As we go on... We remember, all the times we had together

EVERY SUMMER HAS A STORY

Spirit Week

'Merica Monday

Hayden Huckaby, Jackson Sims, Anslie Murdaugh, and Linley Jones brightened up the intermediate building on 'Merica Monday!

Brianna Tyler, Riki Sheffield, Molly Warren, Taylor Marsh, and Samantha Murdaugh looked patriotic from their boots to their red, white, and blue attire!

Twin Tuesday

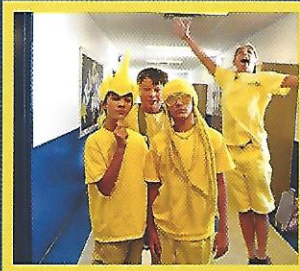

Madison Stieglitz and Alex Sanders dressed as "fairy twinsesses" for Twin Tuesday.

Ben Cain and Gray Marvin wore their Batman shirts for this year's spirit week.

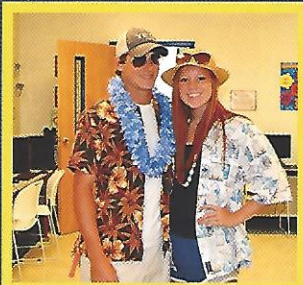

Class Color Wednesday

Charlton Griffith, Hunter Hudson, Jerred Griffith, and Jake Tyler joined their fellow 7th grader by dressing all out in their class color: YELLOW!

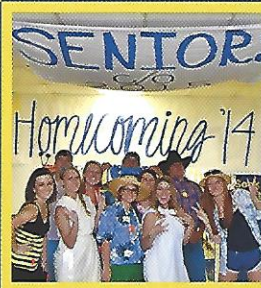

Caden Griffith and Anne Hatcher White dressed in pink from head to toe in order to support their 2nd grade class.

Salad Dressing Thursday

Will Carter and Callie Griffin dressed as Hawaiians to represent their favorite salad dressing: Thousand Island.

Members of the senior class of 2014-2015 took a break from hanging their class banner to show off their salad dressing looks! Greek, Honey Mustard, Ranch, and Thousand Island were all represented!

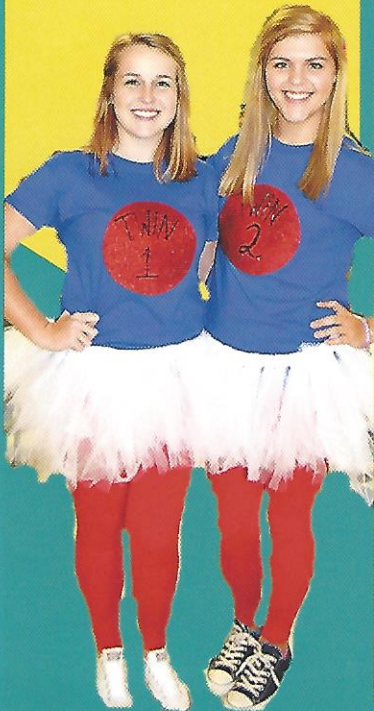

Blue Friday

The freshmen class painted the school blue to show off their Warhawk pride!

Mrs. Houck's class came prepared for this year's "water pep rally"!

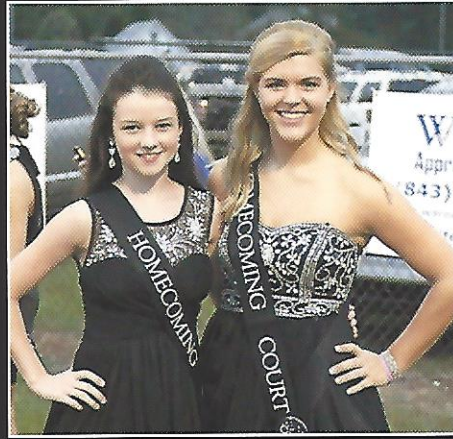

Homecoming 2014

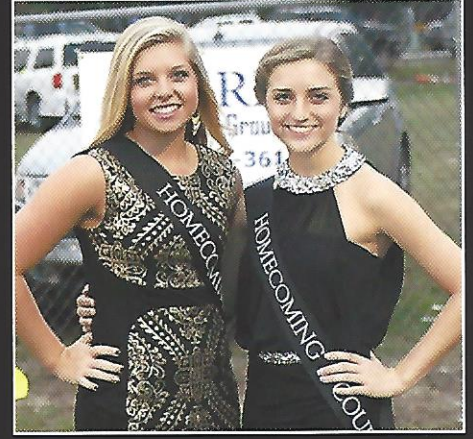

Homecoming Court:

9th Grade: Sydney Crosby and Caroline Jones

10th Grade: Katie Goodwin and Kayla Hayden

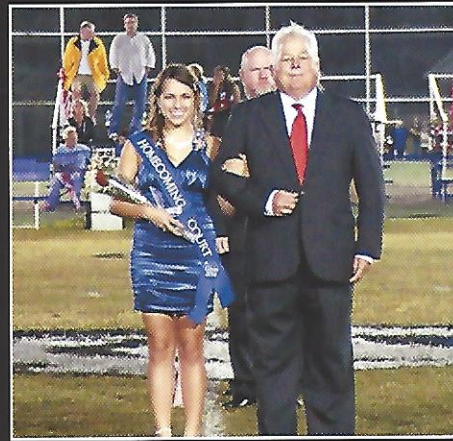

11th Grade: Ally Knight and Summer Gerard

Prom 2014

HALLOWEEN

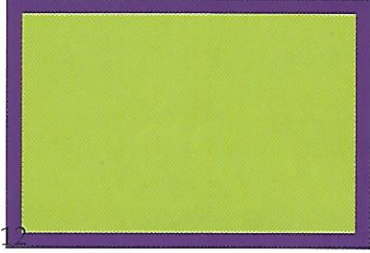

The Dukes of Hazzard was well represented by Will Carter, Madison Avant, and Mark Hughes.

Callie Griffin and Madison Stieglitz decided that Spongebob Squarepants' friends, Mermaid Man and Barnacle Boy, should visit CPA for the day. Thanks to Taylor Marsh, Brianna Tyler didn't have to walk across the street to visit the Assisted Living Home. Alex Sanders must have spent all night gluing pom-poms to her shirt to create a human gumball machine!

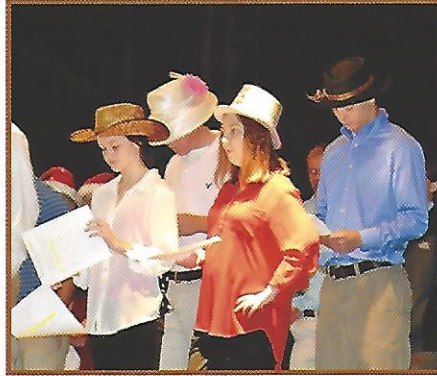

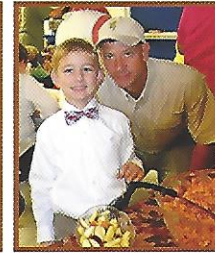

The Phantom of the Opera is there inside your mind, well at least Haley Pye's mind! Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtle Molly and Conductor Taylor Marsh are ready to walk around the school and show off their costumes! Sam Murdaugh was the perfect Belle!

