Dedication

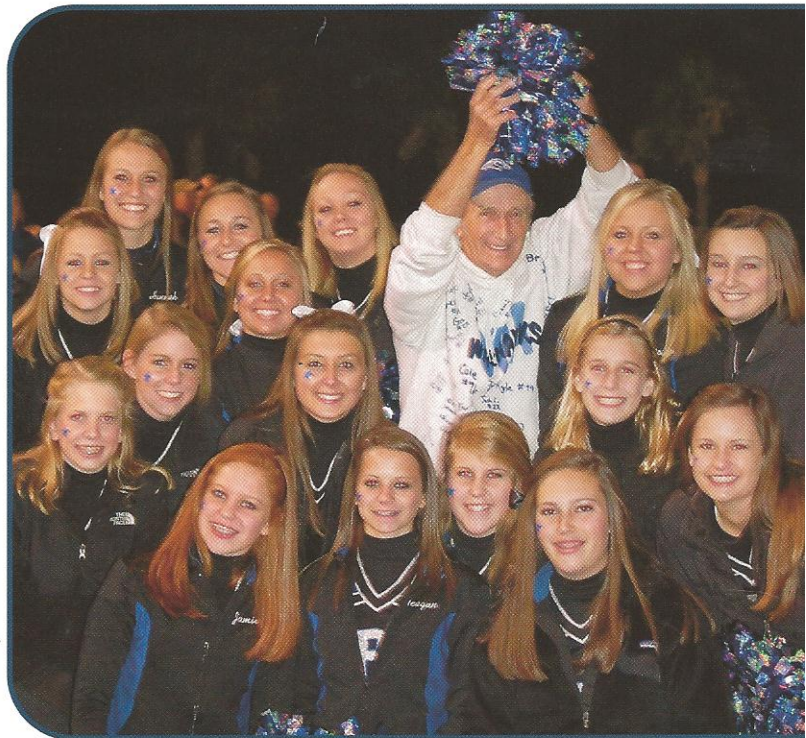

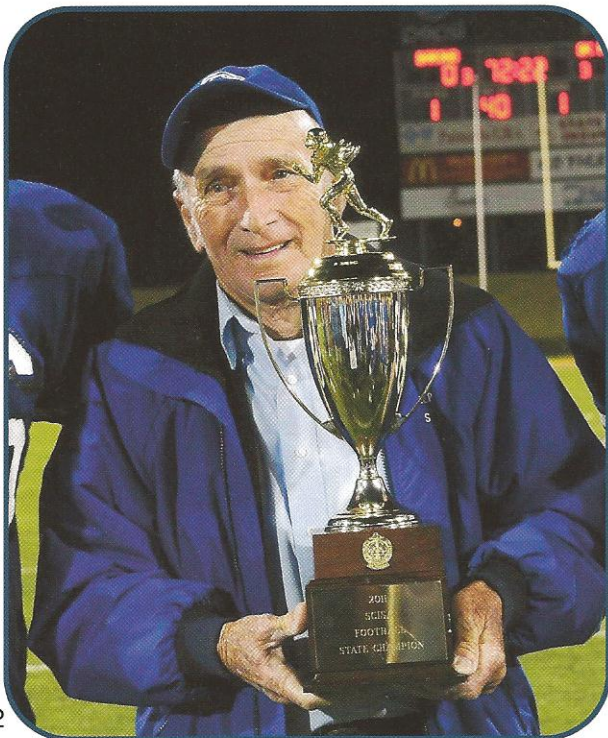

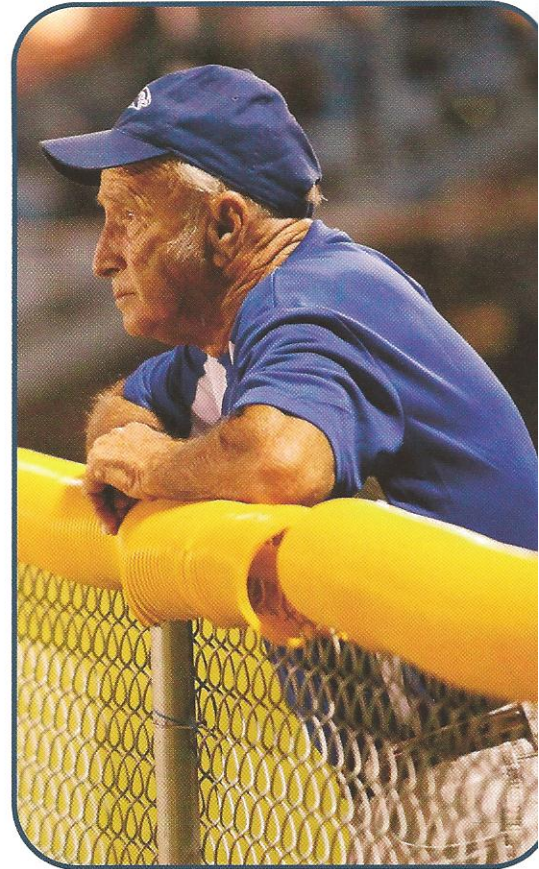

This year we are honored to dedicate the yearbook to our most beloved fan, Mr. Joe Carroll. It's difficult to remember a football game or any other sporting event that he hasn't been on the sideline or in the stands pulling for the Warhawks.

When you think of Colleton Prep, one of the first things you think of is Mr. Joe. With loyalty, compassion and an overall love for the school, Mr. Joe is a shining example of what every supporter should be.

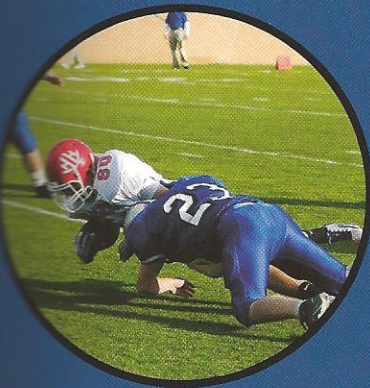

This is only a small token of the appreciation that we all feel toward this great man.

We love you Mr. Joe!

Father God, in the trials we go through life, we ask for a chance that's fair, and a chance to earn our stripe. If we should win, let it be by the code. If we should lose, let us stand by the road, and cheer as the winners go by.... Day by day, we get better and better, 'til we can't be beat. WON'T BE BEAT!

VARSITY Cheerleading

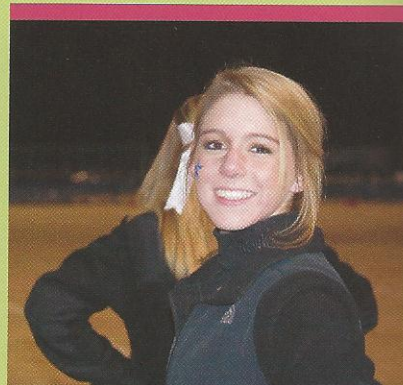

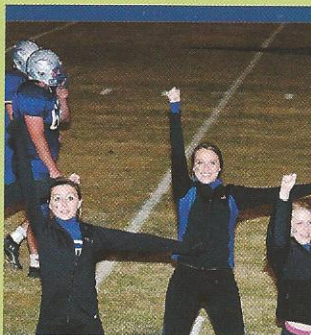

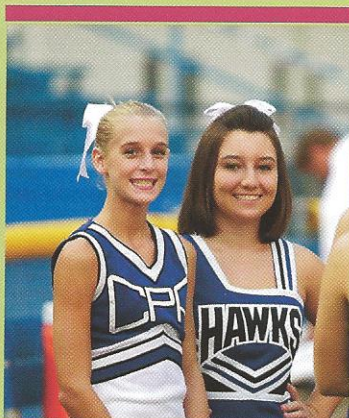

With a new coach, hectic practice schedule, and the state competition on the line, the 2011 cheerleading season began with much anticipation and excitement.

The team had the opportunity to go to Presbyterian College and Lander over the summer to prepare for the season ahead.

