

J. H. A. ACTIVITIES

The Junior Homemakers Association is a state organization for girls and by girls studying Home Economics. The purpose of this organization is: to develop girls as girls; to develop a spirit of cooperation in the school and community; to strengthen the confidence of the girl in herself and in her work; through encouraging her to assume responsibility for purpose and activities individually and in a group.

The Cottageville J. H. A. was organized in 1940 under the leadership of Miss Gaines. It functioned again very successfully again in 1941. Cottageville Chapter was the first in the county to pay its state dues and the only one to make the Honor Roll.

The Officers of the J. H. A. are:

President---Pearl Blanton
Vice-President---Helen Adams
Secretary---Doris Adams
Treasury---Johnnie Redman
Social Chairman---Lily Mae Spell
Program Chairman---Syble Reeves

The members are: Elizabeth Ackerman, Bessie Adams, Gwendolyn Ackerman, Wanda Addison, Elvenia Blanton, Sara Neese, Irma Rhode, Lucile Rhode, Serena Rhode, and Mary Louise Reeves.

Johnnie Redman and Miss Gaines attended the State J. H. A. Convention at Winthrop College March 28th, 29th, and 30th. The delegates elected new officers and voted to assess each J. H. A. member 10¢ for state dues instead of $2.00 per chapter. While they were there they made reservations for the Cottageville J. H. A.'s at Whialhalla for June 3rd to 10th.

The Cottageville J. H. A. and F. E. A. broadcast over W.C.S.C., Charleston in January. The topic of the program was Providing Food for the Family for Home Gardens and Community Canrery. The broadcast was presented in play form using the sub-topic, "How the Graft Family Paid their Mortgage." The script was written by Helen Adams, Miss Gaines, and Mr. Williams. Helen, Pearl, and Doris were the girls who took part in the broadcast.

The J. H. A. entertained the F. F. A. at a Christmas party in the school building on December 19th. They gave Syble Reeves and Miriam Reeves a shower and entertained the F.F.A. at another party in spring.

The J.H.A. girls went to the State Fair. They spent the day and saw many friends; Mr. Alex Willis, Mrs Allen Adams, and Mrs Berry Adams carried the group.