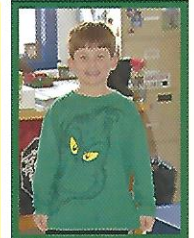

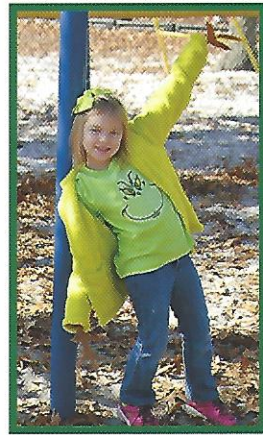

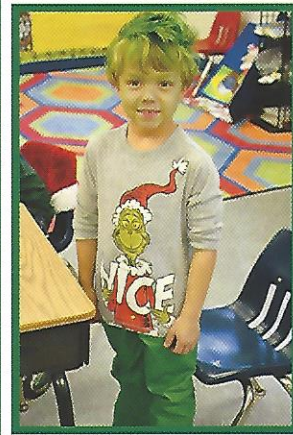

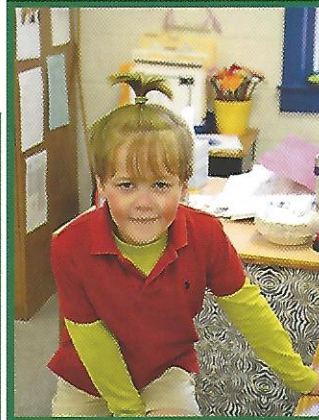

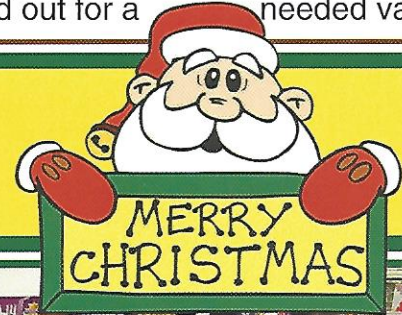

Even the Kindergarten students got to dress up this year! They enjoyed seeing the seniors' costumes while they ate yummy snacks at their class party.

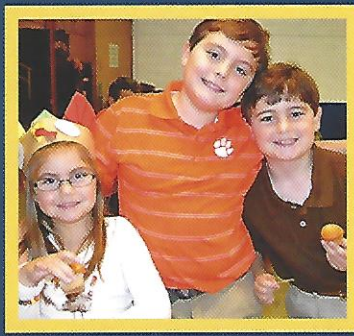

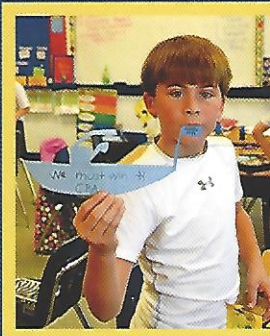

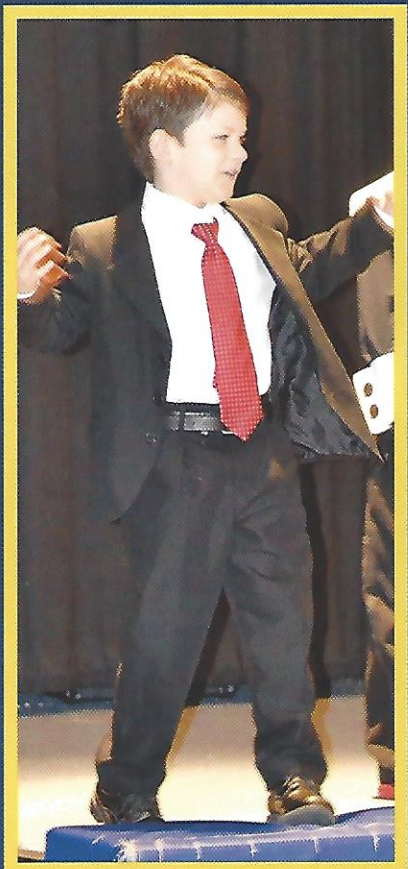

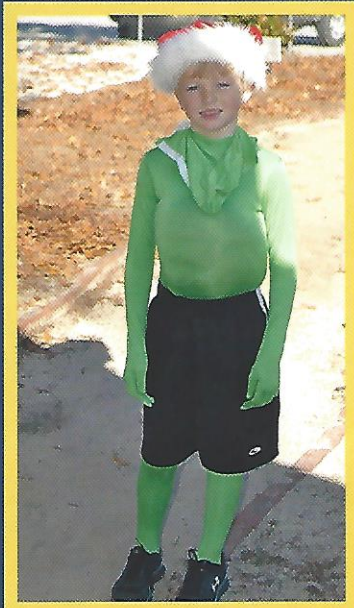

Grandparent's Day Celebration

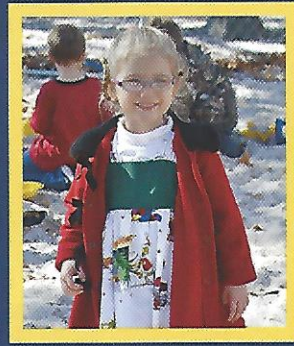

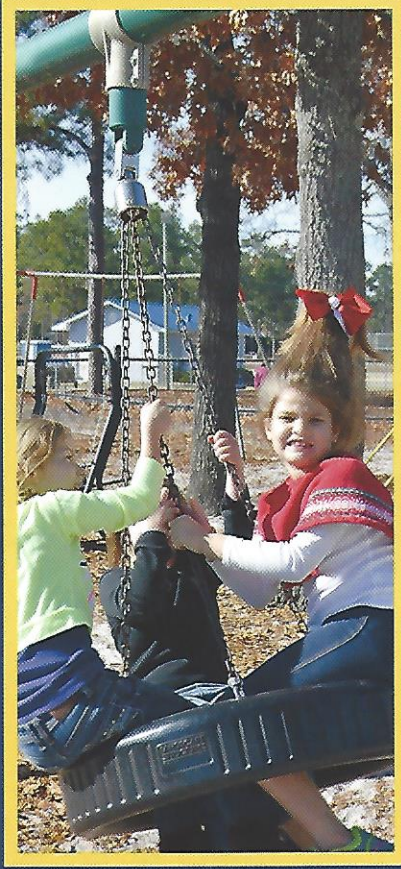

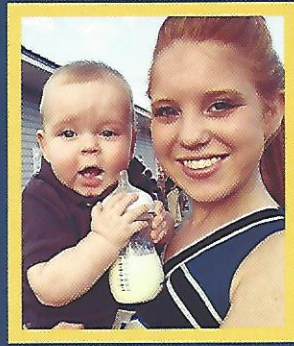

The lower school classes, along with the 10th grade drama class, entertained the crowd of parents and grandparents in the gym. After the show everyone was able to fill their belly with brunch before they headed out for a needed vacation!

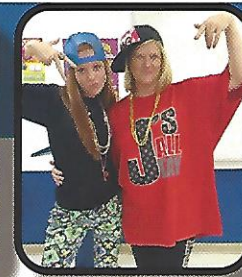

The lower school turned green for Grinch day; but Cole Davis' costume definitely won the prize!

2014-2015 Talon Dedication Goes To...

Every year the Talon Staff dedicate their volume to one member of the faculty that has left a profound impact on them and their high school career. This year we are proud to honor our Interim Head of School, Jill Burtrtram. Whether our memories of Mrs. Burtrtram are from the years she spent as our guidance counselor, or the year she spent as our Head of School, they will all remain some of the fondest memories we will ever have. When our Talon Staff was asked to recall some of their favorite moments spent with Mrs. Burtrtram, they ranged from help with ACT and SAT registration to fun car rides that encompassed everything from Math Meet trips to a six hour drive to Universal. Mrs. Burtrtram always has her door wide open. She welcomes everyone in if they have a serious problem that needs solving or if they just want to pull up a chair and talk. We consider ourselves fortunate to spend our last year at Colleton Prep with Jill Burtrtram during her first year as Head of School. Thank you for always helping us and having our best interest at heart! We love you Mrs. Jill!

Senior Picture Day

Beaufort, SC

November 13, 2014

Every year the seniors at Colleton Prep choose a memorable destination to enjoy one of their last trips together. This year's senior class chose Beaufort, SC for its gorgeous waterfront and parks. The way there they snapped a few pictures at Old Sheldon Church in Yemassee. They enjoyed lunch at Outback Steakhouse and then explored downtown Beaufort and the Waterfront Park.

Mr. and Miss Warhawk

Each year the faculty and staff of Colleton Prep vote for Mr. and Miss Warhawk. The title is given to two seniors, one boy and one girl, based on their academic excellence, athletic ability, and leadership skills. This year the title was given to Alex Sanders and Will Carter.