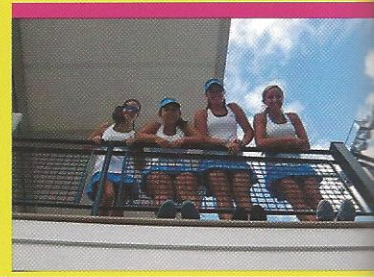

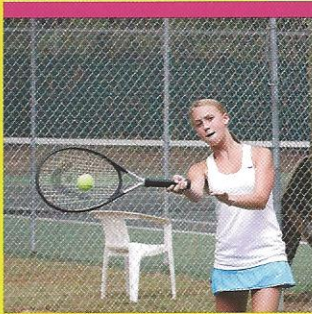

The girls made many memories over the season, the most memorable of them all was cheering the team on to state!

The 2011 Varsity Cheerleading squad performs their last half time of the season together at the State Championship game at Benedict College in Columbia, SC.

Varsity Tennis

The Colleton Prep tennis team finished the season with an 11-7 record and made it to the quarter finals of state. The first match of the season was against 3A Ashley Hall. The first region match was against Thomas Sumter Academy and lost a close match in doubles 5-4. Four matches later our record was 2-3 in region play with two losses to Holly Hill Academy and a win from each Thomas Sumter academy as well as St John's Academy. We went into the playoffs with a 3-3 record in our region and were set to play Charleston Collegiate first round. We won our first playoff match at home 9-0. Our next match was to be played at Carolina Academy in Lake City, South Carolina. After everyone played a tough match, we lost with a final score of 5-1. Sarah won the only match of the day. This ended our season and the last match Sarah would play during regular season as a Colleton Prep student. We finished our season with a winning record and accomplished more than we thought we would at the beginning of the season.

Varsity Volleyball

After a rocky start, the CPA Volleyball team came back and had a successful season; making it to the state playoffs. CPA welcomed a new coach this year, Ashley Smith, who not long ago played for CPA herself as a setter. She said she stressed the playoff to motivate the girls to win. Which ultimately led them to beating both Dorchester Academy and Calhoun Academy after a tough loss at the beginning of the season.

Although they couldn't pull it off in the playoffs, they fought hard throughout the season and grew as a team.

L-R Top to Bottom: Coach Smith motivates her team to hustle and not let the ball hit the floor. Jacqueline Crosby sets the ball for Kendall Jumper. Chelsi Mescia, Carson Jackson and Meagan Burns take a time out during the game. Kendall Jumper attempts to block the hit and score for CPA. Getting the game started, Kennedy Crosby serves the ball and helps lead her team to victory.

Sarah Adkins

Teeny, Tiny Sarah,

It's so hard to believe you are a senior graduating from high school and moving on to college. Where have the days gone? It seems as only yesterday that you and puppy were on your way to preschool and now you are both off to college.

We have watched you grow (well, mature) into a beautiful young lady but you have to know you will always be our little girl. We know you will succeed in college but more importantly in life. You are a good person and that is what we love most about you.

