Mrs. Jennifer Bratsafolis

You might be a War Hawk if.....

Mrs. Houck pulled your tooth

you've forgotten to charge your Epad

you dug for gold in the sandbox

you've bought a silly eraser from the book fair you've tried Mrs. Hair's corn bread

you've had to sit at recess

you've sat on the spider

you've gone to Barrier Island

you've worn the clothes BLUE, BLACK, OR WHITE

you've had chocolate milk at snack time

you've yelled "you" on the sideline with Mr. Joe Willy you've lost your lunch minder card

you spray painted your hair for spirit week

you've raced to lunch

you've sat in the Hawks Nest

you've done the "Do It" cheer so much that you cant do it anymore

you had your boat sunk in Kindergarten

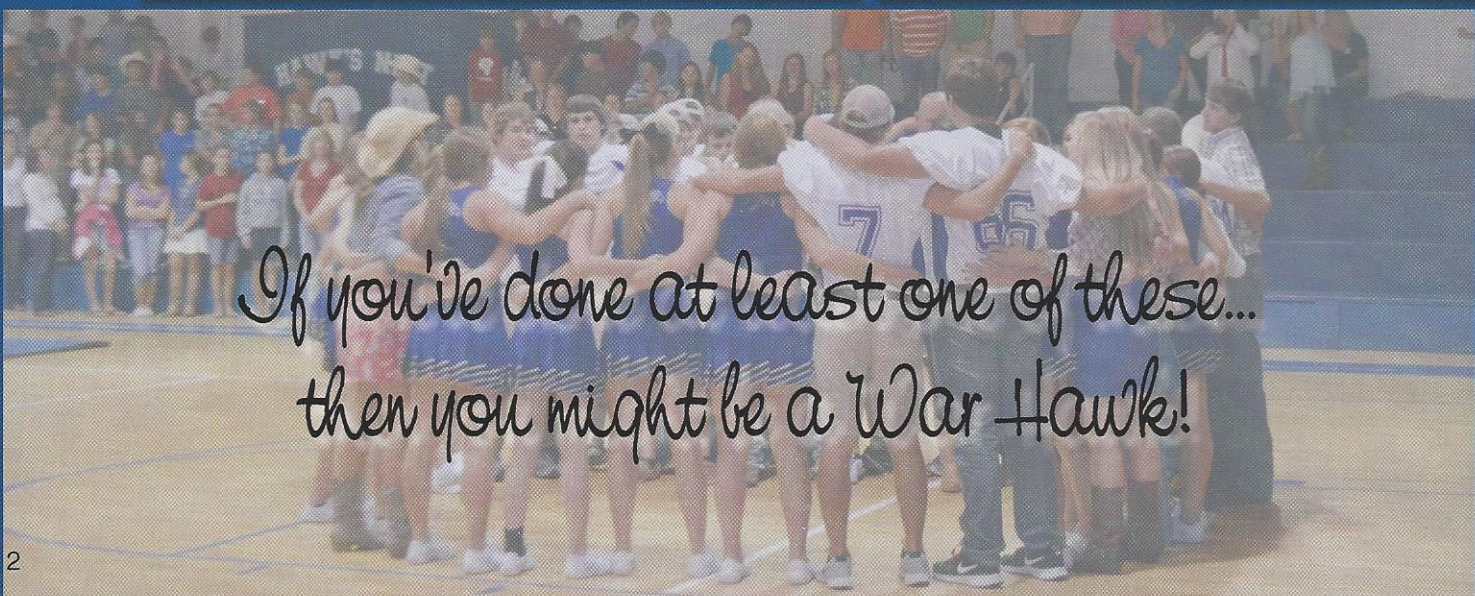

you've been caught chewing gum

you've sported a face sticker

you've attempted Rosetta Stone

you've done chores in gym class

you have proudly raised your finger high when singing the Alma Mater

If you've done at least one of these... then you might be a War Hawk!

Dedicated to the one and only..

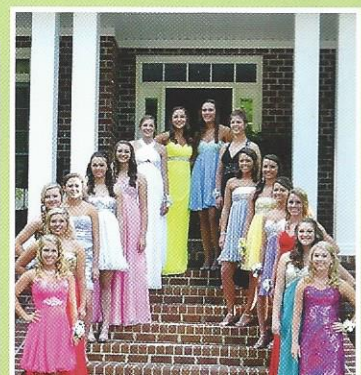

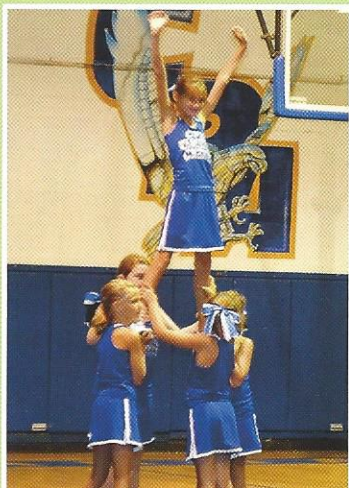

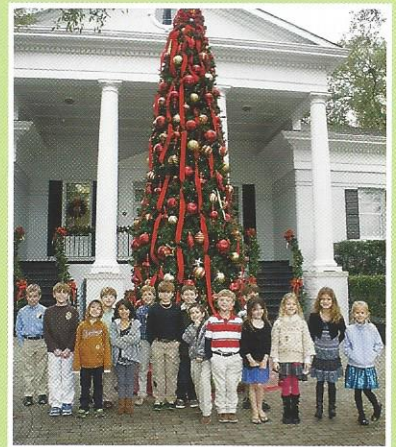

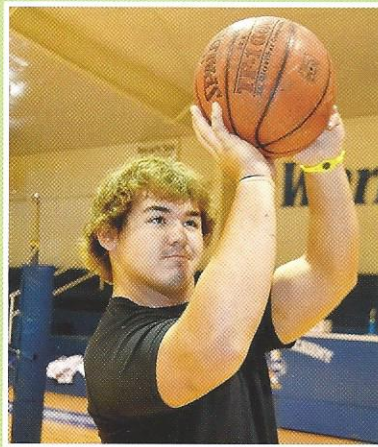

Mrs. Cheryl Murdaugh

This year the 2013-2014 Talon staff has decided to dedicate the yearbook to someone who always has a smile on her face. A room is automatically brightened when she walks in. She might just be the most organized teacher in Colleton County, and that's a fact! She has the kindest heart, and it's unusual to see her frown. If it weren't for her unlimited supply of "patty paper" or her daily quotes on the board, we would have been lost. Her passion for Relay for Life, and community service projects are contagious. Her willingness to always put others first is one of the many reasons we wanted to dedicate the yearbook to Mrs. Cheryl Murdaugh. Thank you for always believing in the class of 2014. You have stood beside us throughout our high school journey, and if it weren't for you, most of it would not have been possible. Thank you for teaching us to be kind, loving leaders for the future. We love you so much, thank you for being the best sponsor ever! Try not to miss us too much!

Love,
The 2013-2014
Talon Staff

Memories

Student Life

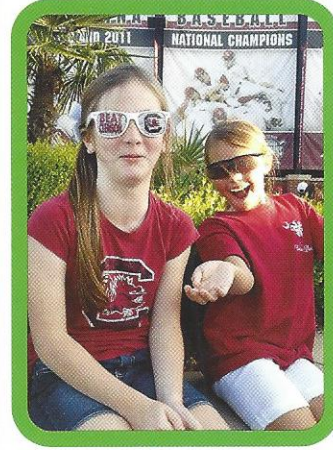

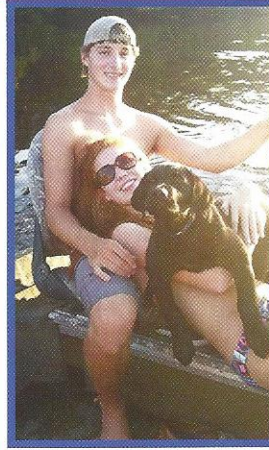

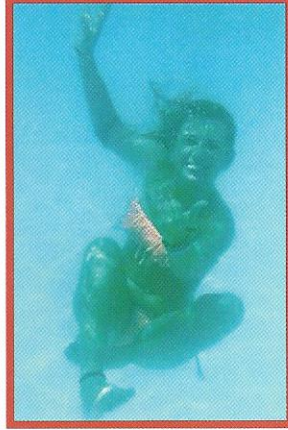

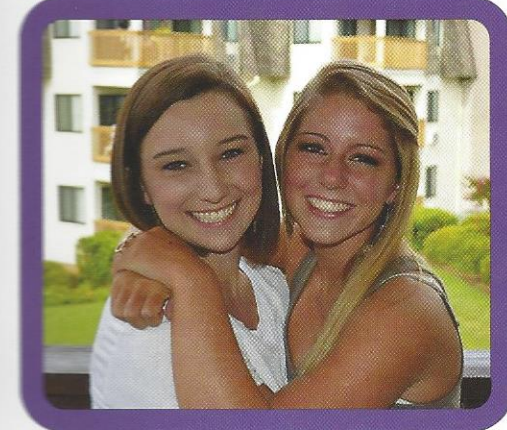

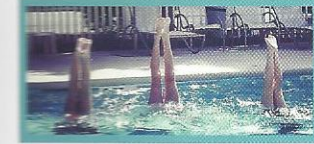

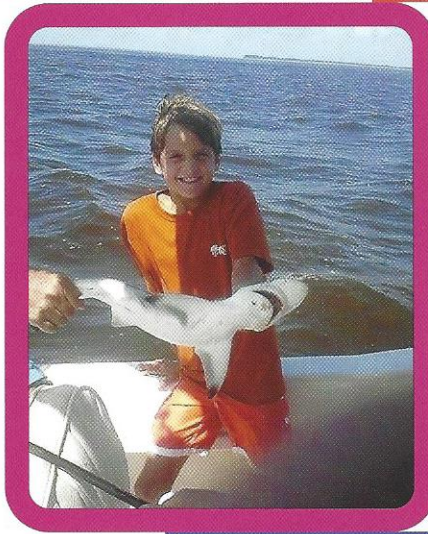

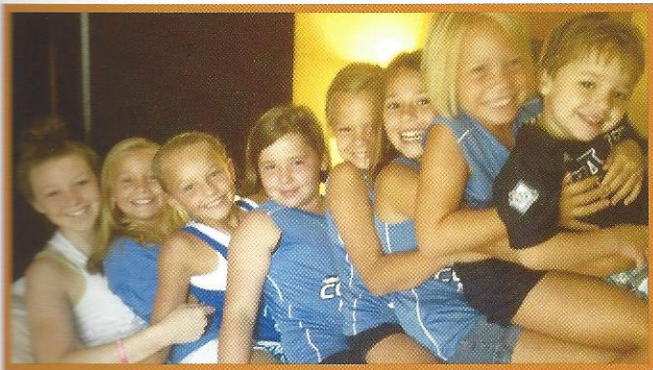

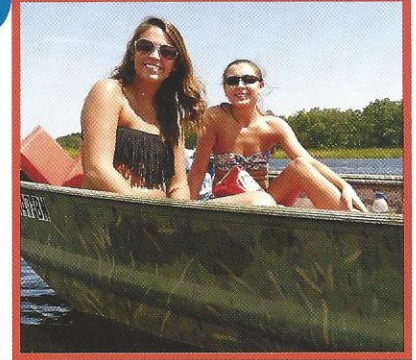

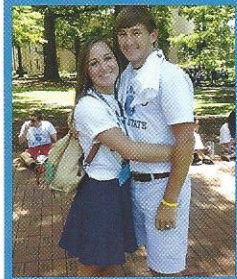

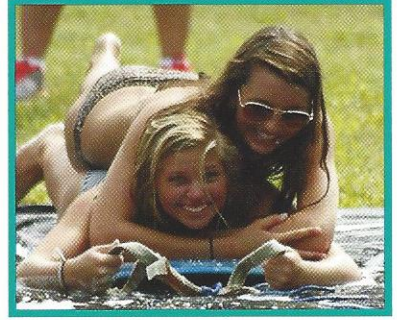

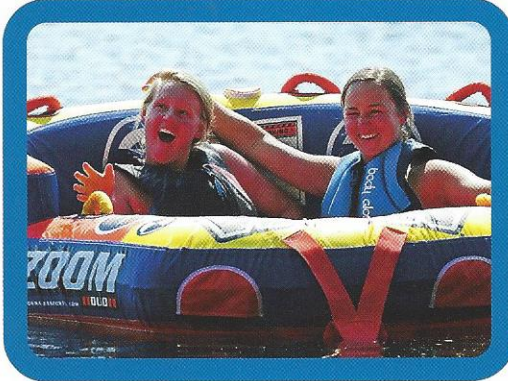

Memories at CPA are measured by the laughs, cries, hard work, and dedication that we have all shared with our classmates, teachers, and coaches. These are the memories that make us who we are. One of the best parts about being a CPA student is that no matter how far our life takes we will always have these memories that keep us close to home. Students will carry the memories they have made at CPA for the rest of their lives!