Alex is a varsity cheerleader and plays varsity soccer. She was captain of the varsity cheerleading squad and an offensive captain of the soccer team in past years. She is Student Body vice president and National Honor Society president and is also co-editor of the Talon. She plans on majoring in pharmacy after she graduates.

Will plays varsity football and varsity baseball. He served as captain of the football team this past year and received the "No Surrender" Award. He is also a member of National Honor Society. He plans to attend college in state and study business. Will also hopes to further his baseball career at the college level.

Will Carter and Alex Sanders

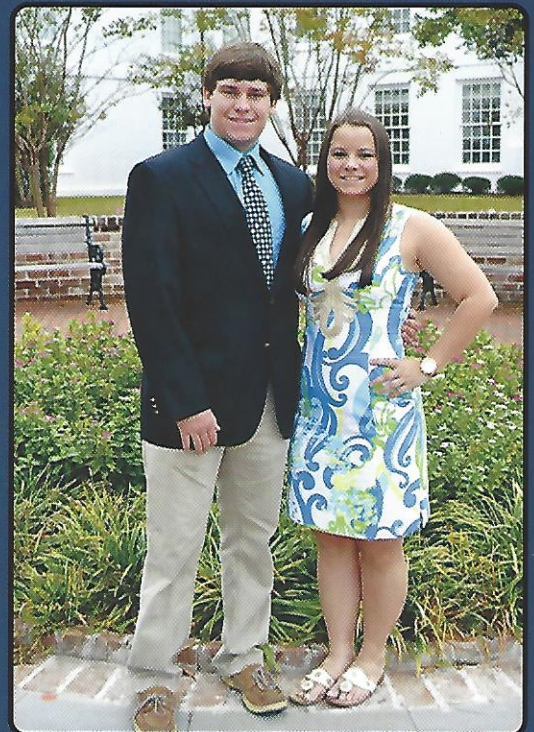

Mr. and Miss Talon

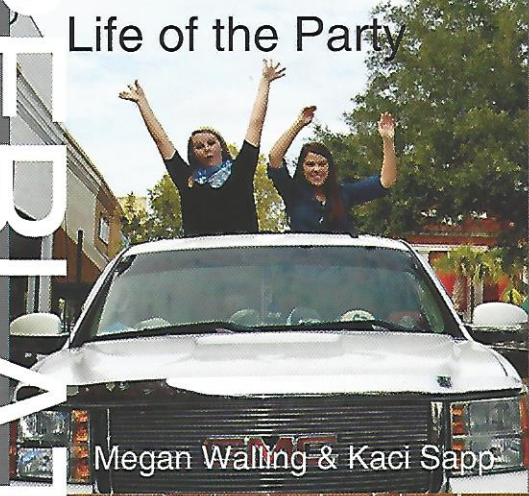

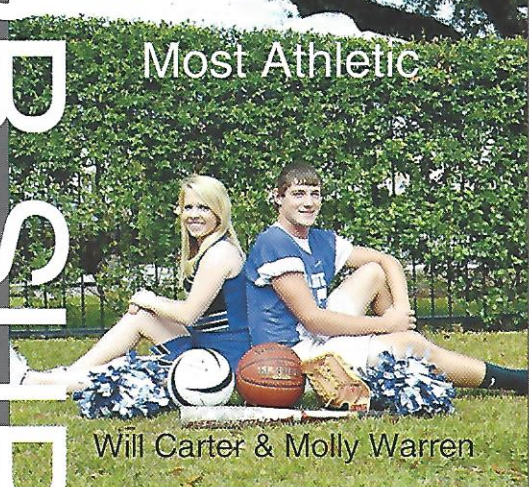

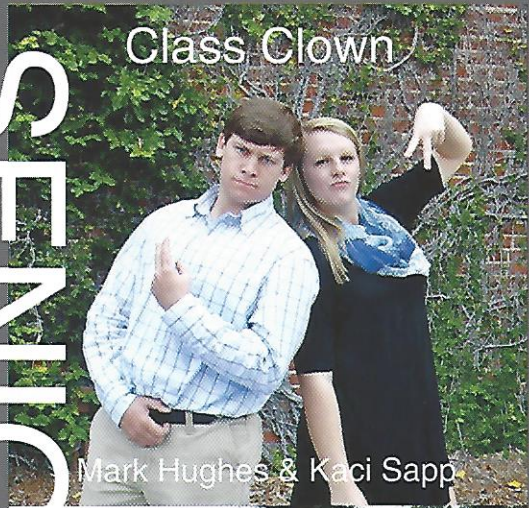

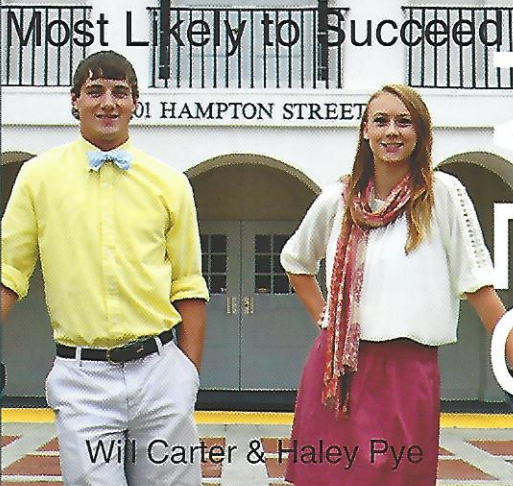

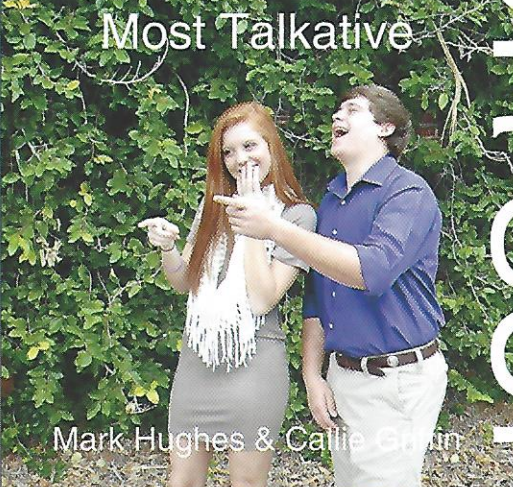

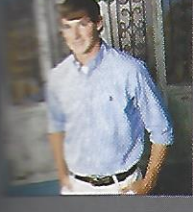

Each year the Colleton Prep high school students vote for Mr. and Miss Talon. The title is given to two seniors, one boy and one girl, who they believe is best all around. This year Taylor Long and Mark Hughes received this title.

Taylor is a varsity cheerleader, plays basketball and soccer. She was also a captain of the varsity cheerleading squad. Even after having three ACL tears and six surgeries, she tried as hard as she could to get back by the next season. Taylor takes part in Student Government as the senior class treasurer. She is also a member of the National Honor Society and the sports section editor for the yearbook. Taylor plans to attend college in state and study physical therapy.

Mark plays varsity football, basketball, and baseball. He was captain of the varsity football team. He also participates in Student Government as the president of the senior class. Mark plans to attend college in-state studying pre-law.

The Holy City

As part of the SC History curriculum, the 8th grade class took a trip to South Carolina's "Holy City," Charleston, given the nickname for once having the most churches per capita of any city in America. Timmy Benton was excited to tour the infamous USS Yorktown that is docked at Patriot's Point while Jake Burttram was content to check out the aircraft in the museum. The students toured the Exchange Building and the Provost Dungeon as well as various other sites around downtown Charleston.

