

DR. JOHN R. CUNNINGHAM
President of the College

OUR PRESIDENT

Dr. Cunningham came to us in the spring of 1941 as successor to Dr. Lingle; and brought with him a pleasing personality, an interest in every student's well-being, and a keen desire for the future of Davidson. Dr. Cunningham has done a great deal for the College in his first year as president, and we are indeed fortunate to have such a man president of our college. Our president holds this office as successor to a distinguished group of men:

REV. ROBERT H. MORRISON (1836-1840)	REV. ANDREW D. HEPBURN (1877-1885)
REV. SAMUEL WILLIAMSON (1841-1854)	REV. LUTHER MCKINNON (1885-1888)
REV. DRURY LACY (1855-1860)	REV. JOHN B. SHEARER (1888-1901)
