Jennifer Bratsafolis: Head of School

We welcomed a new school year with a new school motto, "Creating Leaders for a Changing World". Our new Head of School, Jennifer Bratsafolis, implemented many changes both educational as well as extracurricular.

Upper and Middle School students went from having 6 classes to 7, giving them the option of a study hall. This was accomplished by reducing classes to 45 minutes. This has allowed for an activity period. An activity period is a 30 minute block either before or after lunch that offers students a chance to join various clubs. The scope of clubs offered is vast! They range from ping-pong, to equestrian, to Model UN.

Students have always had to individually complete 20 hours of community service. This year, however, middle and upper school grades, student council members, and National Honor Society members also had to complete community service projects. This opportunity allowed students to get out into the community and demonstrate their leadership skills.

As another exercise in leadership building, middle school students were encouraged to run for class office. Elections were held at the beginning of each semester. This allowed everyone a chance to run. Students were elected based on their campaigns and speeches which they presented to their peers.

The 2010-2011 school year has been one for the books, literally! We hope you enjoy the Talon!

NEW BEGINNINGS

The Soil Conservation Service volunteered in assisting Mrs. Langdale's drafting class in designing a topographical map using AutoCAD software. The area mapped will soon be the site of a soccer field and a drainage pond.

Brittan Elizabeth Carter

Dearest Brittan,

I am the luckiest mom in the world to have you as a daughter! I am so proud of your accomplishments and of the young lady you have become. You are blessed to have so many wonderful attributes--intelligence, integrity, beauty, athleticism, loyalty, and kindness. These are gifts that will take you far in life. As you start the next phase in life, always remember that your family loves you and supports your choices. Please make decisions that make you happy. This is your life and future, and I wish for all of your dreams to come true. You certainly deserve it! Thank you for so many beautiful memories. I know there will be many more! I am so proud of you! I love you! -Mom