Tis the season to...Celebrate

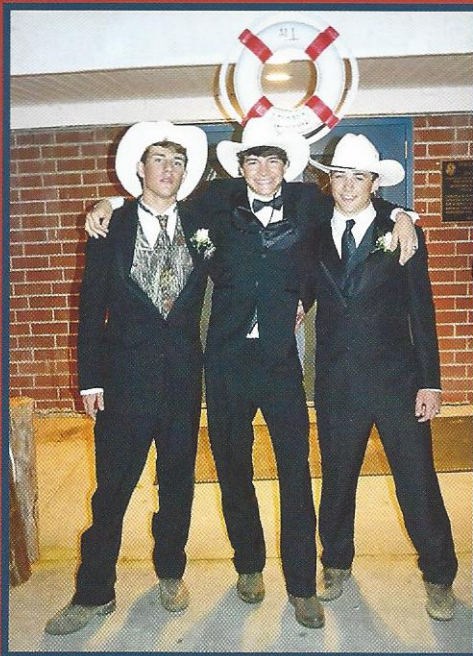

Holidays are always a fun time at Colleton Prep for students, teachers, parents, and grandparents. Every year it is tradition that the seniors dress up for Halloween and walk around to each classroom to show the students their costumes. This year, the student council put on the Halloween Carnival. Each member of student council ran a booth that was sponsored by a grade, K-4-12th grade. The carnival was held in our gym and students had a blast walking around playing every game. The junior class also had a haunted house. All ages enjoyed getting to walk through. Colleton Prep also has a special Thanksgiving program where students are allowed to invite their grandparents for a Thanksgiving program and feast. The elementary school sang and put on a cute program.

The Christmas season is always cherished at Colleton Prep. The lower school celebrates with the traditional classroom parties, but for the past two years they have taken it up a notch and had a Grinch Day. All of the teachers and students look forward to seeing who is going to be the grinchiest. This year our Honors Elementary Choir sang an arrangement of songs. The Choir also sang a song with the Middle School Chorus. The Middle School Chorus also sang an arrangement of Christmas songs. Our drum line put on a spectacular show with their rendition of "Carol of the Bells". The High School Chorus wrapped up the Program with "A Holiday to Remember", a fun arrangement of Christmas carols. This year our chorus also had a show choir. The show choir danced, sang, and made the show one to remember!!

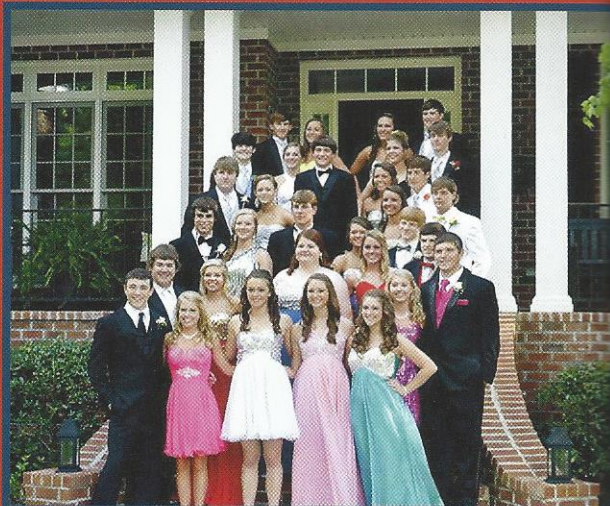

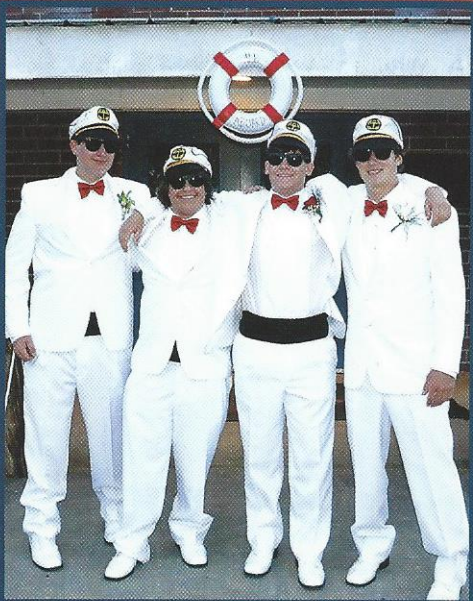

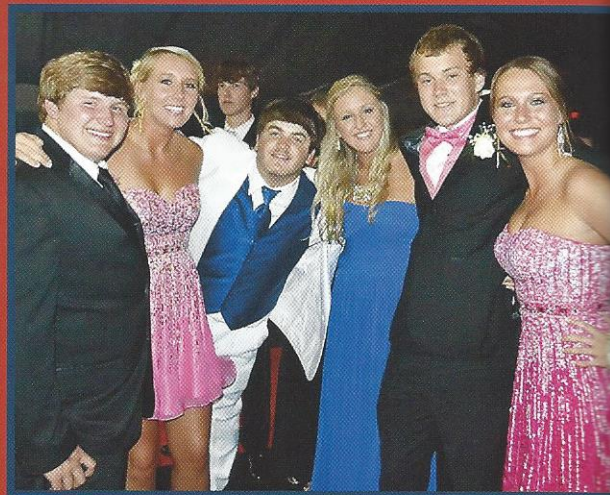

Everyone had fun playing with props and taking pictures in the photo booth!

Discipline

ACADEMICS

Focus, hard work and good behavior are three characteristics that CPA students must possess to be successful. We are fortunate to have excellent teachers at all levels. Our small class sizes allow for a better learning environment and more one on one attention. Our students not only get to experience classroom learning but also hands on learning through experiments, smartboards activities and field trips. We recently enhanced the high school program by offering AP, and Honors classes. We also partnered with USC Salkehatchie to offer Dual Credit classes for 10th - 12th graders. Tenth grade starts with their dual credit experience by taking Drama. Eleventh graders are offered History 111 and 112, English 101, and College Algebra. Twelfth graders are offered English 101 and 102, US Government, Biology and Macroeconomics. These challenges benefit our students by giving them an early start to college. Thank you to all of our teachers for your constant hard work and dedication you show to each of us.

 Walker Bryan with the fire safety dog. North Hipp demonstrates static electricity in class. First grade had a great time at the petting zoo. Cecelia Williams and Ben Cain dance together during play time. Bre Cain really enjoys computer class. Nathaniel Craven and his grandmother are celebrating Thanksgiving on Grandfriends day. The K-5 class had a blast visiting the pumpkin patch.

 Elementary Honors Chorus showed off their hard work at this year's Christmas program. Mrs. Campbell explains an assignment to Jacob Barrett. Tucker Stanley works hard to complete his classwork. After studying about local government, the second grade had the chance to meet Walterboro Mayor Bill Young and tour City Hall.

LOWER AND MIDDLE SCHOOL ACADEMICS

Matt Craven carefully checks his work in class. Juniors work hard while in study hall. Danielle Savage is working on her classwork. Madison Stieglitz and Taylor Long work on their lab for chemistry. Chris Padgett concentrates on his drawing for art. Alex Sanders, Tyler Westbury, and Madison Stieglitz visit the State House on a Student Council trip.

Top to Bottom:

EDUCATION BEYOND

High School

Washington, DC

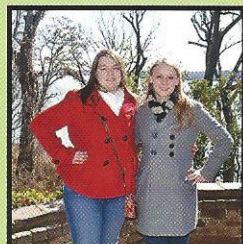

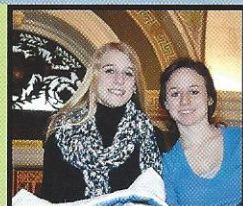

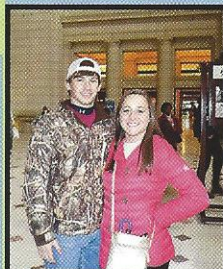

At 8:00 on a Sunday night our adventure to Washington, DC began. We loaded the bus and headed north with big plans of sleep in our immediate future. We arrived at 6:00 the next morning exhausted, but ready to start the day!

Our first stop was visiting Arlington National Cemetery. It was an amazing site to see and witnessing the Changing of the Guard was awe inspiring. Over the next 48 hours we explored the Holocaust Museum, Lincoln Memorial, Jefferson Memorial, Library of Congress, Smithsonian, Ford's Theatre, Iwo Jima Monument, the Capital and the Vietnam Memorial. Our trip ended with a tour of George Washington's magnificent home, Mount Vernon.

All of the students that were able to experience this trip not only came back with a wealth of knowledge but with fabulous memories that they will surely treasure for years to come!

Top - Bottom: Chelsi Mesica, Hayden Smith, and Cameron Schrimpf are exhausted from walking Mt. Vernon but still managed to smile! Despite our exhaustion, we were happy to finally reach the Lincoln Memorial! Olivia and Jill Burtram enjoyed taking in the history of Iwo Jima together. Tommy Brabham tries to pinch the Capital while Alex Sanders thinks she is as tall as the Washington Monument.

MUSIC

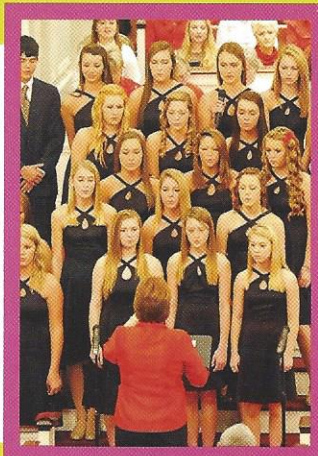

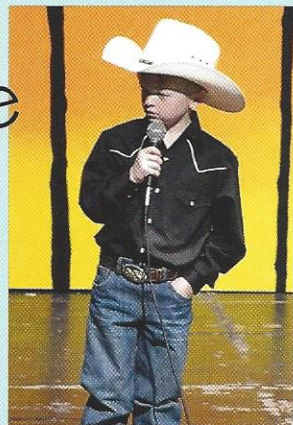

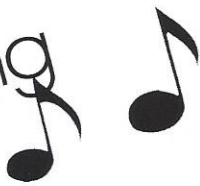

You Are The Music In Me....

Colleton Prep Chorus

Three years ago Colleton Prep added a very special program to the school. The school started a music program, and ever since then Colleton Prep hasn't been the same. The Colleton Prep Chorus has excelled and improved tremendously over the years. The harmonies the chorus makes can give anyone chills. Most of the time the group is on perfect pitch. The group has performed many different pieces over the years. The music selection ranges from Kelly Clarkson, Michael Jackson and Blake Shelton all the way to The Sound of Music. The music program is something that everyone holds dear to their hearts.