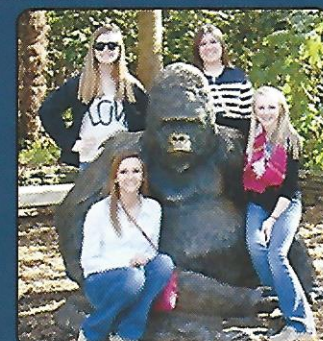

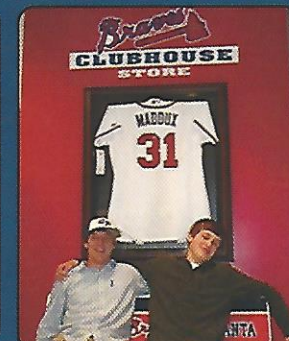

Camp Kanuga

The 6th and 7th grade classes headed to Hendersonville, NC last May. While at camp they were able to work rock climb, canoe, and participate in numerous teamwork activities that helped build teamwork and confidence. Left: Gabriel Barnes eases his way down the tight ropes. Jerred Griffith, Dawson Sweat and Charlton Griffith wait for direction from their camp leader. Logan Willis and David McMillen get a little extra help so that they don't drop their classmate!

The ATL

This years 9th grade class took a trip to Atlanta, GA last spring with their class sponsor, Jennifer McMillan. They had the opportunity to tour the Coke Museum and CNN. They were also able to spend a day at the Atlanta Zoo!

PALMETTO GIRLS & BOYS STATE

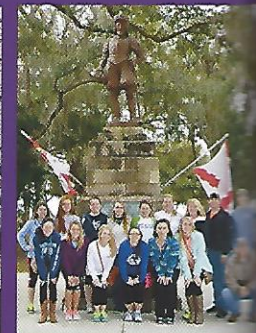

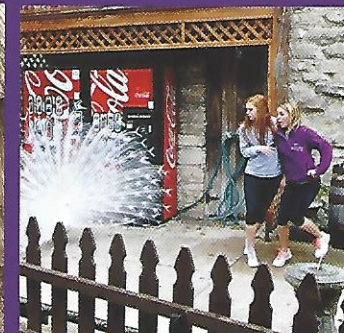

Madison Avant, Megan Walling, Molly Warren, Haley Pye, Alex Sanders, Will Carter and Mark Hughes were the 2014 delegates that represent CPA.

EDUCATION BEYOND THE CLASSROOM

Katie Goodwin, Savannah Williams, Penelope Tuten, Haley Wilson, and Ally Knight took a moment to capture their trip to Earthshine Discovery Center in North Carolina!

The 9th and 10th graders took their climbing and balance skills to a whole new level on the ropes course at Earthshine.

Mark Hughes enjoyed his sip from the Fountain of Youth in St. Augustine, FL. We will have to wait a few years to see if it worked! Taylor Long, Megan Walling, Riki Sheffield and Brianna Tyler in front of a Timicuan Village hut. Callie Griffin and Alex Sanders were a little startled by the peacock. The group in front of the Ponce de Leon monument.

TOTAL CONCENTRATION //
Garrett Briaud stays focused and diligently works on his virtual class in the computer lab.

IT'S "ELEMENT"ARY //
Shelly McDonald is quick to take notes while Mr. Crosby lectures about elements and the periodic table.

ONE PROBLEM AT A TIME //
Riki Sheffield takes a few minutes to study one last time before her physics test!

Student Involvement

Getting involved in our school and local community is something that many of our students embraced this year. All of the high school classes had service projects that they supported and many actively participated in raising money and goods for their cause. The entire student body happily donated time and money to help Relay for Life and March of Dimes. They also participated in "The Big Thank You" by writing Thanksgiving letters to the soldiers overseas.

Students in 3rd - 12th grade participated in numerous SCISA activities that allowed us to travel and interact with other schools, meet new people, and challenge us. Student Council also organized numerous fundraisers in an effort to make improvements around the school. We also organized secret pal so that the younger students have a "buddy" in the middle or high school that serves as a mentor and friend. We always strive to better our school and make it a place that we can all be proud of.

Left: Scott Kramer and Corey McMullan were just a couple of the NHS members that volunteered to help at the local Empty Bowls project to help raise money to feed the hungry in Colleton County. Below: Jordan Slocum helps Nathaniel Craven count his pennies that he brought in to support the ninth grade charity, Relay for Life.

The Arts

From musical opportunities at CPA like chorus and drum line, to drama classes and skit groups and multiple art classes, CPA has a constantly growing Arts program that proudly performs thought the year.

The largest show for the Arts Department every year is the Spring Showcase. For the 2014 year, the theme was "That's Entertainment!" The many acts included all kinds of students, and faculty performing movie themes, Little Rascals and Annie skits, TV show themes, commercial jingles, and even drum arrangements of "Hedwig's Theme" from Harry Potter and the well known Survivor song, "Eye of the Tiger."

This year's annual Christmas program titled "Forever Christmas" was directed by Mrs. McMillan and included the Lower School, Middle School, and High School Choruses, several student volunteers, and Mrs Cawley's 10th grade drama class.

Megan Renee Walling

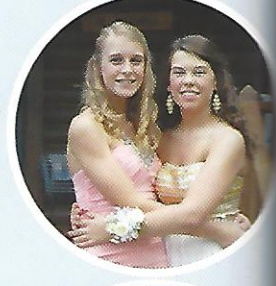

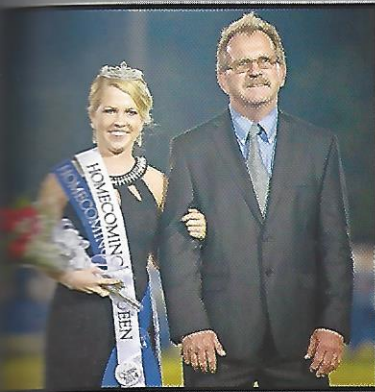

Megan:
The past 18 years have really flown by fast! You have grown into a beautiful young woman and we are so proud of who you have become. You continue to make us proud and know beyond a shadow of a doubt what a fine adult you will become. You are such a sweet, loving, and thoughtful person. We love you for who you are. We have often spoken about how it is better to give than to receive. Not all gifts are tangible: there are gifts of time, compassion, sharing, listening, and most importantly love. Remember to always work hard and put 110% into everything you do. Believe everything happens for a reason. No matter what happens, believe that if you persevere, you will benefit even though it may not be in the way you anticipate or wish. Always be a leader and not a follower and stand up for what is right. As you head out into this world, always remember that we are your family and will always be here for you! Enjoy the journey and embrace new experiences in this next chapter of your life!

*We love you!
Dad and Mom(your bff)*

Megan:
I'm really gonna miss you when you go to college! But finally - I get to be the only child! Have fun! Love you!

Molly Elizabeth Warren

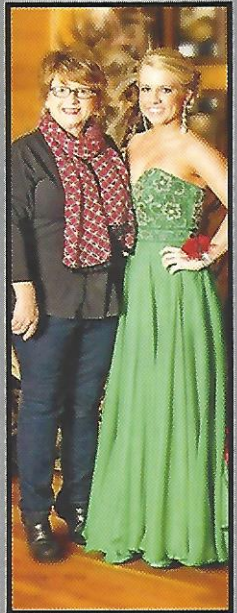

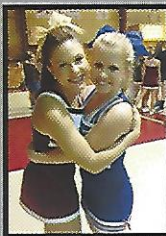

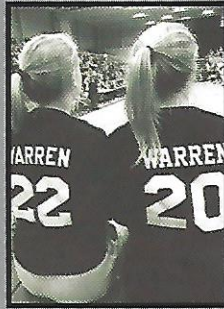

Molly,
Beautiful, smart, kind and loving are words that describe you. Your strength and determination make you the person that always gives your best in everything you do. We are so very proud of you. Stay true to your values and always remember to put God first in your life. Your life is just beginning! As you travel this journey, believe in yourself and above all be happy. We are always here for you! We love you with all our hearts, baby girl.