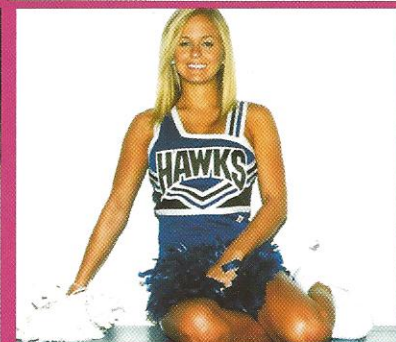

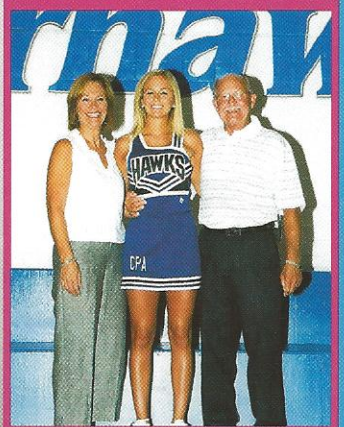

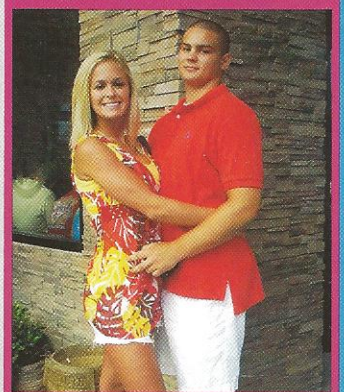

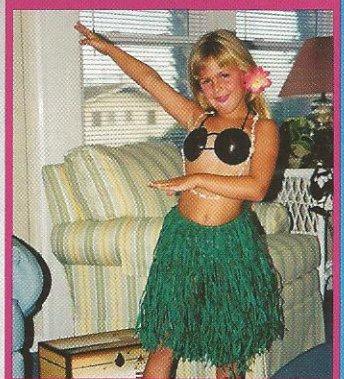

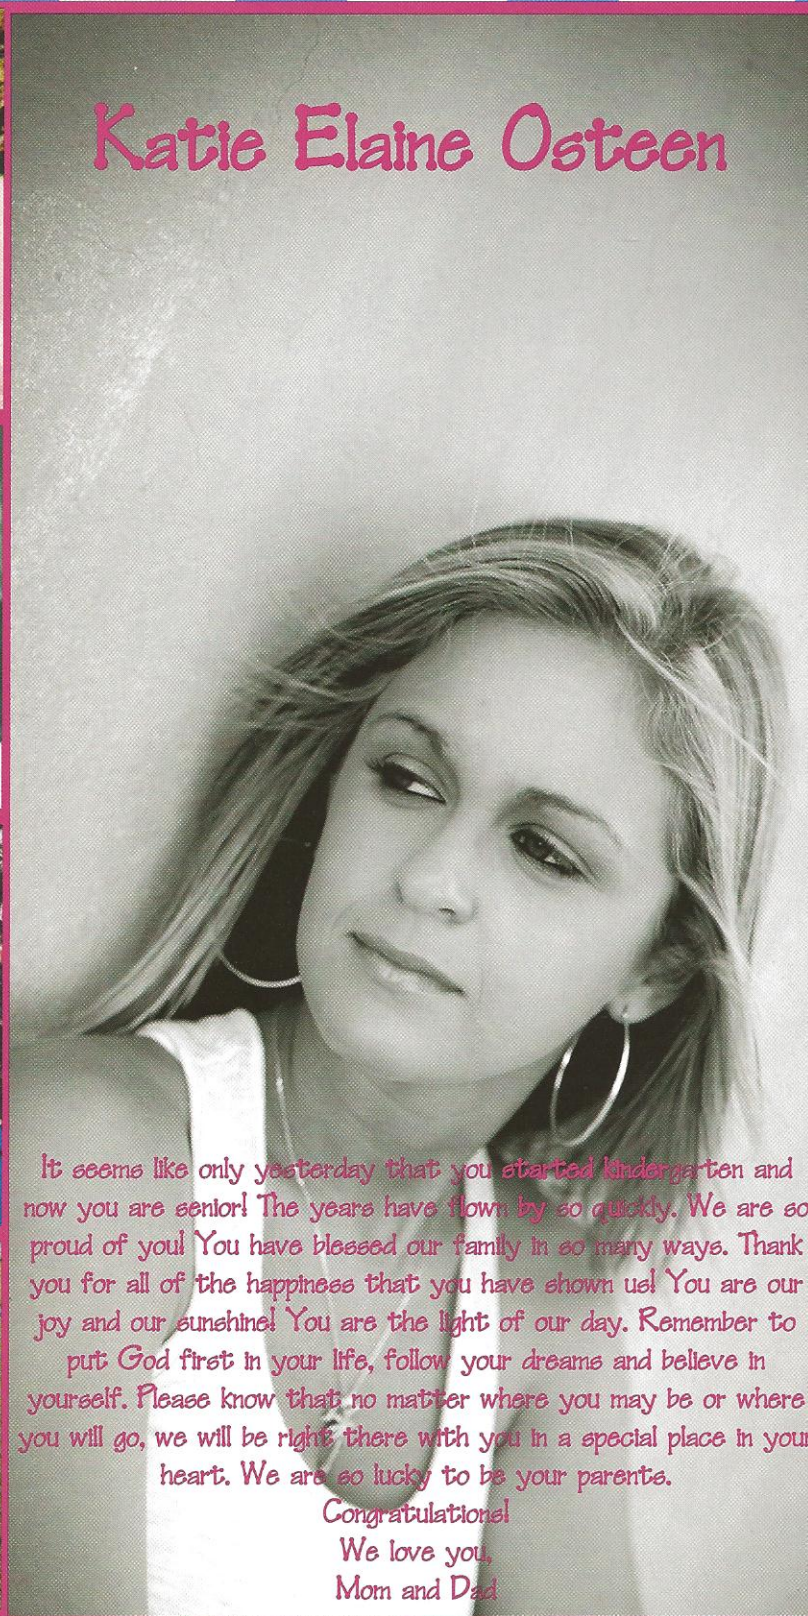

Brittan,

You are the best big sister ever! We are going to miss you when you go to college. We hope you have fun, but please come home to see us! We love you! -Will and Anne Garrett

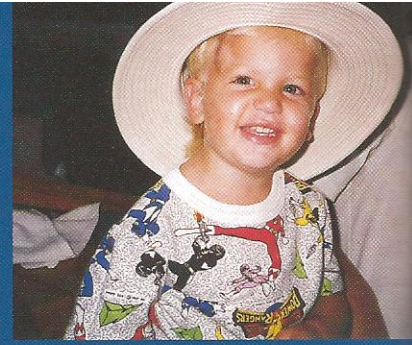

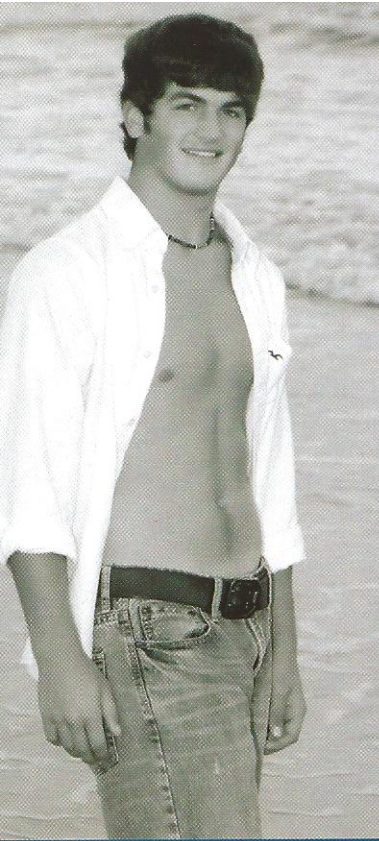

Katie Elaine Osteen

It seems like only yesterday that you started kindergarten and now you are senior! The years have flown by so quickly. We are so proud of you! You have blessed our family in so many ways. Thank you for all of the happiness that you have shown us! You are our joy and our sunshine! You are the light of our day. Remember to put God first in your life, follow your dreams and believe in yourself. Please know that no matter where you may be or where you will go, we will be right there with you in a special place in your heart. We are so lucky to be your parents.

Congratulations!
We love you,
Mom and Dad

Ryan Martin Crosby

Ryan,

We are so proud of you. It's hard to believe you are already a Senior. Where has the time gone? We hope you know how special you are to us Ryan. You have always been our pride and joy. You have a way about you that draws people toward you with your humor and leadership ability.

You have always been a natural at so many things from hunting, never knowing what was going to be in the back of that truck next for mounting. Sports, especially baseball which you are excellent at. You have always given one hundred percent and put your whole heart in everything you do. That is why we know you will do well on your journey into the future.