Sing like there's no one listening

Mrs. Jennifer McMillan

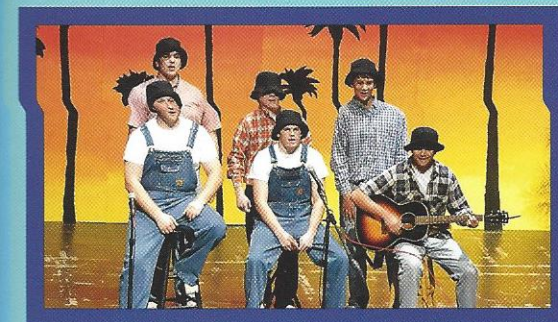

Mrs. Jennifer McMillan Started the Choral program three years ago. The program was once a club at activity period but then soon became a class. She is dedicated to the group and she has a strong passion for music. She works so hard and we appreciate everything she does!

Thank you for all of your hard work!

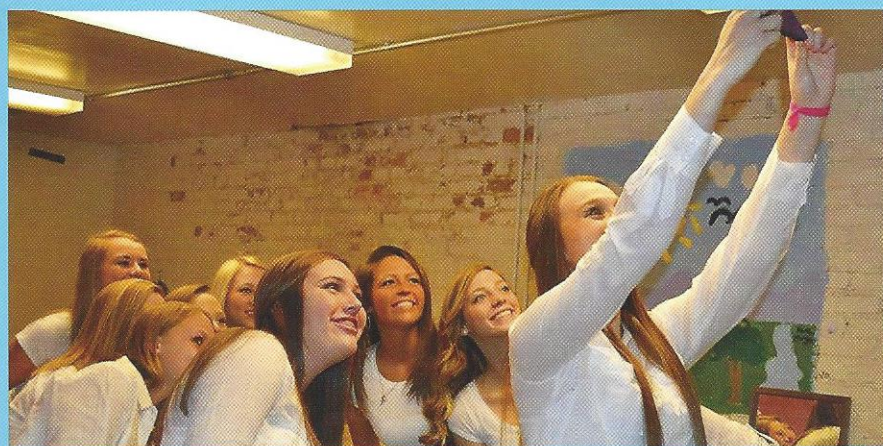

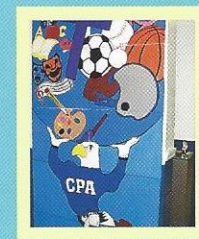

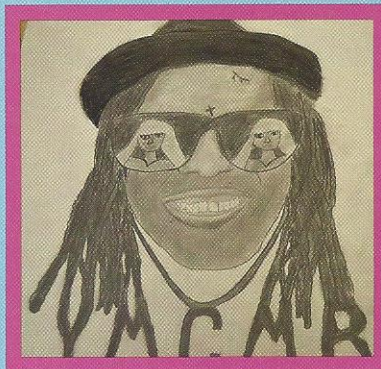

CPA Showcase

A new tradition started three years ago at Colleton Prep, this tradition is the CPA Showcase. The Showcase has been held every year at the Colleton Center on Hampton Street. This year the theme was "Songs of the South".

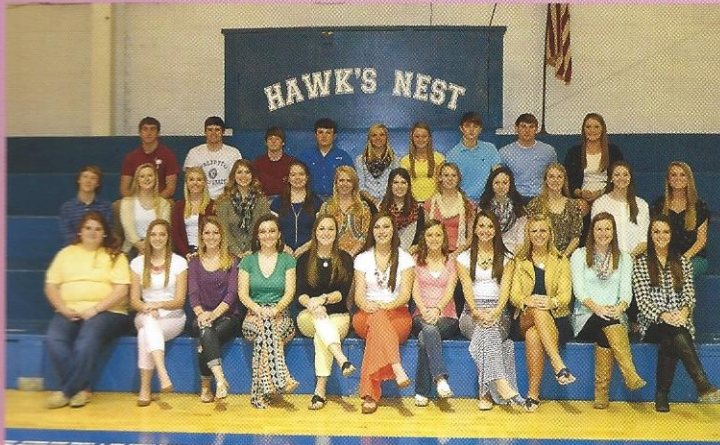

The boys really got into the song "Gloom, Despair, and Agony" at the 2013 Showcase!

Taking a Break

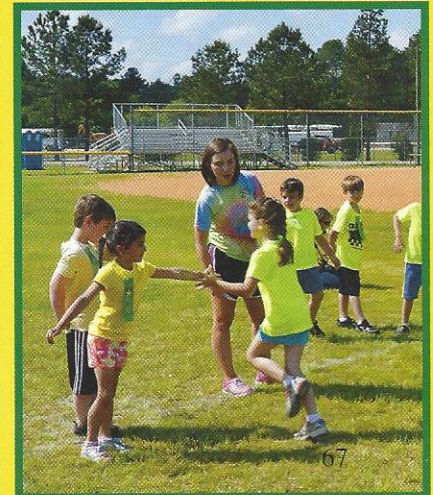

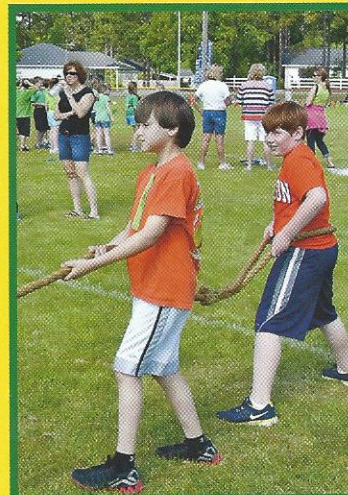

At CPA, we do more than just hit the books. In middle school and high school we have break after second period. During this time, students can go get a snack from the canteen, find something to do in the gym or library, hang out in the hallway, or take the time to do homework or study for a test. After fourth period, we have club time. There are many clubs offered, but a few of the favorites are archery and ping pong. In lower school, they have specials. Specials include music, art, computer, PE, and guidance. Sometimes we have special visitors to give presentations. We enjoy our time out of class because we get a break from the books.

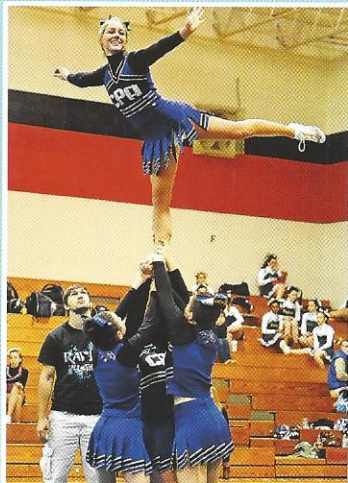

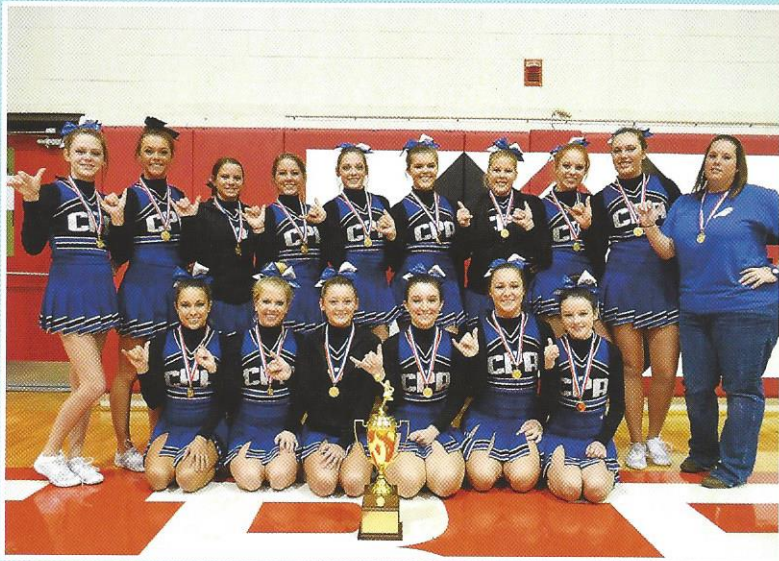

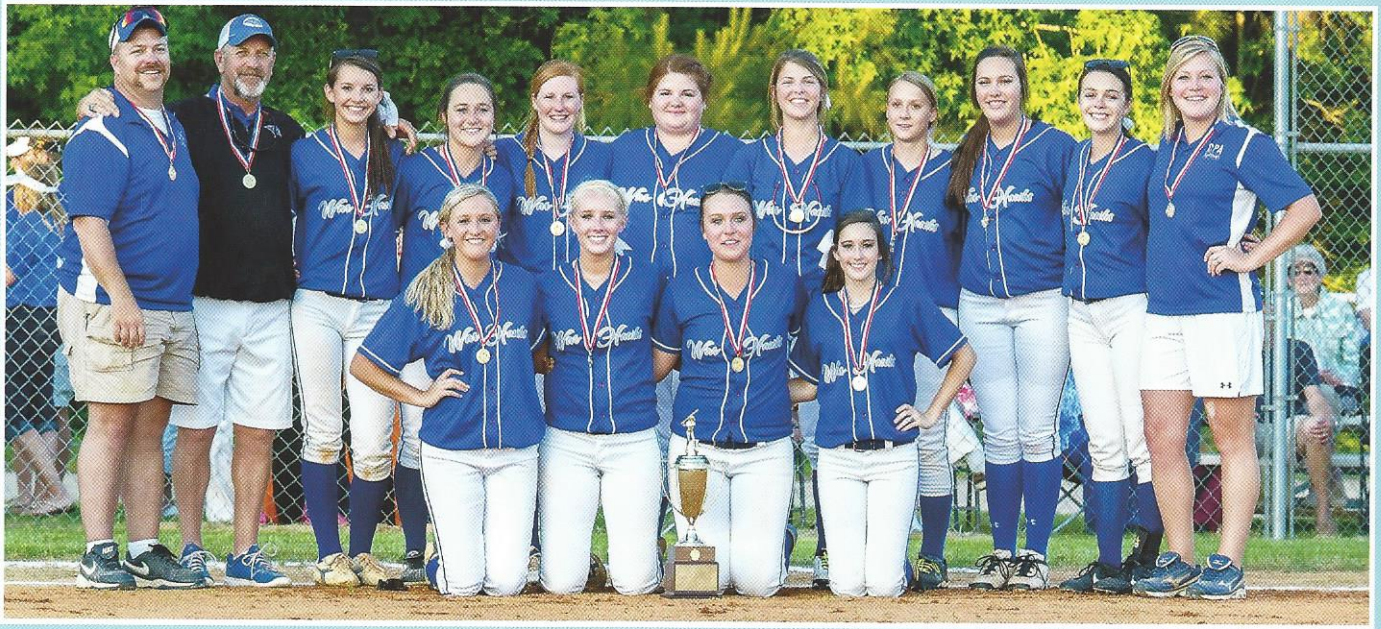

Field Day Fun

Field day is a very fun day at CPA for the K-4 through 5th grade. Each grade gets to participate in many different activities. They also get to have a cookout for lunch. The Sophomores go out to set up the stations and they are also each in charge of a station where they help each grade when they get to their area. With a variety of age groups it is important to have many different activities. Field day is fun for all ages, young or old.

How do you measure

Victories

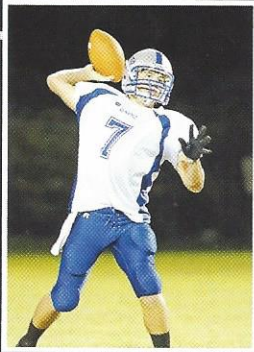

SPORTS

Colleton Prep athletes measure their victories by getting to the end zone, making a basket, shooting a goal, hitting a homerun, or even by sinking a birdie. We strive for good sportsmanship and appreciate all of the constant support we receive from our coaches, parents, fellow students and friends!

The 2013 Varsity Softball team was one we will always remember. It was a team full of talent, dedication, and true athletes. The way these ladies worked together was every sports teams' dream. Moving down to Class A put all of the pressure on the Lady Warhawks. Every team in SCISA, ranging from Classes A-AAA, was easily threatened because of the powerhouse athletes Colleton Prep's softball team had. The Lady Warhawks easily proved that every team should be threatened ending the season undefeated in Class A and 8-2 against AAA teams.