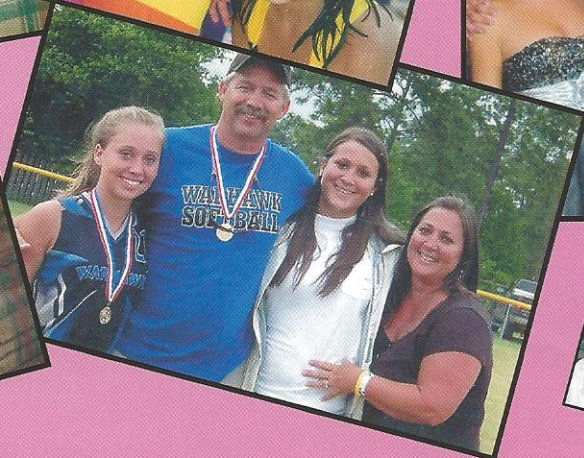

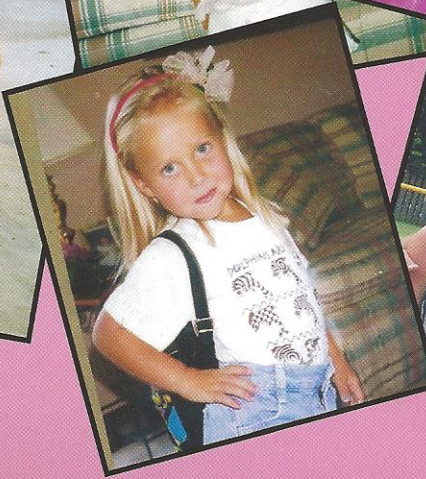

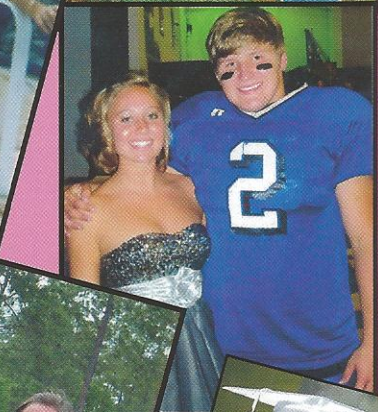

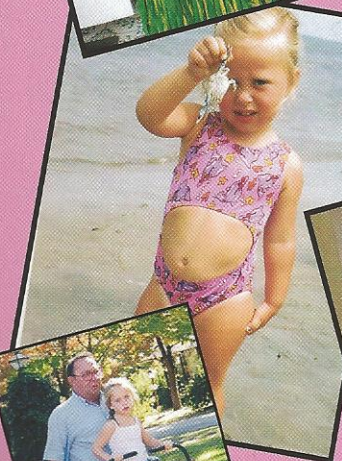

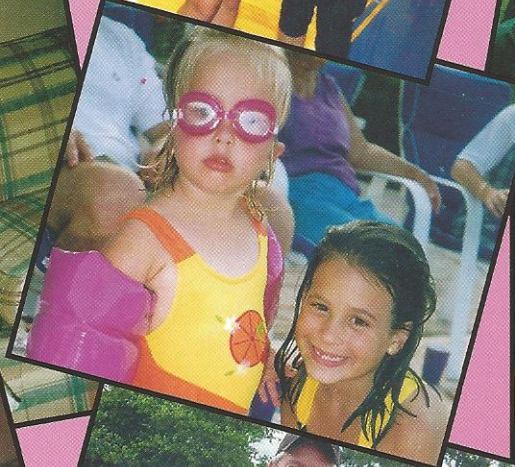

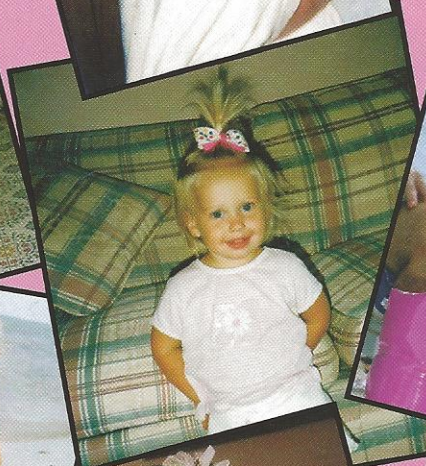

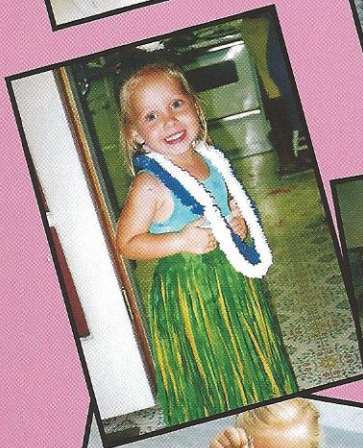

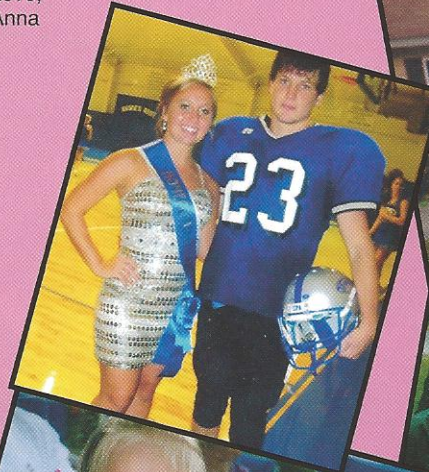

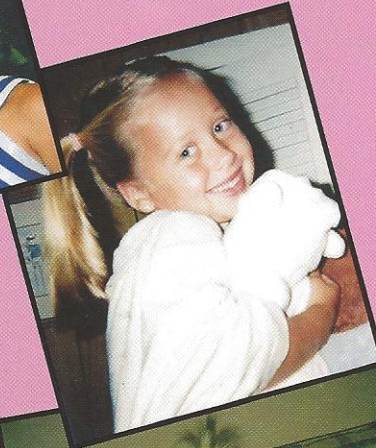

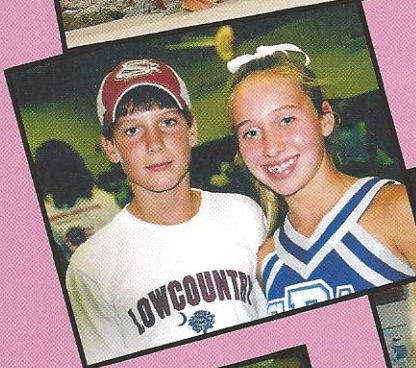

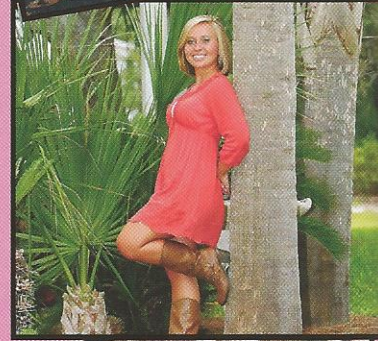

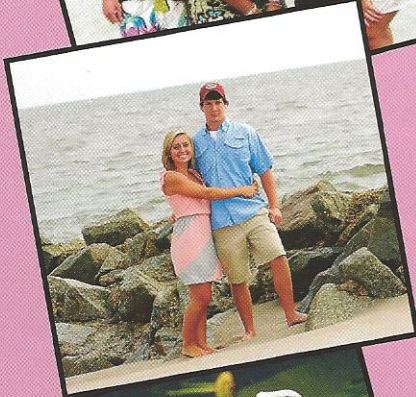

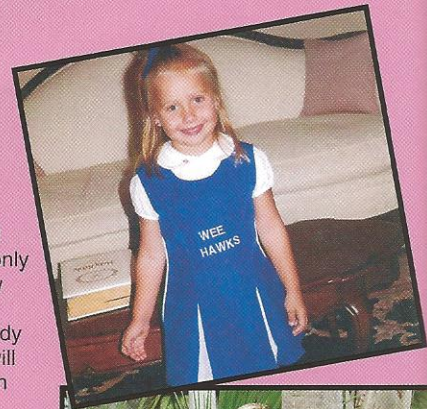

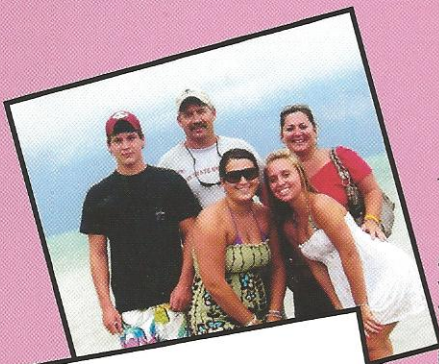

You need to know that no matter what happens in your life, Dad, myself, and Anna will always be here for you. We are a family, we are your family.

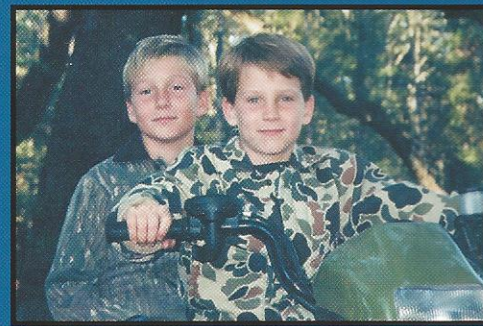

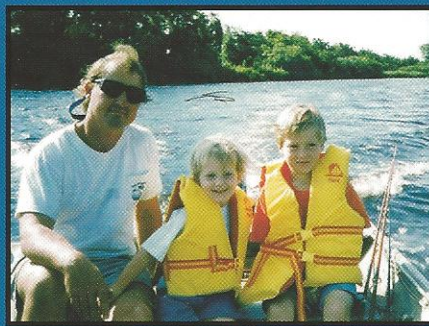

We love you more than you will ever know,
Mom & Dad

Sarah,

I cannot believe the time has finally come for you to graduate high school. I know we have been through everything together, but that's what sisters are for! I know you will excel in anything you do as long as you keep your mind set on it. You're a beautiful young lady and I am so proud to have a baby sister like you. Thanks for always being there for me no matter what. Keep your head up and stay in school! I love you so much!!!