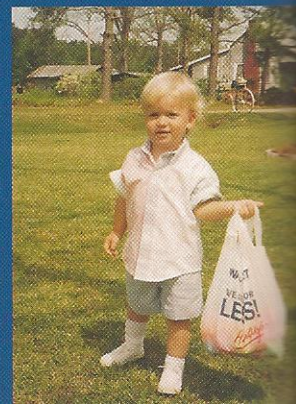

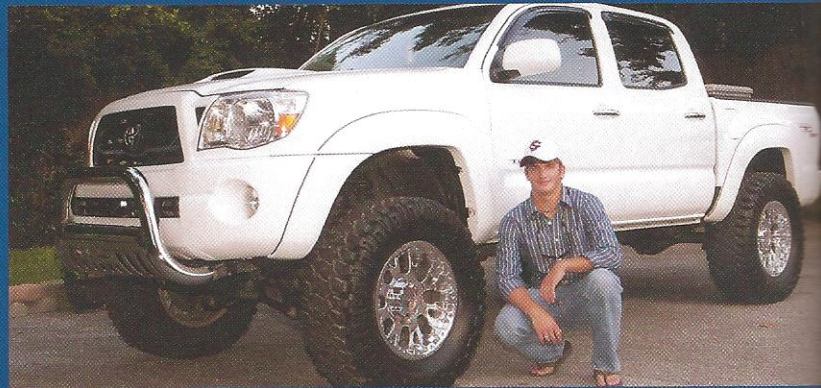

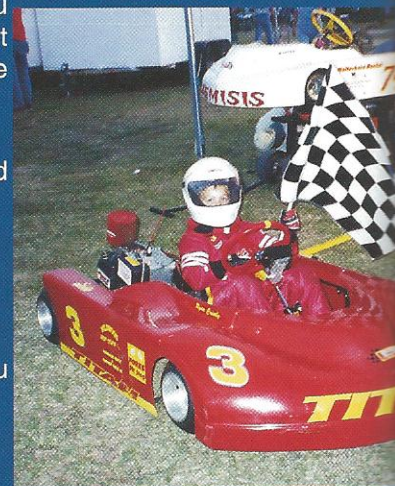

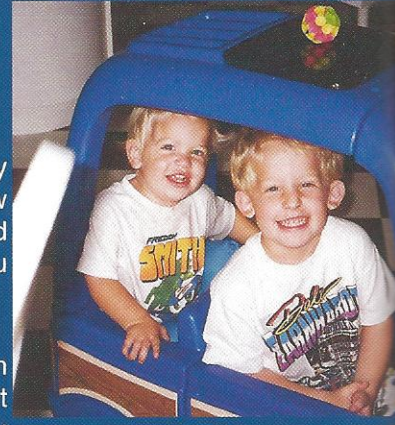

You have given us so many memories. Memories we would not trade for anything in this world.

We Love You,
Momma and Daddy

Dear Ryan,

I am going to miss you when you go to college. Hope you pass the 12th grade.