Congratulations to the Colleton Prep Varsity softball team, 2013 SCISA A State Champions!

Dear Liv,

My precious girl! How you have made me laugh over the last seventeen years. There is never a serious moment when you are around. You have always filled the house with music and laughter. I'm so proud of the young woman you have become.

Continue to always surround yourself with friends and family. You have always been able to "throw a party" at a moment's notice. How many times did you tell me that you were having a few friends over that turned into thirty people? Keep using that talent to gather people for a good cause!

I'm so proud of the Christian values you have developed. Remember to lean on those as you venture out into the world on your own. "My God shall supply all your needs!"

Finally, remember we are your family. We will always be there for you. We always have your back and will love you unconditionally. Congratulations, Olivia! You will do great things and I can't wait to watch!

I love you,
Mom

Livi,

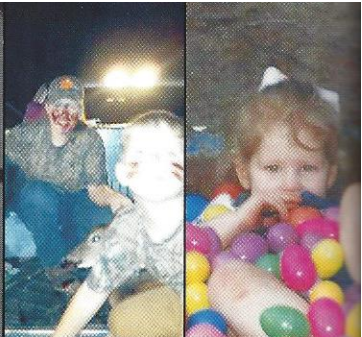

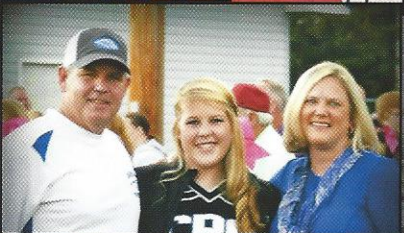

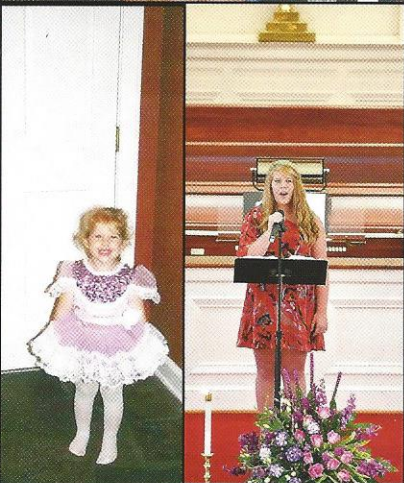

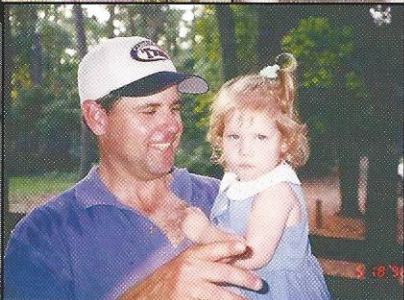

As I try to express some of my thoughts into words, I am saddened to realize how fast the years have flown by. I remember the Wee Hawk days, Saturday morning basketball and your first middle school dance. It seems like yesterday when you would curl up in my lap with a blanket, as we watched for that buck to walk out on a cold November afternoon. Today my reflections turn into reality as I've watched you transform into the beautiful young lady that you've become. I am very proud of you, not only for your accomplishments, but for the faith, manners and your honesty that you project through your life. You brighten the room when you enter it, and that is probably of what I am most proud.

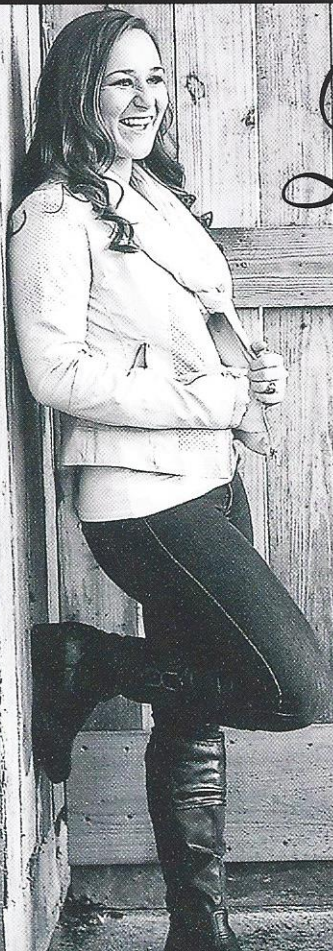

Going forward, I know that you will be successful at whatever you choose to do. Always remember to honor your traditions, but don't be afraid to create your own legacy. Be kind to others, and most of all, "Sit tall in the saddle for you are a Burritram!"

I love you very much,
Dad

Liv,

We're going to miss you. Good luck in college!
Jenn and Jake

Laura Reynolds

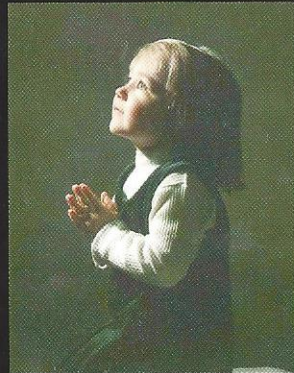

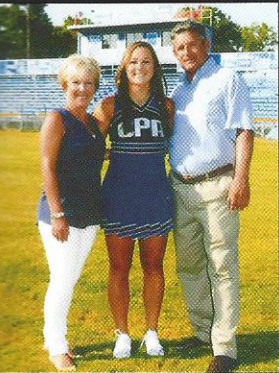

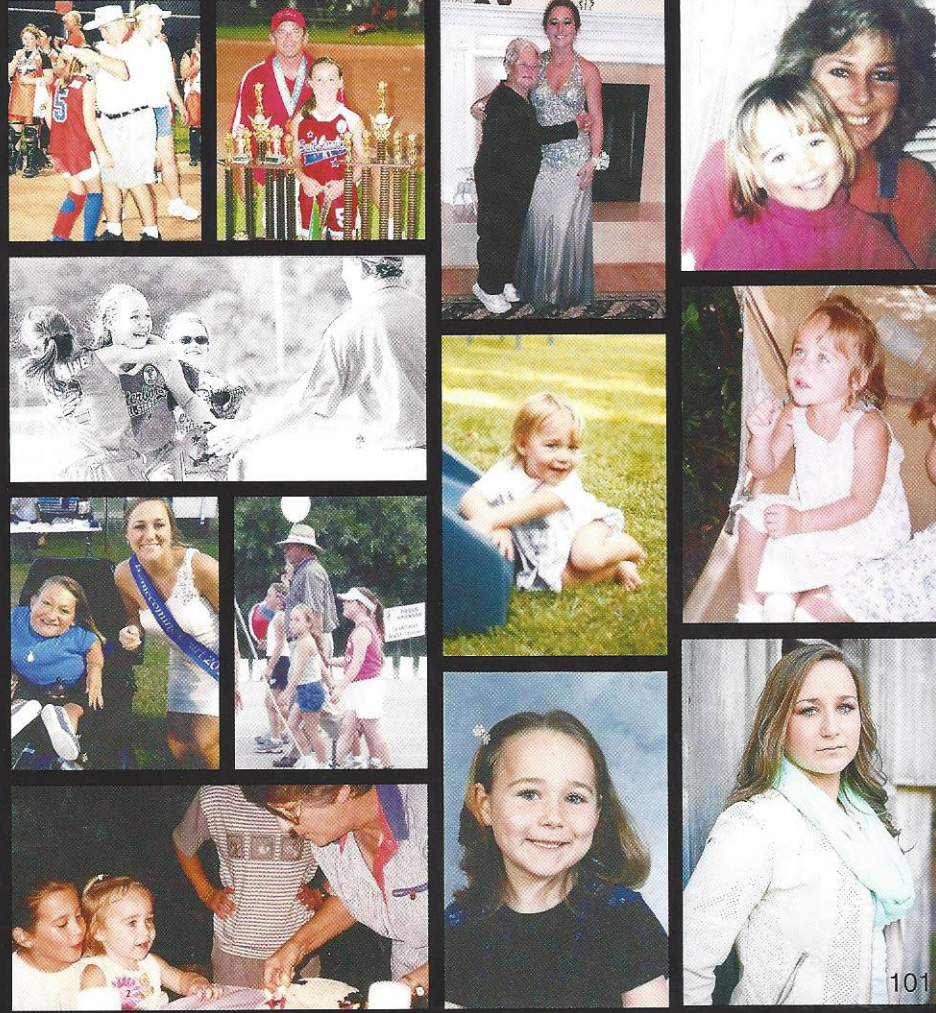

Laura,
 God has blessed us with a wonderful daughter who brings us so much joy. You have accomplished so much in the last 18 years and we are proud of each and every one. We have so many great memories in particular watching you play in the World Series in Texas. Laura, you are a very sweet and kind person with a huge heart ~ never change...
 We love you very much and wish you much happiness and success in all you do!
 Mom & Dad

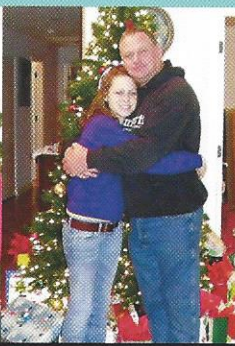

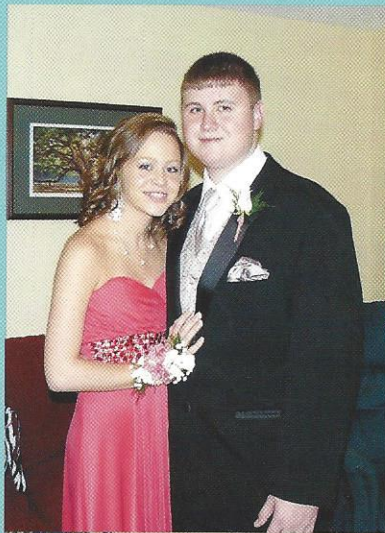

Laura,
 It is hard to believe that my little sister is graduating from high school. You are smart, caring, kind, and you have a huge heart. You always see the good in people and I envy that feature about you. I am honored to call you my sister.

There are just a few words of advice I want to tell you as you begin this new chapter in your life. Never let anything get in the way of achieving your goals, always follow your heart, and remember that you are destined for greatness. Good luck in college. I am going to miss my best friend. I love you so much.

Love,
 Meagan

Amanda Brooke Lemacks

Dear Amanda,

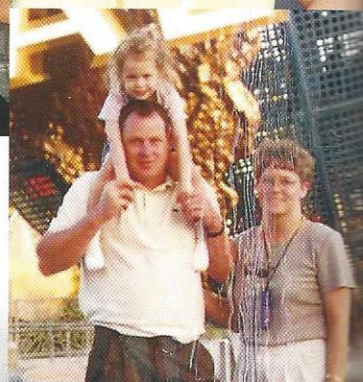

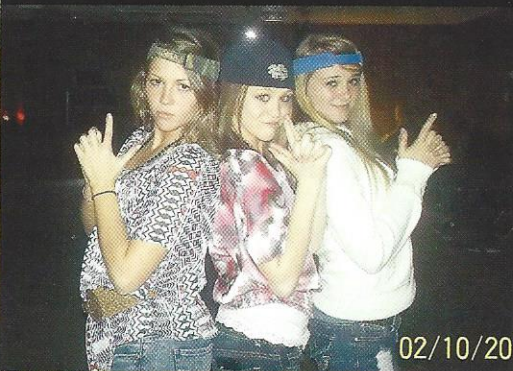

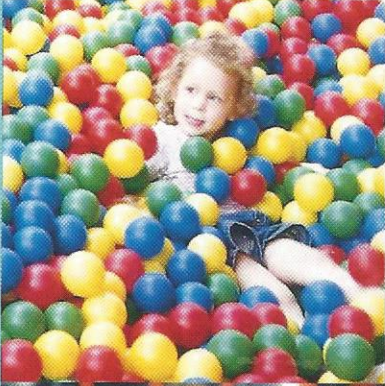

Wow - It is hard to believe you are a Senior. It seems like yesterday you were our LITTLE curly blonde haired girl running all around and laughing. Now you are a beautiful young lady graduating from high school.

