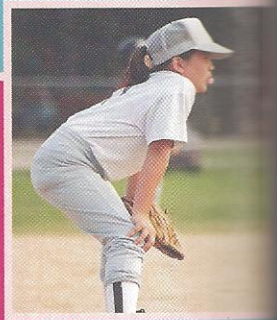

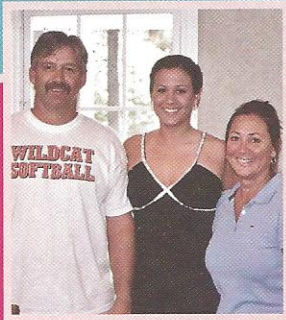

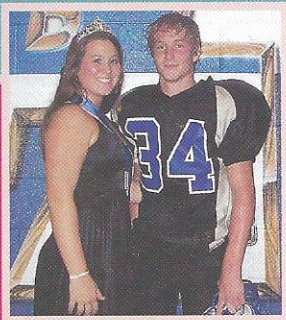

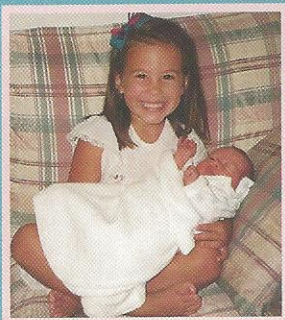

Jami,
 Time has flown by so quickly. It seems like yesterday you were our mischievous little tomboy and today you are a beautiful young lady. You have brought us so much joy and many precious memories. As you set out on the next stage of life, remember that you can be anything you want to be. Set your goals and work hard to achieve them. We will be behind you all the way. Congratulations on your accomplishments. We are so proud of you!

Love, Mom & Dad

Anna

Dear Anna,

Where have all the years gone? It seems as though we were just bringing you home from the hospital as a baby and now you are a senior in High School. I guess the next step is college and with faith, hard work and dedication, we know that you will accomplish all of your goals. We are so proud of you and the young lady that you have become. Your Dad and I thought we knew what love was before we welcomed you into our lives, but we were so very wrong. We had never experienced the kind of love, pride, and joy you have given us and for that we are truly grateful. Home will not be the same without your sweet laughter and that infectious smile!

We are so proud of you.

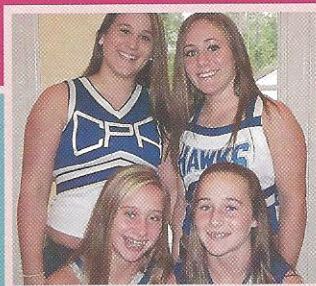

Love,
Mom and Dad

Dear Sissy,

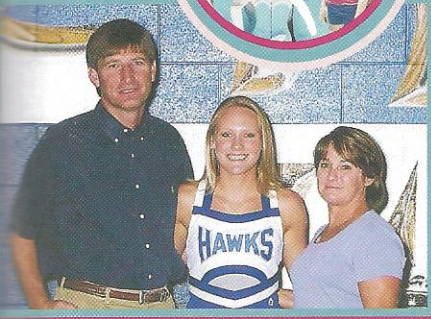

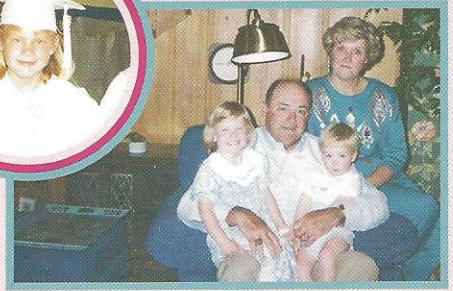

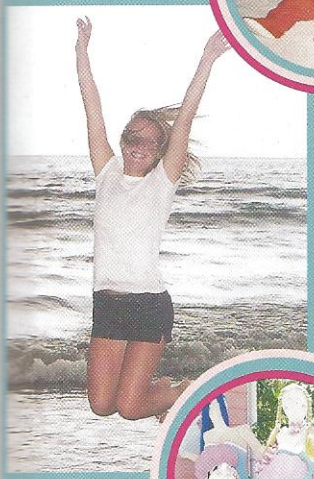

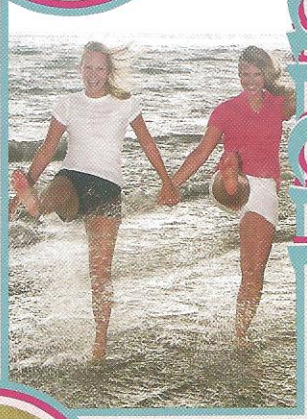

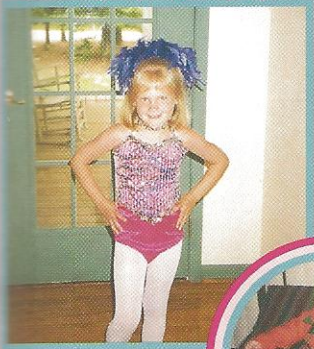

I can't believe you are going to college. I'm going to miss you so much. I know we might argue sometimes but we have had so many good times, too. I love you taking me to the beach, taking me to get something to eat, or having one of our late night talks. You have always been there for me and I hope you have fun in college. I know you will succeed in anything you put your mind to. I'm going to miss you so much! I love you!