Love,
Dondi

Lester Pierce Jordan IV

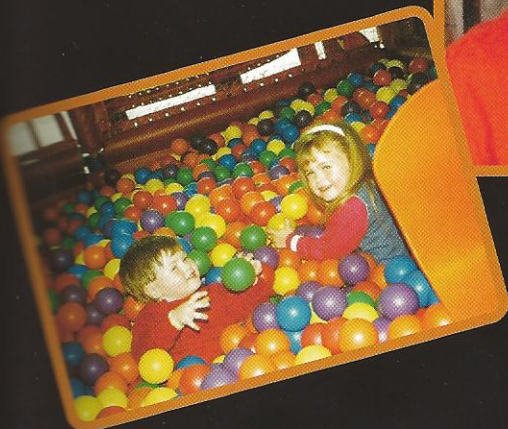

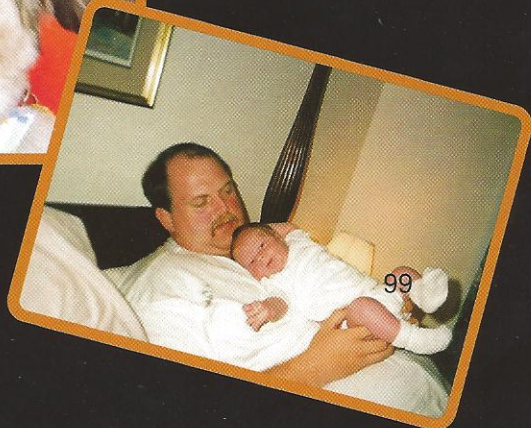

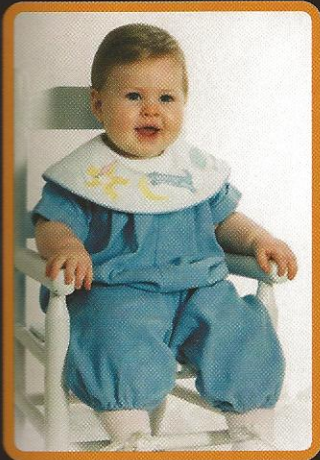

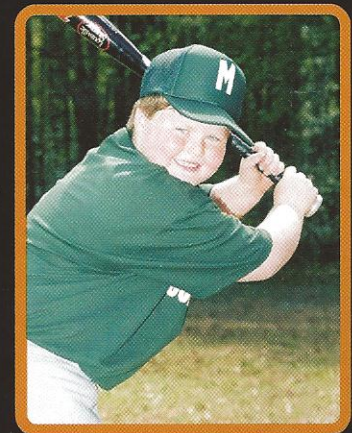

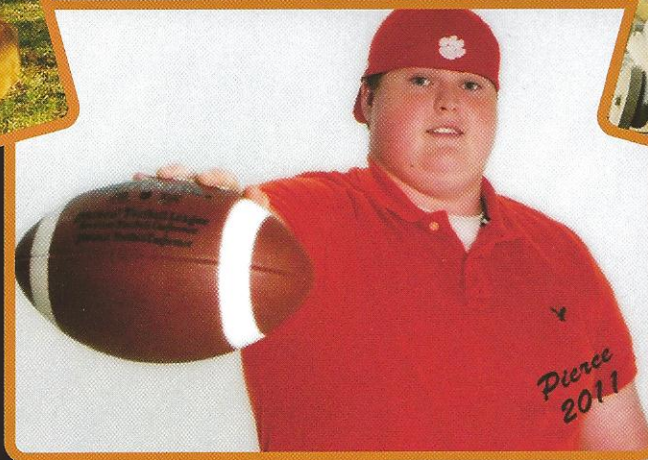

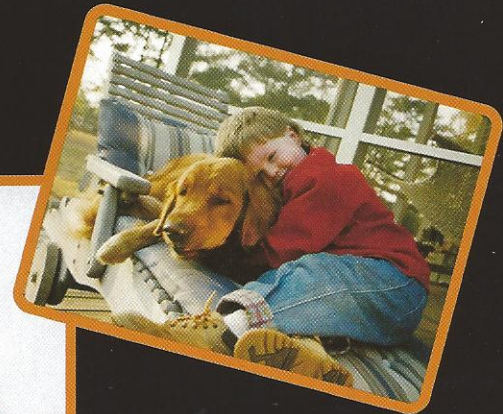

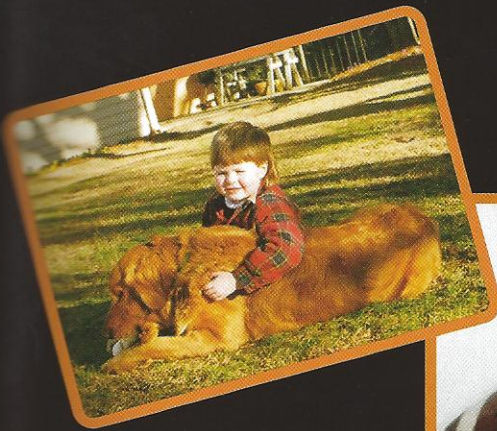

Pierce,

It's hard to believe that you are a senior. Where has the time gone? It goes by so fast that we don't always have time to do the things you want to do.

You have always been my heart and soul since the day you were born. I thank God for each day I have you in my life. I know we have had our ups and downs but I love you more with each passing day.

I hope the path you take in your future will make you happier with each passing day. I wish you much success in your college years.

With much love,
Dad

Allie Frances Murdaugh

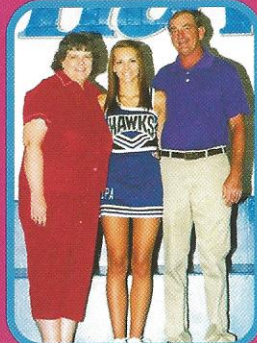

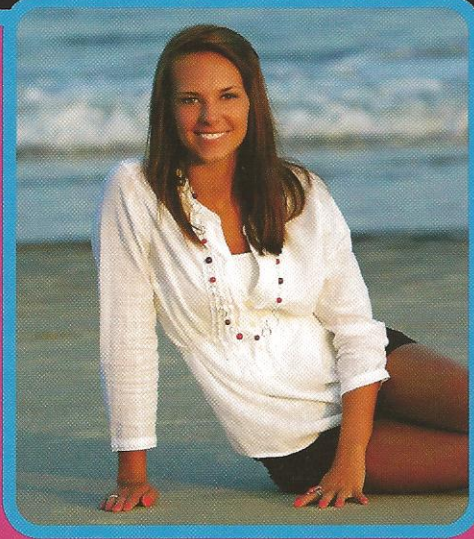

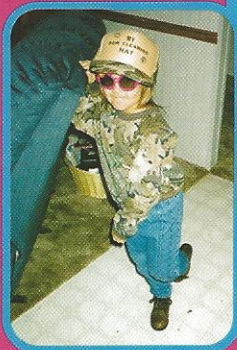

Allie,

It seems like only yesterday that you were our special little Christmas gift from God. Now eighteen short years later you are an amazing young lady. You will never know just how proud we are of you. We will miss you so much when you leave for college. We know that you will continue to grow into a beautiful, independent, and capable young woman who will have much to offer to this world. Always remember that we love you very much but that God loves you even more!

Love,
Mom and Dad

Allie,

I am very proud to have you as my big sister. I will always love you!