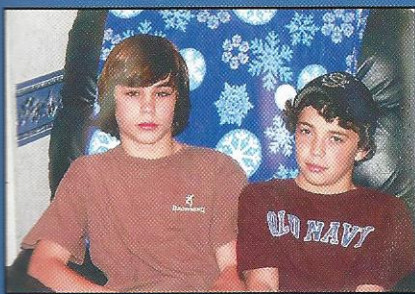

In your short life, God has definitely presented you with challenges that have made you look at the world in a whole new light. You have met these challenges and started anew. May you always hold dear the kindness expressed by others and continue to return the same as you have always done. Never forget to have Faith and God will see you through.

As you close this chapter in your life and begin a new one, we want you to know how incredibly proud you have made us. You have a kind-hearted, generous spirit that soars. Each day that passes brings new adventures that you meet with eagerness and a willingness to carry on. You can certainly accomplish anything you set out to do as you have proven over and over. Set sail on this new adventure and enjoy college. Find the right niche for you, dream big, and never underestimate yourself.

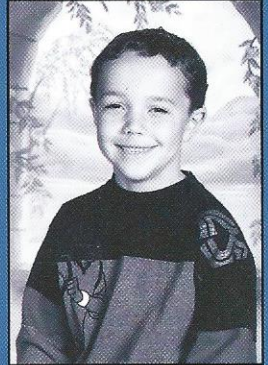

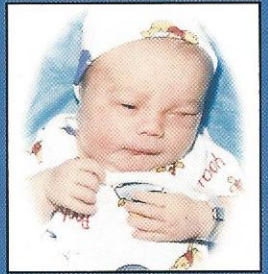

Always know we love you with all of our hearts and that you will forever be 'Our Little Girl'!

Love,
Mom and Dad

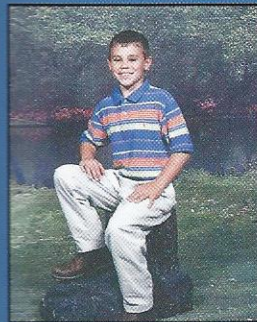

Christopher Wesley Padgett & Joseph Lee Padgett

Christopher,

We can't believe how fast the last eighteen years have passed. It seems like yesterday you were trying on a new pair of shoes to test how fast they were, and crying that deer season was over the year you got your first deer. We are so proud of the young man you have become. You have such a kind, tender heart and have always been respectful to others. These traits alone will take you far in life. Always believe in yourself, and follow your dreams.

We are looking forward to your journey after graduation, and we'll always be there to support you along your way!

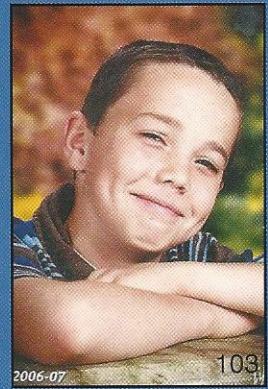

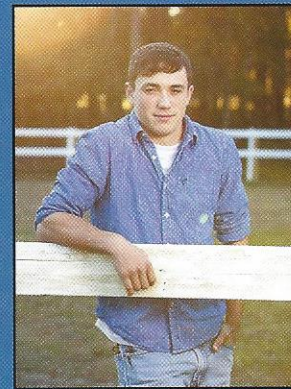

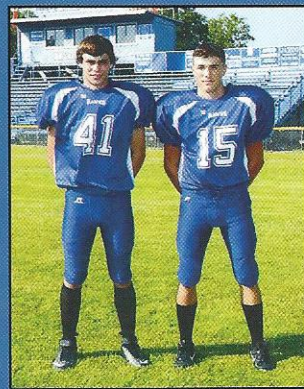

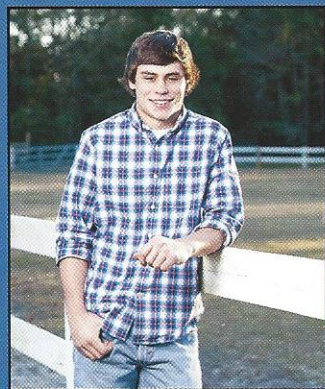

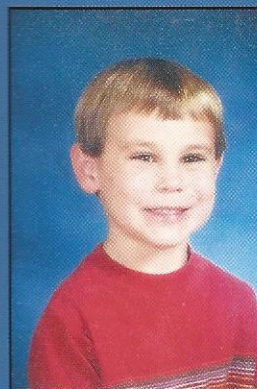

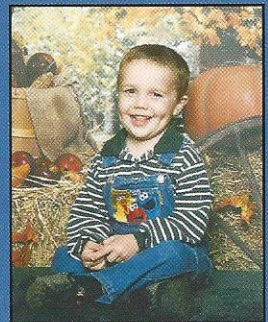

Joseph,

From the very beginning we knew that you were the most courageous twelve year old we had ever met. Your determination and pride has placed you where you are today.

You have made us proud by watching you overcome the many obstacles that life has faced you with. We've enjoyed the simple pleasures in life with you, down to teaching you what a BLT is! Stay true to yourself, keep your goals high, and life will be full of rewards. We are excited to see you take on your next chapter in life!

We love y'all so much!
Mom and Dad

Ellison Ann Frank

Fulfill your dreams, be wise in your choices and stay true to yourself.

Hayden Chandler Smith

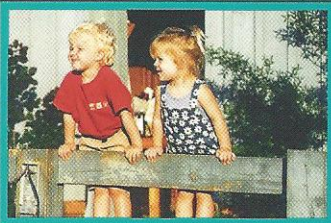

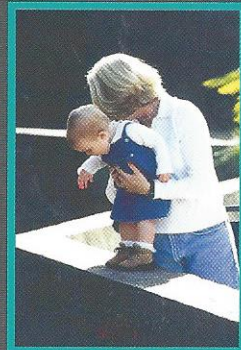

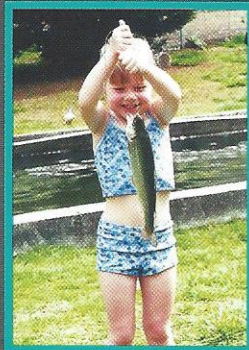

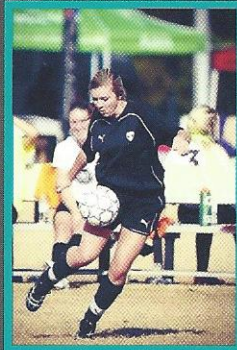

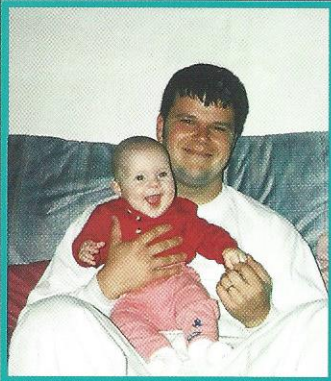

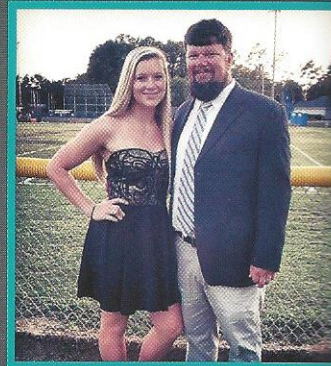

Hayden,
Needless to say, for the past 18 years,
you have made us proud just because of who you are. Set your goals high - we know you will accomplish them. You can do anything that you set your mind on.
We love you and will always be here for you. Consult God with all of your decisions you need to make and you will never go wrong. You'll always be our
"Spunkin Man."

In the blink of an eye, you've gone from being our sweet baby girl to a strong, creative, funny, intelligent, and compassionate person who we are so very proud of. It has been a privilege and an honor to watch you grow up to become such an incredible young woman. Follow your dreams and know that you deserve the very best that life has to offer!

Allison Renee Craven

Our Dearest Allison,
 17 years have come and gone with astonishing speed. You are one of the true joys in our lives. We have been blessed to watch you blossom from a shy, beautiful, little girl to a confident, independent, beautiful, young woman. Our pride for you over runs! Our love for you is unconditional and endless. You came into our lives at a time when we needed you the most; we may not have known this, but God knew you were needed. We are forever grateful to be blessed with the gift of being your parents. A job that you have made such a joy and an easy task. Physically, you are taller than I am now, but although you may not realize it, mentally and emotionally you are bigger than us all. As you close this chapter in your life, you are already writing a new chapter in your book of life and journeys. You are the author of your destiny. You are intelligent, beautiful (inside and outside), caring, and determined. With these characteristics, you will accomplish all your goals and conquer your dreams. Every journey, big or small, must begin with a single step. Let God be your navigator, and you will never get "lost". Good decisions and Good judgement always lead to Good consequences and Good accomplishments. We have the utmost confidence in you and all you do. Our growing hope for you is for you to be happy in the life you create. Keep in mind Happiness is the result of achieving your goals. Allie, you have the "world in your hands" and can mold your future. There are no short cuts in life to any place worth traveling; always seek God's guidance in all you do. HE will lead you. Let God direct your steps and keep Christ dwelling in your heart through a strong faith. We will be your biggest fans. Our arms and doors will be forever open to our precious, baby girl. You are our daughter, our first born, a true light in our lives, and will always be our "Allie Cat"! Unconditionally and Endlessly Loving you, Momma and Daddy

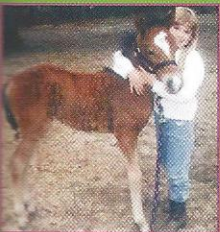

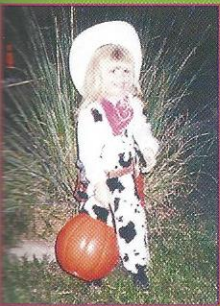

My Alliecat,
 I am so proud of the young lady you have become. You are intelligent, and your honesty will always put you on top of your goals. My wish for you is to achieve everything you want in life and to be happy with your choices. I'll always be your #1 cheerleader in whatever choices you make. I love you unconditionally, and you can always count on me. I hope your senior year is a blast and your college years go smoothly. Thank you for letting me enjoy your life. I love you and trust whatever decision you make because you always use good judgement. Congratulations 2014--Love you so very much, Haggy and Sam

To Our Granddaughter,
 We are so proud of you, and we want you to know your granddaddy and I hope you get all out of life you need. Take care of yourself, and may the Lord be with you through it all.
 Love you, Grandmom and Granddaddy

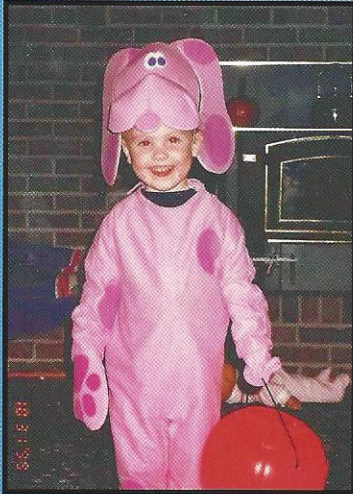

My Allie,
 Years come and years go, but my love for you grows stronger everyday. Allie, I am so proud of you. I know you have grown up to be a beautiful, young lady, but you will always be my Baby (always). Please always remember the good times we shared like our trips to McDonald's for lunch after preschool. People would comment about my beautiful, little granddaughter. My eyes would light up with joy. I am still filled with so much joy as I look at the beautiful young lady you have become. May God bless you always! Poppy and I love you more than words can say. You are the apple of my eye! Love, MawMaw and Poppy