Love,
Anna

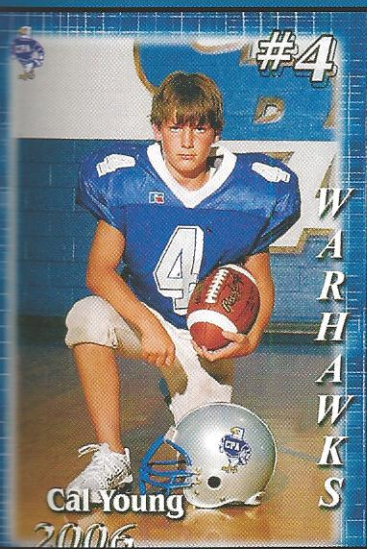

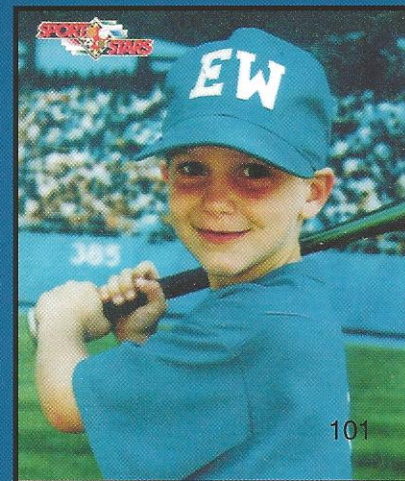

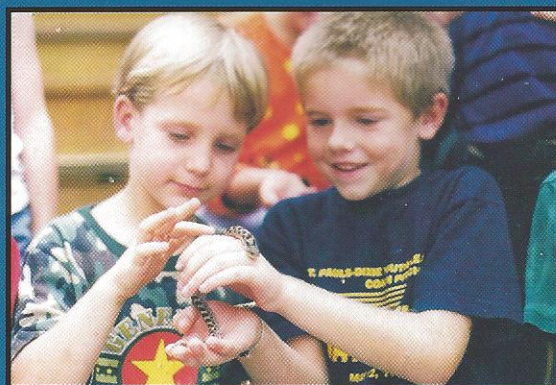

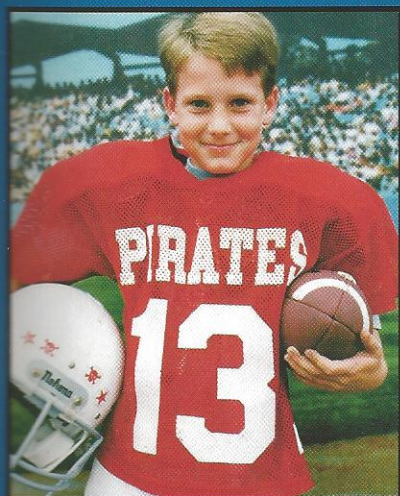

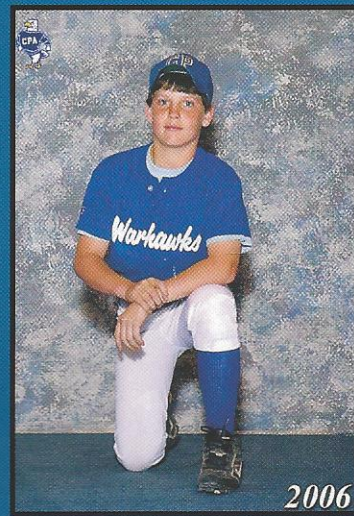

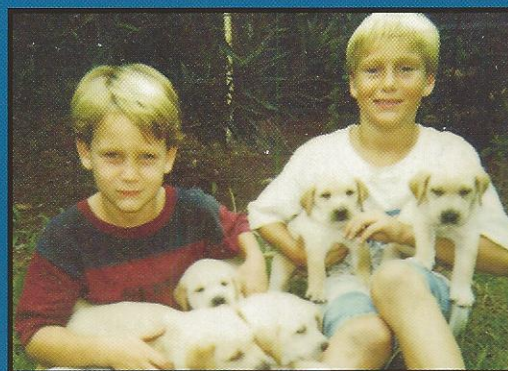

Dear Calhoun,

From the moment you were born, you've brought so much happiness into our lives. We thank God every day for blessing us with you and Trey. Watching you grow up from a precious little boy to the handsome young man that you have become is what life is all about. From the first time you played on a t-ball team, then little league, to the Hawks varsity football & baseball teams, we can remember them all and wouldn't miss a game for anything! As much as we love to go hunting & fishing, all the camping out and vacations we've had, watching you boys play ball has been the happiest times of our lives. You have always made us very proud of you and know that you will accomplish anything that you put your mind to. This next phase of your life will be quite an exciting adventure for you, and we hope that you will keep us part of that. No matter where you go or what you do, we'll always be on the sidelines cheering you on.

We Love You Very Much!!
Mom, Dad, & Trey

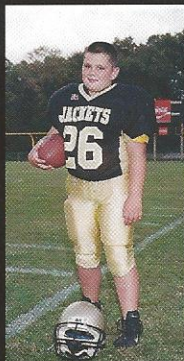

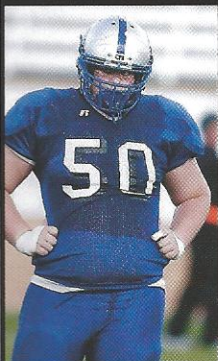

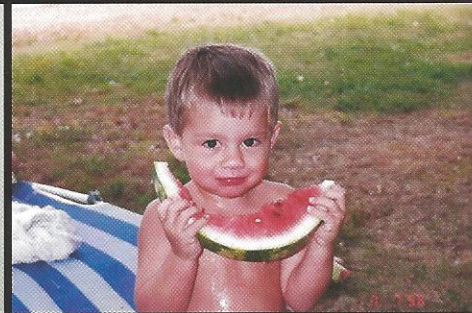

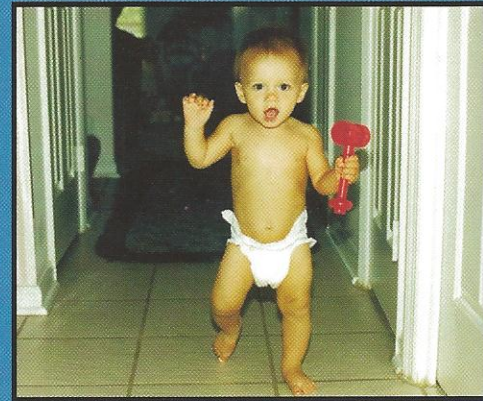

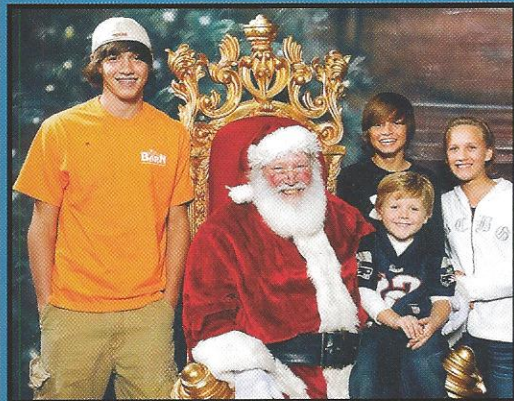

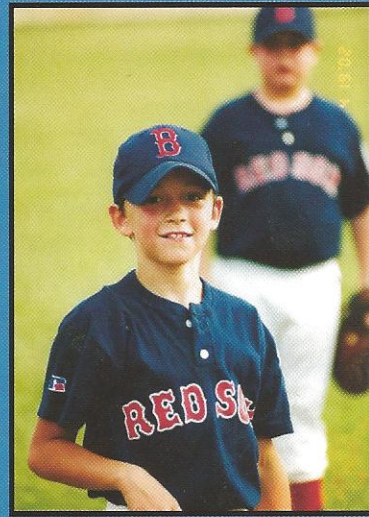

Garrett Logan Brewster

Garrett,
 We can't begin to tell you how proud we are of you. It has been such a blessing watching you grow into the awesome young man you've become. We feel secure knowing that those of us that love you, can send you off into the world knowing you'll keep making us proud. No matter where life takes you, always remember to trust your heart and never forget we are always in your corner.

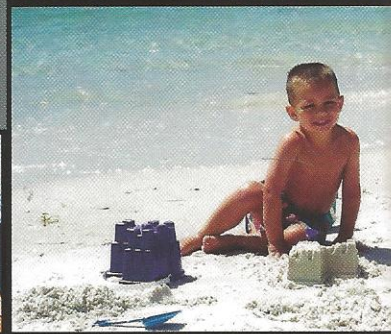

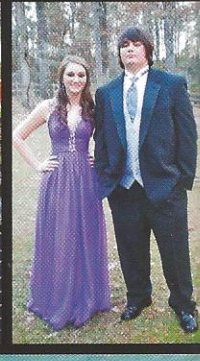

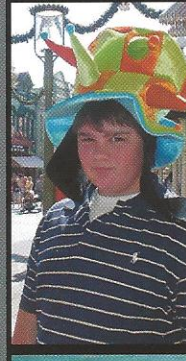

We Love You So Very Much,
 Dad, Tina, Erica, Trent, Skylar, & Maddix

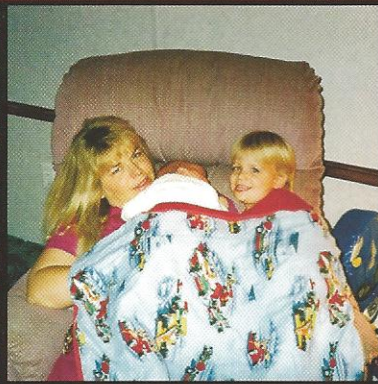

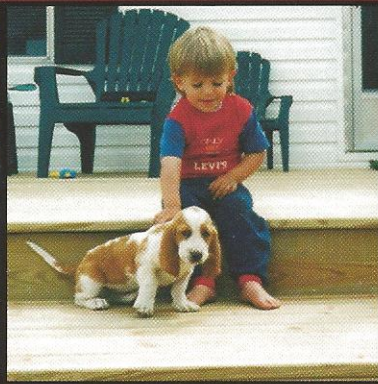

Dalton Hayes Mescia

Dalt,
 There is a song that says the words "don't blink life goes faster than you think". This statement is so true. It seems like just yesterday you were learning to ride a bike, swim, and catch heck - I guess just walk. Your mom and I are so proud of the young man that you have become and the accomplishments you have achieved. Life is what you make of it. Embrace the opportunities that come your way. ALWAYS lead, even though at times it may be easier to follow. A man is measured not by how many times he falls but by his determination to get back up. LIVE life to its fullest, LOVE those around you and LAUGH at yourself a lot. Thank the Lord for the ability he has given you to brighten up even the darkest days with your contagious smile and personality. You have made our lives better, and I know you will continue to affect the lives of others the same way. With overwhelming confidence I would like to say YOU control your own flood gate. Keep your river moving forward for someday no matter how the river changes you will navigate it blindfolded.

CONGRATULATIONS! WE LOVE YOU!!