Tabor Elizabeth Copeland

Tabor-

Although it may seem to you that it has taken forever to reach this point in your life, it has happened all too quickly for me! Although I am sad to think of you leaving, it cannot compare with how happy and proud I am of you. Never lose sight of your dreams and never compromise anything to reach them. Always remember these things: life will be filled with challenges; never settle for the path of least resistance. Do your best, be yourself, and always look for the best in others. Work hard, stretch yourself, never stop learning and remember to have some fun along the way.

I love you-Mom

Tabor-

You are the best! I hope you have a lot of fun in college. We still need to have our "sister nights"! Thanks you for all you have done for me.

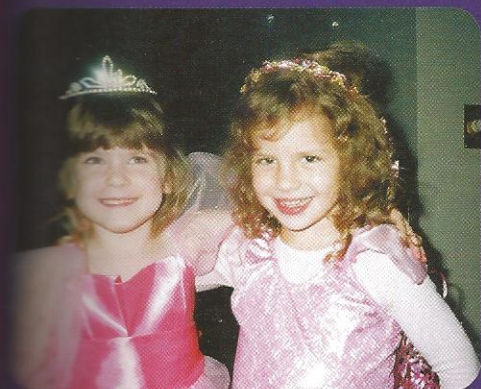

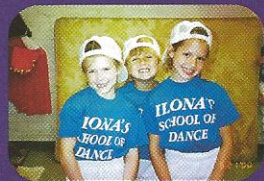

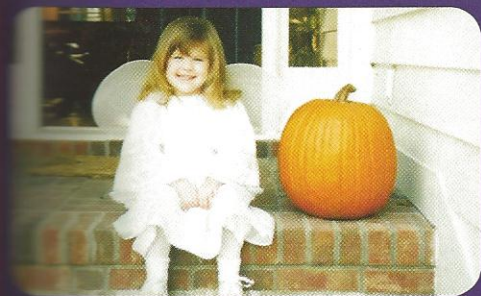

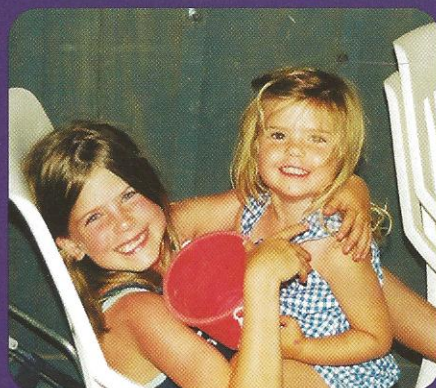

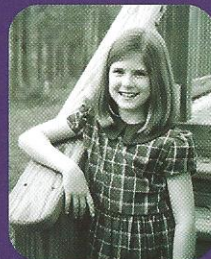

I love you! Claire

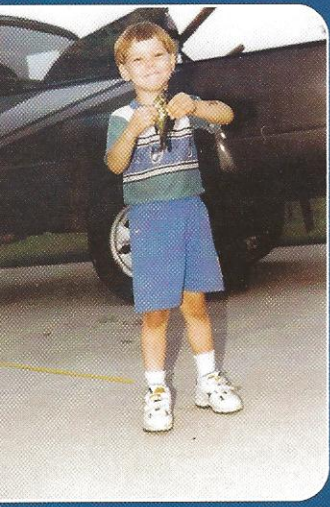

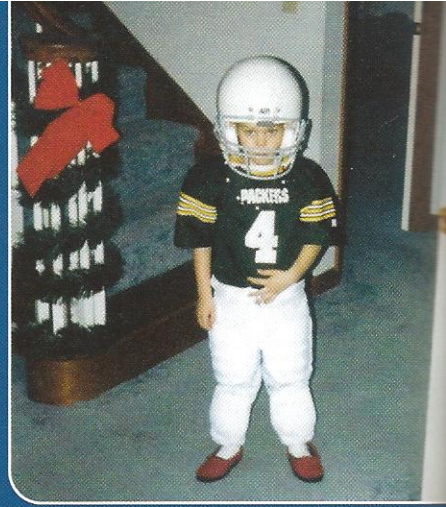

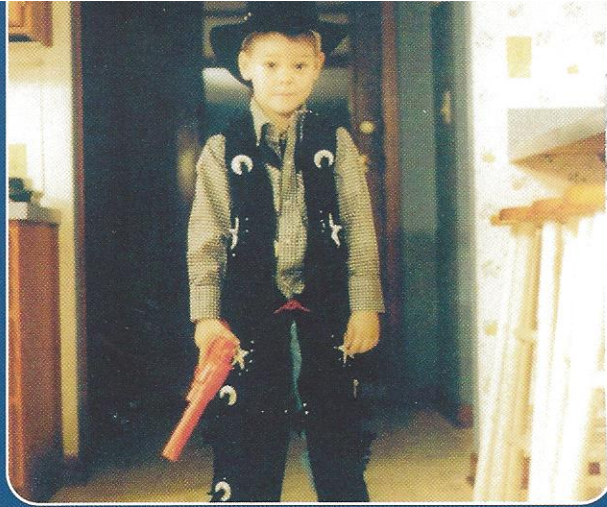

Tabor,-

I am so very proud that you are my daughter. You have become a lovely, caring young lady. I know that you will continue to do your best in all your endeavors.