Allie,
 Through the years we have watched you grow and become the young lady you are today. You are now going into the most important phase in your life. To accomplish great things, you must not only act, but also dream; not only plan, but also believe; your dreams will only become a reality if you work hard to achieve them. Through hard work and dedication you can accomplish great things in every aspect of your life. You are your own leader. Never put yourself into a position where you are fully dependent on someone else. As you go through life, I hope you will remember this, "Do not go where the path may lead, but go instead where there is no path and leave a trail." We are so proud of you and love you very much. Ang and Uncle Bubba

Allie,
 You are the best sister ever! Love, Nathaniel

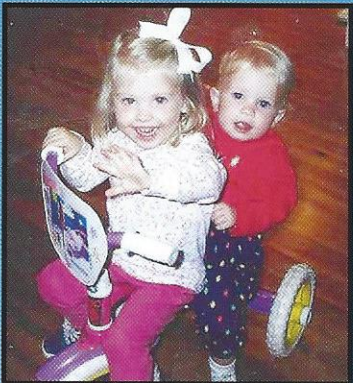

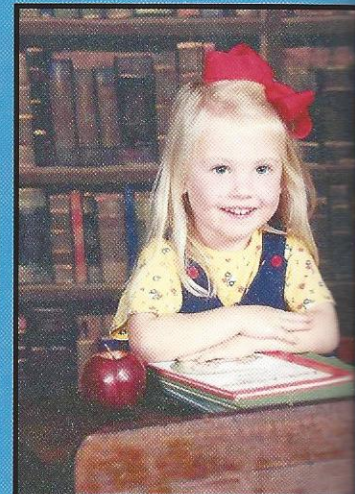

Madelyne Jean Warren

Madelyne

We are so proud of you. You are a very beautiful and intelligent young lady. Eighteen years have passed much too fast. The memories we have made as a family will always be cherished. Success comes from hard work, dedication, and believing in yourself. We wish you much happiness as you begin your journey in life. Remember to put God first and seek his will for your life and everything else will fall into place.

We love you with all our hearts.
Mom and Dad

Madelyne

It's hard to believe you are graduating. You have turned into such an amazing young lady. I don't know what I am going to do next year without you. Who am I going to fight with now? You are not just my sister, you are my best friend. Don't forget about me and all of the memories we have made together. Have fun in college!

I love you!
Molly

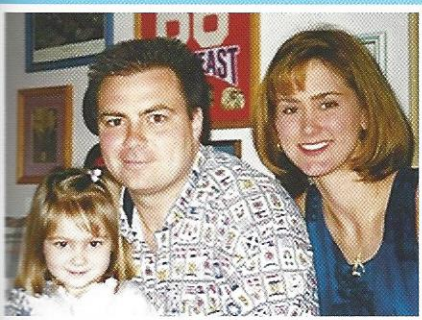

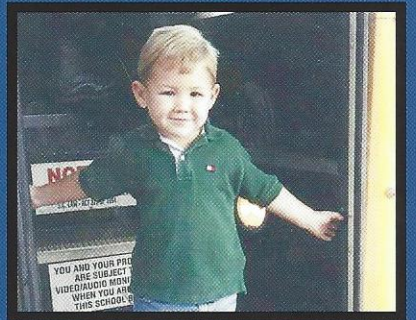

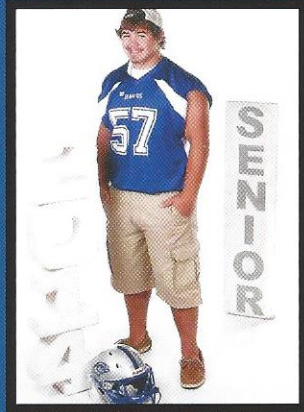

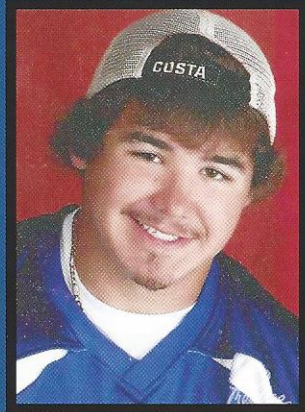

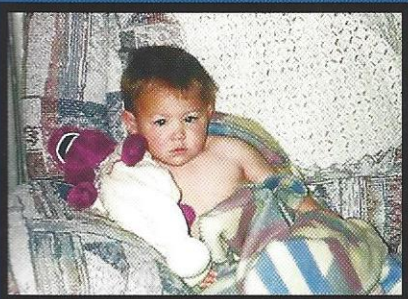

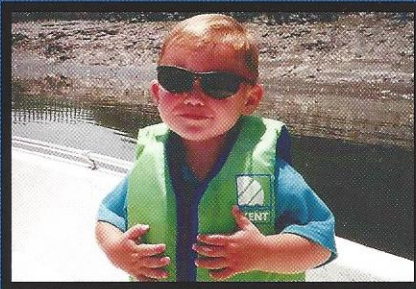

Cody Blanton Beach

Dear Cody,

As I write this, my eyes are already full of tears. I can't believe that you are graduating and will soon be heading off to college. It seems as if just yesterday you were building forts in the living room and watching Barney. The years have flown by, and I can't express to you how proud I am of the fine young man you have become. I can't imagine how next year will be without you home. I will miss that smile that never fails to melt my heart and that sense of humor that always makes me laugh. Even though my heart aches at the thought of you being away, I am excited for you and know that you will be successful and happy no matter what path you choose. Never forget that I am always here for you, no matter what.

I love you with all of my heart,
Mom

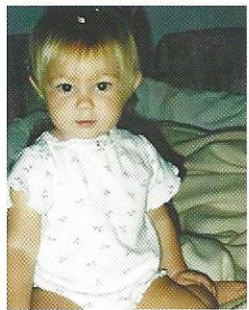

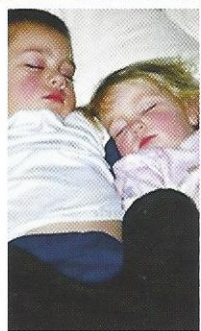

Chelsi Alexa Mescia

Chelsi,

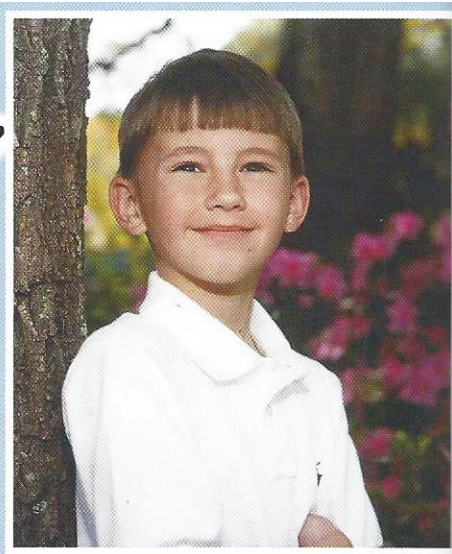

Seventeen years ago we had a baby girl! A girl! Oh my! Daddy's princess for life! How difficult it was for him to allow you to grow up, but you made it so easy for me to convince him that you have grown into a beautiful, considerate, strong, responsible young lady who can take care of herself just fine. We are so very proud of you and the individual you have become. We admire your ability to forge your own direction and not "follow suit". Continue to be the person you are, and set your goals and standards to the highest level because you will achieve whatever you set out to do. Wherever your life's journey takes you, always remember the roads that lead you home, for that is where you are most loved.

Congratulations on your graduation!!

Love,
Mom and Dad

TANNER CROSBY

Tanner,
Where has the time gone? It seems like only yesterday that you were running through the house with a cape around your neck and yelling you were "Tanner the Magnificent". From the time you were born, you've brought so much joy, laughter and happiness into my life. I thank God everyday for you, Kayleigh & Pete. I am so proud of you and the young man that you've become. I will always be proud of all your athletic achievements. I love you so much and will always be here for you!

Love you, Kayleigh

Reagan Elaine Herndon

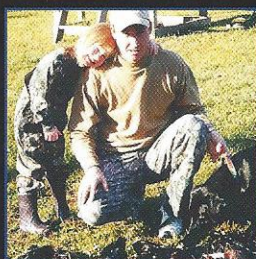

Reagan,

So, 18 years have passed quickly and look at all of the great memories we have had. All the times we have spent together have been very special.

It's time to take a moment now to tell you how proud of you I am. You have grown into a young woman who is as beautiful on the inside as you are on the outside. I am more proud of you than you will ever know.

Stay on the path you set for yourself. I will support you the whole way.

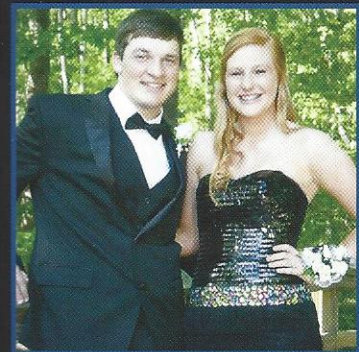

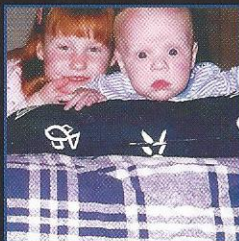

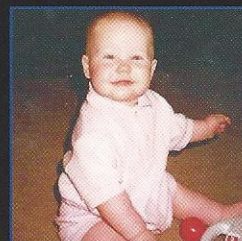

Love You Always,
Dad

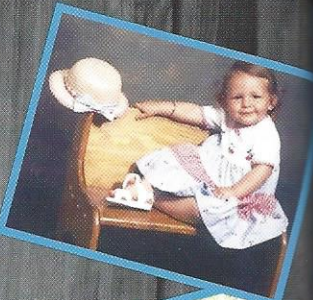

Reagan,

I never imagined that 18 years could fly by so quickly. Your senior year has come and gone. It is now time to begin the next chapter of your life. I could not be any prouder of you! You are a beautiful person, both inside and out. Your infectious smile radiates to all around you. Keep your faith and always be kind. Believe that you can be anything you want. Never settle for anything less than you deserve. Remember that all of your dreams can and will come true. I am blessed and thankful to have you as my daughter, my best friend and the biggest inspiration I know. You are truly an angel. Believe in yourself and follow your heart. I am always here for you. I love you every second of everyday!

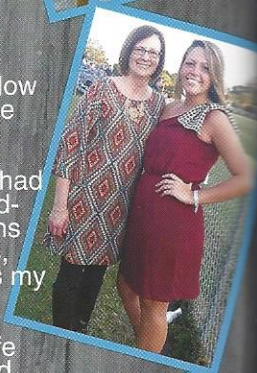

All my love,
Mom

Lauren Weathers Smiley

Lauren,
 Many times I have thought about what I would write when this time finally arrived. Now that it's here I don't know where to start! From the time you were a little girl you have always been one of a kind. Just in your own little world with such a creative imagination. You were always outgoing and never met a stranger, but it seems like overnight, you went from being my little girl to this beautiful young woman who just had this way about her. You just draw people to you without even trying! You are so kind-hearted and loving and accepting of others. Those traits are just a few of the reasons why you are so special. Like any mother and daughter, we have our disagreements, but I truly don't know what I'd have done if I hadn't had such a sweet girl like you as my child. Besides being the best daughter in the world, you have been my biggest supporter and someone I could always count on to be there to make me smile. As I write this, I have tears pouring just thinking about you leaving this chapter of your life behind, but I'm also so excited to see you begin this new journey! I have such mixed emotions! No matter what, I will still be there right by your side, always. I could not be more proud of the young lady that you have become. I know you will succeed in this path that you have chosen to take. I love you more than anything in the world! You will always be my "precious girl!"