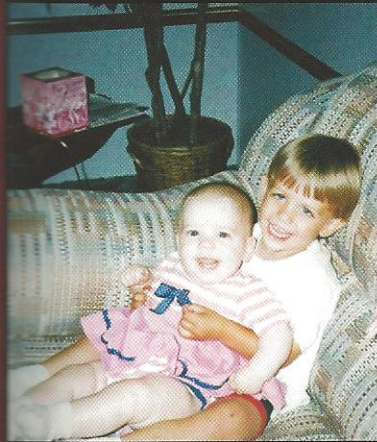

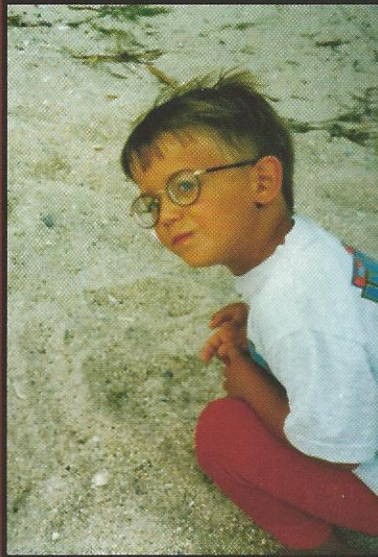

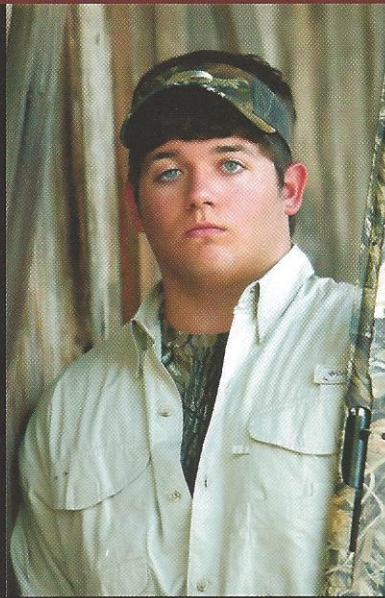

BRETT AVANT

You have made us very proud over the years. We wish you only the best in years to come and we hope that all of your dreams come true. Live your life to the fullest and make every day count. You deserve the best that life has to offer and that is our wish for you.

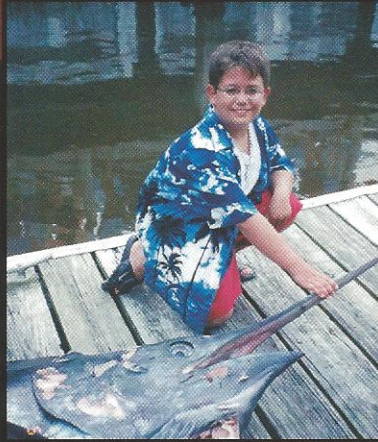

We Love You,
Dad, Mom, and Lexi

Ever since the day you were born, you have been my number one priority. I am so proud of the things you have accomplished, and the young woman you have become. I will always be there for you, and I know that you will do well in college. You are not just my daughter, you are my best friend!

Whitney,
I'm so glad that you've made it this far! By making the right choices, you've grown into a young lady. I am so proud of you as you go out to make your own life. Gina Lee Strickland

Where have the years gone? It seems like only yesterday you were a spunky little 3 year old prancing around the house in high heels singing the "Barney" song. (No Rae Jose!) And now, what a beautiful young woman you've become. You've blossomed into a caring & generous soul. As you move on into the next stage of your life always believe in yourself, have faith, continue to take the high road and most importantly, trust in the Lord because with Him all things are possible! We are so VERY proud of you & love you more than you will ever know. Congratulations!! WE LOVE YOU GIGI!!!!

Love,
Mom & Dad

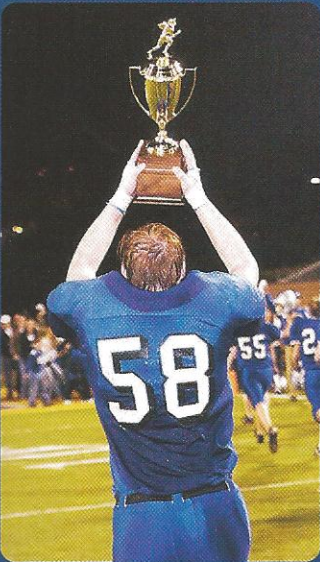

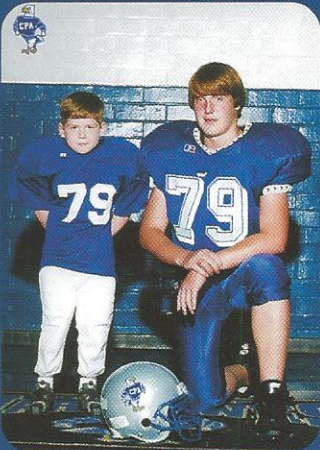

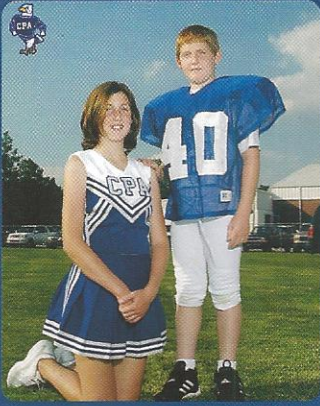

Gina! You are a senior! That's crazy! Remember when our favorite thing to do over summer was to bake with Brittany? Now it's Edisto! You will need to go with me still every once in a while. You better keep going to Tennessee with us. It's going to be pretty quiet without us screaming at each other. Who am I supposed to blame when you leave? Gigi, good luck in college! Love, Marla (:

I am very proud of you. You have turned into a very smart, beautiful young lady. I am very blessed to have you as my sister. Best of luck and I know you will do good! Love always, Devon

I love you and am very proud of you! Congratulations! Love, Jennifer

Jordan Lee Breland

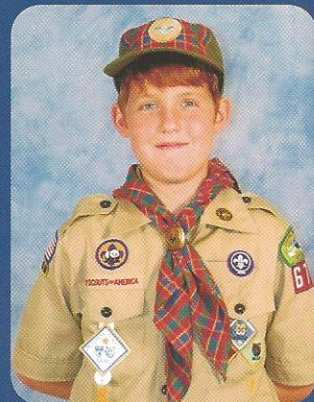

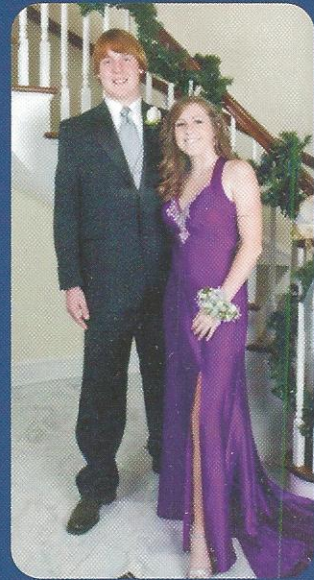

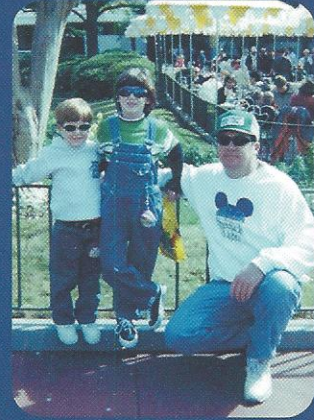

Jordan,

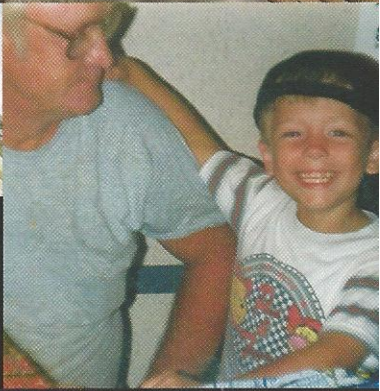

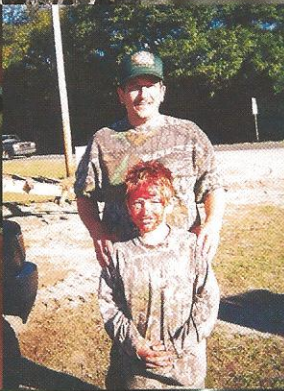

On a warm November day in 1993, God granted us the privilege of becoming your parents. Dad and I did not realize the impact you would have on not only our lives, but the lives of those around you. Your passion for adventure, zest for life and compassion for others never ceases to amaze us. Words cannot express how proud we are of you and the man you have become. We look forward to seeing what God has in store for you! Stay true to yourself and remember to always put God first in your life.