With all my love,

Your dad

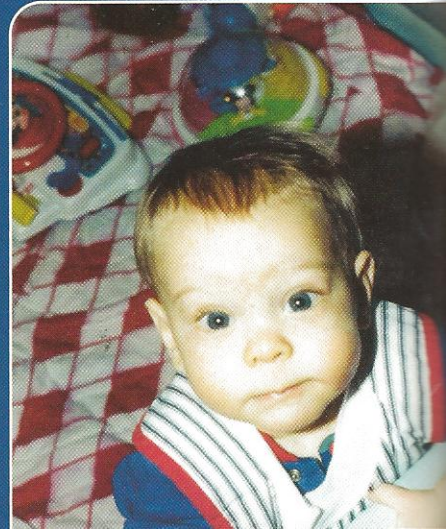

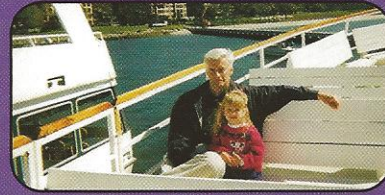

Garrett,

It is hard to believe that you will soon graduate and be off to a new journey in life. You have always been our "little man" -- independent, competitive, and hardworking, yet kind, loving, and a lot of fun! We are so proud of the man you have become. We know that you will succeed in reaching your goals. Continue to put God first. Remember that we will always be there for you!

We love you!
Mom, Dad, and Trey

Caitlin Vandermark Crosby

My Dearest Caitlin,

It seems like only yesterday that we were bringing you home from the hospital as a newborn. We tucked you into your car seat, and your mother sat as close to you as she could. I think that she was convinced that she could shield you from all possible harm. I drove the car as slowly as I could; we would have tip toed home if we could have done so! We got you home safely ...and didn't have a clue what to do from there.

Your first day at kindergarten was difficult for all of us, or at least it was for your mom and me. We were certainly anxious for you. When your name was called you got down out of the stands, and got in line ready to march to class. We kept our eyes on you the entire time, ready to smile and reassure you when you looked back at us in the stands. But you marched straight ahead, and never looked back. You still haven't.

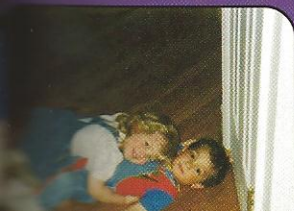

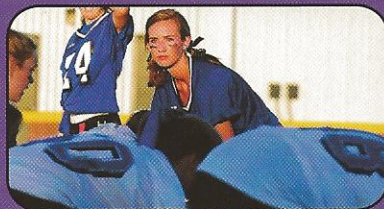

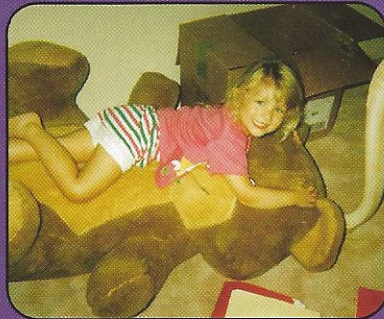

How quickly you changed! One day you were a shy little girl; the next, a tall, confident, beautiful young woman. I am amazed at the courage, discipline, and integrity that you possess. You have accomplished so much, and did so because of your hard sacrifices. Your hard work has paid off, and it will continue to do so in the future. I am just as amazed at the loyalty that you demonstrated to your friends, and of the love that you have for them. Remember that it will take work to maintain those friendships, but it will be worth it. You have been blessed with much, but your warm smile and warmer heart are your best treasures. Continue to share them.

You can be proud of who you are and what you have accomplished. But realize that the best parts of your life - college, career, marriage, family, and life-long friendships - still await you. Don't be afraid to take a chance, to push ahead. You will never fail as long as you have friends and family who love and support you, and you will always have people who care about you.

Your mother would have been so proud of you - as I am! Mommy knew that you loved her. She thought of you constantly, and was so happy to have you as her daughter. As for me, you are my life, and I love you so very, very much!

It seems like only yesterday that we were bringing you home as a newborn!

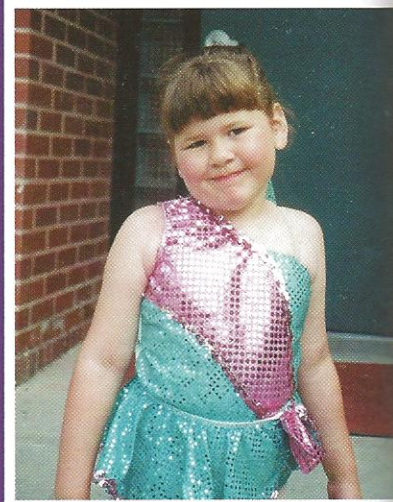

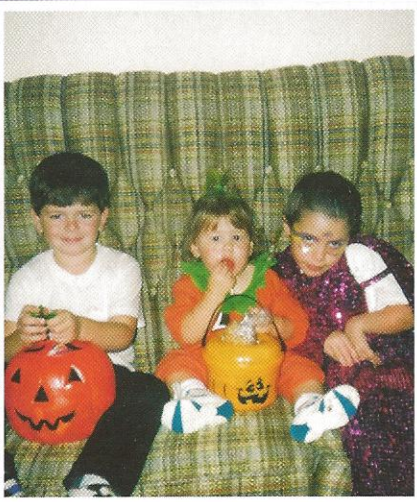

Dad

Victoria Anne Rizer

Where has the time gone? Just yesterday you were singing "Winnie the Pooh", making funny faces, and lugging around your cool covers! We are proud of you! You have blessed us with 18 years of joy! You have grown into a beautiful young woman who is ready to face the world. We want you to cherish the moments, embrace the challenges, and remember that we are always there to support you! Congratulations on your graduation! We love you!