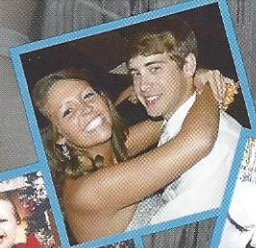

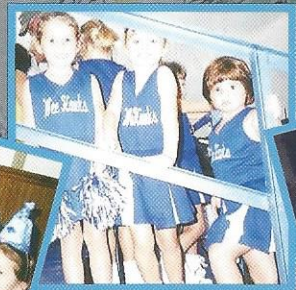

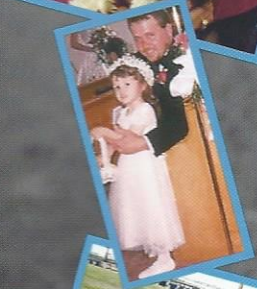

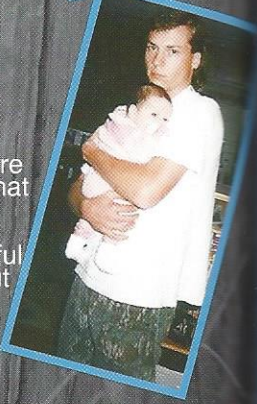

Love,
 Momma

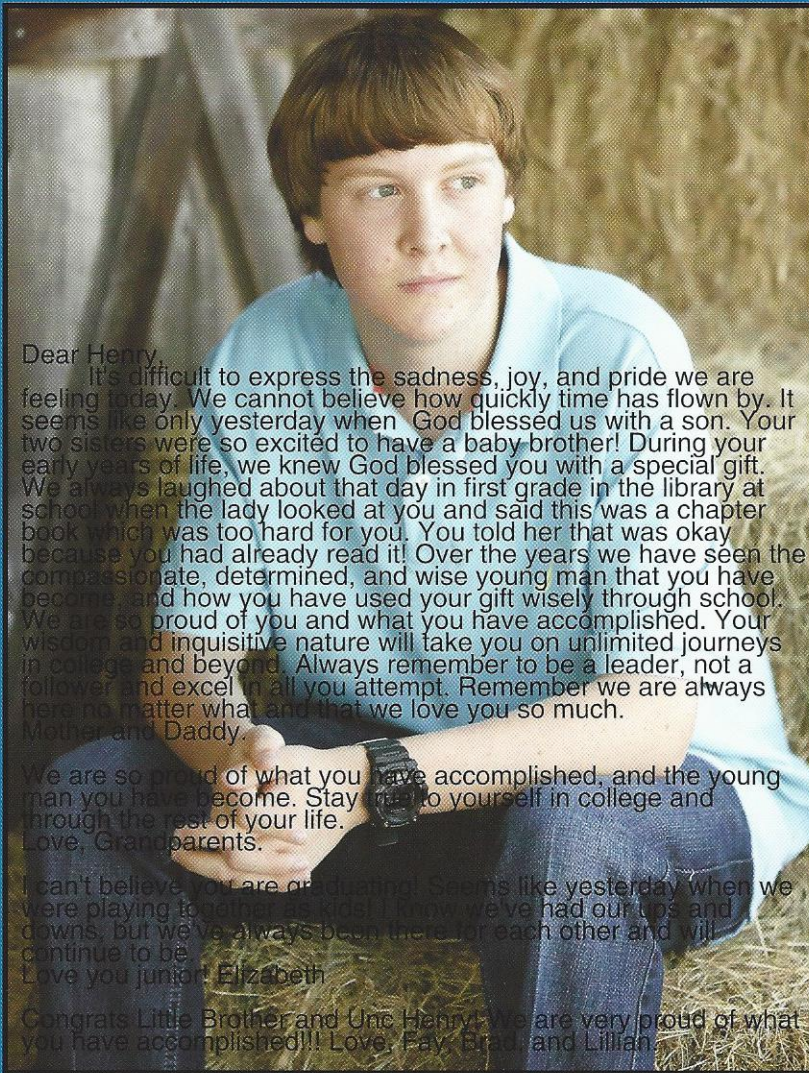

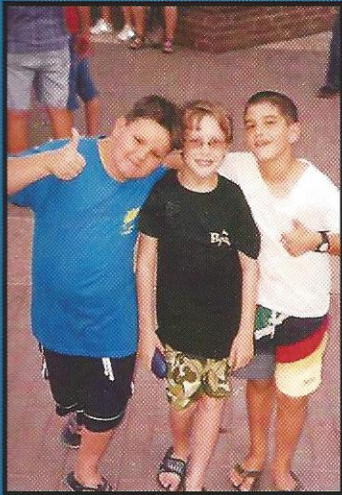

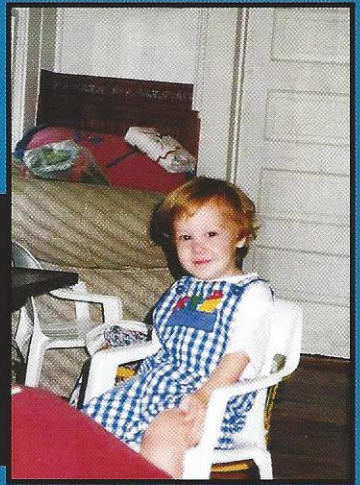

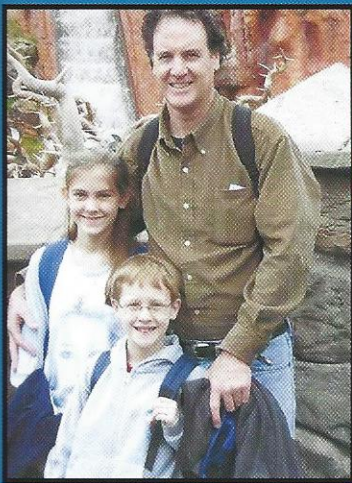

Lauren,
 Daddy is so proud of you and your accomplishments in this short period of your life. I know you will always succeed and accomplish your dreams in life. You have always brought nothing but love and happiness to me in my life. I just really can't believe my "wienerhead" is a senior!
 I love you very much!
 Daddy

Congratulations and best wishes.
 We love you.
 Grandma & PaPa
 Lauren,

I am so very fortunate to have you as my granddaughter. From the moment you were born, you have held a special place in my heart. Oh, my goodness, the memories that we've made-- picking strawberries (HA!), shopping trips (where you always had to have a new outfit), summer break together, playing dress-up, baking Christmas cookies, and who can forget those surprise visits from Mr. Spider! You are a beautiful young lady, and I am so proud of you. You have such a loving and caring way about you. Always keep that beautiful smile! Wishing you a happy and successful future with many fun-filled detours along the way!
 Love always to my "Boohead #2!"
 I love you,
 Gram
 (aka "Boohead #1")

Henry Varn

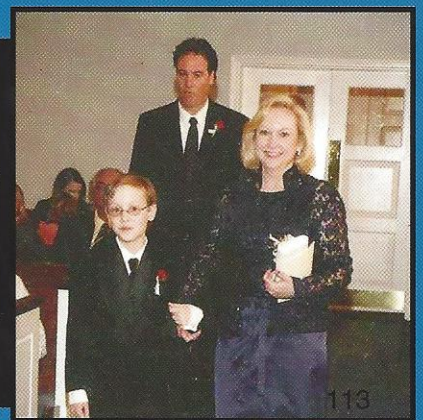

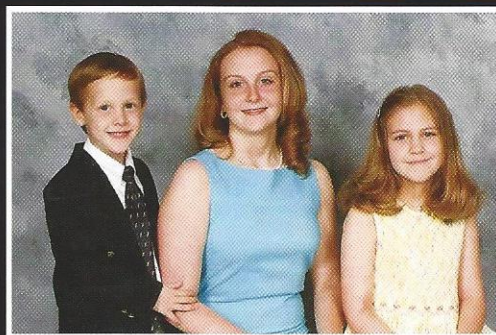

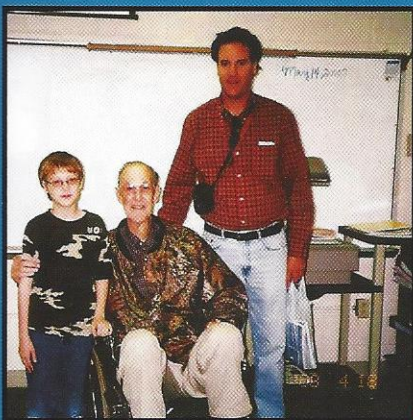

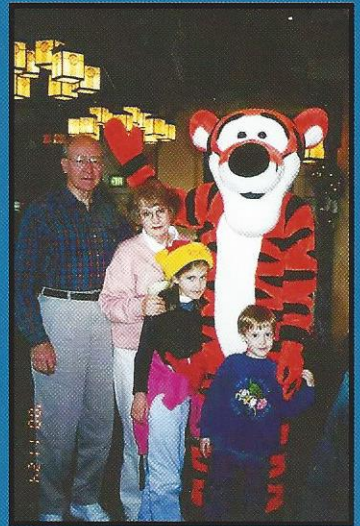

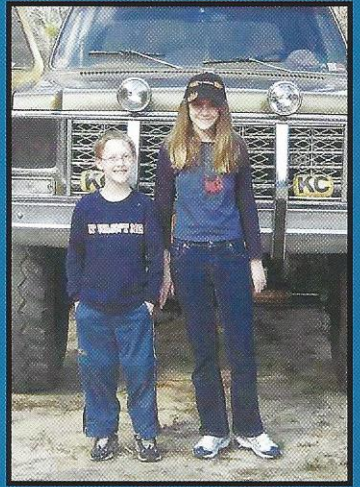

Dear Henry,
 It's difficult to express the sadness, joy, and pride we are feeling today. We cannot believe how quickly time has flown by. It seems like only yesterday when God blessed us with a son. Your two sisters were so excited to have a baby brother! During your early years of life, we knew God blessed you with a special gift. We always laughed about that day in first grade in the library at school when the lady looked at you and said this was a chapter book which was too hard for you. You told her that was okay because you had already read it! Over the years we have seen the compassionate, determined, and wise young man that you have become, and how you have used your gift wisely through school. We are so proud of you and what you have accomplished. Your wisdom and inquisitive nature will take you on unlimited journeys in college and beyond. Always remember to be a leader, not a follower and excel in all you attempt. Remember we are always here no matter what and that we love you so much.
 Mother and Daddy.

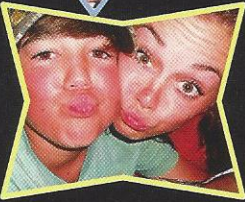

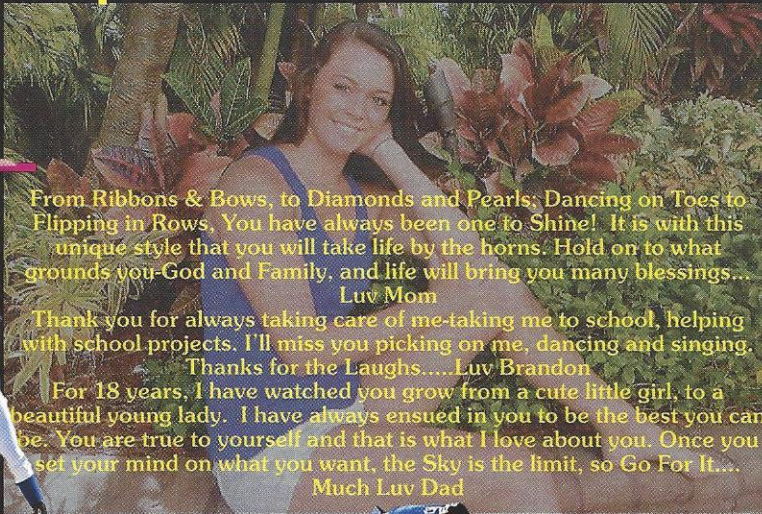

We are so proud of what you have accomplished, and the young man you have become. Stay true to yourself in college and through the rest of your life.
 Love, Grandparents.

