

DAVIDSON-1942

MAY IT LIVE FOREVER

May it live forever—and there is something that must live forever, in the hearts and minds of every DAVIDSON man—the spirit, thoughts, activities, life, loves and troubles of its students; and what the name DAVIDSON does and should mean to everyone that has come to know and love it.

This year we were confronted with a war—one in which we must do our part, and forego many luxuries and other things to which we are accustomed. This did not daunt the spirit of DAVIDSON; rather it was an impetus to the work and strength of this great institution, and gave it a chance to show what DAVIDSON has done for its men, and what DAVIDSON men can do and are doing. For this reason and because we believe that this year is one that will live long in the memory of all, we have attempted to present a picture of life and happenings