"Blessed is the man who trusts in the Lord and whose hope is the Lord." Jeremiah 17:7

Wishing you the time of your life!

JACOB CRAVEN

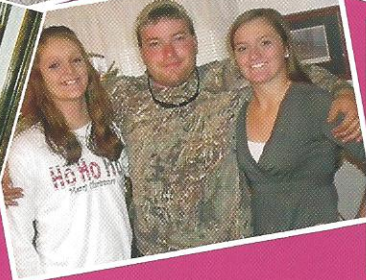

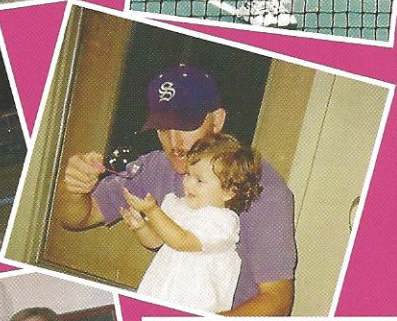

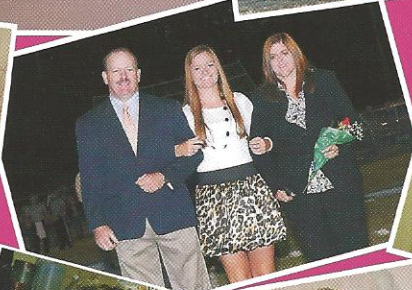

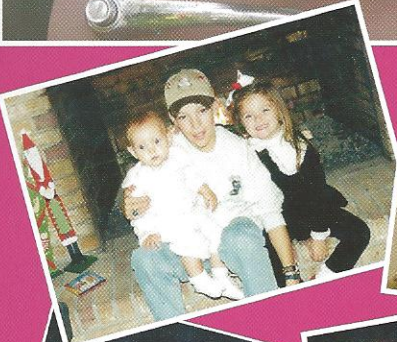

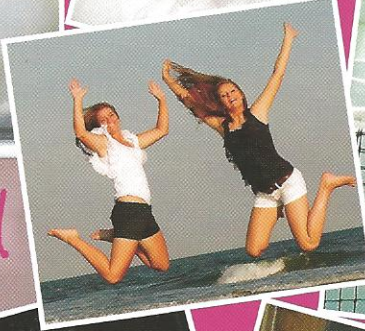

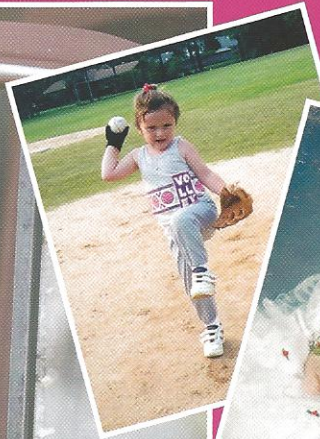

Jacob,

I will remember every homerun you ever hit. What joy it brought to me. I will remember every football you ever kicked, tackles you ever made, all of the camping trips, fishing trips, and hunting trips we took together. Son, carry these memories where ever you go. Remember we did these things together. There will be a lot of goals down the road to win. I wish I could be there to see them. Just remember I have loved you from the time you were born and will continue until my life is over. We love you very much and are so very proud of you!
Love, Mom and Dad

Sarah Frances McDonald

Our dearest Sarah,

Congratulations on reaching this milestone in your life. It has truly been a joy to watch you become the person that you are. Stay grounded in who you are and what you believe. Continue to strive to give it your best. Expect the challenges in life and trust in the Lord to help you through them. Remember Mom and Dad always love you. We are so proud of you and your accomplishments. We hope that all of your dreams come true!

Love,
Mom and Dad

Sarah,

You are the best big sister ever! Thank you for all the advice and memories. They will last forever. I am glad we have gotten so close! I cannot believe you are already graduating. Have fun in college. I love you, and I will miss you.

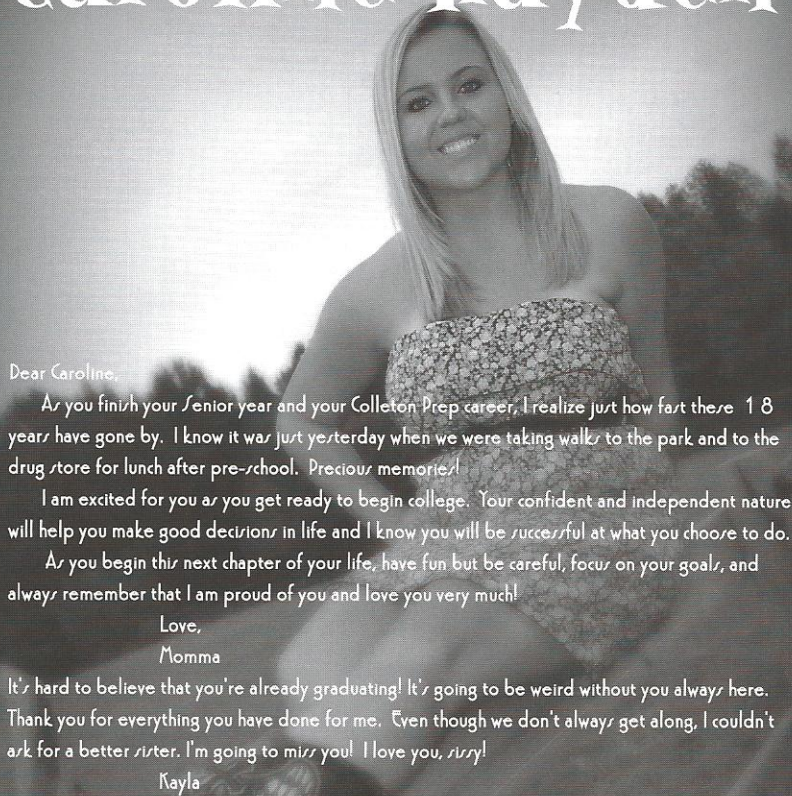

Love,
Shelly

I can't believe you are already graduating from high school. I am so proud of you. Good luck at Erskine. I know you will do great!

Love,

Caroline Hayden

Dear Caroline,

As you finish your Senior year and your Colleton Prep career, I realize just how fast these 18 years have gone by. I know it was just yesterday when we were taking walks to the park and to the drug store for lunch after pre-school. Precious memories!

I am excited for you as you get ready to begin college. Your confident and independent nature will help you make good decisions in life and I know you will be successful at what you choose to do.

As you begin this next chapter of your life, have fun but be careful, focus on your goals, and always remember that I am proud of you and love you very much!