I can't believe you are graduating! Seems like yesterday when we were playing together and now we've had our ups and downs, but we've always been there for each other and will continue to be.
 Love you junior! Elizabeth

Congrats Little Brother and Unc Henry! We are very proud of what you have accomplished!!! Love, Fay, Brad, and Lillian

For 18 years, I have watched you grow from a cute little girl, to a beautiful young lady. I have always ensued in you to be the best you can be. You are true to yourself and that is what I love about you. Once you set your mind on what you want, the Sky is the limit, so Go For It...

Devin Summer Adams

Dear Dev,
Seems like it should be 1996. The day our lives changed for the better. No one could have prepared us for the love we feel for you. When you were younger 2014 was so far away and now graduation day is here. Even though the years have flown by, everyday being with you has been filled with love, laughter, a few tears and a lot of adventure. You have grown into such a beautiful, kind, loving and caring young lady. We are so proud to be able to call you our daughter. We know you will succeed in all you strive for, but remember Momma and Daddy will always be there to catch you if you fall. Never forget Momma and Daddy love you more than all the stars in the sky, leaves on the trees, and grass on the ground. Congratulations!

Love Always,
Momma and Daddy

Jaime Alyn McLaine

Dear Jaime,
 It's hard to believe how time flies. It seems like just yesterday you were graduating from kindergarten. You have grown into a beautiful, intelligent, young lady. Words can't begin to describe how very proud we are of you and your accomplishments as well as the person you have become. You will soon be going off to college and starting another chapter in your life. We just want you to know that whichever path you choose will be the right one and we will be behind you no matter what. We love you very much and remember that we are only a phone call away.

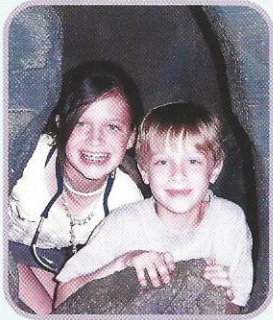

Love you,
 Mom & Dad

Jaime,
 I am so very proud of all you have accomplished. I have watched you grow into a beautiful young woman. Time has definitely flown by, it seems like just yesterday you were born. You have your whole life ahead of you, and now you're graduating and heading out into the world. Be true to yourself and follow your heart. I wish you the best life has to offer.
 Love,
 Mandy

Cameron Elizabeth Schrimpf

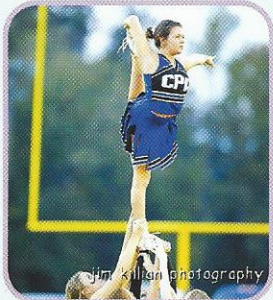

Cameron,
Words cannot begin to describe how much you are loved and how proud you have made me over the years. From stroller rides to the park and "Moma, push me in the swing with both hands", to learning to drive a car for the first time and "Moma, stop treating me like a little girl , I'm old enough to stay out past midnight".

You have brought so much joy into our lives and I have enjoyed watching you grow up...the slumber parties,summer beach trips(with eight of your closest friends), watching you cheer and play soccer...

It seems like yesterday, my precious little girl was a Weehawk starting kindergarten...I blinked and you have blossomed into a beautiful young lady graduating high school! I am so excited for you as you begin this next chapter of your life. You will soon be packing your bags as you prepare to leave for college. I will be telling you "Angel, love you, see you"...with tears streaming down my face. Bittersweet tears as my little girl is all grown up, tears of joy as I am thrilled to watch you embark on this adventure and leave for college. You are beautiful,artistic, intelligent and amazing! You have a bright future ahead of you! We will miss you so much next year, we love you and will always be here for you!

Love,
Mom

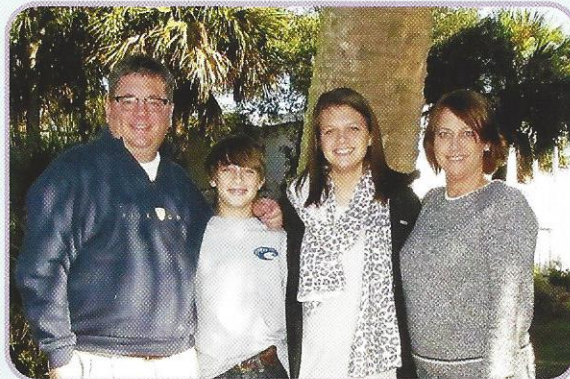

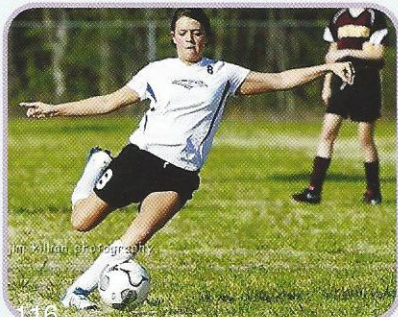

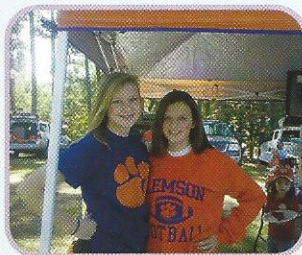

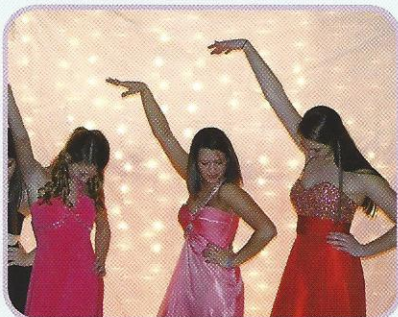

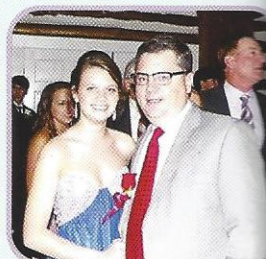

As you go off to college, I look back at the times we had. Although sometimes we argue, it is only because you look out for me. I look back and remember all of your advice. I also remember conditioning with you and even sometimes having fun! You have been my role model all my life, so when you leave, I will have to mature; I will have to learn to do things on my own. Most important, I will have to learn how to deal with missing you...I guess you will have to learn to do that too! Good Luck!

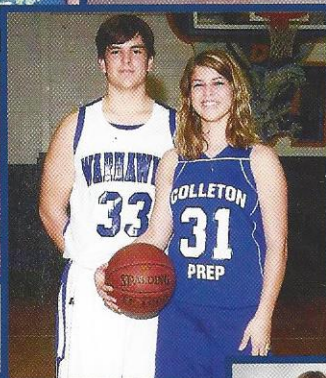

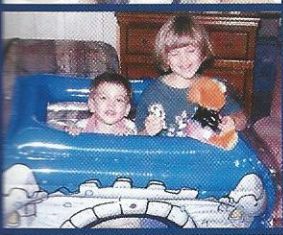

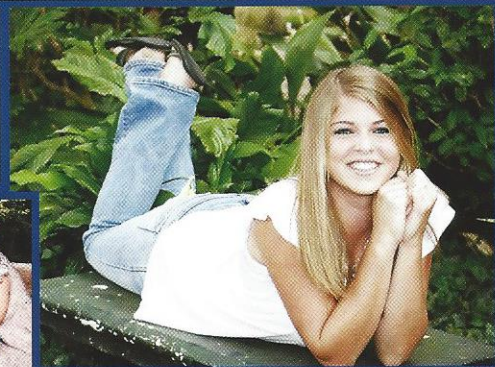

Love,
Reeves

I don't know how to express the joy you have brought me the last 18 years. The little things you do have always brought smiles to my face. I am so very proud of you and the lady you have become! Please know, regardless of your age, the door at home is always open for my little angel.

I love you,
Dad

Kennedy Mary-Elizabeth Crosby

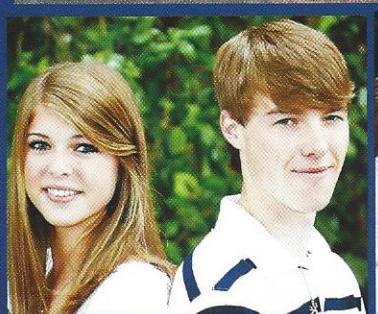

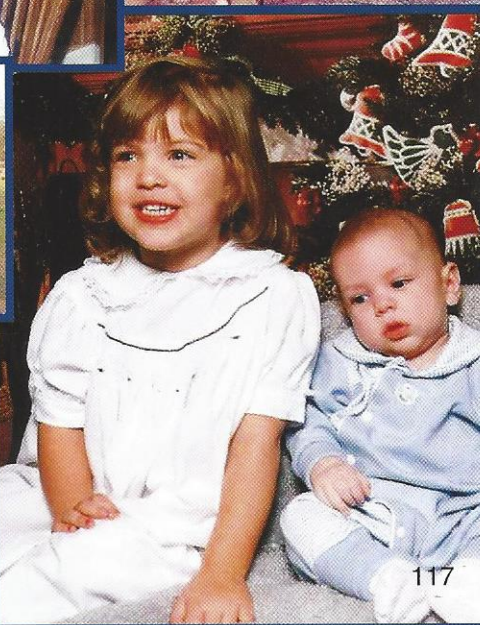

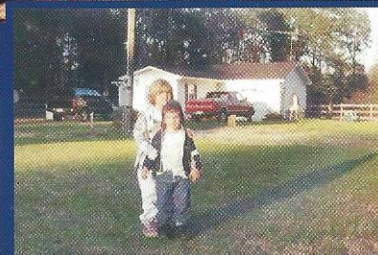

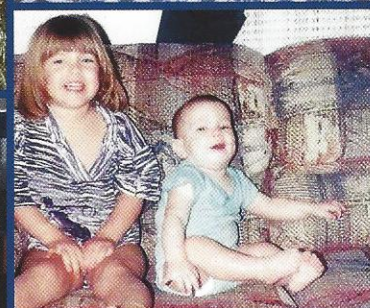

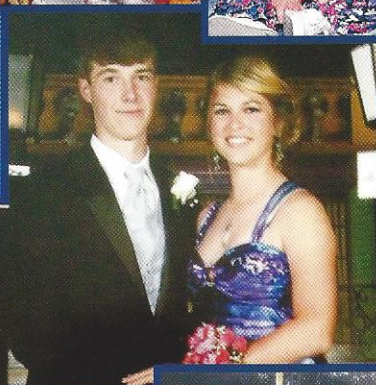

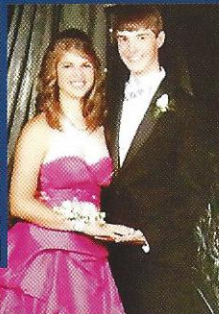

Kennedy,

We are so proud of you! You are a blessing and we could not have asked for a more beautiful, smart and talented daughter. You have made a lot of sacrifices to get where you are and we hope you have no regrets. We believe in you and pray that all your dreams come true. You are about to embark on a wonderful journey and we hope it takes you far.

We love you,

Daddy, Momma and George

Madeline Jane Hill

Madeline,

It seems like only yesterday we were bringing you home from the hospital. You don't remember but we will never forget that you had colic and cried for the first 3 months of your life. But once you finally stopped crying the joy of having a wonderful daughter began. Every stage of your life has been so much fun and rewarding for all of us. You have had such an exciting life and hardly ever missed any activity. World Changers, softball, cheerleading, basketball, running half marathon, National Honor Society, coon hunting, church activities and on and on. Watching you grow into the beautiful young lady, on the outside and the inside, you have become has been a true blessing from God. Life will have its ups and downs and if you remain Christ centered, as you are now, there will be nothing that you cannot handle. You are now about to start an exciting and challenging stage of your life. We have the utmost confidence that with your intelligence, drive, discipline, courage, wisdom, and maturity you will reach your goals.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Kendall, and Jonathan

Thank you for being the best big brother ever. God has shown us to never take things for granted. Who would have thought you would be able to play football after the wreck? God gave me the most annoying brother ever but I love you. I know you will accomplish anything you put your mind to in life because you have taught me to never give up and always give 110%! Good luck and I love you!!!