Elizabeth Grace,

You are a beautiful angel sent to us on May 3, 1993. Your strong Christian faith along with your sweet, kind, and compassionate nature, is rarely seen in adults, much less someone your age. You have a true gift which is evident more and more as you mature into a beautiful young woman. God has great plans for you, and we are so thankful and proud that He blessed our lives with you.

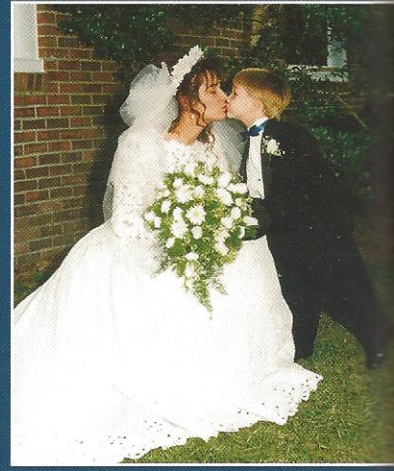

We love you.

Laura Cheyenne Craven

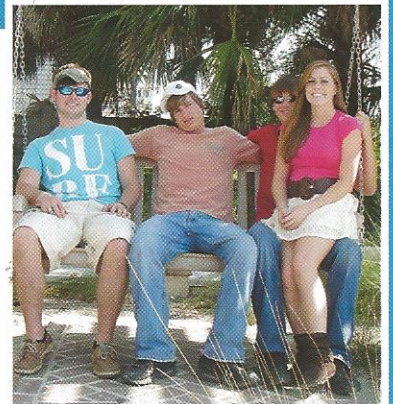

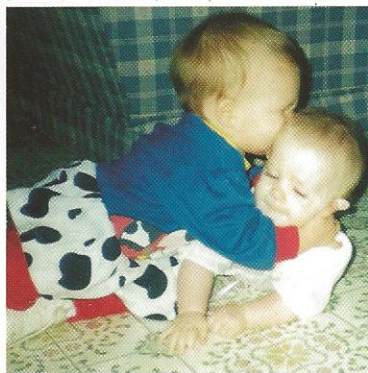

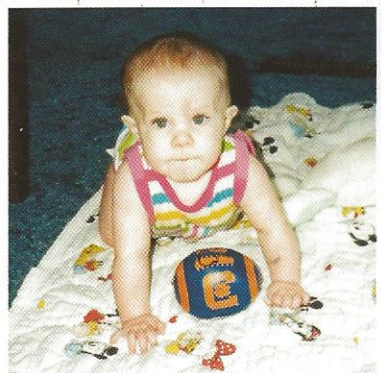

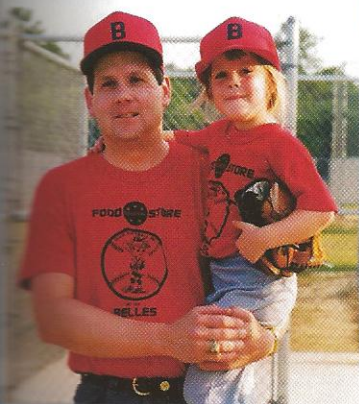

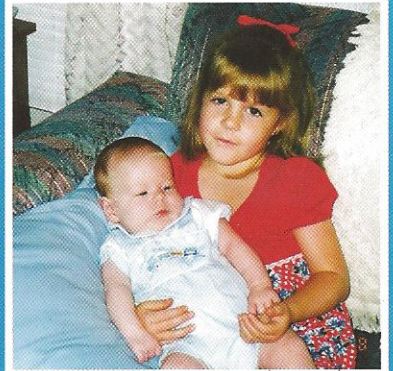

Laura,

We love you so much that words cannot attempt to express our feelings. You have made us proud from the day you "backed" into this world until now as the beautiful young lady you have become. We hope you will always maintain your caring ways and concern for others. Of all your attributes, and there are many, your determination may be the one we admire the most. We are tempted to tell you that you "can't succeed" because we know that the one sure way to get you to do something is to tell you that you "are not good enough". You have proven time and again that, not only are you good enough, you are the BEST.

We "hope your dreams take you...to the corners of your smiles, to the highest of your hopes, to the windows of your opportunities, and to the most special places your heart has ever known".