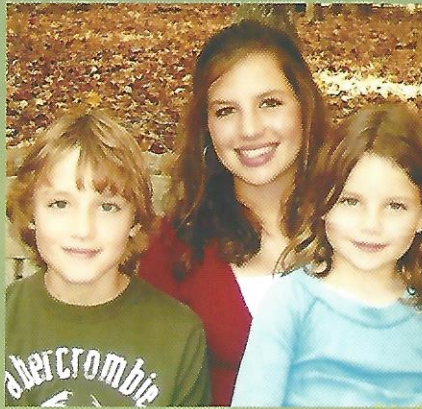

Mom & Dad

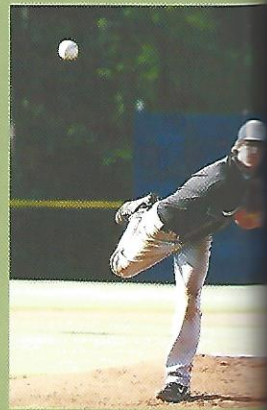

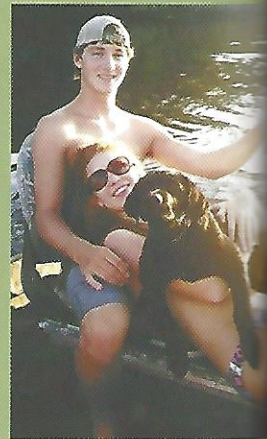

Molly,
You are my sister and my best friend. I am so proud of you and I love you so much!

"If your uniform isn't dirty, you haven't been in the game." - Ben Bernanke

Will,
Anyone who has followed your high school career knows that your uniform is always filthy! You are definitely "in the game" in all that you do! I love the way you approach challenges with willful determination, and I admire the way you enjoy life and the great outdoors. You can succeed at anything you put your mind to! Dream big and most importantly, be happy! Always remember, "No Surrender!" Your family will be with you every step of the way.

I am proud of you! I love you so much!

Taylor Marie Long

Taylor,

Where do I begin--It is so hard to believe that our baby girl is graduating from High School. Where has the time gone. There aren't enough words to express to you of how very proud your dad and I are of you. Over the years you have been such a joy to us always so caring and compassionate of other people's feelings. Your energy lights up the darkest room when you walk into it. You always strive to do your best in everything you do. Even when you were hurt you always gave it 100%. We are so proud of the young woman you have grown into.

As you start the next chapter in your life set your goals high and strive to achieve the very best. In doing this we know that you will achieve whatever it is in life that you want to become. All of us face difficult choices in life but we know that whatever you choose will be the right choice for you.

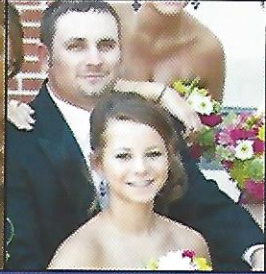

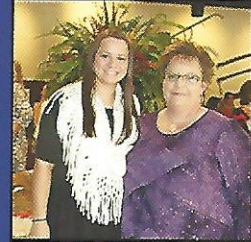

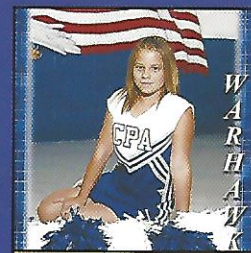

Always remember that dad and I will always be there for you no matter what time of the day or night it is. We will only be a phone call away. Enjoy your college years and remember we love you from the bottom of our hearts!!

Love You,
Mom and Dad

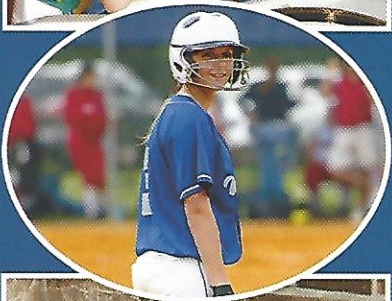

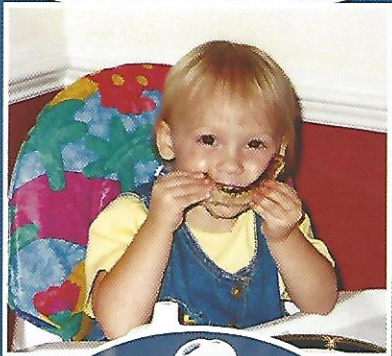

Taylor,

I am so proud of you and couldn't ask for a better sister. You have grown into an amazing young woman inside and out. Please always remember you can be anything you want to in life if you work hard at it. I am really going to miss you when you go off to college but I will always be there for you!!

I Love You,

Always have, and always will, love the wonderful person you are. You are truly my "the sun is brighten"! God speed beautiful girl, I don't know how you could make us any prouder than you already have. Love Mom

Little monkey, I could not be more proud of the young woman you have become. You are beautiful, brilliant, but most importantly, your own person. I can't wait to see what your future holds. Love Daddy

"The more you like yourself, the less you are like anyone else, which makes you unique". ...Walt Disney

Samantha Ada Murdaugh

Dear Samantha,

How is it possible that you are graduating from high school already? You should still be our "little one". When you were born and we had to leave you in the hospital for two weeks, we thought that was the hardest thing that we would ever have to do in our lives. Now we know that we have had to do much harder things as a family and that we couldn't have made it through them without you!

When you were younger there were times that we ended up fighting, crying, begging, punishing, you name it we tried it. You were absolutely the most stubborn and hard headed child we had ever seen. Oh, the nights of trying to get you to do your homework! Look at you now! You have grown into a young lady that is not only smart but caring, loving, devoted and a wonderful role model.

We know that you will be successful in whatever you attempt because not being so isn't an option in your mind. There isn't a day that goes by that we don't thank God for giving you to us. Always remember that we love you and are so proud of you and that Allie watches over you all the time.