Love always,
Sarah

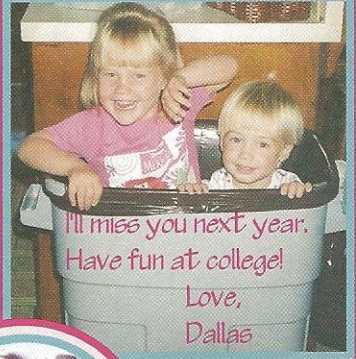

Lauren

Lauren,
 We are so proud of the young lady you have become. It seems like just yesterday you were graduating from kindergarten. We love you and wish for you nothing but the best and great success. Wherever life's road leads you, know that your family will be cheering you on! Remember to always put God first and to follow your heart.
 We love you,
 Mom and Dad

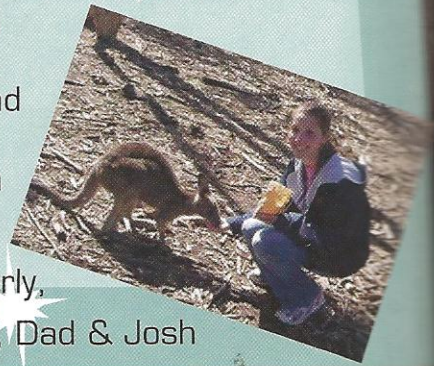

I'll miss you next year.
 Have fun at college!
 Love,

Brittany,

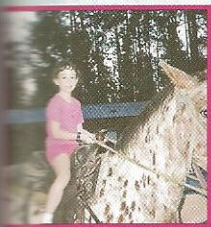

Every day with you has been a treasure and a blessing from God. We are so proud of you! You are a dedicated, caring and intelligent young lady. We know that you will embrace all that life has to offer and you will earn everything you achieve.

Continue to strive for your definition of success and stand by your principles. We will always be here for you when you need us.

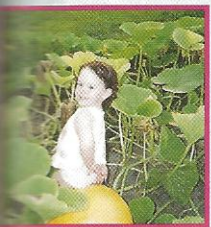

We love you dearly,
Mom, Dad & Josh

Meg,
 It's hard to believe you're graduating from high school. It seems like just yesterday you were graduating from kindergarten. My how time does fly! We love you so very much and are so very proud of the young lady you've become. Stay true to your values, never waiver from your beliefs, and above all trust in the Lord and make Him first in your life. If you do these things than you can accomplish anything. You will always be our precious little girl, we love you so!!
 Dad and Mom
 Pappie and Mammie

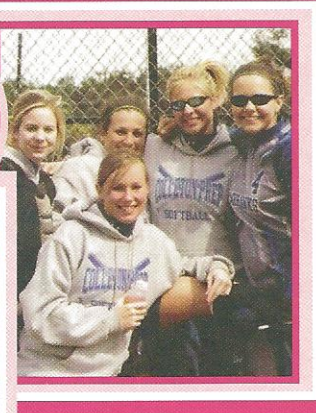

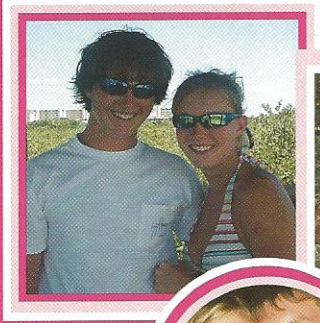

I Love You Meggie
 I will miss you when you go to college. I will also miss you when you don't come home on the weekends to hunt with Dad and Me!
 Love You Lots!! Tay

Megan

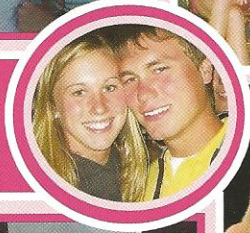

Hannah

There are so many things I want for you--strength to face life's challenges, satisfaction of achieving your goals, a world of adventure, and peace that comes from being yourself. But most of all I want you to know how proud I am to have you as a daughter. Always do your best, never compromise your values. Keep God in your heart. I love you with my heart and soul.

Mom

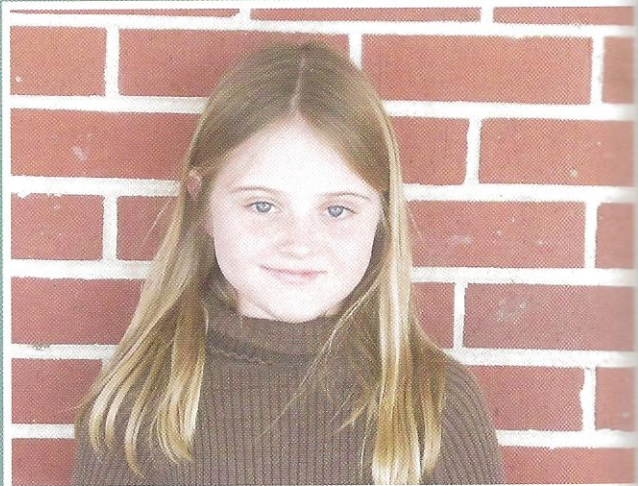

High School graduation is a major milestone you will always remember. Parents remember some of the small ones--baby's first step, first day at kindergarten, winning, and losing. You and your classmates have grown into adults during your twelve years of school. To you it seems an eternity. It is just the start of your life, the years from here forward will pass quickly. Cherish each year, give every day your best, and support those around you. Thank you for being who you are.
Love you--Daddy

To My Sister
Time has flown by so fast and I don't know what to do without you. You are always there for me when I need a ride or anything. I love you and wish you the best. You deserve it.
Love,
Forrest