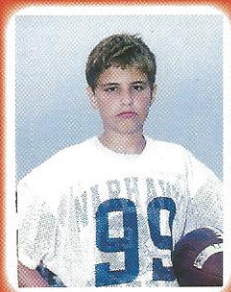

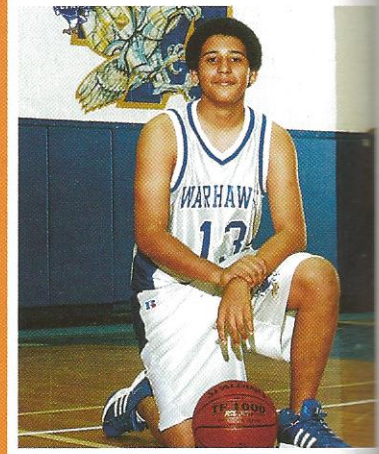

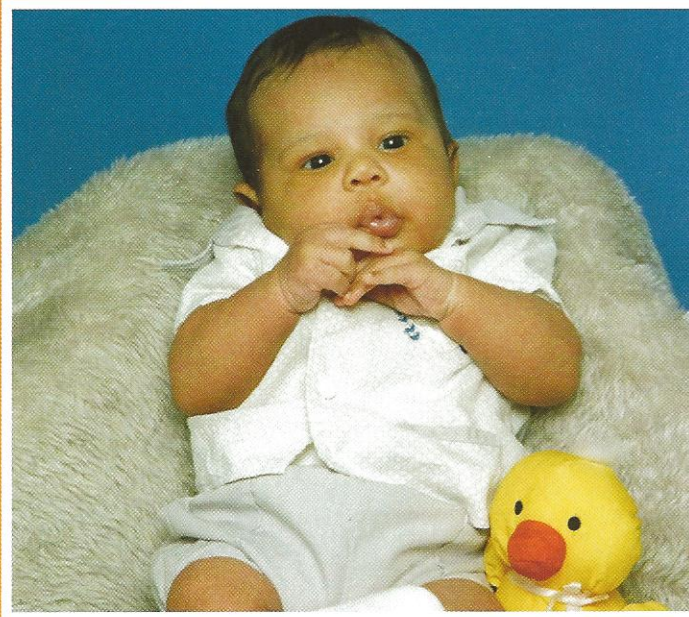

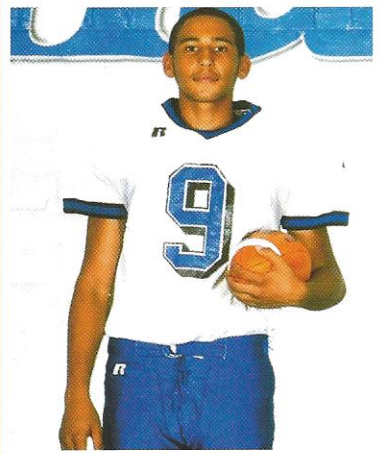

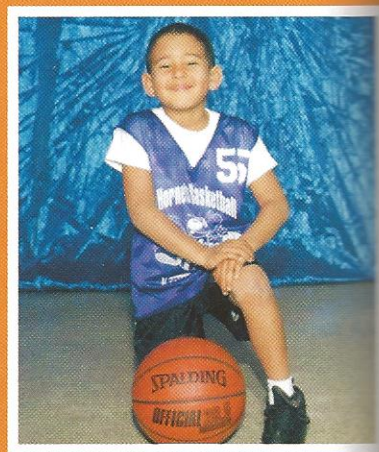

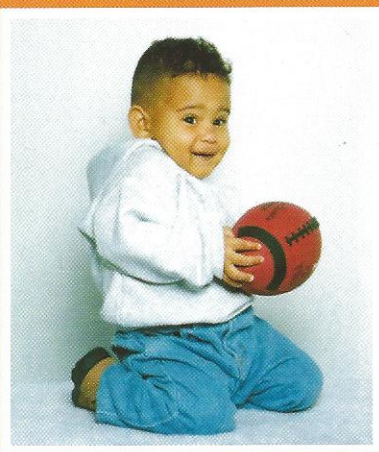

Love,

In Loving Memory Mr. Trowell O'Quinn

This year we lost a beloved member of our CPA family. Mr. O'Quinn always greeted his War Hawk family with a smiling face and made a point to know each and every student's name. Whether it was helping a lower school student get a ball off of the roof, building window boxes for the front of the school, or fixing everything from lightbulbs to air conditioners, he did it graciously and with a smile. Not only was he a great worker, but he was also a great friend. He was always willing to share his knowledge of photography and bee keeping. It is safe to say that every person involved with Colleton Prep, be it teachers or students, benefitted from his presence.

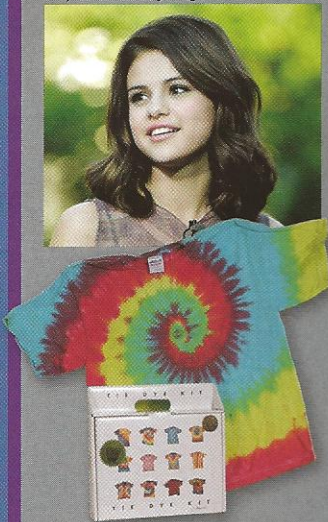

Not a day goes by that someone doesn't say "Mr. O'Quinn would have that", or "Mr. O'Quinn could fix that". Mr. O'Quinn holds a special place in all of our hearts. He will be greatly missed.

Hats

Self-expression is always in fashion and the right hat makes it easy to add panache (and hide a bad hair day). All you need is a cute fedora or a jaunty newsboy cap.

Monkey Slippers

It's a toy. It's a slipper. It's a fun fashion trend. Sock monkey slippers are popular in college dorms and at slumber parties.

Long Necklaces

Long, statement necklaces are trend-right. Gossip girls look luxe with Tiffany-style trinkets. Layered, chunky, vintage baubles create an alt-rock, art school vibe.

Over the Knee Boots

Boots go to great lengths. Over-the-knee styles are seen everywhere from runways to red carpets. Trendsetters wear them with short skirts or slim leggings.