Love,
Momma

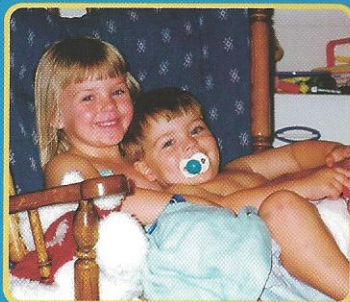

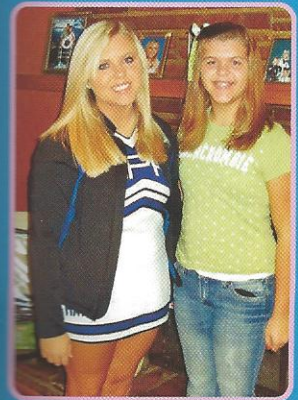

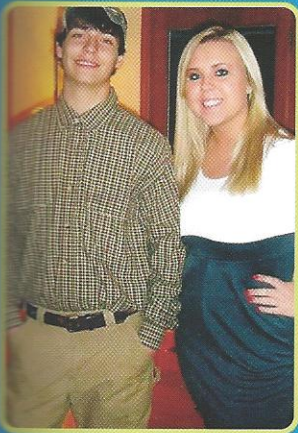

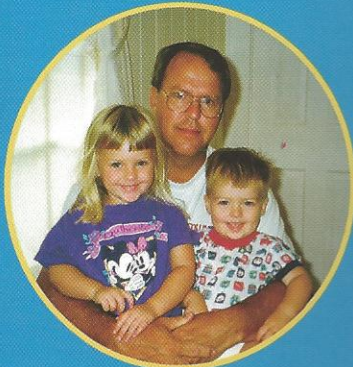

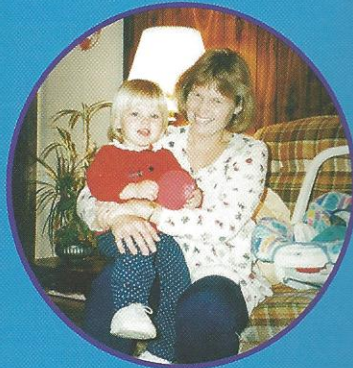

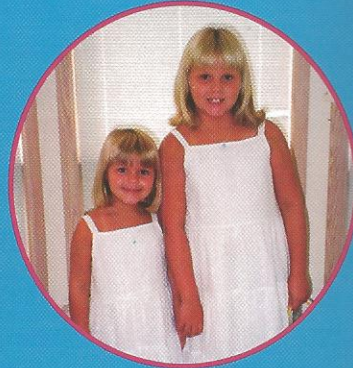

It's hard to believe that you're already graduating! It's going to be weird without you always here. Thank you for everything you have done for me. Even though we don't always get along, I couldn't ask for a better sister. I'm going to miss you! I love you, sis!

Kayla

Dear Caroline,

I want to relate to you a few things as you get ready to embark on a new phase of your life. College will be different and you will now be considered an adult by all you come into contact with...your teachers and professors, your friends and your friend's parents and families, and even to a certain extent, your own family. This being said, you have grown into quite a remarkable young lady and I could not be any prouder. You have excelled at practically everything you have tried and I know you will do well in college. Let me also say that I trust you...and this is extremely important to me. Without trust, a father and daughter could not build the type of relationship that we enjoy. I also feel you are an honest individual, and that, too, is a quality which reflects your character and make-up. Finally, let me add that I expect you to come home to visit next year when you are away and you will always hold a special place in my heart and soul. In closing, let me convey my most sincere wishes for a fun, successful and fulfilling future.

Love you always,
Daddy

Joseph Barrett

My Dearest Joseph,

When I think of you leaving home to go off to college, my heart almost burst. It burst with feelings of being thankful, pride, and sadness. I thank God daily for blessing our lives with you. I am so proud of the young man you have become that there are no words to express. The sadness fills my heart when I think of you becoming less dependent on us (Mama and Daddy) and becoming a grown man out on your own. I just hope you will always remember and know that we are here for you to turn to.

Please keep your positive attitude in life. Always turn to God to guide you in which ever direction you choose and I know you will be a success!

I Love You,
Mama

Joseph,

Although I have many GREAT memories of you growing up....my favorite is: sitting in a rocker or swing with you either in my lap or beside me singing, "A little love that slowly grows and grows". You loved it and wanted that song and nothing else, nor did you want anyone else to sing it.

I love you very much and am so proud of you.

Grandma

Joseph,

It's hard to believe you are a senior already. Seems it was just yesterday that I held my brother in my arms. I want you to know how very proud I am of the young man you have become. I can't wait to see what life has in store for you and wish you nothing but the very best that life has to offer.

I love you, Sissy

Joseph,

From the moment you were born I new that my life had changed. I was no longer the only child and was about to be a big brother. Little did I know the laughter, crying, and countless memories that would come with you. We have been through a lot together and I know our adventures aren't over yet! You will see that with graduation your life will change, but trust me its for the better. I know you are going to grow up to be a great Man and have a wonderful life just remember life is full of surprises and decisions, but its up to you on how you handle them.

I love you buddy and I'm proud to be your brother!

