FIELD DAY 2015

SUMMERTIME MEMORIES

It isn't officially summer until you have a class pool party! The class of 2019 were thrilled to celebrate the end of their school year the right way!

Chris Reeves and Scott Kramer encountered sloths, monkeys, and many other amazing animals in the Costa Rican rain forest.

Ella Nolte found a creative way to cruise the strip in Venice Beach, CA.

Dedication

It has become tradition for the Talon Staff to dedicate their volume to one member of the CPA Faculty and Staff that has had a great impact on them and their time at CPA. This year the class of 2016 is proud to honor Mrs. Bray Campbell. Mrs. Campbell is a middle school English and Language Arts teacher and has also served as the varsity soccer coach. She influenced the class of 2016 for three years while in middle school. From screaming down the hall at a boy to take his hat off, taking someone's phone, drilling wordly wise in the heads of her students daily, giving great advice, revising papers for high schoolers, and always respecting her students; she has been there for us throughout the past seven years. Thank you for always pushing us to do our best, educating us to the best of your ability, and teaching us how to be respectful and successful students.

Love,
The Class of 2016

Mr. and Miss War Hawk

Each year the faculty and staff of Colleton Prep vote for Mr. and Miss War Hawk. The title is given to two seniors, one boy and one girl, based on their academic achievement, athletic ability, and leadership skills. This year the title was awarded to Ally Knight and Scott Kramer

Ally plays varsity volleyball and softball and has been awarded HSSR All-State in both sports. Ally has also gotten All-Region in both sports in past years. She served as the varsity volleyball captain and has earned a Best Defense Award 3 consecutive years. She is the Student Body treasurer, National Honor Society president and is also co-editor of the Talon. She plans on majoring in Health Science after she graduates.

Scott plays varsity football. He was awarded All-State and All-Region. He also played in the SCISA 1A North-South All-Star game. He was awarded best defensive lineman in 2013. He is the Student Body President and has been in National Honor Society for the past 3 years. He plans on majoring in Biology college with a focus on pre-pharmacy.

Mr. and Miss Talon

Each year the Colleton Prep high school students vote for Mr. and Miss Talon. The title is given to two seniors, one boy and one girl, who they believe is best all around. This year Marla Strickland and Brian Murdaugh received this title.

Marla has lettered in varsity basketball, softball and cheerleading. She served as the captain of both basketball and cheerleading. She is the secretary for both National Honor Society and Student Body. She is the Student Life editor for the Talon. She plans to major in Radiology after she graduates.

Brian plays varsity football and baseball. He was awarded All-State and All-Region for both. He also played in the SCISA 1A North-South All-Star game. Brian was the SCISA 1A Offensive Player of the Year. He is the Class President and has been in National Honor Society for the past 3 years. He plans on majoring in business at The Citadel.

H A L L O W E E N

Cristi Soom and Christy Martin along with the teachers and staff had a very successful festival. All money raised went to purchase science kits for the lower school. What a fun event!

Fall Festival

The only students that are allowed to dress up for Halloween at CPA are the Seniors! This year, with lots of help from Pinterest, all of the costumes were very cute, creative, and impressive! All of the other students and teachers always enjoy seeing their costumes and figuring out what they are!

"Y'all I'm about to hit that footwork."

"What time and how do you get there?"

"Why is this thing not workin'?"

"I won't be here, I have a doctor's appointment."

"Anybody got the homework?"

"Yo, look at this."

"That is too expensive."

"Dude, I got this."

MUSIC

The Lower School students had an excellent Christmas program and easily put the crowd in the spirit of Christmas!

The music program at CPA continues to grow under the direction of Mrs. Jennifer McMillan. It provides students the opportunity to learn many aspects of music. Students in K4 - 5th grade participate in music class weekly where they learn rhythm and pitch. Middle School students study music history from baroque through out the 20th Century and learn to play percussion instruments. High School students participate in Chorus as an elective and they are the center of the spring showcase. They also lead the school in all other musical entertainment throughout the year.

We are very fortunate to be able to participate in SCISA Choral Clinics and Music Festivals where are students continue to excel. Not only can you hear our students sing at concerts, they can also be heard singing the "Star Spangled Banner" at our sporting events as well as numerous other events throughout our community!

What a young man you have developed into!! Your leadership skills, kindred heart, competitive spirit and never quit attitude are contagious. I would not trade the countless hours I have coached you over the years for anything. Watching you compete and the way with which you conduct yourself on the ballfield has been one of the greatest joys of my life. You have always accepted victory with modesty and defeat with humility. These virtues will serve you well in whatever life has in store for you. We have made so many memories together standing around the fire on camping trips, deer hunting, dove hunting, Carolina football games, vacations and ball practices. Graduation from CPA is not even close to the end of your journey but rather just the beginning. Your time at CPA and the friends you made here will be a thread woven into the fabric of your life. Be proud of who you are and where you came from. Love is not easy to put into words, especially a parent's love. Even though you have grown into a strong young man, I still see you in all of your life's stages at once. I see you as the fragile newborn who was determined to arrive six weeks early, the blonde curly headed boy who teared up when he got a puppy for his birthday, the little blue eyed boy who wore that long white graduation gown at his kindergarten graduation and the excited young boy who hit his first homerun out the park to win the game for his team. Never give up on your dreams. Embrace life and you will do well. P.S. You will have to take off that baseball cap at some point!!! Love, Dad