Love,
Mom and Dad

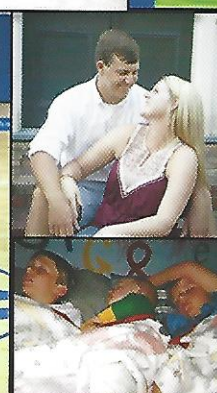

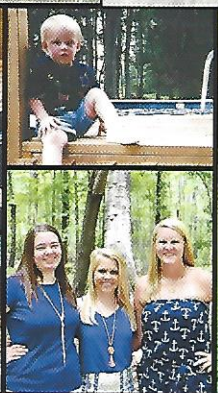

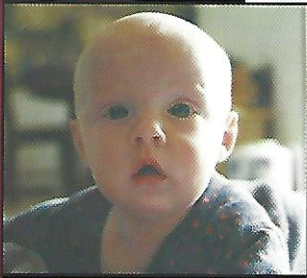

Kaci Jewel Sapp

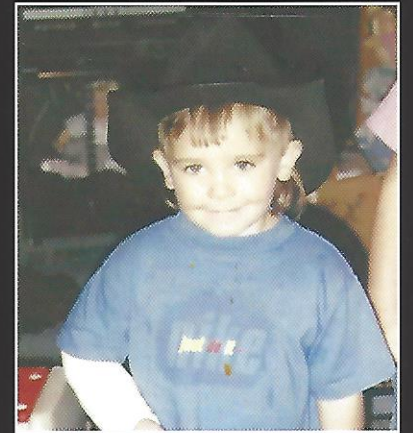

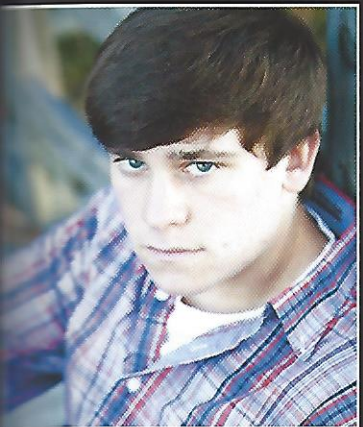

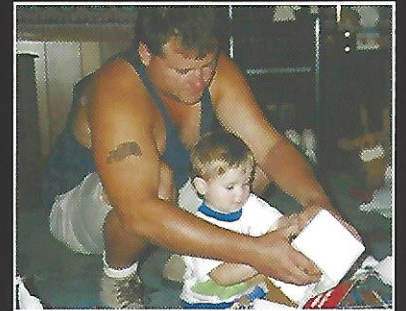

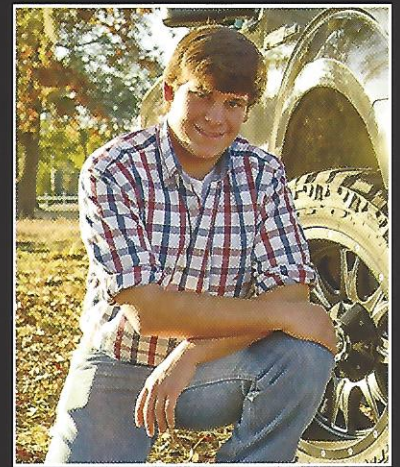

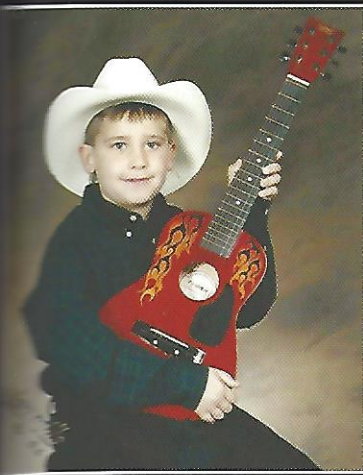

Our Baby Girl,

It only seems like yesterday we were dropping you off to school every morning. You were so little, yet so independent. Being the baby of five, great survival skills were imbedded in you very early in life. There was always an older sibling around trying to help you do everything. Since you were old enough to crawl and communicate, you let it be known you could do it yourself. I guess at that time you think, these days are going to last forever. Truly, they don't! Here you are all grown up and graduating high school. A lot has changed through the years however, your independent spirit remains. We love that about you! All that you have learned and experienced in the past thirteen years is now paving the way to the wonderful future that lies ahead. You are a beautiful, smart, strong, young lady! The drive within you for a good life, happiness, and most important a relationship with Jesus Christ will all lead you to every goal you set in this life as well as eternity. We are so proud of you!

With endless love,
Mom & Dad

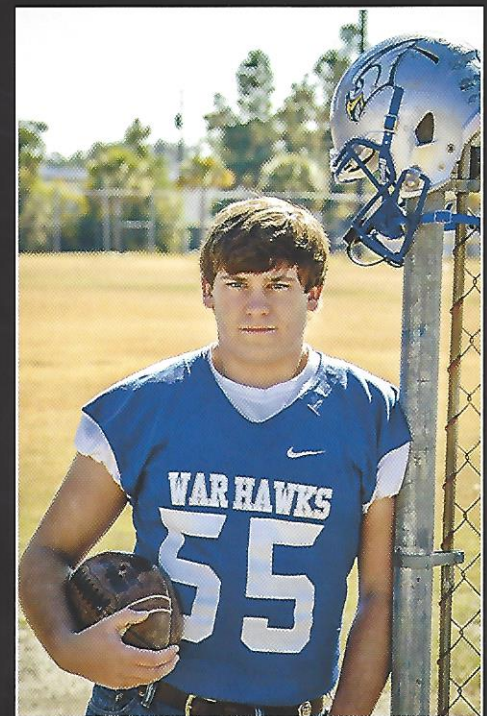

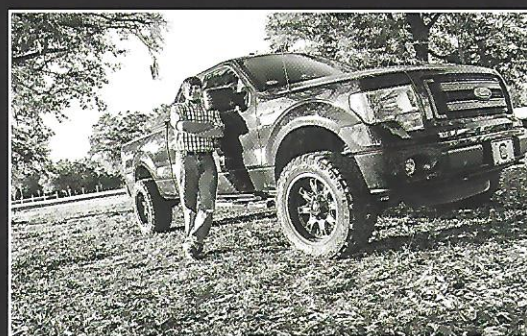

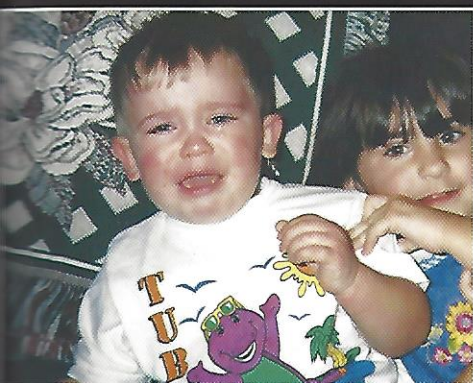

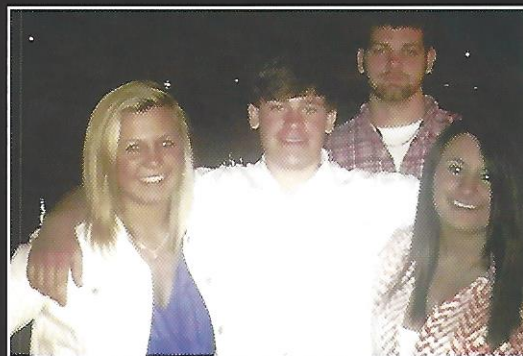

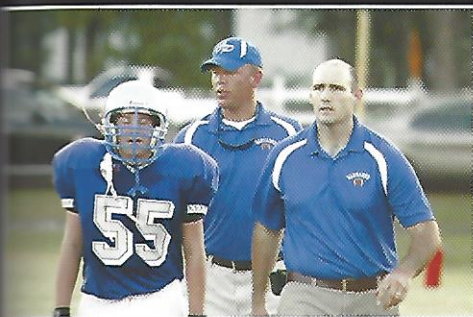

Mark Edward Hughes

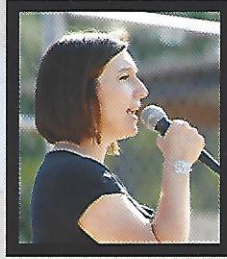

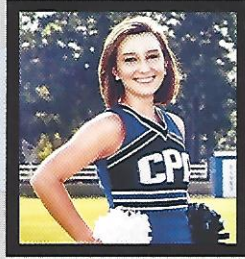

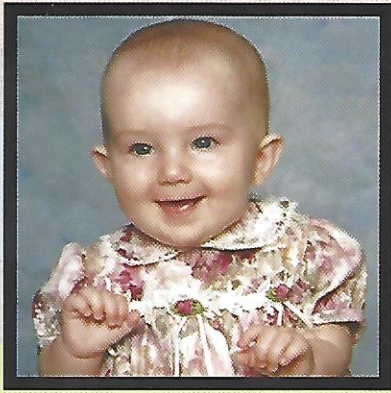

Mark,

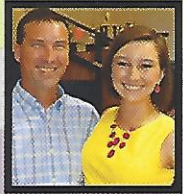

From the moment you were born, you stole our hearts. It's been a true blessing having you for a son. It's hard to believe you're a senior about to move on to the next stage of your life. We are so proud of everything you have done. You are so smart, athletic, well-mannered, we could go on and on. Just know that we love you so very much and wish you all the luck in the world in all that you do. Dream big, son and work hard and your dreams will come true.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Madison Caitlin Stieglitz

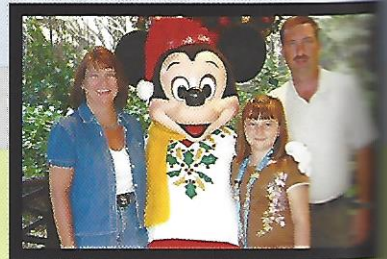

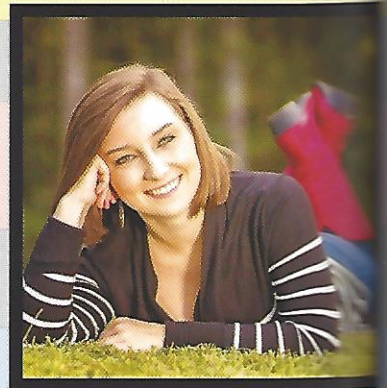

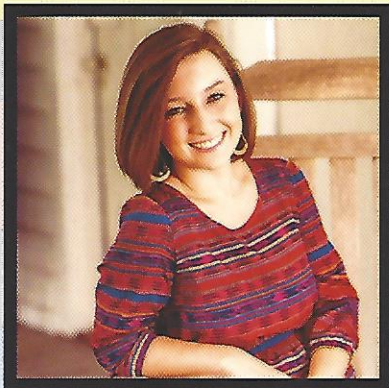

Madison,
Congratulations on reaching this milestone in your life. It seems like only yesterday, that daddy was walking you to the classroom for your first day of kindergarten and you said, "I can walk by myself, daddy." We knew then that our baby girl was on her way to becoming an independent, strong-willed, confident young lady.