Jimbo

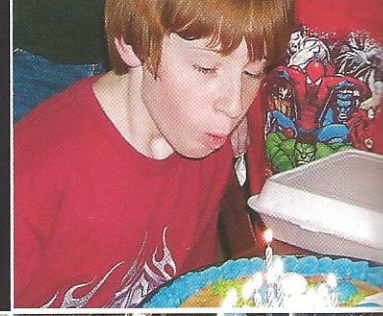

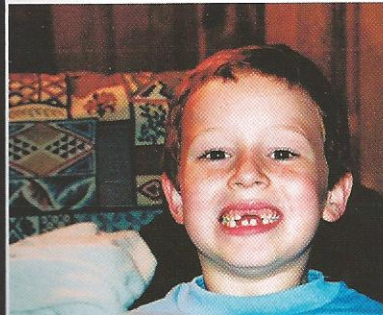

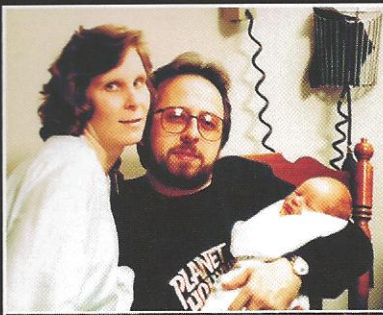

Joseph,

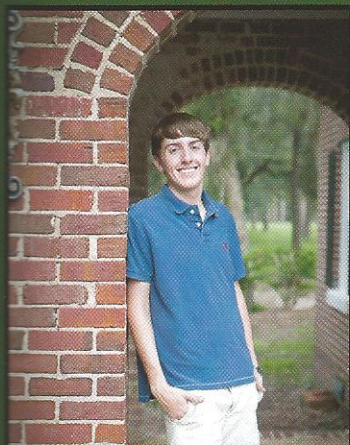

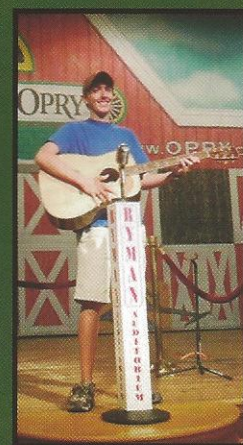

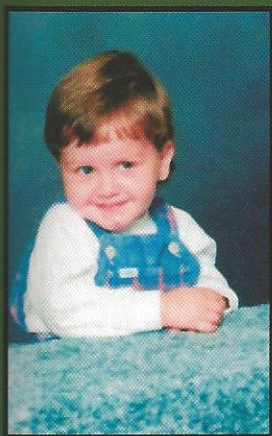

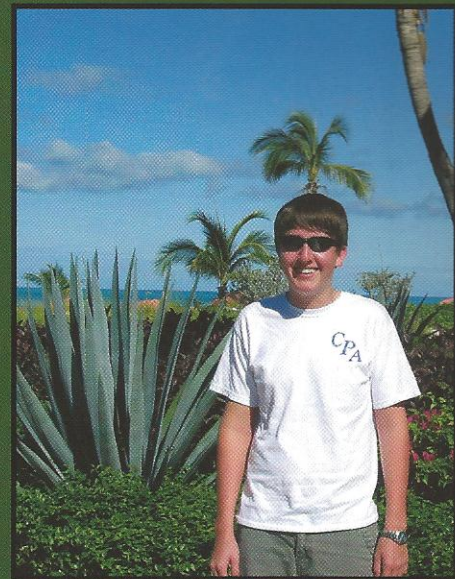

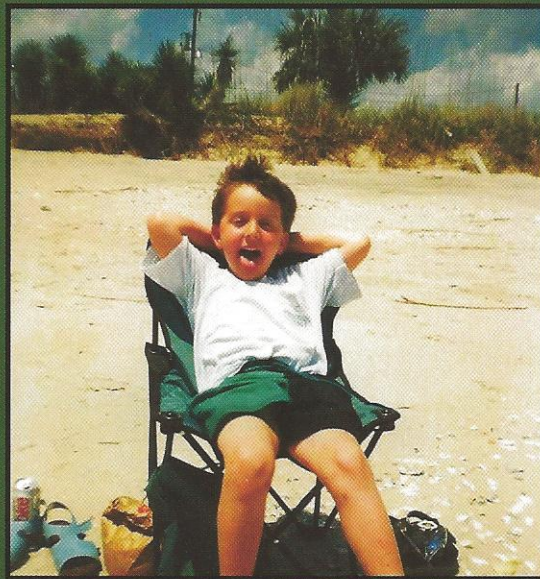

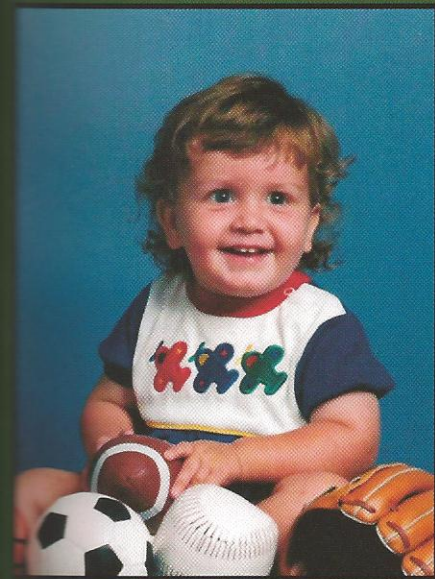

If I remember correctly, the first word you clearly spoke was "Daddy". One little 5 letter word which always makes me feel warm inside when I hear it from you. It's hard to believe that my little boy has now grown into a young man about to enter college. The past 18 years watching and guiding you through this life has been a pleasure. All the memories we have made together will be precious to me forever. You are more than I could have ever imagined.

I know you will continue to be great at everything you do. I know you will embrace life as an adult and surprise us all. I look forward to more excitement from you and more wonderful moments to turn into memories. Remember to always be yourself, be honest, follow your heart, and whatever you do give it your best. You will always be a part of me and I a part of you.

Congratulations on reaching this milestone in your life and thank you for making me so proud.

With all my love,
Daddy

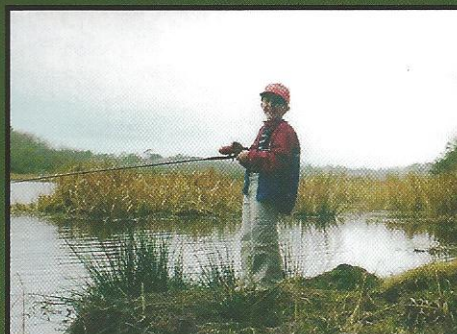

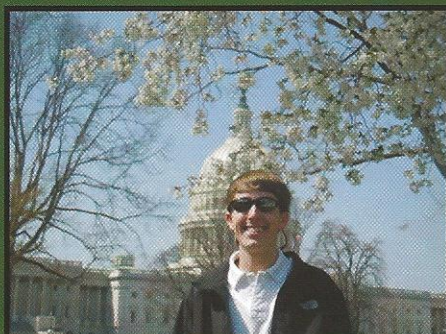

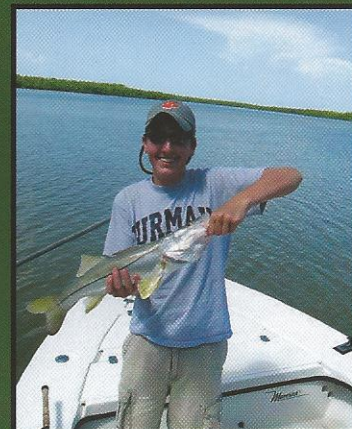

Josh,

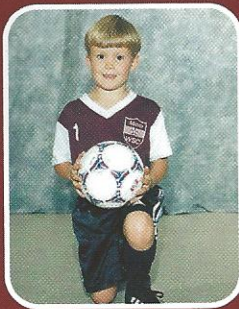

You are a special blessing from God. Your dedication, strength of character, and compassion for others make you a remarkable young man. Pursue your talents and stay true to your values and beliefs; honor and success will follow. We are very proud of you! We will always be here for you when you need us.

We love you,
Mom, Dad, and Brittany

I will never forget the day the three of you graduated from Kingergarten; it seems like it was just yesterday. Daddy and I love you unconditionally and are so proud of you. Remember, YOU are in control of your destiny.

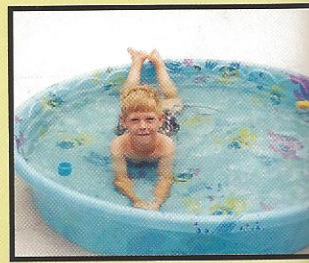

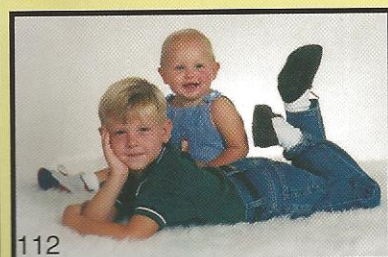

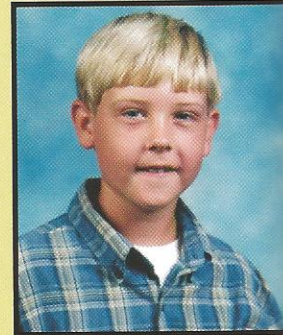

CJ JONES

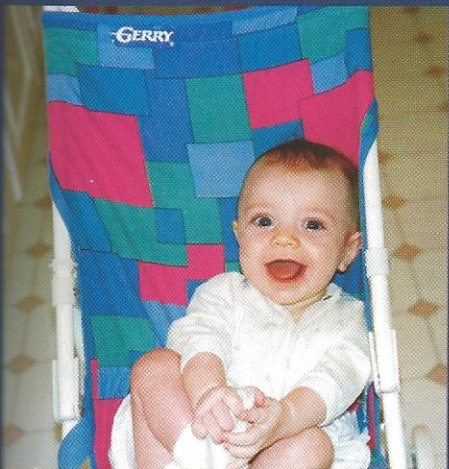

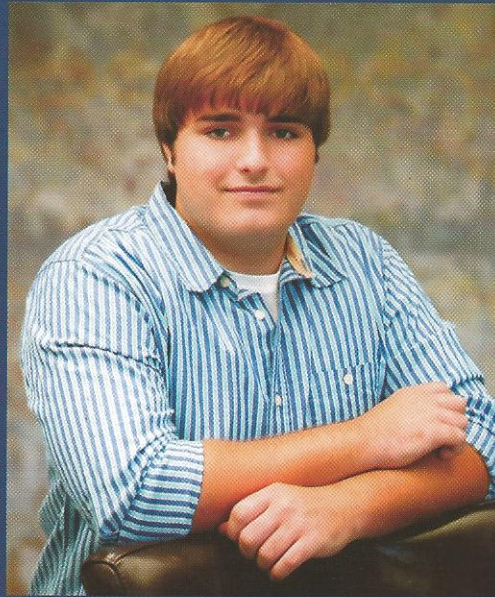

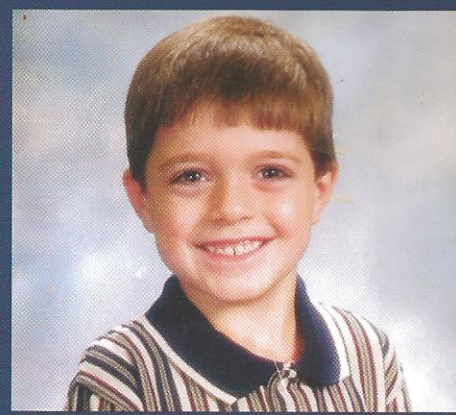

CJ,

We survived! Congratulations! You have brought such joy to our lives over the years! We love you very much and wish you good luck with everything you do in the future. And most of all, remember that we are your family and will always be there for you!

You have grown from a great kid into a great young man. Always follow your heart, it is in the right place. Continue to lead and never follow.