Brian Murdaugh

It's hard to believe we have reached this milestone so quickly. It seems like yesterday when you arrived six weeks early. Although this is one of the happiest times of your life it brings some sadness too, realizing you're all grown up. I am so grateful for all the wonderful memories you have given us along the way & will cherish them forever. You have grown into a compassionate, handsome, young man with many opportunities ahead of you. Your greatest joy has been playing sports. From the time you could walk there was some type of ball in your hand. Be it baseball, basketball, football or soccer; you've played them all & always with such passion. I can't recall any sport you've played that you gave less than 100% effort. Watching you play sports has truly been a joy and I will definitely miss that next year at CPA. You have made us very proud. Your perseverance and determination to win has amazed me. There were moments of extreme exhaustion & I felt you could play no more, but your competitive spirit never gave up without a fight. Those qualities will take you far in life. I know with that perseverance and dedication you will make it to the next level if that is your desire. Set your goals high and always strive for the best. Never lose sight of your values. For the road less traveled will not always be the easiest but it often makes us stronger people. Remember the importance of family and friends. YOUR family loves you, supports you, and wishes you the best life has to offer. Finally, remember to keep God in your life. Your faith in God will give guidance and wisdom through storms and tribulations. All My Love, Mom

I can't believe you are about to graduate. It seems like just yesterday we four boys were running through the house fighting and screaming; causing mom to pull her hair out! We have watched you excel from the football field to the baseball diamond and be a great leader in everything that you have done. High school will always be one of the greatest experiences of your life and you will always have those friends. I never thought I'd see the day where you and I would be in school together again but it looks like we will both be following in dad's footsteps. This next chapter of your life won't be an easy journey but just remember when things get tough hit a knee and pray and remember that no matter what you do we will always be proud of you. Love your big brother, Matt

I really had fun playing on the football field with you this year. As good as our season was, I hate it had to end like it did. I'm sure you'll be playing on the field again before you know it. You say you will be attending the citadel and I can't imagine what it will feel like not having the favorite child around anymore. I'm sure you will have fun there as me and drew fight over the GOB title. I love you and hope you continue to be successful throughout college. Your brother, Jesse

Riding home from school won't be the same. It will be quite dangerous with Jesse driving. The afternoons after school won't be the same not being able to hang out with you and your buddies at the house. It's been fun having you around to teach me sports. Maybe when I get to high school I'll be the "Real" #3 and break all your records. Hope you have a good time at college, playing football. Drew

Marla Katherine Strickland

Seems like such a short time ago you became one of our greatest blessings in life. We knew we would be proud of you but had no idea at the time just how proud we would be of our little "MP". From your "you want a piece of this" days until now, your accomplishments have amazed us and we have stood in awe at your passion for doing whatever you believed in. You have grown into a beautiful and caring young lady who always stood up for what & who was right even though it might not have been the most popular thing to do. As you leave this stage of your life behind, we have no doubt you can accomplish anything you set your mind to. We are so proud of you & love you more than you could possibly know. Philippians 4:13. Congratulations and much love!
Love Always, Mom & Dad

Little Bit, It's so hard to believe your senior year is coming to an end. I am so very proud of the beautiful young lady you have become. I know Poppa is proud of you and is smiling down from Heaven each and every day. I will always be here for you and I wish you the best of luck in all of your future endeavors!
Love always, Gina

I am proud of you for all the great things you have achieved. Wish you the best of luck and I love you! Love, Devon

Lexie,

I can not believe that Daddy's little girl is graduating this year! I am so proud of you & the beautiful person you have become. It feels like yesterday I was dropping you off for your first day of pre-school. You set your goals high and always worked hard to meet them. I wish nothing but success for the years to come.

Love,

Daddy

**Always remember you are "DADDY'S LITTLE GIRL"*

Matt Craven

First and foremost, your father and I want you to know that we love you very much. The past 18 years have flown by and our little boy has now become a young man. We have watched you grow physically, mentally and spiritually. Our hope for you in the future is that you do what makes you happy and allows you to prosper. May God guide your footsteps into the future as you make your way. Remember that no matter where you go in life or whatever you do, we will always be here for you. We love you and wish you all the best that life has to offer.

Love, Mom and Dad

Kimberly Alexis Jade Murray

Lexie Lou,
 My sassy, strong-willed, blue-eyed girl. Since you were born you have always been your very own person. From your first word to me, "Bubba" instead of mommy, I knew you were different than most! You are athletic, smart, loyal, honest, STUBBORN, confident, beautiful, & have grown into an extremely strong young lady. Your strength shines through your eyes & in everything you do. I've always admired the goals you set for yourself, your determination, & endless hours of hard work you put in to achieve those goals. Keep your faith, work hard, reach for the stars, & you will fulfill your dreams! Remember to always make time for laughter & prayer everyday & know that I have always been & will continue to be your biggest fan. I love you with every bit of my heart & soul.