You have brought us so much joy and happiness these past eighteen years. You have filled our home with non-stop singing, cheering, laughter and music. Your adventurous spirit has always kept us on the go. As you close this chapter in your life and begin a new one. We are excited for your future and look forward to you fulfilling all your dreams. We are proud of all you are and all that you will become. Always remember that you will always be "our little girl" and that we love you with all our hearts.

Trust in the LORD with all your heart

Alex -

We are so proud of you and the beautiful person you have become. May the rest of your journey bring you happiness and success. You are destined for great things and we are so glad we can be a part of it. Always stay true to your heart, believe in yourself, be open to new experiences, make good choices and be proud of your accomplishments. Take pride in how far you have come and have faith in how far you can go. Love always,
Dad, Stacey, Lauren, Ryan and Kinley

My sweet Ally Ra-Ra,

You were one of my biggest and best surprises; my adorable, kind-hearted, loving, brown-eyed girl! Not that long ago you were excited to graduate to "the hill" at the Honeytree. Now we all share in the same kind of excitement as we watch and help you prepare for college! I have so many priceless memories of you: rocking doll babies, adamantly requesting "brown frocolate milk" and accepting no substitutes, fork noises, shopping, and watching you cheer and play soccer. My fondest memories are from our many car rides to Virginia. They were always filled with great conversation and LOTS of singing, but they also kept us close.

You have grown into a responsible, respectful young lady and possess the integrity and determination to accomplish anything you put your mind to. Never forget that! We will always support you and be there for you! Wherever you go and whatever you do, always keep God in your heart and the rest will fall into place.

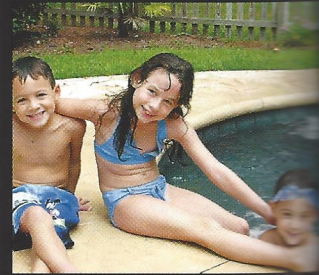

Love,
Mom & Sid

Ra-Ra, I will miss you around the house, but now I finally get my own bathroom! Good luck at college! Love, Garrett

Brianna Lynne Tyler

To our dearest daughter Brianna,
 Words cannot express how proud we are of you, not only because you are graduating, but because of your steadfast love for the Lord. It has been a delight watching you grow faithful in the ways of the Lord.
 You have come far, rejoice in who you are, always be true, the world is your canvas, colorful and new, opportunity awaits you, and new moments are yours to explore. Just remember to keep the Lord near to your heart and frame your life with faith.
 In all your ways acknowledge the Lord and he shall direct your path.
 Proverbs 3:6
 Love Dad and Mom

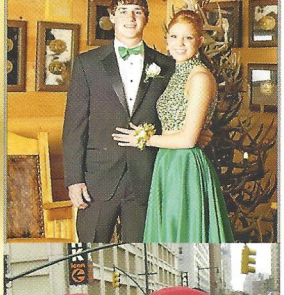

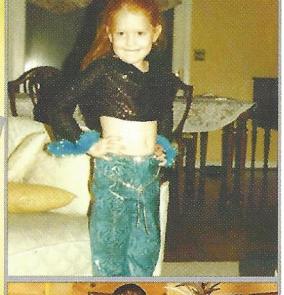

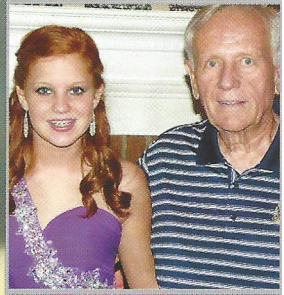

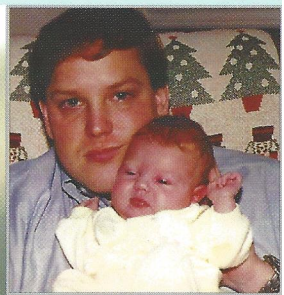

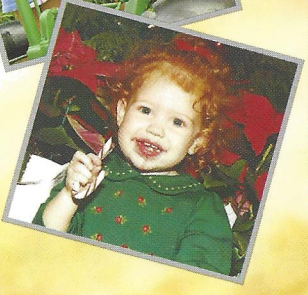

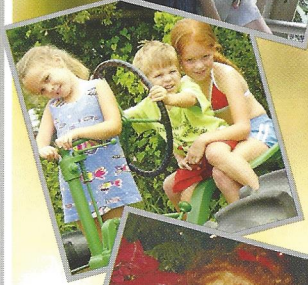

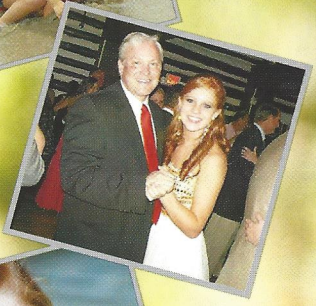

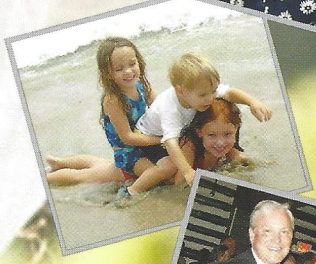

My little Bri. Not little anymore but a grown women to be proud of.
 Remember always to pray in all situations, The Lord is always ready to hear your lovely voice. There is a saying PRAYER IS NOT A SPAREWHEEL YOU PULL OUT WHEN IN TROUBLE, BUT IS A STEERING WHEEL THAT DIRECTS THE RIGHT PATH THROUGHOUT.

Taylor,

Because of you we hold the highest and most esteemed title, "parent!" God blessed us the day you were born. We pray that as you move forward into the next phase of this wild ride called life that you will continue to SHINE for Him. You have so much potential and with God all things are possible; so don't hold back, be everything He intended you to be! Daddy and I love you, babygirl, and we can't wait to see what your future holds. "For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." Jeremiah 29:11

Taylor has always been an okay sis ;-). She is always there for me when I need her, she has even been there when I didn't need her with me; but she knew that I needed someone even when I said I didn't. She stuck with me when I was mad, and she even helped me sometimes when I was in trouble (mother never knew). All in all, Taylor has been a great sis and I'm happy that she made it to college (for more than one reason).
Love you sis!

Madison Harry Avant

Dear Madison,

When I look at you now, I don't just see a young man, I see you as a newborn in my arms, a toddler taking his first steps, a student starting the first day of school and a baseball player swinging the bat for the first time. Traveling down memory lane to all of our holiday celebrations, Sunday dinners at Gibby's, Folly Beach vacations, Disney World trips, the times we became tickled in Church, all the hours played SKIPPO, our own fishing tournaments and my favorite, you singing your first song "Take Me Out To The Ballgame". Trust me I tell you, the old saying "Time Flies" is very true.

I never imagined your Senior year could be so emotional for me. I cry at the thought of you moving out and being out there on your own. But, at the same time I am so excited for you to grab hold of the next phase of life.

I want you to always remember that your character, morals, values, and integrity are important to you. Hold on to them. Don't forget that you always have a choice. Take responsibility for the choices you make and don't blame others. For everything you do in life, good or bad, there is a consequence. God has a plan for you and he will choose when to reveal it. His plan is rarely the same one that we see for ourselves. With that being said, having the ability to accept life as it unfolds is a skill that will serve you well in the years to come.

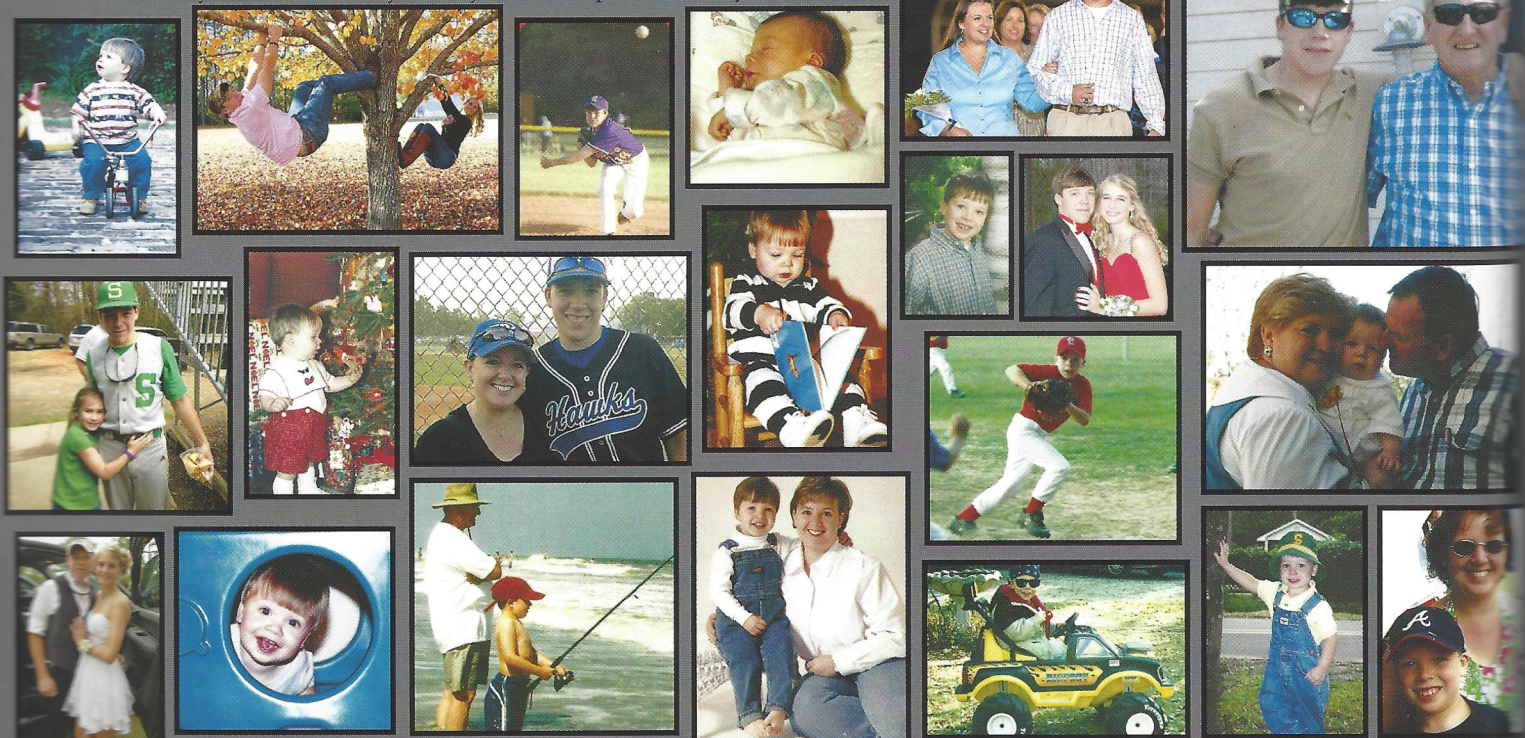

Even though the time has come for me to let you go, I will always be there wherever you go. You are my heart, my soul, my life and my world. Thank you for the best 18 years of my life.

I love you very much,
Mom

Congratulations, Madison! We are so proud of the young man you have become. You were our first grandchild and what a thrill! Over the years, we have watched you inhale waffles, peanut butter and jelly sandwiches, sweet tea, and that disgusting Kraft Mac and Cheese! We have had such fun watching you play all sports, especially baseball, and ride many a wave on your surfboard at the Wash Out at Folly Beach. (So many wonderful memories at Folly) Oh yes, the hunting!! Deer, ducks, turkeys, coons, and squirrels, from the time Papa gave you your first gun, a Red Rider BB gun! You have said that your Papa taught you everything from building a fire at age 4 in our den fire place, building any and everything in his workshop, hunting, fishing, and many life skills. Any school paper you had to write on your hands it was always about Papa. In one paper in middle school, you wrote, "Papa is my hero because I know he will always be there for me. I would not trade him for all the money in the world". We will continue to love and support you as you continue your path in life.

"For I know the plans I have for you", declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." Jeremiah 29:11

Madison Harry Avant, we love you very much! Papa and Gibby

Congratulations!

Class of 2015!!

Do you know who we are?

Hayden Huckaby

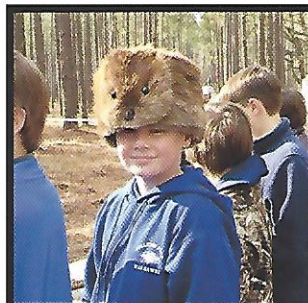

Caden Crosby

Meet Hayden Huckaby and Caden Crosby! Hayden and Caden both love to hunt and watch Carolina football!! They are both 4th graders this year, but you wouldn't know that from looking at the 4th grade page. While they have the same interests and look a lot alike..even their names rhyme... They are definitely not the same person! Thank you for being such good sports and the Talon Staff apologizes for the error! Hopefully there aren't any more blatant errors in the Talon!!!!

Medieval Times

Mrs. Blocker's fab five enjoyed lunch and a show in Myrtle Beach in March. Samantha Murdaugh and Haley Pye even got a little one on one time with a knight!

Out and about ...

Top Right: 5th Grader, Drew Murdaugh didn't hesitate to get in character at the Battle of Broxton Bridge. Right: Mallory Crawford's 10th grade group devoted many weekend hours to their service project, Habitat for Humanity.

2014-2015 WORLD BEAT[®]

THE YEAR THROUGH YOUR EYES.

THIS YEAR

YOUR TOP PICKS

Topics included in World Beat were selected by students participating in a national survey.

WATCH IT ALL COME ALIVE

Augmented reality (AR) brings World Beat to life on your iPhone®, iPad® and Android devices.

STEP 1:

If Jostens produces your yearbook, use the ReplayIt® app to launch the videos. Go to the ReplayIt "More" menu and touch "Augmented Reality." If you haven't downloaded ReplayIt, visit the App Store. If Jostens doesn't produce your yearbook, download the Aurasma® app from the App Store.

STEP 2:

Open app, search for JostensWorldBeat, and select "Follow."

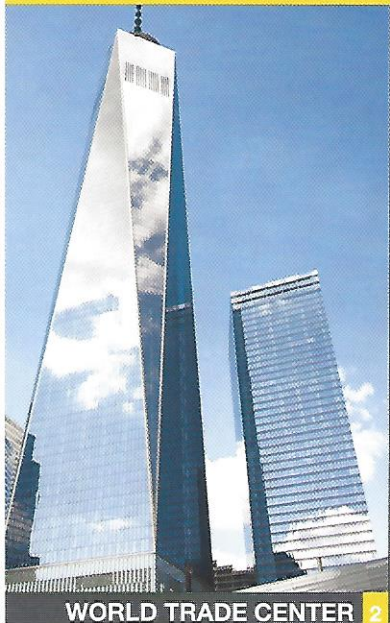

STEP 3:

Look for the  symbol and hold your device over the adjacent headline in each section to trigger the videos. Watch and enjoy!