Love,
 Mommy

Ally,
 Oh how quickly time has flown. I am so proud of the young lady that you have become. You are so beautiful, inside and out. Your values, morals, integrity, thoughts & actions speak so loudly of your character. While I have spent the last 18 years preparing you to become this young lady, I have forgotten to prepare myself for the change in our household of you leaving for college. So as I try to grab hugs from you throughout the day, kiss you on your forehead or tuck you in at night, please keep in mind that I am trying to savor every moment.

As you approach this new chapter in your life, remember, you are loved and supported. You will face many challenges, obstacles and opportunities. Keep focused, never stop believing in yourself, have faith and be courageous. I have no doubt that you will succeed in anything you put your heart and soul into. Success is determined by who you are and how you live your life. Lastly, don't ever let anyone steal your sparkle!

I love you dearly.
 Love,
 Mom

Ally,
 As my firstborn finishes one chapter and begins another I am elated at what you have accomplished. They are some of my proudest and fun memories. From "superehunk" to Homecoming Queen and our late breakfast dates after Bear in the Big Blue House. From tea parties with stuffed animals to teaching you how to throw "like a boy". From your first taste of hot sauce to your exclusive air guitar solo on our road trips. From your special time while hunting, "peeling" deer all the way to your stubborn attitude when I made you change the tires on your first car. And from my tomboy who wouldn't wear pink to the headstrong and carefree young woman you are now. Never change who you are. DTFL, and always know we love you and have your back.

I love you, lil bit.
 Love,
 Dad

Zachary,
 It doesn't seem possible that the time has come to close the chapter on high school and continue your journey in life. Although you may face challenges along the way, your desire to achieve and your perseverance will insure success. We are proud of you and all of your accomplishments, and we will always be your biggest fans!

Love always,

SHELBY REBECCA MCDONALD

Dear Shelly,
 The Lord blessed us with one of our greatest gifts on April 17, 1998. Throughout the years, you have given us such joy watching you become the beautiful person both inside and out. You have reached the first of many milestones in your life. Remember the values you believe in and stay true to yourself. As you travel down the road of life, expect the challenges. However, have faith in the Lord and remember that your family will always be there. Reach for your dreams and do not settle for less. Mom and Dad will always love you!

Love you always,
 Mom and Dad

Shelly,
 I am so incredibly proud of you and all of your accomplishments. I can't wait to watch you grow as a person and excel in everything you do. Be thankful for every opportunity that comes your way and always give 110%. Study hard, but don't forget to relax and have a little fun because the next four years will fly by, trust me. No matter where life takes you, just remember that I will always be your number one fan and best friend.

Love always,
 Sarah

Dylan,

We closed our eyes for a moment and suddenly a man stood where a boy used to be. We may not carry you now in our arms but we will always carry you in our heart. You have given us so many reasons to be proud of the man you have become, but the proudest moment for us is telling others you are our son. We love you now and forever.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Tyler O'Neal Westbury

Tyler,

I closed my eyes for but a moment and suddenly a man stood where a boy used to be. I may not carry you now in my arms but I will always carry you in my heart. You have given me so many reasons to be proud of the man you have become but the proudest moment for me is telling others that you are my son.

I wish you the strength to face challenges with confidence, along with wisdom to choose your battles carefully. I wish adventure on your journey and may you always stop to help someone along the way. Listen to your heart and take risks carefully.

You are my son, my best friend, my rock and my world. Thank you for being the best son that a Mom could ever dream of having.

I love you "PD" !!!!!

Love, Mom

TyTy,

We have had good times and bad times and you have always been there for me whether it was to laugh with me or to wipe my tears. You're not just my big brother, you're also my second "Dad", my best friend and my hero.

I love you "Bubba" and I will always be your biggest fan.

Love, Braeden

JOSHUA CRAVEN

Joshua,

It doesn't seem possible that the time is here for you to be graduating high school. It was just yesterday we were at baseball games and you were the little kid in front of the stands mimicking everything the catcher did. Nor does it seem that long ago, when you sat in the stands at football games with us on Friday nights and we talked about what was happening on the field. It amazed the people around us to hear this little kid that knew as much about football as some of them did.

We are proud of the young man you have become and all of the accomplishments that you have earned in scholastics, sports, and in just being a good person. We have seen that when you set your mind to accomplish something that you will do it. Our hope for you is that you will Dream Big and never settle. There is no goal that you can't obtain if you make up your mind to do it. The future will be whatever you make out of it and the only thing that can hold you back is you.

So whether you answer to "Squirt", "Cheddar", "Sheep Dog", Josh, or whatever new nickname comes your way, always remember that to us you will be "Son" and we love you.

Mom and Dad

The whole family is behind you and couldn't be more proud of the man you have become.
